Steven Vick is a party to an employment agreement with the Company effective February 18, 2002 filed as Exhibit (e)(2) to this Schedule 14D-9. The agreement provides for Mr. Vick's full time employment as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The agreement provides for a three-year term, unless terminated earlier due to Mr. Vick's death, disability, mutual agreement or by the Company for Cause (as defined). If employment is terminated by the Company during the first year of the term, without Cause, the Company must continue to pay Mr. Vick his then current salary, bonuses and stock options pro rata, and other benefits (to the extent eligible), as of the date of termination, for six months following the date of termination. Upon the termination of Mr. Vick's employment due to death or disability, Mr. Vick's salary, bonuses and stock options pro rata, and other benefits (to the extent eligible) continue for a period of six months following such termination.

Item 4. The Solicitation Or Recommendation.

Recommendation Against Acceptance of the Offer. The Company's Board of Directors is recommending against acceptance of the Offer, because the Board believes that the price being offered by the Purchaser is inadequate.

Reasons For Board's Recommendation. Although recommending against acceptance of the Offer, the Company's Board of Directors urges each shareholder to make his, her or its own decision as to the acceptability of the Offer, including the adequacy of the Offer Price, in light of (i) their own investment objectives, (ii) their individual financial circumstances including tolerance for risk and need for liquidity, (iii) their views as to the Company's prospects and outlook, (iv) their analysis and review of all publicly available information about the Company, and (v) any other factors that the shareholder deems relevant to his, her or its investment decision. Shareholders who tender their shares of Common Stock could recognize a taxable gain or loss upon sale of their shares of Common Stock. Therefore, shareholders should consult with their respective advisors about the financial, legal, tax and other consequences of the Offer.

By accepting the Offer and tendering shares of Common Stock in the Offer, shareholders will surrender their right, with respect to the tendered shares, to participate in any future benefits from ownership of shares of Common Stock, in any future earnings growth of the Company and in any subsequent increase in the value of the Company. Investment in the Company's shares, however, is a speculative investment.

In making its decision to recommend against acceptance of the Offer, the Board considered (i) the current and historical financial condition and results of operation of the Company, as well as prospects and strategic objectives of the Company, including the risks involved in achieving those prospects and objectives, (ii) the relative lack of liquidity in the trading volume of the Company's shares, and (iii) the fact that the Offer Price has been set at the bid price of the Company's common stock as of May 22, 2002, the date of commencement of the tender offer, and does not include any premium. The Board has not undertaken any independent review or analysis by outside experts of the adequacy of the Offer Price or acceptability of the Offer.
