Management Comments

“We are very pleased with our quarterly results, which reflect our continuous efforts to execute on our strategic growth plan to diversify our customer base and technology offering,” commented Eitan Oppenheim, President and Chief Executive Officer of Nova. “The second quarter results solidify the progress we are making with both our Dimensional and Materials metrology solutions for advanced 3D NAND and DRAM device manufacturing. We believe that the expanded customer base, along with our differentiated technology, presents a larger market for us to pursue as we continue to execute effectively our long-term growth plans,” concluded Mr. Oppenheim.

2018 Third Quarter Financial Outlook

Management provided an outlook for the third quarter, the period ending September 30, 2018. Based on current estimates, management expects:

·$58 million to $64 million in revenue

·$0.32 to $0.44 in diluted GAAP EPS

·$0.37 to $0.49 in diluted non-GAAP EPS

2018 Second Quarter Results

Total revenues for the second quarter of 2018 were $61.9 million, a decrease of 1% compared to the first quarter of 2018 and a year-over-year increase of 10% relative to the second quarter of 2017.

Gross margin for the second quarter of 2018 was 58%, unchanged from gross margin in the first quarter of 2018 and compared to the gross margin of 59% in the second quarter of 2017.

Operating expenses in the second quarter of 2018 were $22.1 million, compared with $20.3 the first quarter of 2018 and compared with $17.7 million in the second quarter of 2017.

On a GAAP basis, the company reported net income of $11.8 million, or $0.41 per diluted share, in the second quarter of 2018. This press release provides financial measures that exclude charges for amortization of acquired intangible assets, certain discrete tax items and stock-based compensation expenses and are therefore not calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Management believes that these non-GAAP financial measures provide meaningful supplemental information regarding Nova's performance because they reflect our operational results and enhances management's and investors' ability to evaluate Nova's performance before charges or benefits considered by management to be outside Nova's ongoing operating results. The presentation of this non-GAAP financial information is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP. Management believes that it is in the best interest of its investors to provide financial information that will facilitate comparison of both historical and future results and allows greater transparency to supplemental information used by management in its financial and operational decision making. A reconciliation of each GAAP to non-GAAP financial measure discussed in this press release is contained in the accompanying financial tables.

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 relating to future events or our future performance, such as statements regarding, but are not limited to, anticipated growth opportunities and projections about our business and its future revenues, expenses and profitability. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements expressed or implied in those forward-looking statements. Factors that may affect our results, performance, circumstances or achievements include, but are not limited to, the following: our dependency on three product lines; our dependency on a small number of large customers and small number of suppliers; the highly cyclical and competitive nature of the markets we target and we operate in; our inability to reduce spending during a slowdown in the semiconductor industry; our ability to respond effectively on a timely basis to rapid technological changes; our dependency on PEMs; risks related to exclusivity obligations and non-limited liability that may be included in our commercial agreements and arrangements; our ability to retain our competitive position despite the ongoing consolidation in our industry; risks related to our dependence on our manufacturing facilities; risks related to changes in our order backlog; risks related to efforts to complete and integrate current and/or future acquisitions; risks related to the worldwide financial instabilities; risks related to our intellectual property; new product offerings from our competitors; unanticipated manufacturing or supply problems; risks related to government programs we participate in; risks related to taxation; changes in customer demand for our products; risks related to currency fluctuations; risks related to technology security threats and changes in privacy laws; risks related to acquisitions we may pursue and risks related to our operations in Israel. We cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. The matters discussed in this press release also involve risks and uncertainties summarized under the heading “Risk Factors” in Nova’s Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2017 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 28, 2018. These factors are updated from time to time through the filing of reports and registration statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Nova Measuring Instruments Ltd. does not assume any obligation to update the forward-looking information contained in this press release.
