Dear Participant:

New York Life Trust Company, as Trustee of the Pfizer Common Stock held in the Minerals Technologies Inc. Savings and Investment Plan, has been requested to forward to you the enclosed proxy materials relative to the securities held by us in your account but not registered in your name. Such securities can be voted only by us as holder of record. We shall be pleased to vote your securities in accordance with your wishes if you will execute the enclosed form and return it to us promptly in the business reply envelope. It is understood that, if you sign without otherwise marking the form, the securities will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors on all matters to be considered at the meeting.

For this meeting, the extent of our authority to vote your securities in the absence of your instructions, as directed by the Minerals Technologies Inc. Savings and Investment Plan, is that securities for which no voting instructions are given will be voted in the same ratio as the ratio in which the total shares with respect to which timely directions are received are voted in such matters. In order to ensure that your securities are voted as you wish, please return your proxy to us by April 26, 2011.
