Includes non-cash amortization of OID. 2. Cash income producing investments represent those CLO debt and equity investments (excluding warehouses) which made a distribution payment to OXLC for the quarters ending 12/31/18 and 9/30/18, respectively. At current cost, OXLC had ~$81.4 million and ~$97.9 million of CLO equity investments which were non-cash income producing for the quarters ending 12/31/18 and 9/30/18, respectively, but are all projected to be cash income producing and make their inaugural distribution payment no later than the quarter ending 6/30/19. The yield is calculated by taking the quarterly distributions received, annualizing such amount and dividing by the current cost basis of the cash income producing investments for the quarters ending 12/31/18 and 9/30/18, respectively. 1. Exposures are determined by calculating the aggregate principal balance of the underlying corporate debt collateral held by OXLC's CLO investments within the Moody's industries indicated and dividing by the aggregate principal balance of all of the CLO vehicles' underlying corporate debt collateral (excluding cash) on a weighted average basis for OXLC's investments in each of those CLO vehicles. Weighted average exposures are as of December 31, 2018 and exclude recent CLO investments with missing or incomplete industry data, subordinated fee notes and other CLO equity related investments. Reconciliation of Core Net Investment Income We provide information relating to core net investment income (“Core NII”) (a non-GAAP measure) on a supplemental basis. This measure is not provided as a substitute for GAAP net investment income (“GAAP NII”), but in addition to it. Our non-GAAP measures may differ from similar measures by other companies, even in the event of similar terms being utilized to identify such measures. Core NII represents GAAP NII adjusted for additional cash distributions received, or entitled to be received (if any, in either case), on our CLO equity investments. Income from investments in the “equity” class securities of CLO vehicles, for GAAP purposes, is recorded using the effective interest method – this is based on an effective yield to the expected redemption utilizing estimated cash flows at current cost. The result is an effective yield for the investment in which the difference between the actual cash received, or distributions entitled to be received, and the effective yield calculation is adjusted from the cost. Accordingly, investment income recognized on CLO equity securities in the GAAP statement of operations differs from the cash distributions actually received by the Company during the period (referred to below as “CLO equity adjustments”). Furthermore, in order for the Company to continue qualifying as a regulated investment company for tax purposes, we are required, among other things, to distribute at least 90% of our investment company taxable income annually. Therefore, Core NII may provide a better indication of our estimated taxable income for a reporting period than GAAP NII; we can offer no assurance that will be the case, however, as the ultimate tax character of our earnings cannot be determined until after tax returns are prepared at the close of a fiscal year. We note that these non-GAAP measures may not serve as useful indicators of taxable earnings, particularly during periods of market disruption and volatility, and, as such, our taxable income may differ materially from our Core NII.
