ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

(a) This Schedule 13D is being filed by Marcus E. Jundt.

(b) The principal residence or office of Mr. Jundt is 1360 12th Street Northeast, Watertown, SD 57201.

(c) Mr. Jundt is a private investor.

(d) (e) During the last five years, Mr. Jundt has not been convicted in a criminal proceeding, been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction as a result of which such individual was or is subject to a judgment, decree, or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting, or mandating activity subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Mr. Jundt is a citizen of the United States.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

The 600,731 shares owned by Mr. Jundt were acquired as follows. (i) Mr. Jundt received 540,731 shares on October 18, 2006 as a gift from the Mary Joann Jundt Irrevocable Trust. Mr. Jundt paid no consideration in this transfer. (ii) Mr. Jundt purchased 60,000 shares on November 21, 2007 upon exercise of a stock option at $6.00 per share. In connection with this purchase, Mr. Jundt borrowed $360,000 from Crown Bank and pledged the 60,000 shares to Crown Bank in connection with the loan.

The 10,800 shares owned by trusts for Mr. Jundt's children, as described in Item 5, were acquired by the trusts prior to the Issuer's initial public offering in 2005.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Mr. Jundt has beneficially owned significant amounts of the Issuer's common stock since prior to the Issuer's initial public offering in 2005. He has made previous filings with respect to his beneficial ownership on Schedule 13G and amendments thereto. In October 2006 and November 2007, at the times he acquired the shares he currently beneficially owns, as described in Item 3, Mr. Jundt was Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer. He acquired such shares for investment purposes. Currently, Mr. Jundt is not an executive officer or director of the Issuer.

On January 25, 2010, Mr. Jundt transmitted a letter to the Issuer (the Notice), attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The Notice, in compliance with the advance notice requirement of stockholder nominees in the Issuer's Bylaws, advised the Issuer that Mr. Jundt was nominating himself for election to the Board of Directors of the Issuer at the Annual Meeting. On January 28, 2010, Mr. Jundt received a letter from Anthony L. Winczewski, Chairman of the Issuer's Nominating Committee, acknowledging receipt of Mr. Jundt's letter. Mr. Winczewski's letter asserted, among other things, that the Notice was deficient under the requirements of the Issuer's Bylaws, with which assertion Mr. Jundt disagrees. On February 3, 2010, Mr. Jundt transmitted a letter to the Issuer, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference, responding to Mr. Winczewski's letter and, among other things, providing certain additional requested information including clarification of his request that the Company include his name and background information in the 2010 proxy statement and to include his name on any proxy card with the individuals nominated by the Company's board of directors for election as a director of the Company. On February 4, 2010, Mr. Jundt received another letter from Mr. Winczewski, asserting, among other things, that the Notice as amended by Mr. Jundt's February 3 letter continued to be deficient under the requirements of the Issuer's Bylaws, with which assertion Mr. Jundt also disagrees. On February 5, 2010, Mr. Jundt transmitted another letter to the Issuer, attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3 and incorporated herein by reference, responding to Mr. Winczewski's letter and providing certain additional requested information. On February 6, 2010, Mr. Jundt received another letter from Mr. Winczewski (the February 6 Letter). The February 6 Letter stated that the Issuer's Nominating Committee had determined that Mr. Jundt's February 5 letter does not comply in all technical respects with the requirements of Section 1.13 of the Bylaws, with which assertion Mr. Jundt disagrees. However, the February 6 Letter stated that the Nominating Committee and the Board have determined that collectively, Mr. Jundt's February 5 letter, together with the Notice and the February 3 letter, substantially comply on their face with the requirements of Section 1.13 of the Issuer's Bylaws. The February 6 Letter stated that, therefore, the Issuer in good faith, but subject to the accuracy and completeness of all information, representations and undertakings made by Mr. Jundt in his correspondence, and further subject to Mr. Jundt's compliance with Rule 14a-9 under the Exchange Act, was not rejecting and did accept the validity of the Notice, as so amended, for purposes of Section 1.13 of the Bylaws. The February 6 Letter also stated that neither the Nominating Committee nor the Board will nominate Mr. Jundt as a Board nominee or recommend him as a candidate for election at the Annual Meeting, and Mr. Jundt's name and background information will not appear in any of the Company's proxy materials.

As permitted under Section 1.13 of the Bylaws, Mr. Jundt intends to appear at the Annual Meeting to place his name into nomination for election to the Board of Directors. In addition to the activities described in this Item 4,, Mr. Jundt, as an investor, intends to review his investment in the Issuer on a continuing basis and, depending on various factors, including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and management strategy, the price levels of the common stock, conditions in the securities markets, conditions in the industry and general economic conditions, may in the future take such actions with respect to his investment in the Issuer as he deems appropriate including, without limitation, purchasing additional shares of common stock or selling some or all of his shares or to change his intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4.

Except as set forth in this Item 4, the Reporting Person has no present plans or proposal that relates to or would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

STOCKHOLDERS OF KONA GRILL, INC. ARE ADVISED TO READ THE PROXY STATEMENT AND ANY OTHER DOCUMENTS RELATED TO THE SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IN SUPPORT OF MR. JUNDT FOR USE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING WHEN AND IF THEY BECOME AVAILABLE, BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION, INCLUDING INFORMATION RELATING TO THE PARTICIPANT IN ANY SUCH PROXY SOLICITATION. WHEN AND IF COMPLETED, A DEFINITIVE PROXY STATEMENT AND A FORM OF PROXY WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF KONA GRILL, INC. FROM THE PARTICIPANT AT NO CHARGE AND WILL ALSO BE AVAILABLE AT NO CHARGE AT THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION'S WEBSITE AT WWW.SEC.GOV.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN THE SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

(a) Mr. Jundt may be deemed to beneficially own 611,531 shares, representing approximately 6.7% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Issuer. The calculation of the foregoing percentage is based on a total of 9,143,856 shares of Common Stock outstanding on October 31, 2009, as reported in the Issuer's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

(b) Mr. Jundt has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to 600,731 shares of the Common Stock. Mr. Jundt has reported that he may be deemed the beneficial owner of an aggregate 10,800 shares held in trusts for the benefit of his children; however, he is not a trustee of the trusts, does not hold voting or dispositive power over such shares and disclaims beneficial ownership of such shares.

Re: Letter dated January 28, 2010 from Kona Grill, Inc. (the Company) to Marcus E. Jundt.

To the Secretary of Kona Grill, Inc.:

This letter is sent in response to the Company s letter dated January 28, 2010 (the Company Letter) addressed to me, which, among other things, stated that my notice of nomination of a director dated January 25, 2010 and delivered to the Company (the Notice) was defective and of no effect under the Company s amended and restated by-laws currently in effect (the Bylaws).

As an initial matter, I, after consultation with securities counsel, respectively disagree that the Notice was defective under the Bylaws. The Company Letter quoted the following portion of Section 1.13 of the Bylaws as the relevant portion relating to the stockholder nomination process, and I therefore assume that the Company felt that the Notice failed to adequately address such requirements:

A stockholder s notice to the corporation of nominations for a regular or special meeting of stockholders shall set forth (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director: (1) such person s name, age, business address and residence address and principal occupation or employment, (2) all other information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or that is otherwise required, pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, [as amended (the Exchange Act)].

The Notice provides my name, age, business address and residence address and principal occupation or employment, as follows: age 44; business and residential address: 1360 12th Street Northeast, Watertown, SD 57201; principal occupation or employment: investor. Furthermore, as to the required disclosures set forth in Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act, my biography contained in the Notice is taken from the Company s 2009 Proxy Statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) dated effective March 17, 2009, and from the Company s Form 8-K filed with the SEC on August 12, 2009 with respect to my Separation Agreement with the Company set forth therein (collectively, the Previous Filings). I also supplied current information on my beneficial ownership of the Company s common stock.

If the disclosures set forth in the Previous Filings complied with the relevant SEC requirements, including without limitation Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act, I do not understand how the same information no longer complies today. To the extent such Rules were modified by those certain Rule amendments set forth in the Federal Register on December 23, 2009, with respect to Schedule 14A under Regulation 14A, the biography set forth in the Notice took these amendments into account, and to the extent applicable, accordingly modified the disclosures set forth in the Notice. Where no information was required in response to a particular item of Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act, no information was provided in the Notice. Accordingly, I respectfully disagree with the Company s refusal to give effect to the Notice and hereby reserve all rights related to such refusal. Your counsel should contact Martin Rosenbaum of the Maslon firm in Minneapolis (612.672.8326) (martin.rosenbaum@maslon.com) if they disagree with our assessment.

Furthermore, as an accommodation to the Company and in no way whatsoever acknowledging any deficiencies in the Notice, I am providing certain additional information to the Company in hopes of moving the nomination process ahead without any further delay.

The Company Letter requests clarification of the purpose of the Notice. The Bylaws do not require a Company stockholder to request consideration of the nominating committee and the Company's board of directors to become a nominee to serve on the Company's board of directors. To the contrary, the submission of the Notice to the Company eliminates the need to seek the approval of the nominating committee and board of directors of the Company. However, based upon my prior executive and board experience with the Company and the other compelling reasons set forth in the Notice, I respectfully request that the nominating committee and the Company's board of directors recommend me for election as a director by the Company's stockholders at the 2010 annual stockholder meeting.

The Company's question about whether I am opposing all of the Company's board of directors nominees is somewhat confusing and irrelevant under Section 1.13 of the Bylaws. The Notice validly nominated me, and I intend to appear at the 2010 annual stockholders meeting of the Company to speak on my own behalf. I hope to receive enough stockholder votes to be one of the three candidates elected to the board of directors of the Company at the 2010 annual stockholders meeting. This process involves no active opposition on my part against any specific nominee of the Company's board of directors. At this time I do not intend to file materials with the SEC to solicit proxies and respectfully request that the Company include my name and background information in the 2010 proxy statement and to include my name on any proxy card with the individuals nominated by the Company's board of directors for election as a director of the Company. However, I reserve the right to solicit proxies in connection with the 2010 annual stockholders meeting, either by filing proxy materials with the SEC or in a manner exempt from filing requirements. In any event, I am seeking to become a director of the Company in my capacity as a major stockholder of the Company and as someone who fully intends to serve the interests of all stockholders of the Company, not as some sort of insurgent opposition, as stated in the Company Letter.

At this time, other than as stated above and in the Notice, I have no intention to take any other action at the 2010 stockholders meeting of the Company. As stated above, I believe that the Notice provided to the Company contained all information required by the Bylaws to nominate a person to the Company's board of directors. I have sent this letter to the Company as an accommodation only, and it shall not by any means be deemed an admission that the Notice is defective for any purpose. In the event that the Company requires more information from me to facilitate the nomination process, please contact me immediately (480-388-1009) (marcusjundt@yahoo.com) or my counsel, Martin Rosenbaum, so that we can respond in an appropriate, timely manner.

Sincerely,

Re: Letter dated February 4, 2010 from Kona Grill, Inc. (the Company) to Marcus E. Jundt.

Dear Mr. Winczewski:

This letter is sent in response to the Company's letter dated February 4, 2010 (the Company Letter) addressed to me, which, among other things, stated that my notice of nomination of a director set forth in my letter dated January 25, 2010 and delivered to the Company (the Notice), with additional information supplied by my letter dated February 3, 2010, was defective and of no effect under the Company's amended and restated by-laws currently in effect (the Bylaws).

I continue, after consultation with securities counsel, to respectfully disagree that the Notice was defective under the Bylaws. However, in the Company Letter, you requested that I confirm additional detailed information. As stated in my February 3 letter, I am willing to provide all additional relevant information requested by the Company as an accommodation to the Company. I am supplying such information below, in no way whatsoever acknowledging any deficiencies in the Notice and without acknowledging that such information is required pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise required under Section 1.13(II) of the Bylaws. In particular and not by way of limitation, I am not acknowledging that any actions taken or contemplated by me represent a solicitation for the purpose of opposing a solicitation subject to Regulation 14A as contemplated by Rule 14a-12(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

I note that the Company Letter states that the Nominating Committee and the Board have declined to nominate me as a Board candidate. As I stated in my February 3 letter, the Bylaws do not require that I seek or receive such nomination, as the submission of the Notice to the Company in compliance with the Bylaws eliminates the need to seek the approval of the nominating committee and Board. I continue to respectfully request that the Company include my name and background information in the 2010 proxy statement and to include my name on any proxy card with the individuals nominated by the Company's board of directors for election as a director of the Company. As stated in my letter dated February 3, 2010, I have no present intention to file proxy materials relating to the 2010 annual stockholders meeting. However, I continue to reserve the right to solicit proxies in connection with the annual meeting, either by filing proxy materials with the SEC or in a manner exempt from filing requirements.

I have included below each of the questions or requests in the Company letter, with my response:

- 1. Item 5(b)(1)(v) of Schedule 14A requires a participant (as such term is defined therein) to state the amount of each class of securities of the registrant which the participant owns of record but not beneficially. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate the amount of each class of securities of the Company, if any, you own of record but not beneficially (as such term is defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act).

Response: For any of the Company securities purchased or sold in the past two years, I confirm that no part of the purchase price or market value of any of the shares is represented by funds borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of acquiring or holding such securities. Therefore, the request for information in the second sentence of your request (3), above, is not applicable as there are no such borrowed or obtained funds.

- 9. Item 7(a) of Schedule 14A requires a participant to furnish the information required by Instruction 4 to Item 103 of Regulation S-K. Table of Contents

Response: No material legal proceedings exist in which I am a party adverse to the Company or have a material interest adverse to the Company, except as follows:

The Company has disclosed in its periodic reports that, on April 1, 2009, Samuel Beren, as trustee for the Samuel Beren Trust, filed a stockholder derivative suit in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. I am one of the named defendants in the lawsuit. Because this lawsuit is in the nature of a derivative action filed on behalf of the Company, technically, I am adverse to the Company. However, because the Company is also a nominal defendant in the action, I do not acknowledge or agree that my status as a defendant is a material interest adverse to the Company.

10. Item 7(b) of Schedule 14A requires a participant to furnish all the information required by Item 401 of Regulation S-K, which requires a description of any arrangement or understanding between a nominee and any other person(s) (naming such person(s)) pursuant to which the nominee was or is to be selected as a director or nominee. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate whether any such arrangement or understanding exists between you and any other person(s) and, if so, the nature and extent of such arrangements and relationships.

Response: No arrangement or understanding exists between me and any other person pursuant to which I was or am to be selected as a director or nominee of the Company.

11. Item 401(d) of Regulation S-K requires a statement of the nature of any family relationship between any director, executive officer, or person nominated or chosen by the registrant to become a director or executive officer. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate whether any such family relationship exists and, if so, the nature and extent of such relationship.

Response: There is no family relationship between myself and any current director or executive officer of the Company. I am not aware of any person nominated or chosen by the Company to become a director or executive officer. However, my understanding, based on publicly available documents, is that Mill Road Capital, L.P. is attempting to nominate three individuals to the Board of Directors of the Company: Thomas E. Lynch, Lawrence F. Harris and Craig S. Miller. There is no family relationship between myself and any of such individuals.

12. Item 401(f) of Regulation S-K requires a description of any involvement in certain legal proceedings or events that occurred during the past 10 years and that are material to an evaluation of the ability or integrity of any director, person nominated to become a director or executive officer of the registrant. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate whether you were involved in any such legal proceedings or events during the past 10 years.

Response: During the past 10 years, I have not been involved in any legal proceedings or events of the types enumerated in Item 401(f) of Regulation S-K. In particular, during the past 10 years, I have not been involved in any of the following proceedings or events:

a. I was Chief Executive Officer, Director and a significant shareholder of Jundt Associates, Inc. (JAI). Pursuant to Order dated December 14, 2007, the Hennepin County District Court in Minnesota appointed a receiver to administer the assets of JAI. Further information about these proceedings is provided under paragraph (ii) below.

Other than as stated above, no petition under the federal bankruptcy laws or any state insolvency law was filed by or against, or a receiver, fiscal agent or similar officer appointed by a court for the business or property of (i) me, (ii) any partnership in which I was a general partner at or within two years before such event, or (iii) any corporation or business association of which I was an executive officer at or within two years before such event.

b. I was not convicted in a criminal proceeding, nor was I the named subject of a criminal proceeding that is presently pending (other than traffic violations and other minor offenses).

c. I was not the subject of any court order, judgment or decree, not subsequently reversed, suspended, or vacated, which permanently or temporarily enjoined me from, or limited my participation in, any of the following activities: (1) acting as a futures commission merchant, introducing broker, commodity trading advisor, commodity pool operator, floor broker, leverage transaction merchant, any other person regulated by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, or an associated person of any such person, or as an investment advisor, underwriter, broker, or dealer in securities, or as an affiliated person, director, or employee of any investment company, bank, savings and loan association or insurance company, or engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with such activities; (2) engaging in any type of business practice; or (3) engaging in any activity in connection with the purchase or sale of any security or commodity in connection with any violation of federal or state securities laws or federal commodities laws.

d. I was not the subject of any order, judgment, or decree, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, of any federal or state authority barring, suspending, or otherwise limiting for more than 60 days my right to engage in any of the activities described in subparagraph (c) (1) above or your right to be associated with persons in any of such activities.

e. I was not found by a court in a civil action or by the SEC or by the Commodities Futures Trading Commission to have violated any federal or state securities law or federal commodities law where such judgment or finding has not subsequently been reversed, suspended or vacated.

f. I was not the subject of, or a party to, any federal or state judicial or administrative order, judgment, decree, or finding, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, relating to an alleged violation of: (1) any federal or state securities or commodities law or regulation; or (2) any law or regulation respecting financial institutions or insurance companies including, but not limited to, a temporary or permanent injunction, order of disgorgement or restitution, civil money penalty or temporary or permanent cease-and-desist order, or removal or prohibition order; or (3) any law or regulation prohibiting mail or wire fraud or fraud in connection with any business entity.

g. I was not the subject of, or a party to, any sanction or order, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, of any stock, commodities or derivatives exchange or other equivalent self-regulatory organization.

However, I have been involved in the following legal proceedings in the past 10 years, which are not of the type enumerated in Item 401(f) of Regulation S-K. However, the Company may consider the following legal proceedings to be material to stockholders to make an informed voting decision. I do not acknowledge or concede that these legal proceedings are material in this manner; however, I authorize the Company to include a description of these proceedings in its proxy materials if the Company includes my background and biographical information supplied with the Notice, and if the Board of Directors deems it material to stockholders to make an informed voting decision:

(i) On April 1, 2009, Samuel Beren, as trustee for the Samuel Beren Trust, filed a stockholder derivative suit in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. The suit was brought on behalf of the Company against its directors and the purchasers of our promissory notes issued on March 5, 2009, and named the Company as a nominal defendant. I am a named defendant in such lawsuit. In its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2009 the Company included a description of this lawsuit, including the following statement: We believe that the allegations in the complaint, including the amended complaint, are without merit and we intend to defend vigorously this action.

(ii) In a lawsuit brought in Hennepin County District Court (Paul W. Bottum v. James R. Jundt, Marcus E. Jundt, Jundt Associates, Inc., Acuo Technologies, L.L.C., and Kona Grill, Inc.), I was named as one of five defendants in litigation commenced by a former employee, Paul Bottum, in May 2006. I was Chief Executive Officer, Director and a significant shareholder of Jundt Associates, Inc. (JAI). Mr. Bottum claimed that JAI owed Mr. Bottum bonuses based upon an oral agreement made by Messrs. James J. Jundt and me. Pursuant to Order Granted In Part and Denying In Part Partial Summary Judgment, James J. Jundt and I were dismissed from this matter May 17, 2007. On August 10, 2007, the District Court concluded that Mr. Bottum was entitled to the bonuses. Pursuant to Order dated December 14, 2007, the District Court appointed a receiver to administer the assets of JAI. In April 2008, James J. Jundt and I entered into a Settlement Agreement with the receiver.

13. Item 7(b) of Schedule 14A requires a participant to furnish the information required by Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K requires a description of any transaction, since the beginning of the registrant s last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, in which the registrant was or is to be a participant and the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and in which any related person had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate whether any such transaction occurred since the beginning of the Company s last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, in which you had or will have a direct or indirect material interest.

Response: There was no transaction since the beginning of the Company s last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction in which the Company was or is to be a participant and the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and in which I or any other person who is considered a related person , as defined in Instruction 1 to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, with respect to me, had or will have a direct or indirect material interest.

This response does not address my compensation as an executive officer of the Company, nor does it address any matters relating to the Separation Agreement with the Company dated August 6, 2009. My understanding, after consultation with counsel, is that such compensation-related matters are not covered by Item 404(a), pursuant to Instruction 5 to Item 404(a).

14. Item 7(b) of Schedule 14A requires a participant to furnish the information required by Item 405 of Regulation S-K. Item 405 of Regulation S-K requires the identification of each person who, at any time during the fiscal year, was a director, officer, beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of equity securities of the registrant registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, or any other person subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act with respect to the registrant because of the requirements of Section 30 of the Investment Company Act or Section 17 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act that failed to file on a timely basis reports required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act during the most recent fiscal year or prior fiscal years. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate whether you failed to file any such reports.

Response: Since the beginning of fiscal 2009, I have not failed to file any required reports required by Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act on a timely basis. Therefore, no disclosure under Item 405 is required.

15. Item 7(c) of Schedule 14A requires a participant to furnish the information required by Item 407(a) of Regulation S-K. Item 407(a) of Regulation S-K requires the identification of each nominee for director that is independent under the listed independence standards. Your letters dated January 25, 2010 and February 3, 2010 do not indicate whether you are independent under NASDAQ rules.

Response: During the past three years, I received compensation from the Company as an employee in excess of $120,000 during a period of twelve consecutive months. Therefore, I am not considered an independent director as defined under Rule 5605(a) of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules.
