This Current Report on Form 8-K, together with the exhibits attached hereto (collectively, this Form 8-K), contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as may, expect, expectations, outlook, forecast, guidance, intend, believe, could, project, should and similar terminology. These risks and uncertainties include factors such as:

our ability to successfully integrate the Western Window Systems operations into our existing operations and the diversion of management's attention from ongoing business and regular business responsibilities to effect such integration;

the effects of increased expenses or unanticipated liabilities incurred as a result of, or due to activities related to, the acquisition of Western Window Systems;

the risk that the anticipated cost savings, synergies, revenue enhancement strategies and other benefits from the acquisition of Western Window Systems may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected or that our actual integration costs may exceed our estimates; disruption from the acquisition of Western Window Systems making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers or suppliers of Western Window Systems;

our level of indebtedness, which increased in connection with the acquisition of Western Window Systems; adverse changes in new home starts and home repair and remodeling trends, especially in the state of Florida, where the substantial portion of our sales are currently generated and are expected to continue to be generated, and in the western United States, where the substantial portion sales of the Western Window Systems operations are generated, and in the U.S. generally;

macroeconomic conditions in Florida, where the substantial portion of our sales are generated, and in California, Texas, Arizona, Nevada, Colorado, Oregon, Washington and Hawaii, where the substantial portion of the products of Western Window Systems operations are sold, and in the U.S. generally; raw material prices, especially for aluminum, glass and vinyl, including, price increases due to the implementation of tariffs and other trade-related restrictions;

our dependence on a limited number of suppliers for certain of our key materials;

sales fluctuations to and changes in our relationships with key customers;

Edgar Filing: PGT Innovations, Inc. - Form 8-K/A

in addition to the acquisition of Western Window Systems, our ability to successfully integrate businesses we may acquire, or that any business we acquire may not perform as we expected at the time we acquired it; increases in transportation costs, including due to increases in fuel prices;

our dependence on our impact-resistant product lines and contemporary indoor/outdoor window and door systems, and on consumer preferences for those types and styles of products; product liability and warranty claims brought against us;

federal, state and local laws and regulations, including unfavorable changes in local building codes and environmental and energy code regulations;

our dependence on our limited number of geographically concentrated manufacturing facilities;

risks associated with our information technology systems, including cybersecurity-related risks, such as unauthorized intrusions into our systems by hackers and theft of data and information from our systems, and the risks that our information technology systems do not function as intended or experience temporary or long-term failures to perform as intended; and the other risks and uncertainties discussed in our other filings with the SEC.

Statements in this Form 8-K that are forward-looking statements include, without limitation, our expectations regarding: the assumptions and estimates made in the unaudited pro forma financial statements, including with respect to the valuation of assets for the purposes of purchase price accounting and allocation and the realization of the expected benefits of the acquisition of Western Window Systems, including the ability to sell products of the Western Window Systems operations profitably in the near term or at all in the repair and remodel market and in PGT Innovations core markets, and the ability to sell PGT Innovations products in Western Window Systems core markets profitably or at all. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this Form 8-K. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances after the date of this Form 8-K.
