Item 7.01

Regulation FD Disclosure

On May 22, 2018, Electromed, Inc. (the “Company”) concluded an examination with the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) related to federal medical device excise taxes paid on revenue associated with the sales of its SmartVest® Airway Clearance System (“SmartVest”) during the Company’s tax periods ended June 30, 2014 through December 31, 2015. As a result, it was determined the SmartVest was eligible for the retail exemption from the medical device excise tax, resulting in the IRS agreeing to a refund of approximately $406,000. This refund will be recognized in the Company’s financial statements during the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2018. Furthermore, the Company will be exempt from the medical device tax after the conclusion of the current two-year medical device tax moratorium, which is scheduled to end on December 31, 2019.

Cautionary Statements

Statements contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K constitute forward-looking statements as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements reflect current views with respect to future events and financial performance and include any statement that does not directly relate to a current or historical fact. Forward-looking statements can generally be identified by the words “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “will” and similar words. Forward-looking statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K include the anticipated recognition of a tax refund in the Company’s financial statements. Forward-looking statements cannot be guaranteed and actual results may vary materially due to the uncertainties and risks, known and unknown, associated with such statements. Examples of risks and uncertainties for the Company include, but are not limited to, the impact of emerging and existing competitors, the effect of new legislation on the Company’s industry and business, the effectiveness of the Company’s sales and marketing and cost control initiatives, changes to reimbursement programs, as well as other factors described from time to time in the Company’s reports to the Securities and Exchange Commission (including the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended from time to time, and subsequent reports on Form 10-Q and Form 8-K). Investors should not consider any list of such factors to be an exhaustive statement of all of the risks, uncertainties or potentially inaccurate assumptions investors should take into account when making investment decisions. Shareholders and other readers should not place undue reliance on “forward-looking statements,” as such statements speak only as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The information contained in Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K shall not be deemed “filed” for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, and shall not be incorporated by reference into any filing pursuant to the Exchange Act or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
