Item 8.01 – Other Events

On March 30, 2015, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission issued an “Order Directing Private Investigation and Designating Officers To Take Testimony” against the Company. Since that date, the Company has been cooperating with the SEC. The investigation focuses on the following:

alleged possible violations of disclosure or the omission of material information to the public; alleged violations related to the accuracy of records and accounting; alleged violations related to a system of internal accounting controls assuring conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles; alleged failure to maintain disclosure controls and procedures over financial reporting; and the alleged improper sale or delivery of securities.

The Company has been responding to the SEC’s investigative demands and the SEC’s allegations via documentary responses and oral testimony. The Company is providing evidence that it believes support its actions and providing testimony in hopes of clarifying what it believes are possible misconceptions. The greater weight of the allegations rest in the areas of accuracy and internal controls with the Company’s accounting and financial reporting. The Company cannot predict when the SEC will conclude its investigation or the outcome of its investigation.
