Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously reported, on November 7, 2012, Q-Med AB ( Q-Med ) filed a complaint (the Complaint ) against Medicis Pharmaceutical Corporation (the Company ), HA North American Sales AB, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ( HANA ) and Medicis Aesthetics Holdings Inc., in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the Court ). The Complaint seeks, among other things, a preliminary injunction prohibiting the Company from transferring its rights under its agreements with Q-Med to Valeant Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ( Valeant ) as a result of the previously announced proposed merger between the Company and Valeant (the Merger ).

On December 5, 2012, the Court entered an order dismissing the lawsuit with prejudice, subject to leave within 30 days to request that the action be restored. As previously disclosed, the parties intend to close the Merger on December 11, 2012, subject to satisfaction of remaining customary closing conditions, including the approval of the Company s stockholders at the Company s special meeting of stockholders scheduled for December 7, 2012.

Certain statements contained in this document contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, including, among others, statements regarding the anticipated merger, are forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements in this press release are qualified by these risk factors. These are factors that, individually or in the aggregate, could cause the Company s actual results to differ materially from expected and historical results. These risks and uncertainties should be considered in evaluating any forward-looking statements contained herein.
