ELECTION OF TRUSTEES

The number of Trustees of the Company is established at seven pursuant to resolutions passed by the Board of Trustees in accordance with the Company's Declaration of Trust, as amended. Trustees will be elected by the majority of votes cast at the Annual Meeting, in person or by Proxy, for the nominees. Pursuant to applicable Washington law, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote for the election of Trustees. Under the Company's Declaration of Trust, as amended, cumulative voting in the election of Trustees is not permitted.

The Board of Trustees is divided into three classes. Each class of Trustees is elected for a three-year term. Michel Arnulphy has been a Trustee since June 1995 and is a member of Class III to be elected to the Board of Trustees to serve until the annual meeting of Shareholders to be held in 2006, or until his successor is elected and qualified. Ryu, who has declined to stand for re-election, to serve until the annual meeting of Shareholders to be held in 2006, or until his successor is elected and qualified. Messrs. If for any unforeseen reason any of the nominees declines or is unable to serve, proxies will be voted for the election of such other person or persons as shall be designated by the Trustees. Proxies received which do not specify a choice for the election of the nominees will be voted FOR each of the nominees. THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES RECOMMENDS A VOTE IN FAVOR OF EACH NOMINEE.

Non-management Trustees receive $20,000 annually for their services and $500 for each meeting of the Board of Trustees that they attend. The Company also reimburses Trustees and officers for expenses incurred in connection with their duties as Trustees and officers. Trustees that are not also officers or employees of the Company and who are in office at the end of a fiscal year may receive options to acquire up to 6,000 Shares at an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Shares on the NASDAQ National Market on the last trading day of a fiscal year.

Indemnity Agreements

The Company has entered into a Trustee's Indemnity Agreement with each of the Trustees. The Company has agreed under each of these agreements to indemnify each of the Trustees against any and all claims and costs that are or may be brought against him as a result of his being a Trustee, officer or employee of the Company or that of a company related to the Company. However, under the agreements, the Company is not obligated to indemnify a Trustee against any claims or costs in certain instances, including if it is determined that the Trustee failed to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company, if the Trustee failed to disclose his interest or conflicts as required under corporate legislation in Washington or the Company is not permitted to indemnify the Trustee under such legislation, or if the Trustee has violated any insider trading rules under United States federal and state securities laws.

If there is a change in control (as defined in the agreement) of the Company other than a change in control which has been approved by a majority of the Board of Trustees, the Company is required to seek legal advice as to whether and to what extent a Trustee would be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law. In addition, the agreements allow the Company to defend any claim made against a Trustee.

Employment Agreements

Mr. Lee is a party to an amended and restated employment agreement dated November 20, 2000 with the Company. The agreement generally provides, subject to certain termination provisions, for the continued employment of Mr. Lee as president and chief executive officer for a period of 36 months with automatic one month renewals, so that the contract at all times has a remaining term of 36 months. The agreement provides for a base salary of $240,000 (which is paid in a foreign currency) and other compensation as determined by the Board of Trustees. The agreement contains change in control provisions pursuant to which, if a change in control (as defined in the agreement) occurs, Mr. Lee may only be discharged for cause. In the event Mr. Lee is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason (as defined in the agreement) within eighteen months of the change in control, he shall be entitled to a severance payment of three times his annual salary under the agreement and all unvested rights in any stock option or other benefit plans shall vest in full. If Mr. Lee is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason within three years of the change in control, he shall be entitled to a severance payment of three times the sum of his then annual salary under the agreement plus the higher of his last annual bonus and the highest bonus received during the preceding five years. In addition, all unvested rights in any stock option or other benefit plans will vest in full. Mr. Lee will also continue to receive equivalent benefits as were provided at the date of termination for the remaining term of the agreement.

Mr. Lee may terminate his employment with the Company at any time for good reason (as described in his employment agreement) within 180 days after the occurrence of the good reason event.

Incentive Bonus Plan

The Company adopted an employee incentive bonus plan ("EIP") which provides for the award of interests in an incentive bonus pool established under the plan to Trustees, officers and employees of the Company. The purpose of the plan is to attract and retain the services of qualified people and to provide additional incentive to them by granting them the opportunity to participate in the Company's profits. Under the plan, up to 5% of the Company's Net Income (as defined in the plan) for each fiscal year is set aside as a bonus pool. Units in the bonus pool may be granted by the Board of Trustees at its discretion to eligible persons during a fiscal year. The amount payable to a person from the bonus pool equals the percentage of the total number of units granted during the fiscal year which are held by the person at the end of the fiscal year.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

C.S. Moon and Michel Arnulphy served as members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees during the year ended December 31, 2002. Neither Mr. Moon nor Mr. Arnulphy was an officer or employee of the Company during the year ended December 31, 2002, or has formerly been an officer of the Company.

Report of the Trustees on Executive Compensation

The compensation of the Company's executive officers is determined on an annual basis by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees in consultation with management. The Compensation Committee is composed of non-employee Trustees of the Company and the members of the Compensation Committee are independent under the standards of the NASDAQ National Market.

The Company's compensation philosophy for executive officers is performance-based and is meant to motivate executive officers to achieve and maintain superior performance levels. To this end, the Company maintains annual base salaries for executive officers at relatively low amounts and awards annual bonuses and long-term incentives in the form of stock options to executive officers. In implementing the Company's compensation philosophy, the Compensation Committee considers, among other things, financial and operating targets for the Company for a period and the contribution of the executive officer in achieving these targets, the contribution of the executive officer to the business and operation of the Company generally, as well as total shareholder return.

Base salaries for executive officers are based upon, among other things, job responsibilities, experience and performance of the executive officer, which involves an assessment of an executive officer's skills, judgment, application of knowledge and support of corporate values and priorities. In addition, the impact an executive officer is expected to make to the business of the Company in the future is considered.

Bonuses are granted to the Company's executive officers pursuant to the EIP. Interests in the bonus pool established under the EIP are awarded to executive officers based on the expectations of the Trustees and management for, among other things, the financial and operating performance of the Company in a particular period and the contribution of an executive officer in achieving targets. The Compensation Committee also considers the contribution of the executive officers to the business and operation of the Company generally.

Executive officers may also be granted long-term incentives in the form of stock options under the Company's stock option plan. Options are generally granted based upon the long-term financial and operating expectations of the Trustees and management for the Company and the contribution an executive officer is expected to make in the future in achieving targets. Stock options produce value to executive officers only if the price of the Company's Shares appreciate, thereby directly linking the interests of executive officers with those of shareholders.

In determining the compensation of the Company's chief executive officer for 2002, the Compensation Committee evaluated Mr. Lee based on the criteria set forth above. In determining Mr. Lee's bonus award for 2002 under the EIP, the Compensation Committee considered, among other things, the operating performance of the Company in a difficult global economic environment for pulp and paper companies, the contributions made by Mr. Lee in reducing operating costs and bolstering the current and long-term competitive position of the Company during 2002 and the progress made by the Company with respect to the project to construct a kraft pulp mill near the town of Stendal, Germany and the contributions made by Mr. Lee in this regard. No options to acquire Shares of the Company were granted to executive officers, including Mr. Lee, in 2002. However, Mr. Lee holds a significant number of options to acquire Shares of the Company, the exercise prices of which are higher than the current trading price of the Shares on the NASDAQ National Market.

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Company will appoint Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's new independent auditors in place of Peterson Sullivan PLLC effective at the Annual Meeting. As a matter of good corporate practice, the Company intends to seek Shareholder ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche at the Annual Meeting. The Company will also appoint Deloitte & Touche as the auditors for the Company's significant subsidiaries effective as of the Annual Meeting. The decision to change auditors was recommended and approved by the Company's Audit Committee and also approved by the Board of Trustees.

Peterson Sullivan's reports on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002 and the subsequent interim period ended March 31, 2003: (i) there were no disagreements between the Company and Peterson Sullivan on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Peterson Sullivan would have caused Peterson Sullivan to reference the subject matter of the disagreement in its reports; and (ii) there were no "reportable events" as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K of the Commission.

During the last two complete fiscal years and through the date hereof, neither the Company nor its significant subsidiaries consulted Deloitte & Touche with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events as set forth in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

The appointment of Deloitte & Touche must be ratified by the majority of votes cast at the Annual Meeting, in person or by Proxy, in favor of such ratification. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against such ratification.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF DELOITTE & TOUCHE LLP AS THE COMPANY'S AUDITORS.

In the event Deloitte & Touche are not ratified as the company's auditors at the Annual Meeting, the Company's Audit Committee will consider whether to retain Deloitte & Touche or appoint another firm. The Audit Committee may appoint another firm as the Company's auditors without the approval of Shareholders, even if Shareholders ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche at the Annual Meeting.

APPENDIX "B"

MERCER INTERNATIONAL INC. CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Purpose

The Board of Trustees (the "Board") of Mercer International Inc. ("Mercer" or the "Company") has adopted this Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") in connection with Section 406 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Code applies to Mercer's Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Financial Officer, and all other executive officers (collectively, the "Officers"), to all other employees of Mercer and its majority-owned subsidiaries, and to the members of the Board (the "Trustees"). The Code is designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote: (i) honest and ethical conduct; (ii) avoidance of conflicts of interest; (iii) full, fair, accurate and timely disclosure in Mercer's public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"); (iv) compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations; (v) prompt internal reporting to the Board or a committee of the Board of violations of the Code; and (vi) accountability for adherence to the Code.

The Board believes the Code should be an evolving set of guidelines, subject to alteration as circumstances warrant. Any modification to or waiver of the Code may be made only by the Board, will be promptly disclosed as required by SEC rules and other applicable laws and regulations.

Those who violate the standards in the Code will be subject to disciplinary action, which may include loss of pay, termination, referral for criminal prosecution and reimbursement to the Company or others for any losses or damages resulting from the violation. If you are in a situation which you believe may violate or lead to a violation of this Code, you must inform the Audit Committee of the Board as soon as practicable.

Ethical Principles

Each Trustee, Officer and employee is expected to conduct his or her affairs with honesty and integrity, and is required to adhere to the highest ethical standards in carrying out his or her duties on behalf of the Company. Trustees, Officers and employees are expected to be honest and ethical in dealing with each other, clients, vendors and third parties. All Trustees, Officers and employees' actions must be free from illegal discrimination, libel, slander or harassment. Each person must be accorded equal opportunities in compliance with applicable law.

Conflicts of Interest

All of us must be able to perform our duties and exercise judgment on behalf of Mercer without influence or impairment, or the appearance of influence or impairment, due to any activity, interest or relationship that arises outside of work. Put more simply, when our loyalty to Mercer is affected by actual or potential benefit or influence from an outside source, a conflict of interest exists. We should all be aware of any potential influences that impact or appear to impact our loyalty to Mercer. In general, we should avoid situations where our personal interests conflict, or appear to conflict, with those of Mercer.

Any time you believe a conflict of interest may exist, Officers and Trustees must disclose the potential conflict of interest in writing to their supervisor and to the Audit Committee. Employees can disclose their actual or apparent conflicts of interest to their supervisors or managing directors. Any activity that is approved, despite the actual or apparent conflict, must be documented. A potential conflict of interest that involves an Officer must be approved in writing by the Audit Committee.

It is not possible to describe every conflict of interest, but some situations that could cause a conflict of interest include:

- * Doing business with family members, including your spouse, parents, children, siblings and in-laws
- * Having a financial interest in another company with whom Mercer does business
- * Managing your own business

Edgar Filing: MERCER INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

- * Serving as a director of another business
- * Being a leader in some organizations
- * Diverting a business opportunity from Mercer to another company

Employing Friends and Relatives

Employing relatives or close friends who report directly to you may also be a conflict of interest. Although our company encourages employees to refer candidates for job openings, employees who may influence a hiring decision must avoid giving an unfair advantage to anyone with whom they have a personal relationship. In particular, you should not hire relatives or attempt to influence any decisions about the employment or advancement of people related to or otherwise close to you, unless you have disclosed the relationship as provided herein and the decision has been approved.

Ownership in Other Businesses

Investments can cause a conflict of interest. In general, you and your family members should not own, directly or indirectly, a significant financial interest in any company that does business with Mercer or seeks to do business with Mercer or in any of our competitors.

Service on Boards

Serving as a director of another corporation may create a conflict of interest. Being a director or serving on a standing committee of some organizations, including government agencies, also may create a conflict. Before accepting an appointment to the board or a committee of any organization whose interests may conflict with Mercer's interests, you must discuss it with and obtain written approval from the Audit Committee. This rule does not apply to non-employee Trustees.

Public Filings and Communications

The Officers are responsible for ensuring full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in the reports and documents that the Company files with the SEC and in the Company's other public communications (collectively, "Reports"). However, if you are requested to provide information to be included in, or to participate in the preparation of, Reports, you are responsible for providing such information and preparing such Reports in a manner that will help to ensure full, fair, accurate and timely disclosure.

Accounting, Recordkeeping and Personal Transactions

Mercer requires honest and accurate recording and reporting of information in order to make responsible business decisions. All Mercer books, records, accounts and financial statements must be maintained in reasonable detail, must appropriately reflect Mercer's transactions and must conform both to applicable legal requirements and to Mercer's system of internal controls. Unrecorded or "off-the-books" funds or assets should not be maintained unless permitted by applicable law or regulation and approved by Mercer's principal financial officer.

Many employees regularly use business expense accounts, which must be documented and recorded accurately. If you are not sure whether a certain expense is legitimate, ask your supervisor or the accounting department.

Business records and communications often become public. Avoid exaggeration, derogatory remarks, guesswork, or inappropriate characterizations of people and companies in all e-mail, internal memos and reports. Records should always be retained or destroyed according to Mercer's record retention policies. In accordance with those policies and in the event of litigation or governmental investigation, please consult the Audit Committee or the Company's counsel for instructions.

If you suspect misconduct, irregularity, or other questionable matters regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, immediately contact your supervisor, the general counsel or the audit committee.

Relations with Auditors

None of us shall directly or indirectly attempt to coerce, influence, manipulate, or mislead any of the Company's independent or internal financial staff or auditors in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements. This prohibits not only threats, bribery and blackmail, but also offering non-bribe financial incentives such as future employment or engagements and providing misleading information or analysis. If you become aware of any such attempt, promptly report it in writing to the Audit Committee.

Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

Obeying the law is the foundation on which Mercer's ethical standards are built. All Trustees, Officers and employees must respect and obey the laws, rules and regulations of the cities, states and countries in which Mercer operates. Although not all employees are expected to know the details of these laws, it is important to know enough to determine when to seek advice from supervisors, managers, counsel or other appropriate personnel. If an employee suspects misconduct, he or she may anonymously report it to supervisors, managers, counsel or the Audit Committee.

Insider Trading

Confidential information is the Company's property and you may not improperly use it for your personal benefit. Trustees, Officers and employees who have access to confidential information are not permitted to use or share that information for stock trading purposes or for any other purpose except the conduct of Mercer's business. All non-public information about Mercer or its customers should be considered confidential information. To use non-public information for personal financial benefit or to "tip" others who might make an investment decision on the basis of this information is both unethical and illegal. Mercer will cooperate with any investigation by the SEC or other law enforcement authorities regarding the misuse of Mercer's confidential information.

Corporate Opportunities

You may not take for yourself business opportunities discovered through the use of Mercer's property, information, or position, and you may not use Mercer's property or information or your position for personal gain. Trustees, Officers and employees owe a duty to Mercer to advance Mercer's legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises.

Discrimination and Harassment

Mercer's long-standing policy is to offer fair and equal employment opportunity to every person regardless of age, race, color, creed, religion, disability, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, or other legally protected status, as required by law. Mercer seeks to provide a work environment that is free from intimidation and harassment based on any of these characteristics and Mercer specifically prohibits such intimidation and harassment.

Health and Safety

Mercer strives to provide each employee with a safe and healthful work environment. Each employee is responsible for maintaining a safe and healthy workplace for all employees by following safety and health rules and practices and reporting incidents, injuries and unsafe equipment, practices or conditions. Violence and threatening behavior are never permitted for any reason. Employees must report to work in condition to perform their duties, free from the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol and the use of illegal drugs in the workplace will not be tolerated.

Environmental Protection

Mercer is an environmentally responsible company and operates its facilities in compliance with applicable environmental, health and safety regulations and in a manner that has the regard for the safety and well being of its employees and the general public. Necessary permits, approvals and controls are maintained at all Mercer facilities and Mercer strives to improve products, packaging and manufacturing operations to minimize their environmental impact.

You are responsible for complying with all applicable environmental laws, regulations and Mercer policies and for diligently following the proper procedures with respect to the handling and disposal of hazardous materials. Mercer insists that its suppliers and contractors also follow appropriate environmental laws and guidelines. If you have questions or concerns relating to Mercer's environmental compliance requirements or activities, you should contact your local supervisor.

Protection and Proper Use of Company Assets

Mercer's resources should be used only for legitimate business purposes and for the benefit of the Company. All of us should endeavor to protect Mercer's assets and ensure their efficient use. Theft, carelessness, and waste directly impact Mercer's profitability. Any suspected incident of fraud or theft should be immediately reported for investigation. Mercer equipment should not be used for non-Company business, though incidental personal use may be permitted.

Our obligation to protect Mercer's assets includes its proprietary information, including intellectual property such as trade secrets, patents, trademarks, and copyrights, as well as business, marketing and service plans, engineering and manufacturing ideas, designs, databases, records, salary information and any unpublished financial data and reports. Unauthorized use or distribution of this information would violate Company policy and could result in civil or criminal penalties.

International Operations

The United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act prohibits giving anything of value, directly or indirectly, to officials of foreign governments or foreign political candidates in order to obtain or retain business. It is strictly prohibited to make illegal payments to government officials of any country.

In addition, the United States government has a number of laws and regulations regarding business gratuities which may be accepted by United States government personnel. The promise, offer or delivery to an official or employee of the

United States government of a gift, favor or other gratuity in violation of these rules would not only violate Company policy but could also be a criminal offense. State and local governments, as well as foreign governments, may have similar rules. If you need any guidance regarding relationships with government personnel please consult the Company's counsel.

All Mercer employees worldwide must comply with Mercer policies and procedures applicable to international business transactions, with the legal requirements and ethical standards of each country in which they conduct Mercer business and with all U.S. laws applicable in other countries, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Reporting Concerns

Any Officer or employee who has a concern about the Company's conduct, its disclosure, accounting or internal controls or about a possible violation of the Code is strongly encouraged to report that concern to any non-employee Trustee, the Audit Committee or other committee of the Board as may be designated from time to time.

The Company will forward all such concerns to the appropriate Trustee and/or the Audit Committee or other Board committee for review, and the status of all such outstanding concerns will be reported to the Board on a quarterly basis. The non-employee Trustees, the Audit Committee or other Board committee may direct special treatment, including the retention of outside advisors or counsel, for any concern addressed to them. Any retaliation or adverse action against anyone for raising or helping to resolve an integrity concern is absolutely prohibited.

THIS CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS IS NOT A CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT OR A GUARANTEE OF CONTINUING MERCER POLICY. THE COMPANY MAY AMEND, SUPPLEMENT OR DISCONTINUE THIS CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS OR ANY PART OF IT AT ANY TIME.
