Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

To reinforce the importance of meeting the scheduled June 25, 2016 opening date for the Wynn Palace project in the Cotai area of Macau in light of concerns with the progress of our general contractor, Leighton Contractors (Asia) Limited (“Leighton”), Wynn Macau, Limited, an indirect subsidiary of Wynn Resorts, Limited, issued the following letter to Leighton on January 26, 2016:

“Wynn Palace - Liability for Payment of Liquidated Damages for Delay

We are concerned that with your current levels of progress in the execution of the Work, you will fail to achieve the Third Interim Milestone (Tower Fit-out of floors 10/15). The Contract provides that you will be liable to pay US$200,000 per day for each day of delay for achievement of this Interim Milestone and, accordingly, in the region of between US$8-10 million could become payable by the end of February 2016 in respect of this Interim Milestone.

With respect to our previous Notice of your failure to achieve the First Interim Milestone which was sent to you in January 2016, and your liability under the Contract for the payment of liquidated damages for delay, US$1 million will be deducted from your December 2015 payment application. Your liability for payment of delay damages up to the end of January 2016 is likely to amount to an additional US$6.2 million.

We wish to remind you of your obligations under the Contract to achieve Interim Milestones and Substantial Completion of the Work by late June 2016. Please be informed that it is our intention to deduct any liquidated damages which become payable by you from payments which are otherwise due to you under the Contract in respect of any failure by you to meet your completion obligations under the Contract. Your total aggregate potential liability under the Contract for delay damages is US$200,000,000. Needless to say, per your election to forgo the early completion option, you are now no longer eligible to receive an early completion bonus of approximately US$38,000,000.

You are also aware that a Parent Completion Guarantee was provided by your parent company, formerly Leighton Holding Limited, on 28 November 2012 and Performance Bonds have also been provided in accordance with the requirements of the Contract, as security for your obligations under the Contract.”

Leighton has advised us that they dispute our notices and assessment of liquidated damages.
