Winterthur press release

WINTERTHUR TO SELL ITS US-BASED REPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES TO INVESTOR GROUP LED BY WAND PARTNERS

WINTERTHUR, MAY 12, 2003 - WINTERTHUR, A SUBSIDIARY OF CREDIT SUISSE GROUP, ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT IT IS SELLING ITS REPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, WINTERTHUR'S REGIONAL OPERATION IN THE SOUTHWESTERN US, TO AN AMERICAN INVESTOR GROUP LED BY WAND PARTNERS INC. THE CONTRACT PRICE IS USD 127 MILLION. SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THE APPROPRIATE REGULATORS, THE TRANSACTION IS EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED IN THE SECOND HALF OF 2003. FOLLOWING THE SALE, WINTERTHUR WILL TAKE ADVANTAGE OF CLOSER AFFILIATIONS WITHIN ITS THREE REMAINING US OPERATIONS TO STRENGTHEN THEIR BUSINESS MODEL AND FURTHER ENHANCE THEIR PROFITABILITY.

In 2002 Republic wrote premiums of USD 465 million. Its operation consists of personal and commercial lines written through about 700 independent agents and specialty programs. The company is based in Dallas, Texas, and had 400 employees at year-end 2002. Winterthur acquired Republic in 1982.

Winterthur's strategy is to focus on markets in which it is profitable or in which it can achieve a positive business result in the foreseeable future. Winterthur is confident that its three remaining US operations General Casualty, Unigard and Southern Guaranty will continue to achieve solid operational performance and profitability improvements. Under the leadership of John Pollock, head of Winterthur Group's North American operations, the companies will take advantage of closer affiliations resulting in cost efficiencies, access to additional resources and expertise, and expansion of products and services.

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

Bruce W. Schnitzer, Chairman of Wand Partners, said: "Republic will continue to operate independently under its brand name. Our investor group is pleased to have the opportunity to support the leadership at Republic and look forward to further developing the company's market position."

Wand Partners Inc. is a private equity investor founded in 1985 and based in New York. Its investment approach is focused on specialty financial services, where it has both investment and operating experience in property & casualty insurance.

Wand is the sponsor of a group of investors that includes Banc of America Capital Investors, Greenhill Capital Partners, Brazos Private Equity Partners, 21st Century Group and Norwest Equity Partners. "This is a group of experienced private equity investors that are knowledgeable in the insurance industry and have invested together in the past", Bruce Schnitzer said.

The contract price is USD 127 million. Subject to approval by the appropriate regulators, the transaction is expected to be completed in the second half of 2003.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to our plans, objectives or goals; our future economic performance or prospects; the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable laws.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include (i) market and interest rate fluctuations; (ii) the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations in particular; (iii) the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us; (iv) the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations; (v) political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity; (vi) the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations; (vii) the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets; (viii) operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to properly implement procedures; (ix) actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations; (x) the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices; (xi) competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations; (xii) the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel; (xiii) the ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brands; (xiv) the ability to increase market share and control expenses; (xv) technological changes; (xvi) the timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users; (xvii) acquisitions, including the ability to integrate successfully acquired businesses; (xviii) the adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies; and (xix) our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive; when evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the risks identified in Credit Suisse Group's most recently filed Form 20-F and reports on Form 6-K furnished to the US Securities and Exchange Commission.
