Amendment and Restatement of Long-Term Incentive Plan

On November 6, 2018, the Board of Directors ( Board ) of Protective Life Corporation (the Company ) approved an amendment and restatement of the Protective Life Corporation Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP ). The amendment and restatement of the LTIP, among other things, (i) clarifies that the Compensation and Management Succession Committee of the Board (the Committee ) can adjust the calculation of performance criteria, including PL Tangible Book Value (as defined in the LTIP), with respect to awards of Performance Units under the LTIP in order to recognize certain special or nonrecurring situations or circumstances for the Company, (ii) allows the Committee to adjust the definition and calculation of PL Tangible Book Value with respect to awards of Restricted Units under the LTIP in order to recognize certain special or nonrecurring situations or circumstances for the Company, (iii) confirms that the exercise by the Committee of its authority to adjust the calculation of performance criteria with respect to Performance Units and Restricted Units does not constitute an amendment of an award, and (iv) simplifies the process for determining the composition of the committee of officers of the Company which is authorized to administer the LTIP in respect of certain participants in the LTIP.

The foregoing description of the LTIP is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the LTIP, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
