*Item 1. Financial Statements (Continued)FORD MOTOR COMPANY AND SUBSIDIARIES*NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*NOTE 1. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP") for interim financial information and instructions to the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X. In the opinion of management, these unaudited financial statements reflect a fair statement of the results of operations and financial condition of Ford Motor Company and its consolidated subsidiaries and consolidated variable interest entities ("VIEs") of which we are the primary beneficiary for the periods and at the dates presented. Results for interim periods should not be considered indicative of results for a full year. Reference should be made to the financial statements contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 ("2006 Form 10-K Report"). For purposes of this report, "Ford," the "Company," "we," "our," "us" or similar references mean Ford Motor Company and our consolidated subsidiaries and our consolidated VIEs of which we are the primary beneficiary, unless the context requires otherwise.

NOTE 2. INVENTORIES

Inventories are summarized as follows (in millions):

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006
Raw materials, work-in-process and supplies	$ 4,360	$ 4,545
Finished products	9,314	7,891
Total inventories under first-in, first-out method ("FIFO")	13,674	12,436
Less: last-in, first-out method ("LIFO") adjustment	(1,060)	(1,015)
Total inventories	$ 12,614	$ 11,421

During 2006, inventory quantities were reduced, resulting in a liquidation of LIFO inventory quantities carried at lower costs prevailing in prior years as compared with the cost of 2006 purchases, the effect of which decreased Automotive cost of sales by about $4 million.

NOTE 3. GOODWILL AND OTHER INTANGIBLESGoodwill

Our policy is to perform annual testing of goodwill and certain other intangible assets during the fourth quarter to determine whether any impairment has occurred. Testing is conducted at the reporting unit level.

Changes in the carrying amount of goodwill are as follows (in millions):

Automobile Protection Corporation ("APCO"). During the second quarter of 2007, our wholly-owned North American subsidiary, APCO, was sold. APCO was not an integrated component of our Ford North America reporting unit. Accordingly, the full amount of APCO's goodwill, $112 million, was classified within Assets of discontinued/held-for-sale operations at December 31, 2006.

Aston Martin Lagonda Group Limited ("Aston Martin"). Aston Martin was owned primarily through our wholly-owned subsidiary, Jaguar Cars Limited, and has been a component of our PAG reporting unit. Its operations were integrated with our other PAG reporting entities, sharing, among other things, certain facilities and tooling, intellectual property, in-bound logistics, information technology services, and parts supply.

During the second quarter of 2007, we sold Aston Martin. Accordingly, we commissioned a third-party valuation to determine an appropriate allocation of goodwill for Aston Martin based on its fair value relative to the overall fair value of PAG. The third-party valuation used discounted cash flow and market methods of determining fair value, which resulted in $434 million of goodwill being allocated to Aston Martin. We deemed the third-party valuations to be appropriate, and we classified the goodwill allocated to Aston Martin within Assets of discontinued/held-for-sale operations as of March 31, 2007. The goodwill remaining in our PAG reporting unit was tested at March 31, 2007, and no goodwill impairment was necessary.

Land Rover Deferred Tax. During the second quarter of 2007, we settled a tax matter related to the acquisition of Land Rover which resulted in a reduction of PAG goodwill of $108 million. See Note 6 for additional information.

Exchange Translation. The net foreign currency translation adjustment for the first half of 2007 resulted in an increase in PAG goodwill of $56 million.

In addition to the goodwill presented in the above table, included within Automotive equity in net assets of affiliated companies was goodwill of $249 million at June 30, 2007.

Edgar Filing: FORD MOTOR CO - Form 10-Q

Our identifiable intangible assets are comprised of a non-amortizable tradename, distribution networks with a useful life of 40 years, manufacturing and production incentive rights with a useful life of 4 years, and other intangibles with various amortization periods (primarily patents, customer contracts, technology, and land rights).

Pre-tax amortization expense related to these intangible assets was as follows (in millions):

	First Half
	2007	2006
Pre-tax amortization expense	$ 47	$ 12

Excluding the impact of foreign currency translation, intangible asset amortization is forecasted to range from $80 million to $90 million per year for the next four years and $20 million to $30 million thereafter.

NOTE 4. VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITIES

We consolidate VIEs of which we are the primary beneficiary. The liabilities recognized, as a result of consolidating these VIEs, do not represent additional claims on our general assets; rather, they represent claims against the specific assets of the consolidated VIEs. Conversely, assets recognized as a result of consolidating these VIEs do not represent additional assets that could be used to satisfy claims against our general assets.

Reflected in our June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006 balance sheets are consolidated VIE assets of $5.9 billion and $5.6 billion, respectively, for our Automotive sector and $77.8 billion and $69.5 billion, respectively, for our Financial Services sector. Included in Automotive consolidated VIE assets are $592 million and $488 million of cash and cash equivalents at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively. For our Financial Services sector, consolidated VIE assets included $7.5 billion and $3.7 billion in cash and cash equivalents and $70.3 billion and $65.8 billion of receivables and beneficial interests in net investment in operating leases at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively.

We have several investments in other entities determined to be VIEs of which we are not the primary beneficiary. The risks and rewards associated with our interests in these entities are based primarily on ownership percentages. Our maximum exposure was $187 million and $294 million for our Automotive sector and $219 million and $182 million for our Financial Services sector at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively. Any potential losses associated with these VIEs would be limited to the value of our invested capital or equity rights and, where applicable, receivables due from the VIEs.

Our Financial Services sector consists primarily of Ford Motor Credit Company LLC ("Ford Credit"). Ford Credit uses special purpose entities ("SPEs") that are considered VIEs for most of our on-balance sheet securitizations. Ford Credit also sells finance receivables to bank-sponsored asset-backed commercial paper issuers that are SPEs of the sponsor bank; these SPEs are not consolidated by us. The outstanding balance of finance receivables that have been sold by Ford Credit to the SPEs of the sponsored banks was approximately $4.5 billion and $5.2 billion at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively.

NOTE 5. EMPLOYEE SEPARATION ACTIONS

Automotive Sector

General

In 2006, we announced a major business improvement plan for our North American Automotive operations, which we refer to as the Way Forward plan. As part of this plan, we began implementing a number of different employee separation actions during 2006, our accounting for which is dependent on the design of the individual benefit action.

Jobs Bank Benefits Reserve

We expense Jobs Bank Benefits (see Note 17 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report) expected to be provided to our hourly employees in accordance with our International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America ("UAW") and National Automobile, Aerospace, Transportation and General Workers Union of Canada ("CAW") collective bargaining agreements at facilities that will be permanently idled. We recorded an expense in Automotive cost of sales, and the following table summarizes the activity in the related Jobs Bank Benefits reserve:

	Reserve (in millions)		Number of employees
	First Half 2007	Full Year 2006	First Half 2007	Full Year 2006

*Item 1. Financial Statements (Continued)NOTE 5. EMPLOYEE SEPARATION ACTIONS (Continued)*Separation Actions

The cost of voluntary employee separation actions are recorded at the time of an employee's acceptance, unless the acceptance requires explicit approval by the Company. The costs of conditional voluntary separations are accrued when all conditions are satisfied. The costs of involuntary separation programs are accrued when management has approved the program and the affected employees are identified.

UAW Voluntary Separations. During 2006, we offered voluntary separation packages to our entire UAW hourly workforce and established a reserve for the costs associated with this action. We recorded an expense in Automotive cost of sales and the following table summarizes the activity in the related separation reserve:

	Reserve (in millions)		Number of employees
	First Half 2007	Full Year 2006	First Half 2007	Full Year 2006
Beginning balance	$ 2,435	$ —	26,351	—

Rescissions	(253)	(17)	(2,759)	(188)
Ending balance	$ 718	$ 2,435	6,495	26,351

Other Employee Separation Actions. Most salaried employee separations within the United States were completed by the end of the first quarter of 2007, and were achieved through early retirements, voluntary separations, and involuntary separations where necessary. These actions resulted in pre-tax charges of $1 million and $7 million in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006 and $154 million and $10 million during the first half of 2007 and 2006, respectively, reported in Automotive cost of sales and Selling, administrative and other expenses.

The following table shows pre-tax charges for other hourly and salaried employee separation actions for the second quarter and first half of 2007 and 2006 (in millions). These charges are reported in Automotive cost of sales and Selling, administrative and other expenses.

	Second Quarter		First Half

The charges above exclude costs for pension and other postretirement employee benefits ("OPEB"). For further information, see Note 10 for employee separation costs related to pension, postretirement health care and life insurance benefits.

Financial Services SectorSeparation Actions

In the first half of 2007, we recognized pre-tax charges of $43 million in Selling, administrative and other expenses for employee separation actions in the United States and in Canada. These actions were associated with Ford Credit's North American business transformation initiative (i.e., the consolidation of its North American branches into its seven existing business centers). These charges exclude costs for pension and OPEB. For further information, see Note 10 for employee separation costs related to pension, postretirement health care and life insurance benefits.

NOTE 6. INCOME TAXES

Generally, for interim tax reporting one single tax rate is estimated for tax jurisdictions not subject to a valuation allowance, which is applied to the year-to-date ordinary income/loss. However, we manage our operations by multi-jurisdictional business units and thus are unable to reasonably compute one overall estimated annual effective tax rate. Accordingly, our worldwide tax provision is calculated pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Interpretation No. 18, Accounting for Income Taxes in Interim Periods, which provides that the tax (or benefit) in each foreign jurisdiction, not subject to a valuation allowance, be separately computed as ordinary income/loss occurs within the jurisdiction.

In June 2006, FASB issued Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Pursuant to FIN 48, we may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement.

We adopted the provisions of FIN 48 on January 1, 2007. As a result of the implementation of FIN 48, we recorded an increase of $1.3 billion to Retained earnings. The favorable impact to Retained earnings is primarily the result of recognizing a receivable of approximately $1.5 billion associated with refund claims and related interest for prior years that meet the "more-likely-than-not" recognition threshold of FIN 48. These prior year refund claims and related interest were not recognized as of December 31, 2006 because they were considered gain contingencies under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies and could not be recognized until the contingency lapsed. The amount of gross unrecognized tax benefits at January 1, 2007 was $1.7 billion, of which $471 million would affect our effective tax rate, if recognized.

Examinations by tax authorities have been completed through 1998 in the United Kingdom, 1999 in Germany, and 2000 in Canada, Sweden, and the United States.

Effective with the adoption of FIN 48, we have elected to recognize accrued interest related to unrecognized tax benefits and tax-related penalties in the Provision for/(benefit from) income taxes on our consolidated statement of income. As of January 1, 2007, we had recorded a liability of $221 million for the payment of interest. During the second quarter of 2007, we recorded an additional liability of $127 million in interest and inflationary adjustments related to interest refunds in dispute for tax refunds received in prior periods.

During the second quarter of 2007, we settled tax matters related to the acquisition of Land Rover with the U.K. tax authorities. The final resolution resulted in an increase in deferred tax assets and a corresponding decrease in goodwill. The increase in deferred tax assets resulted in an increase in the valuation allowance of $108 million.

NOTE 7. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS, HELD-FOR-SALE OPERATIONS, AND OTHER DISPOSITIONS

Discontinued Operations

APCO. On April 2, 2007, the management team of APCO, together with Trident IV, L.P., a private equity fund managed by Stone Point Capital LLC, purchased APCO from us. This transaction was the result of the ongoing strategic review of our operations. As a result of the transaction, we received $180 million as gross proceeds on the sale. In the second quarter of 2007, we realized a pre-tax gain of $51 million (net of transaction costs and working capital adjustments), reported in Income/(loss) from discontinued operations.

The assets and liabilities of APCO that were classified as a discontinued operation at April 2, 2007 and December 31, 2006 are summarized as follows (in millions):

Held-for-Sale Operations

Aston Martin. In order to restructure our core Automotive operations and build liquidity, on March 12, 2007, we announced that we had entered into a definitive agreement to sell Aston Martin. On May 31, 2007, Ford Motor Company and its subsidiary Jaguar Cars Limited completed the sale of our 100% interest in Aston Martin. Under the terms of the transaction, we received $931 million (£474 million) in gross proceeds through a combination of cash and preferred stock in Primrose Cove, Ltd., the holding company of the acquirer. As a result of the sale, we recognized a pre-tax gain of $187 million (net of transaction costs and working capital adjustments) reported in Automotive interest income and other non-operating income/(expense), net.

The assets and liabilities of Aston Martin that were classified as a held-for-sale operation at May 31, 2007 and December 31, 2006 are summarized as follows (in millions):

Automotive Components Holdings, LLC ("ACH"). In April 2007, ACH committed to sell its Converca I plant in Mexico, which produces power transfer units, to Linamar Corporation. We expect to complete the sale during the third quarter of 2007. Accordingly, we have reported Converca I as held-for-sale. As a result of the transaction, we expect to receive an amount approximately equal to the book value of the plant during the third quarter of 2007.

The assets of Converca I classified as a held-for-sale operation are summarized as follows (in millions):

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006

European dealerships. In April 2007, we committed to sell three European dealership operations. As a result of the transaction, we recorded a pre-tax loss of $17 million in Automotive interest income and other non-operating income/(expense), net.

The assets and liabilities of the three dealerships classified as held-for-sale operations at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006 are summarized as follows (in millions):

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006

Other Dispositions

ACH has entered into non-binding agreements for the sale of five of its businesses. The following table lists the businesses with their corresponding products:

Sheldon Road plant	Produces heating, ventilating and cooling assemblies; heat exchangers; and manual control panel components
Milan plant	Produces fuel tanks and bumper fascias

Monroe plant	Produces catalytic converters, driveshafts, and springs (driveshaft business only included in agreement – not the plant itself)
Nashville, Tulsa, and VidrioCar (Mexico) plants	Produces automotive and architectural glass products
Sandusky plant	Produces lighting components

Each of these sales is conditional on a successful negotiation by the buyer of labor terms with the UAW, which has not been completed. Therefore, none has yet reached held-for-sale status.

NOTE 8. AMOUNTS PER SHARE OF COMMON AND CLASS B STOCK

The calculation of diluted income per share of Common and Class B Stock takes into account the effect of common stock equivalents, such as stock options and convertible securities, considered to be potentially dilutive. Basic and diluted income/(loss) per share were calculated using the following (in millions):

	Second Quarter		First Half

NOTE 9. DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS AND HEDGING ACTIVITIES

Our operations are exposed to global market risks, including the effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, certain commodity prices and interest rates. We enter into various derivatives, including interest rate, foreign currency and commodity forwards, options and swaps to manage the financial and operational exposure arising from these risks. We have elected to apply hedge accounting to certain of these derivative instruments. Refer to Note 22 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report for a more detailed description of our derivative instruments and hedge accounting designations.

Income Statement Effect of Derivative Instruments

The following table summarizes the estimated pre-tax gains/(losses) for each type of hedge designation for the Automotive and Financial Services sectors (in millions):

- (c) Amount represents the portion of the derivative's fair value attributable to the change in foreign currency exchange rates.

Balance Sheet Effect of Derivative Instruments

The fair value of derivatives reflects the price that a third party would be willing to pay or receive in arm's length transactions and includes mark-to-market adjustments to reflect the effects of changes in the related index. The following table summarizes the estimated fair value of our derivative instruments (in millions):

In the first quarter of 2007, we recorded a $176 million curtailment loss for the U.S. salaried pension plan, a $14 million curtailment gain for the Canadian hourly pension plan, and a $960 million curtailment gain for the U.S. hourly retiree health care plan. In the second quarter of 2007, we recorded an additional $148 million curtailment gain for the U.S. hourly retiree health care plan. These amounts are associated with employee separations related to the Way Forward plan, and are recorded in Automotive cost of sales and Selling, administrative and other expenses.

The weighted average discount rate assumption used at June 30, 2007 to determine the U.S. OPEB obligation was 6.18%. The weighted average initial health care cost trend rate was 6% for the 2007 calendar year.

Plan Contributions and Drawdowns

Our policy for funded plans is to contribute annually, at a minimum, amounts required by applicable laws, regulations, and union agreements. From time to time, we make contributions beyond those legally required.

Pension. In the first half of 2007, we contributed about $1.5 billion to our worldwide pension plans, including benefit payments paid directly by the Company for unfunded plans. We expect to contribute from Automotive cash and cash equivalents an additional $700 million in 2007, for a total of $2.2 billion this year. Based on current assumptions and regulations, we do not expect to have a legal requirement to fund our major U.S. pension plans in 2007.

Health Care and Life Insurance. During the first half of 2007, we withdrew $300 million from our Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Association trust ("VEBA") as reimbursement for U.S. hourly retiree benefit payments.

NOTE 10. RETIREMENT BENEFITS (Continued)Pension Asset Investment

Target pension asset allocations disclosed in our 2006 Form 10-K Report were about 70% equity investment and 30% fixed income investment, with less than one percent in alternative investments (such as private equity). In July 2007, in order to reduce the volatility of the value of our U.S. pension assets relative to U.S. pension liabilities, we changed our investment strategy to reduce the proportion of equity investments and increase the proportion of assets in fixed income and alternative investments. We expect our asset allocation for our U.S. plans at year-end 2007 to be about 50% equity investments, 45% fixed income investments, and up to 5% alternative investments.

NOTE 12. GUARANTEES

The fair values of guarantees and indemnifications during 2007 and 2006 are recorded in the financial statements and are de minimis.

At June 30, 2007, the following guarantees were issued and outstanding:

Guarantees related to affiliates and third parties. We guarantee debt and lease obligations of certain joint ventures, as well as certain financial obligations of outside third parties to support our business and objectives. Expiration dates vary, and guarantees will terminate on payment and/or cancellation of the obligation. A payment by us would be triggered by failure of the primary obligor to fulfill its obligation covered by the guarantee. In some circumstances, we are entitled to recover from the third party amounts paid by us under the guarantee. However, our ability to enforce these rights is sometimes stayed until the guaranteed party is paid in full, and may be limited in the event of insolvency of the third party or other circumstances. The maximum potential payments under these guarantees total $9.9 million.

On December 15, 2006 we entered into an agreement (the "Credit Agreement") which provides for a seven-year $7 billion term-loan facility and a five-year revolving credit facility of $11.5 billion. We and certain of our domestic subsidiaries that constitute a substantial portion of our domestic Automotive assets (excluding cash) are guarantors under the Credit Agreement, and future material domestic subsidiaries will become guarantors when formed or acquired. For further discussion of this Credit Agreement, see Note 15 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

On December 21, 2005, we completed the sale of The Hertz Corporation ("Hertz"). As part of this transaction, we provided cash-collateralized letters of credit in an aggregate amount of $200 million to support the asset-backed portion of the buyer's financing for the transaction and deferred a portion of the gain recognized on the sale in an amount equal to the fair value of the guarantee. As of June 30, 2007, the deferred gain related to the letters of credit was $20 million, which represents the estimated fair value of our guarantee. For further discussion of these letters of credit, see Note 27 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

In 1996, we issued $500 million of 7.25% Notes due October 1, 2008. In 1999, we entered into a de-recognition transaction to defease our obligation as primary obligor with respect to the principal of these notes. As part of this transaction, we placed certain financial assets into an escrow trust for the benefit of the noteholders, and the trust became the primary obligor with respect to the principal (we became secondarily liable for the entire principal amount).

We also have guarantees outstanding associated with our wholly-owned subsidiary trust, Ford Motor Company Capital Trust II ("Trust II"). For further discussion of Trust II, see Notes 15 and 20 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

Indemnifications. We regularly evaluate the probability of having to incur costs associated with indemnifications contained in contracts to which we are a party, and have accrued for expected losses that are probable and for which a loss can be estimated. During the second quarter of 2007, there were no significant changes to our indemnifications.

Product Performance

Warranty. Estimated warranty costs and additional service actions are accrued for at the time the vehicle is sold by us. Included in the warranty cost accruals are costs for basic warranty coverages on vehicles sold. Additional service actions, such as product recalls and other customer service actions, are not included in the warranty reconciliation below, but are also accrued for at the time of sale. Estimates for warranty costs are made based primarily on historical warranty claim experience. The following is a tabular reconciliation of the product warranty accruals (in millions):

	First Half
	2007	2006
Beginning balance	$ 5,995	$ 6,243
Payments made during the period	(1,949)	(2,060)

Changes in accrual related to pre-existing warranties	(186)	132
Foreign currency translation and other	121	121
Ending balance	$ 5,841	$ 6,383

Extended Service Plans. Fees or premiums for the issuance of extended service plans are recognized in income over the contract period in proportion to the costs expected to be incurred in performing services under the contract.

NOTE 14. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On August 3, 2007, we completed a conversion offer related to the outstanding 6.50% Cumulative Convertible Trust Preferred Securities, with an aggregate liquidation preference of $5.0 billion (the "Trust Preferred Securities") of Ford Motor Company Capital Trust II. Each Trust Preferred Security is convertible into 2.8249 shares of Ford Common Stock pursuant to the conversion terms applicable to Trust Preferred Securities. In July 2007, we offered to holders of Trust Preferred Securities a conversion premium in the form of 1.7468 additional shares of Ford Common Stock per Trust Preferred Security converted pursuant to this offer. As a result of this offer, which expired on July 31, 2007, 42,543,071 Trust Preferred Securities with an aggregate liquidation preference of $2.1 billion were converted into an aggregate 194,494,157 shares of Ford Common Stock. We will record a one-time pre-tax expense in the third quarter of 2007 equal to $632 million (i.e., 74,314,236 premium shares issued multiplied by $8.51, which was the closing trading price per share of Ford Common Stock on July 31, 2007 on the New York Stock Exchange). The after-tax impact on net income of this conversion is estimated to be $258 million. As a result of this conversion offer, we will no longer incur annual pre-tax interest expense of $138 million related to the Trust Preferred Securities that were converted, and our total stockholders' equity will increase by $2.1 billion.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To Board of Directors and Stockholders
Ford Motor Company:

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Ford Motor Company and its subsidiaries as of June 30, 2007, and the related consolidated statements of income for each of the three-month and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 and the condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management.

The accompanying sector balance sheets and the related sector statements of income and of cash flows are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the review procedures applied in the review of the basic financial statements.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying consolidated interim financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note 6 of the Notes to the Financial Statements, on January 1, 2007, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of FASB Statement No.109."

We have previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2006, and the related consolidated statements of income, of cash flows and of stockholders' equity for the year then ended (not presented herein), and in our report dated February 27, 2007, we expressed an unqualified opinion (with explanatory paragraphs relating to changes in its method of accounting for conditional asset retirement obligations in 2005 and the method of accounting for defined benefit pension and other postretirement plans, the timing of the annual goodwill and other intangible assets impairment testing, and the amortization method for special tools in 2006) on those consolidated financial statements. In our opinion, the information set forth in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet information which reflects the reclassification of the assets and liabilities of various operations as discontinued/held-for-sale as described in Note 7 as of December 31, 2006, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated balance sheet from which it has been derived.

ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.SECOND QUARTER RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Our worldwide net profit was $750 million or $0.31 per share of Common and Class B Stock in the second quarter of 2007, improved from a loss of $317 million or $0.17 per share in the second quarter of 2006.

Results by business sector for the second quarter of 2007 and 2006 are shown below (in millions):

	Second Quarter		2007 Over/ (Under) 2006

Net income/(loss)	$ 750	$ (317)	$ 1,067

*Primarily related to Ford Europe's consolidated 41%-owned affiliate, Ford Otosan. The increase in Minority interests in net income/(loss) of subsidiaries primarily reflected higher tax expense in 2006 related to tax law changes in the country of Turkey. The pre-tax results for Ford Otosan were $139 million and $153 million in the second quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Included in Income/(loss) before income taxes are items we do not consider indicative of our ongoing operating activities ("special items"). The following table details the second quarter 2007 and 2006 special items by segment or business unit (in millions):

(a) Dealer-owned stocks represent our estimate of vehicles shipped to our customers (dealers) and not yet sold by the dealers to their retail customers, including some vehicles reflected in our inventory.

(b) Includes only Ford and, in certain markets (primarily U.S.), Lincoln and Mercury brands.

(c) South America 2007 market share is based on estimated vehicle retail sales for our six major markets (Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador and Venezuela).

(d) Europe 2007 market share is based, in part, on estimated vehicle registrations for our 19 major European markets (described in "Item 1. Business" of our 2006 Form 10-K Report).

(e) Asia Pacific and Africa 2007 market share is based on estimated vehicle retail sales for our 12 major markets (Australia, China, Japan, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, New Zealand, Philippines, South Africa, Taiwan, Thailand and Vietnam).

(f) Dealer-owned stocks for Asia Pacific and Africa include primarily Ford-brand vehicles as well as a small number of units distributed for other manufacturers.

Overall Automotive Sector

The improvement in results reflected favorable net pricing (about $900 million), favorable cost changes (about $700 million), the non-recurrence of pension curtailment charges (about $500 million), and the effect of our sale of Aston Martin (about $200 million), offset partially by unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates (about $300 million). See "First Half Results of Operations – Automotive Sector" for a discussion of cost changes.

The increase in revenues primarily reflected favorable changes in currency exchange rates, favorable product mix, and lower incentives, offset partially by lower wholesale unit volumes more than explained by Ford North America.

Americas

Ford North America Segment. The improvement in earnings primarily reflected favorable net pricing, the non-recurrence of pension curtailment charges, and favorable cost changes, offset partially by unfavorable volume and mix. The favorable cost changes primarily reflected reductions in manufacturing and engineering costs, pension and OPEB costs, as well as overhead costs, offset partially by higher net product costs. The unfavorable volume and mix primarily reflected lower market share, lower dealer inventories, and lower industry volume, offset partially by favorable product mix.

Ford South America Segment. The increase in earnings primarily reflected favorable net pricing and favorable volume and mix.

Ford Europe and PAG

Ford Europe Segment. The increase in earnings was more than explained by favorable net pricing and favorable volume and mix, offset partially by unfavorable cost changes and higher charges for personnel-reduction programs and costs associated with U.K. plant closures. The unfavorable cost changes primarily reflected higher manufacturing and engineering costs, offset partially by reductions in warranty-related costs.

PAG Segment. The improvement in results primarily reflected favorable cost changes, the effect of our sale of Aston Martin (primarily the gain on sale), recognition of previously deferred hedging gains relating to Jaguar and Land Rover, and favorable net pricing. These factors were offset partially by unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates. The favorable cost changes primarily reflected reductions in warranty-related costs (mainly the result of the non-recurrence of adverse 2006 adjustments to warranty accruals), spending-related costs, net product costs, and overhead costs.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)Ford Asia Pacific and Africa/Mazda

Ford Asia Pacific and Africa/Mazda Segment. The increase in earnings for Ford Asia Pacific and Africa primarily reflected favorable cost changes and improved profits from our equity interests in Chinese joint ventures, offset partially by unfavorable volume and mix and unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates. The favorable cost changes primarily reflected reductions in manufacturing and engineering, overhead, and advertising and sales promotion costs.

The decrease in earnings for Mazda and Associated Operations primarily reflected the non-recurrence of our share of a gain Mazda realized on the transfer of its pension liabilities back to the Japanese government, offset partially by improved profits from our equity interest in Mazda compared with a year ago.

Other Automotive

The decline in earnings reflected higher interest expense and related costs associated with the higher debt levels that resulted from the financing actions taken in the fourth quarter of 2006, offset partially by increased interest income on a larger gross cash portfolio. For additional information regarding the financing actions, see Note 15 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

FINANCIAL SERVICES SECTOR

Details of Financial Services sector Income/(loss) before income taxes for the second quarter of 2007 and 2006 are shown below (in millions):

	Second Quarter
	2007	2006	2007 Over/(Under) 2006
Ford Credit	$ 112	$ 435	$ (323)
Other Financial Services	(7)	(10)	3
Total	$ 105	$ 425	$ (320)

Ford Credit

The decrease in earnings primarily reflected higher borrowing costs, lower credit loss reserve reductions, higher depreciation expense for leased vehicles (primarily reflecting higher lease volumes, an increase in the percentage of vehicles returned at lease termination and lower expected auction values) and higher net losses related to market valuation adjustments from derivatives. Lower expenses, primarily reflecting improved operating costs, were a partial offset.

Ford Credit's net finance receivables and net investment in operating leases are shown below (in billions):

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006	2007 Over/(Under) 2006
On-Balance Sheet (including on-balance sheet securitizations) *	$ 140.0	$ 135.3	$ 4.7

Edgar Filing: FORD MOTOR CO - Form 10-Q

Securitized Off-Balance Sheet		9.3		12.2		(2.9)
Managed	$	149.3	$	147.5	$	1.8
Serviced	$	150.7	$	149.5	$	1.2

* At June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, includes finance receivables of $60 billion and $56.5 billion, respectively, which have been sold for legal purposes in securitizations that do not satisfy the requirements for accounting sale treatment. In addition, at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, includes net investment in operating leases of $17 billion and $15.2 billion, respectively, which have been included in securitizations that do not satisfy the requirements for accounting sale treatment. These underlying securitized assets are available only for payment of the debt or other obligations issued or arising in the securitization transactions; they are not available to pay Ford Credit's other obligations or the claims of Ford Credit's other creditors.

The increase in managed receivables from year-end 2006 primarily reflected changes in currency exchange rates and higher net investment in operating leases, partially offset by lower U.S. retail installment receivables.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

The following table shows Ford Credit's worldwide credit losses net of recoveries, which are referred to as charge-offs, and loss-to-receivables ratios, which equal charge-offs for the period on an annualized basis divided by the average amount of receivables outstanding for the period, for the second quarter of 2007 and 2006:

	Second Quarter
	2007	2006	2007 Over/(Under) 2006
Charge-offs (in millions)
On-Balance Sheet	$ 125	$ 83	$ 42
Managed	139	102	37
Loss-to-Receivables Ratios
On-Balance Sheet	0.36%	0.25%	0.11 pts.
Managed	0.38	0.27	0.11

The increase in charge-offs and loss-to-receivables ratios for Ford Credit's on-balance sheet and managed portfolios, principally in the U.S. retail and lease portfolio, primarily reflected lower recoveries and higher loss severity (average loss per repossession), partially offset by lower repossessions.

Shown below is Ford Credit's allowance for credit losses related to its on-balance sheet portfolio of finance receivables and net investment in operating leases for the periods specified. Consistent with its normal practices and policies, Ford Credit assesses the adequacy of its allowance for credit losses quarterly, and regularly evaluates the assumptions and models used in establishing the allowance.

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006	2007 Over/(Under) 2006
Allowance for credit losses (in millions)	$ 1,010	$ 1,110	$ (100)
Allowance as a percentage of end-of-period receivables	0.72%	0.81%	(0.09) pts.

The decrease in Ford Credit's allowance for credit losses from year-end 2006 primarily reflected historical charge-off trends, consistent with a higher quality retail installment and lease portfolio.

FIRST HALF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Our worldwide net profit was $468 million or $0.22 per share of Common and Class B Stock in the first half of 2007, improved from a loss of $1.7 billion or $0.93 per share in the first half of 2006.

Results by business sector for the first half of 2007 and 2006 are shown below (in millions):

	First Half		2007 Over/ (Under) 2006

* Primarily related to Ford Europe's consolidated 41%-owned affiliate, Ford Otosan. The increase in Minority interests in net income/(loss) of subsidiaries primarily reflected higher tax expense in 2006 related to tax law changes in the country of Turkey. The pre-tax results for Ford Otosan were $237 million and $262 million in the first half of 2007 and 2006, respectively.

- (a) Wholesale unit volumes generally are reported on a where-sold basis, and include all Ford-badged units and units manufactured by Ford that are sold to other manufacturers, as well as units distributed for other manufacturers. Vehicles sold to daily rental car companies that are subject to a guaranteed repurchase option, as well as other sales of finished vehicles for which the recognition of revenue is deferred (e.g., consignments), are included in wholesale unit volumes.
- (b) Included in wholesale unit volumes of Ford Asia Pacific and Africa are Ford-badged vehicles sold in China and Malaysia by certain unconsolidated affiliates totaling about 93,000 and 72,000 units in 2007 and 2006, respectively. "Sales" above does not include revenue from these units.
- (c) Reflects sales of Mazda6 by our consolidated subsidiary, AAI.

- (c) South America 2007 market share is based on estimated vehicle retail sales for our six major markets (Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador and Venezuela).
- (d) Europe 2007 market share is based, in part, on estimated vehicle registrations for our 19 major European markets (described in "Item 1. Business" of our 2006 Form 10-K Report).
- (e) Asia Pacific and Africa 2007 market share is based on estimated vehicle retail sales for our 12 major markets (Australia, China, Japan, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, New Zealand, Philippines, South Africa, Taiwan, Thailand and Vietnam).
- (f) Dealer-owned stocks for Asia Pacific and Africa include primarily Ford-brand vehicles as well as a small number of units distributed for other manufacturers.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)Overall Automotive Sector

The improvement in results primarily reflected favorable cost changes (about $1.2 billion), favorable net pricing (about $1.2 billion), retiree health care curtailment gains related to our Ford North America hourly separation programs (about $1.1 billion), the effect of lower charges for Jobs Bank Benefits and personnel-reduction programs (about $1 billion), and lower pension curtailment charges (about $700 million), offset partially by unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates (about $500 million) and unfavorable volume and mix (about $300 million).

The table below details our first half 2007 cost changes at constant volume, mix and exchange, excluding special items and discontinued operations (in billions):

	Explanation of Cost Changes	2007 Better/(Worse) Than 2006
Pension and OPEB	Primarily the favorable impact associated with our retiree health care cost sharing agreement with the UAW, ongoing improvements related to curtailments, and higher pension returns.	$ 0.8
Warranty-related	Primarily improvements in North America (mainly reserve adjustments due to favorable trends in field service actions and basic warranty coverages) and the non-recurrence of adverse 2006 adjustments to Jaguar and Land Rover warranty accruals.	0.7
Manufacturing and engineering	Primarily hourly and salaried personnel reductions and ongoing efficiencies in our plants.	0.6
Spending-related	Primarily lower depreciation and amortization expense more than explained by impairment charges in the third quarter of 2006 for our long-lived assets.	0.3
Overhead	Primarily lower selling and administrative costs.	0.2
Advertising & sales promotions	Primarily increased advertising costs.	(0.1)
Net product costs	Primarily higher costs related to regulatory requirements (e.g., diesel engine emissions), higher commodity costs, and added product features.	(1.3)
	Total	$ 1.2

The increase in revenues primarily reflected favorable product mix, favorable changes in currency exchange rates, and lower incentives, offset partially by lower wholesale unit volumes more than explained by Ford North America.

Americas

Ford North America Segment. The improvement in earnings primarily reflected retiree health care curtailment gains related to hourly separation programs, lower charges for Jobs Bank Benefits and personnel-reduction programs, favorable net pricing, favorable cost changes, and lower pension curtailment charges. These factors were offset partially by unfavorable volume and mix and unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates. The favorable cost changes primarily reflected reductions in pension and OPEB costs, manufacturing and engineering costs, warranty-related costs, and spending-related costs, offset partially by higher net product costs.

Ford South America Segment. The increase in earnings primarily reflected favorable net pricing and favorable volume and mix, offset partially by unfavorable cost changes. The unfavorable cost changes primarily reflected higher net product costs and higher manufacturing and engineering costs, offset partially by lower warranty-related costs.

Ford Europe and PAG

Ford Europe Segment. The increase in earnings was more than explained by favorable volume and mix, offset partially by unfavorable cost changes and higher charges for personnel-reduction programs and costs associated with U.K. plant closures. The unfavorable cost changes primarily reflected higher manufacturing and engineering costs, offset partially by lower warranty-related costs.

PAG Segment. The improvement in results primarily reflected favorable cost changes, the effect of our sale of Aston Martin (primarily the gain on sale), favorable volume and mix, recognition of previously deferred hedging gains relating to Jaguar and Land Rover, and favorable net pricing. These factors were offset partially by unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates and higher charges for personnel-reduction programs. The favorable cost changes primarily reflected reductions in warranty-related costs, spending-related costs, and overhead costs.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)Ford Asia Pacific and Africa/Mazda

Ford Asia Pacific and Africa/Mazda Segment. The decline in results for Ford Asia Pacific and Africa primarily reflected unfavorable volume and mix and unfavorable changes in currency exchange rates, offset partially by favorable cost changes. The favorable cost changes primarily reflected reductions in manufacturing and engineering costs, advertising and sales promotion costs, overhead costs, and net product costs.

The decrease in earnings for Mazda and Associated Operations primarily reflected the non-recurrence of our share of a gain Mazda realized on the transfer of its pension liabilities back to the Japanese government and the non-recurrence of gains on our investment in Mazda convertible bonds, offset partially by improved profits from our equity interest in Mazda for the period versus prior year results.

Other Automotive

The decline in earnings reflected higher interest expense and related costs associated with the higher debt levels that resulted from the financing actions taken in the fourth quarter of 2006, offset partially by increased interest income on a larger gross cash portfolio. For additional information regarding the financing actions, see Note 15 of the Notes to the Financial Statements in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

FINANCIAL SERVICES SECTOR

Details of Financial Services sector Income/(loss) before income taxes for the first half of 2007 and 2006 are shown below (in millions):

	First Half		2007
	2007	2006	Over/(Under) 2006
Ford Credit	$ 406	$ 817	$ (411)
Other Financial Services	(7)	(17)	10
Total	$ 399	$ 800	$ (401)

Ford Credit

The decrease in earnings primarily reflected higher borrowing costs, higher depreciation expense for leased vehicles (primarily reflecting higher lease volumes, an increase in the percentage of vehicles returned at lease termination and lower expected auction values), lower credit loss reserve reductions and costs associated with Ford Credit's North American business transformation initiative (i.e., the consolidation of its North American branches into its seven existing business centers). These factors were partially offset by lower net losses related to market valuation adjustments from derivatives and reductions in other operating costs.

The following table shows Ford Credit's worldwide credit losses net of recoveries, which are referred to as charge-offs, and loss-to-receivables ratios, which equal charge-offs for the period on an annualized basis divided by the average amount of receivables outstanding for the period, for the first half of 2007 and 2006:

--	-------------	----------------------------	-------------

	Over/(Under) 2006
Charge-offs (in millions)
On-Balance Sheet	$ 232	$ 194	$ 38

Loss-to-Receivables Ratios
On-Balance Sheet	0.34%	0.29%	0.05 pts.
Managed	0.36	0.32	0.04

The increase in charge-offs and loss-to-receivables ratios for Ford Credit's on-balance sheet and managed portfolios, principally in the U.S. retail and lease portfolio, primarily reflected higher loss severity and lower recoveries, partially offset by lower repossessions.

*Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES*Automotive Sector

Our strategy is to ensure that we have sufficient funding available with a high degree of certainty throughout the business cycle. The key elements of this strategy include maintaining large gross cash balances, generating cash from operating-related activities, having a long-dated debt maturity profile, maintaining committed credit facilities, and funding long-term liabilities over time.

Gross Cash. Automotive gross cash includes cash and cash equivalents, net marketable securities, loaned securities and certain assets contained in a Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Association trust ("VEBA"), a trust which may be used to pre-fund certain types of company-paid benefits for U.S. employees and retirees. We include in Automotive gross cash those VEBA assets that are invested in shorter-duration fixed income investments and can be used within 18 months to pay for benefits ("short-term VEBA assets"). Gross cash as of June 30, 2007 and 2006, March 31, 2007 and 2006, and December 31, 2006 and 2005 is detailed below (in billions):

	June 30, 2007	March 31, 2007	December 31, 2006	June 30, 2006	March 31, 2006	December 31, 2005

Securities-in-transit *	(0.3)	(0.2)	(0.5)	—	—	—
Short-term VEBA assets	2.3	2.2	1.8	—	1.4	1.4
Gross cash	$ 37.4	$ 35.2	$ 33.9	$ 23.6	$ 23.7	$ 25.1

* The purchase or sale of marketable securities for which the cash settlement was not made by period-end and for which there was a payable or receivable recorded on the balance sheet at period-end.

In managing our business, we classify changes in Automotive gross cash into two categories: operating-related, and other (which includes the impact of certain special items, contributions to funded pension plans, the net effect of the change in our VEBA on gross cash, tax-related transactions, acquisitions and divestitures, capital transactions with the Financial Services sector, dividends paid to shareholders, and other – primarily financing-related). Our key metrics are operating-related cash flow, which best represents the ability of our Automotive operations to generate cash, and Automotive gross cash. We believe the cash flow analysis reflected in the table below is useful to investors because it includes in operating-related cash flow elements that we consider to be related to our operating activities (e.g., capital spending) and excludes cash flow elements that we do not consider related to the ability of our operations to generate cash (e.g., tax refunds). This differs from a cash flow statement presented in accordance with GAAP and differs from Cash flows from operating activities of continuing operations, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure.

Changes in Automotive gross cash for the second quarter and first half of 2007 and 2006 are summarized below (in billions):

Debt and Net Cash. At June 30, 2007, our Automotive sector had total debt of about $30 billion, unchanged from December 31, 2006. At June 30, 2007, our Automotive sector had net cash (defined as gross cash less total debt) of $7.4 billion, compared with $3.9 billion at the end of 2006.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

*Credit Facilities. At July 1, 2007, we had about $13 billion of contractually-committed credit facilities with financial institutions, including $11.5 billion pursuant to a senior secured credit facility (the "Credit Agreement") established in December 2006, $1.1 billion of global Automotive unsecured credit facilities, and about $400 million of local credit facilities available to foreign Automotive affiliates. At July 1, 2007, $11.9 billion of these facilities were available for use. Of the lines available for use, 92% (or $11 billion) are committed through December 15, 2011, and the remainder are committed for a shorter period of time. For further discussion of our committed credit facilities, see Note 15 of the Notes to the Financial Statements of our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

Financial Services Sector

Ford Credit

Debt. At June 30, 2007, unsecured long-term debt (including notes payable within one year) was $67 billion, down about $5 billion from year-end 2006, primarily reflecting about $12 billion of debt maturities, partially offset by about $6 billion of unsecured long-term issuance and about $1 billion increase in the debt balance due to changes in currency exchange rates. Asset-backed long-term debt (including notes payable within one year) was $45.9 billion, up about $4 billion from year-end 2006, reflecting asset-backed long-term issuance in excess of amortization of asset-backed debt. Securitized off-balance sheet funding was $8.4 billion at June 30, 2007, down $2.8 billion from year-end 2006, primarily reflecting the amortization of previous securitizations.

Funding Strategy. As a result of lower credit ratings over the past few years, Ford Credit's unsecured funding costs have increased over time. While Ford Credit continues to access the unsecured debt market, Ford Credit has increased its use of securitization funding as it is presently more cost effective than unsecured funding and allows access to a broad investor base. Ford Credit plans to meet a significant portion of its 2007 funding requirements through securitizations and will continue to expand and diversify its asset-backed funding by asset class and region. In addition, Ford Credit has various alternative business arrangements for select products and markets that reduce its funding requirements while allowing it to support us (e.g., its partnering in Brazil for retail financing, and partnering by its subsidiary, FCE, with various financial institutions in Europe for full-service leasing and retail financing). Ford Credit is continuing to pursue such alternative business arrangements. Over time, Ford Credit may need to reduce further the amount of receivables and operating leases it purchases or originates. A significant reduction in Ford Credit's managed receivables would reduce its ongoing profits, and could adversely affect its ability to support the sale of Ford vehicles.

Term Funding Plan. Through June 30, 2007, Ford Credit completed about $8 billion of public term funding transactions, including about $6 billion unsecured long-term debt and $2 billion retail asset-backed securitization in the U.S. In addition, Ford Credit completed a $1.3 billion public retail asset-backed securitization transaction in Germany during July 2007. Ford Credit expects its full-year 2007 public term funding to be between $11 billion and $13 billion.

Through June 30, 2007, Ford Credit completed about $12 billion of private term funding transactions (excluding its on-balance sheet asset-backed commercial paper programs and proceeds from revolving transactions) in several markets. In addition, Ford Credit completed about $1 billion of private term funding transactions in Europe in July 2007. These $13 billion of transactions included lease, wholesale and retail asset-backed securitizations and unsecured term debt executed in private transactions. Ford Credit expects its full-year 2007 private term funding transactions to be between $20 billion and $25 billion.

*Credit facilities of our VIEs are excluded as we do not control their use.

(c) Supported by a bank liquidity facility equal to at least 100% of the principal amount of FCAR program ("FCAR") and 5% of the principal amount of Motown NotesSM wholesale securitization program ("Motown Notes").

(d) As of July 1, 2007.

At June 30, 2007, Ford Credit's capacity (which includes capacity in Ford Credit's committed liquidity programs, asset-backed commercial paper programs, and credit facilities) and cash was $81.3 billion. Of this amount, Ford Credit could utilize $61.2 billion (based on the availability of eligible assets and the level of cash required to support on-balance sheet securitizations), of which $34.5 billion was utilized as of June 30, 2007.

Cash, Cash Equivalents and Marketable Securities. At June 30, 2007, Ford Credit's cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities (excluding marketable securities related to insurance activities) totaled $16.7 billion. In the normal course of its funding activities, Ford Credit may generate more proceeds than are necessary for its immediate funding needs. These excess amounts are maintained primarily as highly liquid investments, which provide liquidity for Ford Credit's short-term funding needs and gives Ford Credit flexibility in the use of its other funding programs. Ford Credit's cash balances include amounts to be used only to support Ford Credit's on-balance sheet securitizations of approximately $7.5 billion at June 30, 2007 (of which $3 billion was accumulated to pay a July 2007 wholesale term maturity).

Committed Liquidity Programs. Ford Credit has entered into agreements with a number of bank-sponsored asset-backed commercial paper conduits ("conduits") and other financial institutions whereby such parties are contractually committed, at Ford Credit's option, to purchase from Ford Credit eligible retail or wholesale assets or to make advances under asset-backed securities backed by wholesale assets for proceeds up to $32.1 billion at June 30, 2007 ($17.5 billion retail and $14.6 billion wholesale). These committed liquidity programs have varying maturity dates, with $22 billion having maturities within the next twelve months, and the balance having maturities between 2008 and 2011. Ford Credit's ability to obtain funding under these programs is subject to having a sufficient amount of assets eligible for these programs. At June 30, 2007, $15.2 billion of these commitments were in use. These programs are extremely liquid funding sources as Ford Credit is able to obtain funding from available capacity generally within two days. These programs are free of material adverse change clauses, restrictive financial covenants (for example, debt-to-equity limitations and minimum net worth requirements) and credit rating triggers that could limit Ford Credit's ability to obtain funding. However, the unused portion of these commitments may be terminated if the performance of the underlying assets deteriorates beyond specified levels. Based on Ford Credit's experience and knowledge as servicer of the related assets, Ford Credit does not expect any of these programs to be terminated due to such events.

In addition, Ford Credit has a multi-year committed liquidity program for the purchase of up to $6 billion of unrated asset-backed securities that at its option can be supported with various retail, wholesale, or lease assets. Ford Credit's ability to obtain funding under this program is subject to having a sufficient amount of assets available to issue the securities. This program is also free of material adverse change clauses, restrictive financial covenants (for example, debt-to-equity limitations and minimum net worth requirements) and credit rating triggers that could limit Ford Credit's ability to obtain funding. At June 30, 2007, Ford Credit had $3.2 billion of outstanding funding in this program.

Credit Facilities. At July 1, 2007, Ford Credit and its subsidiaries, including FCE, had $3.2 billion of contractually-committed unsecured credit facilities with financial institutions, of which $2.2 billion were available for use. Of the lines available for use, 12% (or about $300 million) are committed through December 31, 2011, and the remainder are committed for a shorter period of time. Of the $3.2 billion, about $500 million constitute Ford Credit bank lines (about $200 million global and about $300 million non-global) and $2.7 billion are FCE bank lines ($2.6 billion global and about $100 million non-global). The Ford Credit global credit facilities may be used, at Ford Credit's option, by any of its direct or indirect, majority-owned subsidiaries. Similarly, the FCE global credit facilities may be used, at FCE's option, by any of FCE's direct or indirect, majority-owned subsidiaries. Ford Credit or FCE, as the case may be, will guarantee any such borrowings. All of the global credit facilities are free of material adverse change clauses, restrictive financial covenants (for example, debt-to-equity limitations and minimum net worth requirements) and credit rating triggers that could limit Ford Credit's ability (and that of its subsidiaries) to obtain funding.

In addition, at July 1, 2007, banks provided $17.6 billion of contractually-committed liquidity facilities to support Ford Credit's two on-balance sheet, asset-backed commercial paper programs; $17.3 billion supported FCAR program and $300 million supported Motown Notes. Of the contractually-committed liquidity facilities, 46% (or $8 billion) are committed through June 30, 2012, and the remainder are committed for a shorter period of time. The FCAR and Motown Notes programs must be supported by liquidity facilities equal to at least 100% and 5%, respectively, of their outstanding balances. At July 1, 2007, $17 billion of FCAR's bank liquidity facilities were available to support FCAR's asset-backed commercial paper, subordinated debt or FCAR's purchase of Ford Credit's asset-backed securities, and the remaining $300 million of FCAR's bank liquidity facilities were available to support FCAR's purchase of Ford Credit's asset-backed securities. Utilization of these facilities is subject to conditions specific to each program and Ford Credit having a sufficient amount of securitizable assets. The Motown Notes program bank liquidity facilities are available to support the issuance of Motown Notes, but these facilities cannot be accessed directly to fund the purchase of Ford Credit's wholesale receivables. Ford Credit is not presently issuing Motown notes but may resume issuance in the future. Ford Credit's ability to issue Motown Notes is subject to investor demand. At July 1, 2007, the outstanding balances were $14.6 billion for the FCAR program and zero for the Motown Notes program.

Leverage. Ford Credit uses leverage, or the debt-to-equity ratio, to make various business decisions, including establishing pricing for retail, wholesale and lease financing, and assessing its capital structure. Ford Credit refers to its shareholder's interest and its historic stockholder's equity as equity. Ford Credit calculates leverage on a financial statement basis and on a managed basis.

The following table illustrates the calculation of Ford Credit's financial statement leverage (in billions, except for ratios):

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006
Total debt	$ 137.7	$ 139.7
Total equity	12.4	11.8
Debt-to-equity ratio (to 1)	11.1	11.9

The following table illustrates the calculation of Ford Credit's managed leverage (in billions, except for ratios):

	June 30, 2007	December 31, 2006
Total debt	$ 137.7	$ 139.7
Securitized off-balance sheet receivables outstanding	9.3	12.2

Total Company

Stockholders' Equity. Our stockholders' equity was approximately negative $2 billion at June 30, 2007, improved by $1.5 billion compared with December 31, 2006. This improvement primarily reflected favorable changes in retained earnings due to the adoption of FIN 48 (see Note 6 of the Notes to the Financial Statements for details of FIN 48) and favorable net income from the first half of 2007, offset partially by unfavorable changes in Accumulated other comprehensive income/(loss) (see Note 13 of the Notes to the Financial Statements for details of Other comprehensive income/(loss)).

For a discussion of the impact to stockholders' equity as a result of the conversion of Trust Preferred Securities in the third quarter of 2007, see Note 14 of the Notes to the Financial Statements.

Credit Ratings

Our short- and long-term debt is rated by four credit rating agencies designated as nationally recognized statistical rating organizations ("NRSROs") by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"):

- DBRS Limited ("DBRS");
- Fitch, Inc. ("Fitch");
- Moody's Investors Service, Inc. ("Moody's"); and
- Standard & Poor's Rating Services, a division of McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("S&P").

Ford

In June 2007, S&P raised the Issue Rating on Ford's senior secured credit facilities to B+ from B. There were no other changes to the ratings assigned to us.

Ford Credit

There were no changes to the ratings assigned to Ford Credit.

The following chart summarizes the ratings and the outlook assigned to us as of June 30, 2007:

NRSRO RATINGS*
	Ford				Ford Credit
Issuer Default/ Corporate/ Issuer Rating	Long-Term Senior Unsecured	Senior Secured	Outlook / Trend	Long-Term Senior Unsecured	Short-Term Unsecured	Outlook / Trend
DBRS	B (low)	CCC (high)	B (high)	Negative	B	R-4	Negative
Fitch	B	B-	BB	Negative	BB-	B	Negative
Moody's	B3	Caa1	Ba3	Negative	B1	NP	Negative
S&P	B	CCC+	B+	Negative	B	B-3	Negative

*Rating and Investment Information, Inc. ("R&I") was recognized as an NRSRO by the SEC in May 2007. R&I assigns a long-term issue rating of BB- with a negative outlook to Ford Credit's February 2005 ¥160 Billion 1.71% bond issuance which matures in February 2008.

S&P presently assigns FCE a long-term rating of B+, maintaining a one notch positive differential versus Ford Credit.

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

At June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, the total outstanding principal amount of receivables sold by Ford Credit in off-balance sheet securitizations was $9.3 billion and $12.2 billion, respectively. At June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, Ford Credit's retained interests in such sold receivables were $868 million and $990 million, respectively.

*Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)OUTLOOK

Our current projection of third quarter 2007 production for certain segments is as follows (in thousands):

	Third Quarter Vehicle Unit Production	2007 Over/(Under) 2006
Ford North America	640	(2)
Ford Europe	410	(14)
PAG	168	32

We have set and communicated the following 2007 planning assumptions and operational metrics:

Planning Assumptions	Plan	First Six Months	Full Year Outlook
Industry Volume (SAAR incl. heavy trucks):
–U.S. (million units)	16.8	16.7	16.5 – 16.8
–Europe (million units)	17.6	17.9	17.7
Operational Metrics
Compared with 2006:
Quality	Improved	Improved	Improved
Market share
–U.S.	Lower	Lower	Lower
–Other regions	Higher	Flat	Flat
Automotive costs (in billions)*	Better	$1.1 Better	Better
Absolute Amount:
Operating-related cash flow (in billions)	Negative	$2.9 Positive	Negative, but better than plan
Capital spending (in billions)	About $7	$2.6	≤ $6.5

* At constant volume, mix and exchange; excluding special items.

Based on the July 2007 sales results and recent economic indicators, particularly regarding the housing sector, we now believe that the full-year U.S. industry volume outlook will be in the range of 16.5 million – 16.8 million units.

Overall, we are on track to meet our operational metrics for 2007, with the exception of increasing market share in regions outside of the United States.

Our results in recent years have generally been stronger in the first two quarters than in the last two, and we expect this to be the case in 2007. We currently anticipate substantial overall losses in both the third and fourth quarters, primarily in North America. Including special items, we expect that our full-year pre-tax results for our Automotive operations – excluding our Other Automotive business unit discussed below – will be a loss, though substantially improved from full-year 2006.

We currently expect full-year pre-tax results for our Other Automotive business unit to be a loss of about $800 million in 2007, compared with a profit of about $250 million in 2006. This primarily reflects increased interest expense related to increased debt levels resulting from our financing actions in the fourth quarter of 2006. We expect this factor to be offset partially by higher interest income generated by our larger Automotive gross cash portfolio and decreases in interest expense due to the conversion of about 43 million of our Trust Preferred Securities. Additionally, we realized more than $600 million of favorable tax-related interest during the third quarter of 2006 that will not be repeated in 2007.

Through the first half of 2007, we achieved $2.3 billion of annual operating cost reductions in North America as compared with 2005 (at constant volume, mix and exchange, excluding special items). We do not expect to see the same level of improvement in the second half of 2007, primarily due to the effect of higher regulatory and commodity costs.

Our goals of achieving profitability in our Ford North America and overall Automotive operations by 2009 and achieving $5 billion in annual operating cost reductions in our Ford North America operations by year-end 2008 are based on becoming competitive in all areas of the business, including labor costs.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

We continue to work to sell or close the majority of our ACH facilities by the end of 2008, though as previously reported we expect that portions of at least one facility will remain open beyond 2008 to provide for an orderly re-sourcing of business to the supply base. We also are exploring in greater detail the potential sale of Jaguar/Land Rover, and are in discussions with selected parties who have expressed interest. We also are conducting a strategic review of Volvo, and expect to finish this study by year-end.

We now anticipate that, from 2007 through 2009, cumulative Automotive operating-related cash outflows and cumulative restructuring expenditures will be in the range of $15 billion to $16 billion, as opposed to the $17 billion previously projected. We anticipate that about one third of this outflow will occur during 2007.

We expect Ford Credit's pre-tax profits to be about $1.3 billion to $1.4 billion this year, excluding the impact of gains and losses related to market valuation adjustments from derivatives. Compared with the prior projection of $1.2 billion, the improvement primarily reflects higher average receivables, lower operating costs, and continued good performance in its credit losses. The lower earnings expected in 2007 compared with 2006 primarily reflect higher borrowing costs, lower credit loss reserve reductions, higher depreciation expense for leased vehicles and costs associated with Ford Credit's North American business transformation initiative. We expect reductions in other operating costs to be a partial offset. At year-end 2007, we anticipate Ford Credit's managed receivables will be about $145 billion.

We will continue to face significant headwinds, including the effects of the continuing correction in the U.S. housing market, particularly as it relates to the demand for pickup trucks, higher regulatory and commodity costs, and the continuing weakness of the U.S. dollar. However, we continue to expect that our overall full-year 2007 results, including special items, will be substantially improved from 2006, though still a net loss.

Risk Factors

Statements included or incorporated by reference herein may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are based on expectations, forecasts and assumptions by our management and involve a number of risks, uncertainties, and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated, including, without limitation:

- Continued decline in market share;
- Continued or increased price competition resulting from industry overcapacity, currency fluctuations or other factors;
 - An increase in or acceleration of market shift away from sales of trucks, sport utility vehicles, or other more profitable vehicles, particularly in the United States;
- A significant decline in industry sales, particularly in the United States or Europe, resulting from slowing economic growth, geo-political events or other factors;
 - Lower-than-anticipated market acceptance of new or existing products;
 - Continued or increased high prices for or reduced availability of fuel;
 - Currency or commodity price fluctuations;
- Adverse effects from the bankruptcy or insolvency of, change in ownership or control of, or alliances entered into by a major competitor;
 - Economic distress of suppliers that has in the past and may in the future require us to provide financial support or take other measures to ensure supplies of components or materials;
 - Labor or other constraints on our ability to restructure our business;
 - Work stoppages at Ford or supplier facilities or other interruptions of supplies;
 - Single-source supply of components or materials;

- Substantial pension and postretirement health care and life insurance liabilities impairing our liquidity or financial condition;
- Worse-than-assumed economic and demographic experience for our postretirement benefit plans (e.g., discount rates, investment returns, and health care cost trends);
- The discovery of defects in vehicles resulting in delays in new model launches, recall campaigns or increased warranty costs;
- Increased safety, emissions (e.g., CO₂), fuel economy, or other (e.g., pension funding) regulation resulting in higher costs, cash expenditures, and/or sales restrictions;

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

- Unusual or significant litigation or governmental investigations arising out of alleged defects in our products or otherwise;
- A change in our requirements for parts or materials where we have entered into long-term supply arrangements that commit us to purchase minimum or fixed quantities of certain parts or materials, or to pay a minimum amount to the seller ("take-or-pay" contracts);
 - Adverse effects on our results from a decrease in or cessation of government incentives;
 - Adverse effects on our operations resulting from certain geo-political or other events;
 - Substantial negative Automotive operating-related cash flows for the near- to medium-term affecting our ability to meet our obligations, invest in our business or refinance our debt;
- Substantial levels of Automotive indebtedness adversely affecting our financial condition or preventing us from fulfilling our debt obligations (which may grow because we are able to incur substantially more debt, including additional secured debt);
- Inability of Ford Credit to access debt or securitization markets around the world at competitive rates or in sufficient amounts due to additional credit rating downgrades or otherwise;
 - Higher-than-expected credit losses;
- Increased competition from banks or other financial institutions seeking to increase their share of financing Ford vehicles;
 - Changes in interest rates;
 - Collection and servicing problems related to finance receivables and net investment in operating leases;
 - Lower-than-anticipated residual values or higher-than-expected return volumes for leased vehicles; and
- New or increased credit, consumer or data protection or other regulations resulting in higher costs and/or additional financing restrictions.

We cannot be certain that any expectation, forecast or assumption made by management in preparing forward-looking statements will prove accurate, or that any projection will be realized. It is to be expected that there may be differences between projected and actual results. Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of their initial issuance, and we do not undertake any obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. For additional discussion of these risks, see "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

Other Postretirement Employee Benefits (Retiree Health Care and Life Insurance)

Remeasurement Assumptions. We remeasured the U.S. hourly retiree health care plan as of June 30, 2007 as a result of a curtailment related to the termination of hourly employees. The remeasurement (including impact of the curtailment) had no material impact on our obligation. The weighted average discount rate used to determine the benefit obligation for U.S. plans at June 30, 2007 was 6.18%. As of June 30, 2007, the weighted average initial health care cost trend rate was 6%.

Sensitivity Analysis. The sensitivity analysis has not changed materially from that disclosed in our 2006 Form 10-K Report.

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS ISSUED BUT NOT YET ADOPTED

We have not yet adopted SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities – Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115 ("SFAS No. 159"). See "Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in our Form 10-Q Report for the period ended March 31, 2007 ("First Quarter Form 10-Q Report") for further discussion of this standard.

We have not yet adopted SFAS No. 157 or the measurement date requirement of SFAS No. 158 for a minimal number of our postretirement benefit plans. See "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in our 2006 Form 10-K Report for further discussion of these standards.

OTHER FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The interim financial information included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the periods ended June 30, 2007 and 2006 has not been audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PricewaterhouseCoopers"). In reviewing such information, PricewaterhouseCoopers has applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for reviews of interim financial information. Accordingly, you should restrict your reliance on their reports on such information. PricewaterhouseCoopers is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 for their reports on the interim financial information, because such reports do not constitute "reports" or "parts" of the registration statements prepared or certified by PricewaterhouseCoopers within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Securities Act of 1933.

ITEM 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

Automotive Sector

Foreign Currency Risk. The net fair value of our foreign exchange forward and option contracts as of June 30, 2007 was an asset of approximately $387 million compared to a net fair value asset of $705 million as of December 31, 2006. The potential decrease in fair value of foreign exchange forward and option contracts, assuming a 10% adverse change in quoted foreign currency exchange rates, would be approximately $2 billion and $2.1 billion at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, respectively.

Commodity Price Risk. The net fair value of commodity forward and option contracts as of June 30, 2007 was an asset of approximately $534 million, compared to a net fair value asset of $750 million as of December 31, 2006. The potential decrease in fair value of commodity forward and option contracts, assuming a 10% adverse change in the underlying commodity price, would be $171 million at June 30, 2007 and $200 million at December 31, 2006.

Financial Services Sector

Interest Rate Risk. To provide a quantitative measure of the sensitivity of Ford Credit's pre-tax cash flow to changes in interest rates, Ford Credit uses interest rate scenarios that assume a hypothetical, instantaneous increase or decrease in interest rates of 100 basis points (or 1%) across all maturities, as well as a base case that assumes that interest rates remain constant at existing levels. These interest rate scenarios are purely hypothetical and do not represent Ford Credit's view of future interest rate movements. The differences in pre-tax cash flow between these scenarios and the base case over a twelve-month period represent an estimate of the sensitivity of Ford Credit's pre-tax cash flow. Under this model, Ford Credit estimates that at June 30, 2007, all else constant, such an increase in interest rates would reduce Ford Credit's pre-tax cash flow by $74 million over the next twelve months, compared with $86 million at December 31, 2006. The sensitivity analysis presented above assumes a one-percentage point interest rate change to the yield curve that is both instantaneous and parallel. In reality, interest rate changes are rarely instantaneous or parallel and rates could move more or less than the one percentage point assumed in our analysis. As a result, the actual impact to pre-tax cash flow could be higher or lower than the results detailed above.

ITEM 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures. Alan Mulally, our Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), and Donat R. Leclair, Jr., our Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), have performed an evaluation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, as that term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended

(the “Exchange Act”), as of June 30, 2007, and each has concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our periodic reports filed under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by the SEC's rules and forms and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the CEO and CFO to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our sale of Aston Martin in the second quarter of 2007, pursuant to which we retained an interest in the holding company created by the purchaser, required us to account for the disposition of the entity and to transform ongoing transactions that were previously intra-company and eliminated upon consolidation into transactions with an unconsolidated entity.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATIONITEM 1. Legal Proceedings.Environmental Matters.*

AutoAlliance Air Emissions (previously reported on page 36 of our First Quarter Form 10-Q Report). As previously disclosed, AutoAlliance International, Inc. ("AAI"), our joint venture with Mazda Motor Corporation, received several Letters of Violation from the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality ("MDEQ") asserting, among other things, that odors from AAI's Flat Rock, Michigan plant constituted a nuisance. AAI has agreed to resolve this matter by entering into a consent agreement with MDEQ which primarily obligates AAI to re-route emissions from certain painting operations and modify emission-control equipment at the Flat Rock plant, as well as pay a $250,000 penalty.

Other Matters.

Diesel Engine Litigation (previously reported on page 30 of our 2006 Form 10-K Report and page 36 of our First Quarter Form 10-Q Report). As previously reported, in January 2007 we filed suit against International Truck and Engine Corporation ("International") (a subsidiary of Navistar International Transportation Corporation), the single-source supplier of diesel engines for our F-Series Super Duty and Econoline vehicles. As reported in our First Quarter Form 10-Q Report, International countersued. In June 2007, International served us with its own suit filed in Cook County, Illinois, alleging breach of our diesel engine pre-development contract. On July 6, 2007, we filed a motion to dismiss the Illinois complaint pursuant to a provision in the pre-development contract requiring the parties to mediate disputes.

ITEM 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

During the second quarter of 2007, we purchased shares of our Common Stock as follows:

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased*	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Plans or Programs	Maximum Number (or Approximate Dollar Value) of Shares that May Yet Be Purchased Under the Plans or Programs
April 1, 2007 through April 30, 2007	0	$ 0.00	0	**
May 1, 2007 through May 31, 2007	2,712	$ 8.84	0	**
June 1, 2007 through June 30, 2007	27,593	$ 9.08	0	**
Total	30,305	$ 9.06	0

We presently have no publicly announced repurchase program in place. Shares were acquired from our employees or directors in accordance with our various compensation plans as a result of share withholdings to pay income taxes with respect to: (i) the lapse of restrictions on restricted stock, (ii) the issuance of unrestricted stock, including issuances as a result of the conversion of restricted stock equivalents, or (iii) to pay the exercise price and related income taxes with respect to certain exercises of stock options. There were no share purchases from the Ford Motor Savings and Stock Investment Plan for Salaried Employees ("SSIP") or the Tax Efficient Savings Plan for Hourly Employees ("TESPHE"). Purchase of shares when participants in those plans elect to sell units in the Ford Stock Fund ("Fund") was ceased as of February 9, 2007.

No publicly announced repurchase program in place.

ITEM 5. Other Information.

Governmental Standards

Motor Vehicle Fuel Economy. In the wake of the Supreme Court's decision in Massachusetts v. EPA (previously reported on page 37 of the First Quarter Form 10-Q Report), the Bush Administration announced its intention to promulgate new federal rules regulating greenhouse gas emissions from motor vehicles. President Bush signed an Executive Order directing the Department of Transportation, the Department of Energy, and the Environmental Protection Agency to cooperate in this effort. We expect that a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking will be published by the end of 2007, and final rules issued by the end of 2008. As previously disclosed, depending upon the nature and structure of the resulting rules, the new rules could have an effect similar to a significant increase in corporate average fuel economy (CAFE) standards.

There also has been considerable activity in Congress relating to CAFE standards in recent months. The Senate recently passed an energy bill amending various provisions in the CAFE law, and calling for automobile manufacturers to meet a combined car/truck CAFE standard of 35 miles per gallon by the 2020 model year. A series of bills is currently under consideration in the House; all call for CAFE increases, but the degree and timing of the proposed increases vary among the bills. The CAFE provisions in the Senate bill, as well as some of the House proposals, likely would have an adverse effect on our ability to continue to offer a full range of products in the future, requiring us to curtail production and sale of medium- and full-size as well as high performance cars and trucks, and/or take costly actions to increase market support programs (i.e., price reductions) for our most fuel-efficient vehicles.
