This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations, beliefs, plans or forecasts and are typically identified by words or phrases such as "may," "will," "could," "should," "would," "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," "target," "prospects," "potential" and "forecast," and other words, terms and phrases of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements involve estimates, expectations, projections, goals, forecasts, assumptions, risks and uncertainties. We caution readers that a forward-looking statement is not a guarantee of future performance, and actual results could differ materially from those contained in forward-looking statements. Our business is subject to a number of general risks that would affect any such forward-looking statements. These risks and other factors that may impact management's assumptions are more particularly described in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Form 10 Registration Statement. The information contained in this release speaks as of the date of the release and we do not have or undertake any obligation to update or revise its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
