Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on January 13, 2015, ZIOPHARM Oncology, Inc., or the Company, and Intrexon Corporation, or Intrexon, entered into a license agreement, or the License, with The University of Texas System Board of Regents on behalf of The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, or MD Anderson. Pursuant to the License, the Company and Intrexon acquired an exclusive, worldwide license to certain technologies owned and licensed by MD Anderson including technologies relating to novel chimeric antigen receptor (CAR) T-cell and other adoptive cellular therapies arising from the laboratory of Laurence J. N. Cooper, M.D., Ph.D., who was a professor of pediatrics at MD Anderson at that time, as well as either co-exclusive or non-exclusive licenses under certain related technologies. In May 2015, Dr. Cooper was appointed as the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

On August 17, 2015, the Company, Intrexon and MD Anderson entered into a research and development agreement, or the Research and Development Agreement, to formalize the scope and process for the transfer by MD Anderson, pursuant to the terms of the License, of certain existing research programs and related technology rights, as well as the terms and conditions for future collaborative research and development of new and ongoing research programs.

Pursuant to the Research and Development Agreement, the Company, Intrexon and MD Anderson have agreed to form a joint steering committee that will oversee and manage the new and ongoing research programs. As provided under the License, the Company will provide funding for research and development activities of MD Anderson in support of certain research programs under the Research and Development Agreement for a period of three years and in an amount of no less than $15 million and no greater than $20 million annually.

The foregoing description of the Research and Development Agreement is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Research and Development Agreement, which is filed in redacted form as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The Company intends to seek confidential treatment for certain portions of the Research and Development Agreement pursuant to a request submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 24b-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
