

Edgar Filing: NEWMONT MINING CORP /DE/ - Form 8-K

On February 20, 2002, Newmont, through an direct, wholly owned limited liability company, acquired control of Normandy Mining Limited, an Australian corporation ("Normandy"), pursuant to an off-market bid for all of the outstanding ordinary shares (including shares represented by Normandy ADSs) in the capital of Normandy. Subject to the terms of the offer, each Normandy ordinary shareholder who tendered shares received 0.0385 of a share of Newmont common stock and A$0.50 in exchange for each Normandy ordinary share. In connection with the offer, Old Newmont entered into three Deeds of Undertaking with Normandy, two of which are dated as of November 14, 2001 and one of which is dated as of December 10, 2001 (the "Deeds of Undertaking"). The Deeds of Undertaking, which are filed as Exhibit 2.2 to this report, are incorporated by reference.

Old Newmont mailed a bidder's statement to each Normandy shareholder with a registered address outside the United States and Canada. Old Newmont mailed an offer document to each Normandy shareholder with a registered address in the United States or Canada on or about January 11, 2002. Old Newmont also mailed a definitive proxy statement/prospectus to its stockholders (who, as described in Item 5 below, became stockholders of Newmont on February 15, 2002) on or about January 11, 2002. The offer document and definitive proxy statement/prospectus set forth certain information regarding Newmont's proposed acquisition of Franco-Nevada and Normandy, including, but not limited to, the manner of Newmont's acquisition of Franco-Nevada and Normandy; the nature and amount of consideration offered by Newmont; the nature of any material relationship between Franco-Nevada or Normandy, on the one hand, and Newmont or any of Newmont's affiliates, any director or officer of Newmont, or any associate of any such director or officer, on the other; the sources of the funds to be used by Newmont; the nature of Franco-Nevada's and Normandy's businesses; and Newmont's intended use of the Franco-Nevada and Normandy assets acquired. Excerpts from pages 2, 7-9, 12-14, 48-63, 100-115 and 159-160 of the offer document, which are filed as Exhibit 20.1 to this report, are incorporated by reference. Excerpts from pages 1-2, 7-9, 48-49 and 54-71 of the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, which are filed as Exhibit 20.2 to this report, are incorporated by reference.

ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

On February 15, 2002, Delta Acquisitionco Corp., a Delaware corporation ("Acquisitionco"), merged with and into Old Newmont (the "Reorganization"), with Old Newmont as the surviving corporation, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 8, 2002 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Old Newmont, Delta Holdco Corp. (now called "Newmont Mining Corporation"), a Delaware corporation and, prior to the Reorganization, a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Old Newmont ("New Newmont"), and Acquisitionco, which was a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of New Newmont prior to the Reorganization. As a result of the Reorganization, Old Newmont became a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of New Newmont.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (1) each issued and outstanding share of Old Newmont common stock was converted into one share of New Newmont common stock, (2) each issued and outstanding share of Old Newmont $3.25 convertible preferred stock was converted into one share of New Newmont $3.25 voting convertible preferred stock, (3) each share of New Newmont common stock issued and held by Old Newmont ceased to be outstanding and was cancelled and retired and (4) each issued and outstanding share of Acquisitionco common stock was converted into one share of Old Newmont common stock. The Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.3 to this report, is incorporated by reference.

Upon completion of the Reorganization, New Newmont became the successor registrant for U.S. securities law purposes to Old Newmont. New Newmont common stock commenced trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on February 19, 2002, while Old Newmont common stock ceased to trade on the NYSE on February 15, 2002. In addition, in connection with the Reorganization, New Newmont was renamed "Newmont Mining Corporation" and Old Newmont was renamed "Newmont USA Limited".
