Emerging growth company

Edgar Filing: REGAL BELOIT CORP - Form 8-K

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 24, 2018, Terry R. Colvin notified Regal Beloit Corporation (the “Company”) of his intent to retire after more than twelve years as Vice President, Corporate Human Resources of the Company at a date in early 2019 yet to be determined. The Board of Directors of the Company expects to elect Timothy J. Oswald to succeed Mr. Colvin as the Company’s Vice President, Corporate Human Resources, effective as of the date of Mr. Colvin’s retirement. Between now and then, Mr. Colvin and Mr. Oswald will work together to effectively transition the leadership of global human resources for the Company.

Mr. Oswald, age 42, will bring over twenty years of human resources experience to the position. Mr. Oswald joined the Company in 2008 as Director of Talent. He advanced to hold positions in Compensation and Benefits from 2013 to 2016. Most recently and since July 18, 2016, Mr. Oswald has served as the Vice President of Human Resources for the Company’s PTS business. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Oswald spent ten years at General Motors in a variety of roles. Mr. Oswald holds a bachelor’s degree in human resources from the University of Wisconsin and a MBA from the New York Institute of Technology.
