Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Bank of America Loan Agreement

Edgar Filing: INDUSTRIAL SERVICES OF AMERICA INC - Form 8-K

On November 9, 2018 (the “Closing Date”), Industrial Services of America, Inc. (the “Company”) and certain of its wholly-owned subsidiaries (collectively, the “Borrowers”) entered into a Loan and Security Agreement with Bank of America, N.A. (“BofA” and the “BofA Loan Agreement”) that provides for (i) a revolving line of credit in the aggregate principal amount of $10 million (subject to a borrowing base), which includes a $1.0 million letter of credit subline (the “Revolving Loan”), and (ii) a term loan in the amount of $2.5 million (the “Term Loan” and together with the Revolving Loan, the “Loans”).

The interest rate on the Revolving Loan is equal to LIBOR plus 2.25% to 2.75%. The interest rate on the Term Loan is equal to LIBOR plus 2.75% to 3.25%. During a continuance of an Event of Default (as defined in the BofA Loan Agreement), the interest rate will increase by 2.0%.

Proceeds from the BofA Loan Agreement will be used to satisfy the Company’s existing credit facility with Midcap Business Credit, LLC (“MidCap”). In addition, proceeds from the Revolving Loan may be used to pay fees and transaction expenses associated with the Loans, to pay the Borrowers’ obligations to BofA, and for other lawful corporate purposes of the Borrowers, including working capital.

The Revolving Loan is due and payable in full on the Commitment Termination Date (as defined below), and the Borrowers may prepay the Revolving Loan without premium or penalty. The Term Loan will be repaid by consecutive installments of $89,286 on the first day of each quarter, commencing on January 1, 2019. On the Commitment Termination Date, all principal, interest, and other amounts with respect to the Term Loan will be due and payable in full.

The Company agreed to pay BofA certain fees in connection with the BofA Loan Agreement, including, without limitation: (i) unused credit line fees, due on the first day of each month and on the Commitment Termination Date, (ii) letter of credit facility fees, payable in monthly arrears on the first day of each month, (iii) a closing fee in the amount of $50,000, due on the Closing Date, and (iv) an administrative fee of $10,000 on the Closing Date and on each anniversary date thereof. In addition, the Company agreed to pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses, incurred by BofA in the enforcement of the BofA Loan Agreement and related documents during the continuance of an Event of Default and all legal, accounting, appraisal, consulting, and other fees incurred by BofA in connection with the Loans.

Borrowings under the BofA Loan Agreement are secured by all property of each Borrower. The Company’s obligations are also secured by mortgages upon real estate owned by certain wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company.

On the Closing Date, BofA advanced the Borrowers $4,108,924 under the Revolving Loan and $2.5 million under the Term Loan.

The BofA Loan Agreement requires the Borrowers to comply with certain customary affirmative and negative covenants that, among other things, will restrict, subject to certain exceptions, the ability of the Borrowers to incur indebtedness, grant liens, make investments, engage in acquisitions, mergers or consolidations, and pay dividends and other restricted payments. The BofA Loan Agreement also requires that the Borrowers maintain a certain fixed charge coverage ratio, calculated as of the last day of each month for the trailing twelve month period then ended.

The BofA Loan Agreement contains customary Events of Default for facilities of a similar nature and size as the BofA Loan Agreement, including without limitation (i) the Borrowers' failure to pay its obligations under the BofA Loan Agreement, (ii) inaccuracy of representations and warranties, (iii) any Borrower's breach of a covenant, (iv) any breach or default of the Borrowers occurs under any hedging agreement or any other agreement to which it is a party, (v) the entry of any judgment against the Company or its subsidiaries which exceeds $250,000, (vi) the occurrence of any uninsured loss, theft, damage or destruction to any of the collateral if the amount not covered by insurance exceeds $250,000, or (vii) the occurrence of any event that would cause any material adverse change in the business or financial condition of the Borrowers. If an Event of Default occurs, BofA may declare all amounts due to BofA immediately due and payable, terminate or recondition any commitment to lend under the BofA Loan Agreement or adjust the borrowing base, require the Company to cash collateralize all of its obligations, and exercise any other remedy afforded under any agreement, law, at equity, or otherwise. In addition, if an Event of Default is triggered by any Borrower's bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings, all Borrowers' obligations to BofA will automatically become due and payable and all of the commitments under the BofA Loan Agreement will terminate.

The BofA Loan Agreement will terminate on the earlier of: (i) September 30, 2020, with an option to extend such date to September 30, 2023 upon certain conditions, (ii) the date on which the Borrowers terminate the Revolving Loan pursuant to the BofA Loan Agreement, or (iii) the date on which BofA terminates the Revolving Loan as a result of an Event of Default (the "Commitment Termination Date"). The Company has the right to terminate the BofA Loan Agreement at any time with 30 days prior written notice. Any notice of termination by the Borrowers will be irrevocable and the Borrowers will make full payment of all obligations on the Commitment Termination Date.
