Edgar Filing: HERTZ GLOBAL HOLDINGS INC - Form NT 10-K

Hertz Global Holdings, Inc. (the Company) is unable to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 by the prescribed March 3, 2014 due date without undue effort and expense. The Company expects to file the Form 10-K within the 15-day extension period, on or before March 18, 2014. As a result of the Company's recent implementation of an enterprise resource planning (ERP) system, the Company encountered significant issues during the preparation of its annual financial statements which impacted its resources and overall system of financial reporting.

During the course of the preparation of the Company's 2013 financial statements it identified certain adjustments relating to prior periods which will require the Company to revise certain of its previously issued financial statements. The Company does not expect that these revisions to its financial statements will have a material impact on the Company's previously reported results of operations, financial condition, or liquidity.

Certain statements contained in this press release and in related comments by our management include forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are not guarantees of results, and our actual results could differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements due to a variety of important factors, both positive and negative. The Company therefore cautions you against relying on these forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on the Company's behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements. All such statements speak only as of the date made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
