PROXY STATEMENT

General Information

This Proxy Statement is furnished to stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the Board of Directors) of Wynn Resorts, Limited (Wynn Resorts, we or the Company), for use at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders on May 3, 2006 (the Annual Meeting) to be held in the Avenue Q Theater at the Wynn Las Vegas Resort and Casino, 3131 Las Vegas Boulevard South Las Vegas, Nevada, at 11:00 a.m. (local time) and at any adjournment of that meeting. Matters to be considered and acted upon at the Annual Meeting are set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders accompanying this Proxy Statement and are more fully outlined herein. A copy of our 2005 Annual Report to Stockholders, this Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy Card were first mailed to stockholders beginning on or about April 14, 2006.

The Board of Directors believes that the election of the director nominees named herein is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and recommends the election of each of the director nominees named in this Proxy Statement.

Revocability of Proxies

Any stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise at the Annual Meeting by filing or sending a writing or other transmission revoking it, or by executing and delivering another proxy bearing a later date, to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's Executive Offices located at 3131 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas Nevada 89109, or to the inspector of elections of the Company appointed to count the votes of stockholders. Attendance at the Annual Meeting in and of itself does not revoke a prior proxy.

Voting and Solicitation

Shares represented by duly executed and unrevoked proxies in the enclosed form received by the Board of Directors will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the specifications made therein by the stockholders, unless authority to do so is withheld. If no specification is made, shares represented by duly executed and unrevoked proxies in the enclosed form will be voted FOR the election as directors of the nominees listed herein and, with respect to any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting, in the discretion of the persons voting the respective proxies.

Edgar Filing: WYNN RESORTS LTD - Form DEF 14A

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing of proxy materials will be borne by the Company. Directors, executive officers and other employees may also solicit proxies but will not receive any special compensation. Brokerage houses, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians will be requested to forward soliciting materials to beneficial owners and will be reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners.

At the close of business on March 31, 2006, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, 100,236,318 shares of the Company's common stock, $.01 par value, were outstanding. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held of record on that date on all matters presented at the Annual Meeting.

A plurality of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be required for the election of the director nominees. Under Nevada law, shares as to which a stockholder abstains or withholds from voting on the election of directors and shares as to which a broker indicates that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on the election of directors will not be counted as voting thereon and therefore will not affect the election of the nominees receiving a plurality of the votes cast. However, those shares will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

For any other item to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting, the item will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the item by the stockholders entitled to vote exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the item. Although counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum, abstentions, and broker non-votes will not be counted as voting thereon and therefore will not affect the votes on these proposals.

The stockholders of the Company have no dissenter's or appraisal rights in connection with any of the proposals described herein.

Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors met four times during 2005. The Board of Directors currently has three standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. During 2005, none of the members of the Board of Directors attended less than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board of Directors held while they were members of the Board of Directors. Also during 2005, none of the members of the Board of Directors attended fewer than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings held by the committees of the Board of Directors of which he or she was a member. The current members of each of the Board of Directors committees are listed below.

The Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is composed entirely of the following non-management directors: Alvin V. Shoemaker, Chairman, John A. Moran, D. Boone Wayson and Allan Zeman. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent under the listing standards of the NASD. Further, the Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is qualified as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of SEC regulations. During 2005, the Audit Committee met six times.

The Audit Committee meets periodically with the Company's independent auditors, management and legal counsel to discuss accounting principles, financial and accounting controls, the scope of the annual audit, internal controls, regulatory compliance and other matters. The Audit Committee also advises the Board of Directors on matters related to accounting and auditing and appoints the Company's independent auditors. The independent auditors have complete access to the Audit Committee without management present to discuss results of their audits and their opinions on the adequacy of internal controls, quality of financial reporting and other accounting and auditing matters. The Audit Committee acts pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The charter is available on the Company's website at <http://www.wynnresorts.com>.

The Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is composed entirely of the following independent directors: John A. Moran, Chairman, Robert J. Miller, D. Boone Wayson and Stanley R. Zax. The Compensation Committee acts pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The charter is available on the Company's website at <http://www.wynnresorts.com>.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

Edgar Filing: WYNN RESORTS LTD - Form DEF 14A

The Company has a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the Nominating/Governance Committee). The functions of the Nominating/Governance Committee include the following:

identifying and recommending to the Board of Directors individuals qualified to serve as directors of the Company;

recommending to the Board of Directors directors to serve on committees of the Board of Directors;

advising the Board of Directors with respect to matters of Board of Director composition and procedures;

developing and recommending to the Board of Directors a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company and overseeing corporate governance matters generally; and overseeing the evaluation of the Board of Directors.

The members of the Nominating/Governance Committee are Robert J. Miller, Chairman, D. Boone Wayson and Allan Zeman, each of whom is an independent director under the listing standards of the NASD. The Nominating/Governance Committee met four times during 2005. The Nominating/Governance Committee acts pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The charter is available on the Company's website at <http://www.wynnresorts.com>.

Nominating Process. The Nominating/Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders. In considering candidates submitted by stockholders, the Nominating/Governance Committee will take into consideration the needs of the Board of Directors and the qualifications of the candidate. To have a candidate considered by the Nominating/Governance Committee, a stockholder must submit the recommendation in writing and must include the following information:

The name of the stockholder and evidence of the person's ownership of Company stock, including the number of shares owned and the length of time of ownership; and

The name of the candidate, the candidate's resume or a listing of his or her qualifications to be a director of the Company, and the person's consent to be named as a director if selected by the Nominating/Governance Committee and nominated by the Board of Directors.

The stockholder recommendation and information described above must be sent to the Corporate Secretary at 3131 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109 and must be received by the Corporate Secretary not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the Company's most recent Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Nominating/Governance Committee believes that the minimum qualifications for serving as a director of the Company are that a nominee demonstrate, by significant accomplishment in his or her field, an ability to make a meaningful contribution to the Board of Directors' oversight of the business and affairs of the Company and have a reputation for honest and ethical conduct in both his or her professional and personal activities. In addition, the Nominating/Governance Committee examines a candidate's specific experiences and skills, time availability in light of other commitments, potential conflicts of interest and independence from management and the Company. The Nominating/Governance Committee also seeks to have the Board of Directors represent a diversity of backgrounds and experience.

The Nominating/Governance Committee identifies potential nominees by asking current directors and executive officers to notify the Committee if they become aware of persons meeting the criteria described above who have had a change in circumstances that might make them available to serve on the Board of Directors. The Committee may from time-to-time engage the services of a firm that specializes in the identification of public company director candidates. As described above, the Committee will also consider candidates recommended by stockholders.

Once a person has been identified by the Nominating/Governance Committee as a potential candidate, the Committee may collect and review publicly available information regarding the person to assess whether the person should be considered further. If the Nominating/Governance Committee determines that the candidate warrants further consideration, the Chairman or another member of the Committee contacts the person.

Edgar Filing: WYNN RESORTS LTD - Form DEF 14A

Generally, if the person expresses a willingness to be considered and to serve on the Board of Directors, the Nominating/Governance Committee requests information from the candidate, reviews the person's accomplishments and qualifications, including in comparison to any other candidates that the Committee might be considering, and conducts one or more interviews with the candidate. In certain instances, Committee members may contact one or more references provided by the candidate or may contact other members of the business community or other persons that may have greater first-hand knowledge of the candidate's accomplishments. The Committee's evaluation process does not vary based on whether or not a candidate is recommended by a stockholder.

Stockholders Communications with Directors

The Board of Directors has established a process to receive communications from stockholders which can be viewed at the Company's website at <http://www.wynnresorts.com>. Stockholders may contact any member (or all members) of the Board of Directors, any committee of the Board of Directors or any chair of any such committee by mail. To communicate with the Board of Directors, any individual directors or any group or committee of directors, correspondence should be addressed to the Board of Directors or any such individual directors or group or committee of directors by either name or title. All such correspondence should be sent c/o Corporate Secretary at 3131 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, NV 89109.

All communications received as set forth in the preceding paragraph will be opened by the office of our General Counsel for the sole purpose of determining whether the contents represent a message to our directors. Any contents that are not in the nature of advertising, promotions of a product or service, or patently offensive material will be forwarded promptly to the addressee. In the case of communications to the Board of Directors or any group or committee of directors, the General Counsel's office will make sufficient copies of the contents to send to each director who is a member of the group or committee to which the envelope is addressed.

In addition, it is Company policy that each of our directors is invited and encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting. All of our directors were in attendance at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are not employees of the Company receive a monthly fee of $4,000 for services as a director. Directors who serve on the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee or the Nominating/Governance Committee receive an additional monthly fee of $1,000 per committee ($2,000 for committee chairman). Each non-employee also receives a $1,500 meeting fee for each board or committee meeting they attend. All directors are reimbursed for expenses connected with attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors.

Each non-employee director, other than non-employee directors who beneficially own more than five percent of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock, received an immediately exercisable option grant for 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock upon their initial appointment to the Board of Directors. In addition, on May 1, 2005, each member of the Board of Directors, other than Messrs. Wynn, Okada and Kramer and Mrs. Wynn, were granted an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock. This option grant vests pro rata over a four year period and has a per share exercise price of $52.94, the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant.

Robert J. Miller, a member of the Board of Directors, also receives a $50,000 annual retainer for his service as the Chairman of the Company's Gaming Compliance Committee.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the Compensation Committee are appointed by the Board each year. The current members of the Compensation Committee, Messrs. Moran, Miller, Wayson and Zax, were appointed on May 2, 2005. No member of the Compensation Committee is, or was formerly, one of our officers or employees. No interlocking relationship exists between the Board of Directors or Compensation Committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company, nor has any interlocking relationship existed in the past.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), requires the Company s executive officers and directors and persons who own more than 10% of the Company s common stock to file reports of ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the SEC. Executive officers, directors and 10% stockholders are also required to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file. Based solely on the Company s review of the copies of such forms it has received, the Company believes that all its executive officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all the filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions during 2005 except for Karen Bozich, the Company s Chief Information Officer, who was late in filing a Form 4 to report the exercise of a stock option and the sale of the shares of Common Stock received upon such exercise.

CODE OF ETHICS

The Company has adopted a Code of Ethics for the Chief Executive Officer, President and Senior Financial Officers. A copy of the Code of Ethics was filed as an exhibit to the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and is available at the Company s website at <http://www.wynnresorts.com>. We intend to satisfy the disclosure requirement under Item 5.05 of Form 8-K regarding an amendment to, or a waiver from, a provision of the Code of Ethics, by posting such information on our website: <http://www.wynnresorts.com>.

- the Company's corporate aircraft; and (iii) in 2003, $64,900 for compensation and benefits of a driver whom we employ for Stephen A. Wynn's business and personal use, and $44,313 related to the value of a vehicle provided by the Company for Mr. Wynn's use.
- (3) The following amounts are included in Other Annual Compensation of Mr. Kramer: in 2005, $53,038 attributable to personal use of the Company's corporate aircraft.
 - (4) The following amounts are included in Other Annual Compensation of Mr. Schorr: in 2005, $119,781 attributable to personal use of the Company's corporate aircraft.
 - (5) The amount of compensation attributable to each executive for personal use of the Company's corporate aircraft is the amount by which the cost of providing the aircraft exceeds the amount paid by the executive to the Company for its use. In 2003, the amount paid by the executive was equal to the variable expenses associated with maintaining and operating the aircraft, and there was no compensation attributable to such use. In 2004 and 2005, the amount paid by the executive was determined by reference to the Internal Revenue Service's Standard Industry Fare Level (SIFL) tables. From January 2004 to October 2004, the cost of providing the aircraft was calculated using the SIFL amount. In October 2004, the Internal Revenue Service announced new rules prohibiting the Company from deducting that portion of the variable expenses of maintaining and operating an aircraft that are attributable to personal use by the Company's employees to the extent that such expenses exceed amounts paid by the employee to the Company. As a result, the Company revised its methodology. For the period from October 2004 through December 2005, the cost of providing the Company's corporate aircraft has been calculated based on such variable expenses (rather than the SIFL amounts).

- (6) The following amounts are included in Other Annual Compensation of Ms. Chen: (i) in 2005, $35,866 attributable to housing in Macau and tax preparation services, and (ii) in 2004, $53,567 attributable to housing and living expenses in Macau.
- (7) On December 27, 2004, subject to certain conditions, the Compensation Committee approved a grant to Messrs. Kramer and Schorr of 150,000 and 125,000 shares of restricted stock, respectively, for services rendered during 2004. These grants became effective on February 3, 2005. Twenty percent (20%) of each grant vests annually over a five year period beginning with December 15, 2005. As of December 31, 2005, the unvested portion of these shares of restricted stock issued to Messrs. Kramer and Schorr had a value of $6,582,000 and $5,485,000, respectively, based on a closing price of $54.85 per share on December 30, 2005. There are no voting rights associated with any unvested shares and any distributions or dividends with respect to unvested shares are held by the Company and are released only upon vesting.
- (8) On April 1, 2003, Mr. Kramer was granted 189,723 shares of restricted stock. Mr. Kramer's grant vested in its entirety on May 31, 2005.

The following table provides information related to options to purchase the Company's common stock granted to the Named Executive Officers during the year ended December 31, 2005, and the number and value of such options held as of the end of the year. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company did not grant any SARs.

We have entered into employment agreements with each of the Named Executive Officers.

His employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $1,250,000 for the first year, increasing by $500,000 each year to a maximum of $2,750,000 starting October 2005.

Mr. Kramer's employment agreement was effective April 1, 2003 and terminates on April 1, 2008. His employment agreement provides for an annual salary of $1,100,000 for the first year, $1,200,000 for the second year and $1,300,000 for the remainder of the term of his employment agreement.

Mr. Schorr's employment agreement was effective as of October 25, 2002 and terminates on October 25, 2007. His employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $750,000 for the first year and $1,000,000 for the remainder of the term of his employment agreement.

Mr. Strzemp's employment agreement was effective as of August 1, 2005 and terminates on August 1, 2008. His employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $600,000 for the term of his employment agreement.

Ms. Chen's employment agreement was effective as of June 3, 2005 and terminates on June 3, 2010. Her employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $600,000 through the opening of Wynn Macau, the Company's subsidiary located in Macau, Special Administrative Region, of the People's Republic of China. Following the opening of Wynn Macau, Ms. Chen's annual base salary will increase to $750,000 for the term of her employment agreement.

The other terms of the employment agreements are substantially similar for each Named Executive Officer, except as noted below. Each executive is eligible to receive a bonus and an increase in base salary at such times and in such amounts as our Board of Directors, in its sole and exclusive discretion, may determine. However, after our Board of Directors adopts a performance-based bonus plan, bonuses will be determined in accordance with the plan, except that under the terms of their respective employment agreements Mr. Strzemp was entitled to a minimum bonus of $200,000 for the calendar year ended December 31, 2005 and Ms. Chen was entitled to a minimum bonus of $250,000 for the calendar year ended December 31, 2005. Each executive (i) is entitled to participate, to the extent that he or she is otherwise eligible, in all employee benefit plans that we maintain for our executives, and (ii) receives reimbursement for reasonable business expenses (including entertainment, promotional, gift and travel expenses and club memberships). Ms. Chen is entitled to three weeks of vacation per year and the other Named Executives Officers are each entitled to four weeks of vacation per year. In addition, we provide the use of a company car, including insurance, fuel and complete maintenance, at our sole cost and expense, to each of Messrs. Wynn and Kramer, as well as a driver for Mr. Wynn. Under the terms of Ms. Chen's employment agreement, she is reimbursed for housing expenses for her and her immediate family while living in Macau. In addition, the Company provides Ms. Chen with one luxury automobile in Macau. Ms. Chen was also reimbursed for her reasonable relocation expenses incurred in moving her immediate family from Las Vegas, Nevada to Macau.

If we terminate the employment of a Named Executive Officer without cause, or the executive terminates his or her employment upon our material breach of the agreement or for good reason following a change of control (as these terms are defined in the employment contracts), we will pay the executive a separation payment in a lump sum equal to the following:

(a) the executive's base salary for the remainder of the term of the employment agreement, but not for less than one year, except that Mr. Wynn's salary portion of his separation payment shall not exceed an amount equal to four years of his base salary;

(b) the bonus that the executive received for the preceding bonus period, projected over the remainder of the term (but not less than the preceding bonus that was paid), except that Mr. Wynn's bonus portion of his separation payment shall not exceed an amount projected over four years;

(c) base salary and any accrued but unpaid vacation pay through the termination date; and

(d) an amount necessary to reimburse the executive for any golden parachute excise tax the executive incurs under Internal Revenue Code Section 4999, except that Ms. Chen is not entitled to this payment.

Upon employment termination and in addition to the separation payment set forth above, the Named Executive Officers, other than Ms. Chen, will also be entitled to health benefits coverage for the executive and his dependents under the same arrangements under which the executive was covered immediately before his termination, until the earlier of (i) the expiration of the period for which the separation payment is paid or (ii) the date the executive becomes covered under another group health plan not maintained by us.

Except with regard to Mr. Wynn, if a Named Executive Officer's employment terminates for any other reason before the expiration of the term (e.g., because of the executive's death, disability, discharge for cause or revocation of gaming license), we will pay the executive only his or her base salary and any accrued but unpaid vacation pay through his termination date. If Mr. Wynn's employment agreement is terminated as a result of death, complete disability or denial or revocation of his gaming license, then we will pay a separation payment equal to (a) up to four years of his base salary for the remainder of the term of the employment contract, but not less than one year, (b) up to four years of the bonus that Mr. Wynn received for the preceding bonus period projected over the remainder of the term, but not less than the preceding bonus that was paid, projected over one year, (c) any accrued but unpaid vacation pay through the date of termination and (d) an amount necessary to reimburse him for any golden parachute excise tax. Mr. Wynn will also be entitled to health benefits coverage if his employment is terminated upon his complete disability. If we terminate Mr. Wynn's employment for cause, we will pay him only his base salary and any accrued but unpaid vacation pay through his termination date.

In addition, on April 1, 2003, Mr. Kramer received an option to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $14.91 per share. This option vests 25% per year over a four-year period beginning April 1, 2004, provided that Mr. Kramer is still employed by us on such vesting dates. If Mr. Kramer's employment is terminated by reason of death or disability or by Mr. Kramer upon our material breach of his employment agreement or for good reason upon a change of control, this option will become immediately vested and exercisable in full and remain exercisable for five years following such termination.

We will also provide to each of Messrs. Wynn, Kramer and Schorr and their families the right to personal use of our aircraft, and have entered into a time-sharing agreement with each executive that requires, among other things, that the executive pay us his and his family's share of the direct costs that we incur in operating the aircraft, up to an amount determined by using the Internal Revenue Service Standard Industry Fare Level (SIFL) tables.

REPORT OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

Our role is to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the Company's financial statements. The Company's management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of our financial statements, and for maintaining appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles and policies and internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The independent auditors are responsible for auditing our financial statements and expressing an opinion as to their conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

We have reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2005. We have discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended. We have received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, and have discussed with the independent auditors their firm's independence. Based on the review and discussion referred to above, we recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is composed entirely of non-management directors and is responsible for approving the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, reviewing the compensation of other executive officers, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, and approving stock awards, including stock options and restricted stock, for each executive officer. During the 2005 fiscal year, the Compensation Committee met on six occasions. The Chief Executive Officer and a majority of the executive officers were subject to employment agreements that were effective prior to the 2005 fiscal year; the Compensation Committee did not determine the base compensation paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer or such other executive officers during the 2005 fiscal year. The Compensation Committee approved stock option and restricted stock grants as well as bonus awards to executive officers during the 2005 fiscal year. This report is provided by the Compensation Committee to assist stockholders in understanding the objectives and guidelines the Compensation Committee considers in establishing the compensation of executive officers.

Compensation of Executive Officers

During the 2005 fiscal year, all of the members of the Company's senior management were bound by employment agreements. Certain employment agreements were negotiated and executed prior to the formation of the Compensation Committee in October 2002. Employment agreements for members of senior management that were entered into during 2005 were approved by the Compensation Committee. All of the Company's outstanding employment agreements with executive officers have terms that generally range from three to five years (Mr. Wynn's employment agreement is fifteen years), and set minimum compensation for salary, bonuses and stock option grants. The amount of time remaining on the terms of these agreements ranges from approximately one and one-half years to four years. As part of its strategy to attract and retain high quality executive employees, the Compensation Committee's policy is to pay executives base salaries that are competitive with salaries paid by other gaming, hospitality and development-stage companies, with the Company's salaries being at or near the high end of the range.

Annual Incentives

The Compensation Committee intends to develop programs that will tie executive incentive compensation to the performance of the Company. With the exception of a portion of Mr. Strzemp's and Ms. Chen's respective bonuses, annual incentive awards for the year 2005 were defined by the terms of each of the executives' employment contract and were not determined by the Compensation Committee. However, the Compensation Committee did award stock options and restricted stock during the 2005 fiscal year.

In 2004, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors recommended and the stockholders approved the Wynn Resorts Limited Annual Performance-Based Incentive Plan for Executive Officers (the Incentive Plan). The Incentive Plan provides for performance based bonuses for executives that are covered employees under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation over $1 million paid to any such company's chief executive officer and four other highly compensated executive officers. Qualifying performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limitation if certain requirements are met.

The Compensation Committee designated Messrs. Wynn, Kramer and Schorr as the officers eligible to participate in the Incentive Plan in 2005 and established certain performance criteria under the Incentive Plan that the eligible participants were required to satisfy in order to qualify for a bonus. The actual bonus awards, if any, under the Incentive Plan are determined by the Compensation Committee, provided that pursuant to the Incentive Plan, no bonus award with respect to 2005 under the Incentive Plan could exceed the lesser of (a) $7,500,000 and (b) (I) in the case of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, 250% of his average annual base salary and (II) in the case of all other participants, 200% of the participant's average annual base salary. The average annual base salary is based on the base salary actually paid to the participant during the applicable year. The Compensation

Committee awarded bonuses for 2005 under the Incentive Plan to the Company's senior executives based on those criteria that were satisfied. Based upon the Incentive Plan performance criteria and compensation policies discussed above, the Compensation Committee determined to grant bonuses for 2005 to certain of the Named Executive Officers pursuant to the Incentive Plan in the following amounts: Mr. Wynn $3,221,833; Mr. Kramer $1,907,307; and Mr. Schorr $1,500,000.

Long-Term Incentives

The Company has adopted a stock incentive plan designed to provide stock-based incentives to its officers. The Compensation Committee specifically approves all awards of stock options and restricted stock granted by the Company. The Compensation Committee may also use grants under the stock incentive plan to attract qualified individuals to work for the Company. The number of options to be granted to each executive officer will be based on the individual executive's performance, tenure and future potential. During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company granted stock option awards to certain officers with vesting schedules ranging from three to five years and approved restricted share grants to Messrs. Kramer and Schorr effective February 3, 2005 with vesting schedules of approximately five-years.

Executive Compensation Program Philosophy and Objectives

The Compensation Committee's primary objectives in setting compensation policies are to develop a program designed to retain the current management team, reward them for outstanding performance, and attract those individuals needed to implement the Company's strategy.

2005 Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer

Stephen A. Wynn, our Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, and the Company entered into a five-year employment agreement prior to the establishment of the Compensation Committee. That agreement became effective on October 25, 2002, after the successful completion of the Company's initial public offering, and provides for an annual base salary of $1,250,000 for the first year under the agreement and increases of $500,000 for each subsequent year, up to a maximum of $2,750,000. During 2005, Mr. Wynn received $2,343,151 in base salary in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement.

Concurrent with the execution of agreements with Mr. Wynn in August 2004 that confirmed and clarified the Company's rights to use the Wynn name and Mr. Wynn's persona in connection with the Company's casino resort businesses, the Company extended Mr. Wynn's employment agreement by ten years until October 24, 2017 in order to ensure the continued services of Mr. Wynn. The other material terms of Mr. Wynn's employment agreement remained unchanged. The Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the amendment to such agreement.

Mr. Wynn received no additional stock-based incentive compensation in 2005. To the extent not already defined in Mr. Wynn's employment agreement, the Committee intends to review Mr. Wynn's performance on an annual basis and will use its discretion to determine any additional compensation for Mr. Wynn based on such performance.

Limitation of Tax Deduction for Executive Compensation

Edgar Filing: WYNN RESORTS LTD - Form DEF 14A

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) prevents publicly traded companies from receiving a tax deduction on certain compensation paid to executive officers in excess of $1,000,000 in any taxable year. Other than (i) $257,539 of base compensation paid to Mr. Kramer in 2005, and (ii) $678,679 of aircraft-related expenses in 2005 allocated to the executives' personal use in excess of amounts paid, the Compensation Committee does not believe that there will be any non-deductible compensation in 2005 based upon allowances provided under the provisions of Section 162(m) or otherwise. The Compensation Committee's policy with respect to qualifying compensation paid to its executive officers for tax deductibility purposes is that executive compensation plans will generally be designed and implemented to maximize tax deductibility. However, non-deductible compensation may still be paid to executive officers when necessary for competitive reasons or to attract or retain a key executive, or where achieving maximum tax deductibility would be considered disadvantageous to the best interests of the Company.

Respectfully Submitted,

Compensation Committee

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Stockholders Agreement. Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA and Baron Asset Fund are parties to a stockholders agreement that establishes various rights among Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA and Baron Asset Fund with respect to the ownership and management of the Company. These rights include, but are not limited to, preemptive rights, rights of first refusal, tag-along rights and certain other restrictions on the transfer of the shares of the Company's common stock owned by the parties to the stockholders agreement.

Under the stockholders agreement, if Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA or Baron Asset Fund purchase shares of the Company's common stock from the Company in a private placement on terms and conditions that are not offered to the other parties to the agreement, the purchasing stockholder must afford the other parties preemptive rights. These preemptive rights will allow the non-purchasing parties to purchase that number of shares in the purchasing stockholder's allotment of private placement shares that is necessary to maintain the parties' shares in the same proportion to each other that existed prior to the private placement.

In addition, under the stockholders agreement, the parties granted each other a right of first refusal on their respective shares of the Company's common stock. Under this right of first refusal, if any such stockholder wishes to transfer any of his or its shares of the Company's common stock to anyone other than a permitted transferee (as defined in the agreement), and has a bona fide offer from any person to purchase such shares, the stockholder must first offer the shares to the other parties to the stockholders agreement on the same terms and conditions as the bona fide offer. In addition to this right of first refusal, Mr. Wynn and Aruze USA also granted each other and Baron Asset Fund a tag-along right on their respective shares of the Company's common stock. Under this tag-along right, Mr. Wynn and Aruze USA, before transferring his or its shares to any person other than a permitted transferee, must first allow the other parties to the agreement to participate in such transfer on the same terms and conditions.

The stockholders agreement also provides that, upon the institution of a bankruptcy action by or against a party to the stockholders agreement, the other parties to the agreement will be given an option to purchase the bankrupt stockholder's shares of the Company's common stock at a price to be agreed upon by the bankrupt stockholder and the other stockholders, or, if a price cannot be agreed upon by such stockholders, at a price equal to their fair market value. In addition, under the stockholders agreement, if there is a direct or indirect change of control of any party to the agreement, other than Baron Asset Fund, the other parties to the agreement have the option to purchase the shares of the Company's common stock held by the party undergoing the change in control. Under the agreement, a stockholder may assign its options to the Company.

In addition, under the stockholders agreement, Mr. Wynn and Aruze USA have agreed to vote their shares of the Company's common stock for a slate of directors, a majority of which will be designated by Mr. Wynn, of which at least two will be independent directors, and the remainder of which will be designated by Aruze USA.

Buy-Out of Aruze USA Stock. In 2002, Stephen A. Wynn, Kazuo Okada, Aruze USA, Aruze Corp. and the Company entered into arrangements which provide that if any Nevada gaming license application of Aruze USA, Aruze Corp. or Kazuo Okada concerning Aruze USA's ownership of the Company's stock were denied by gaming authorities or requested to be withdrawn or were not filed within 90 days after the filing of the Company's application, the Company's common stock owned by Aruze USA could be purchased by Mr. Wynn. If Mr. Wynn chose not to exercise his right to purchase the shares, the Company had the right to require him to purchase the shares. On March 24, 2005, the Nevada Gaming Commission approved the gaming applications of Aruze USA, Aruze Corp. and Kazuo Okada. As a result, none of the licensing events precedent to Mr. Wynn's option to purchase Aruze USA's shares will occur. Mr. Wynn and Aruze USA terminated this agreement in May 2005.

Wynn Design & Development. Wynn Design & Development, LLC, a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of the Company, is responsible for the design and architecture of Wynn Las Vegas (except for the Le Rêve Theater) and for managing construction costs and risks associated with the Wynn Las Vegas project. Wynn Design & Development also has similar responsibilities for the Company's hotel and casino construction project in Macau. Nevada law requires that a firm licensed as a professional architectural organization certify architectural plans. These architectural services for the Wynn Las Vegas project will be provided by the firm of Butler/Ashworth Architects, Ltd., LLC. In return for these services, the Butler/Ashworth firm will be paid one dollar ($1) and reimbursed for certain expenses it incurs in providing the architectural services. The principals of the Butler/Ashworth firm are DeRuyter O. Butler and Glen Ashworth, both of whom are employees of Wynn Design & Development. Mr. Butler is Executive Vice President of Wynn Design & Development. Wynn Design & Development is the only client of the Butler/Ashworth firm and pays the salaries and benefits of Messrs. Butler and Ashworth. The Company has no ownership interest in Butler/Ashworth.

Art Gallery. At the opening of the Wynn Las Vegas, the resort included an art gallery that displayed rare paintings from The Wynn Collection, a private collection of fine art owned by Mr. and Mrs. Wynn. Prior to June 30, 2005, the Company leased The Wynn Collection from Mr. and Mrs. Wynn for an annual fee of one dollar ($1), and the Company was entitled to retain all revenues from the public display of The Wynn Collection and the related merchandising revenues. The Company was responsible for all expenses incurred in exhibiting and safeguarding The Wynn Collection, including the cost of insurance (including terrorism insurance) and taxes relating to the rental of The Wynn Collection. On June 30, 2005, this lease arrangement was restructured at the request of the Company. However, the material economic terms of the leasing relationship applicable to Mr. and Mrs. Wynn remained unchanged. In February 2006, the Company closed the art gallery and converted the gallery location into additional retail stores. The artwork in the gallery has been relocated to different venues within Wynn Las Vegas. The Company continues to be responsible for all expenses in exhibiting and safeguarding The Wynn Collection.

Surname and Rights of Publicity Agreements. On August 6, 2004, Wynn Resorts Holdings, LLC entered into agreements with Mr. Wynn that confirm and clarify Wynn Resorts Holdings' rights to use the Wynn name and Mr. Wynn's persona in connection with its casino resorts. Under the parties' Surname Rights Agreement, Mr. Wynn granted Wynn Resorts Holdings an exclusive, fully paid, perpetual, worldwide license to use, and to own and register trademarks and service marks incorporating the Wynn name for casino resorts and related businesses, together with the right to sublicense the name and marks to its affiliates. Under the parties' Rights of Publicity License, Mr. Wynn granted the Wynn Resorts Holdings the exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide right to use his full name, persona and related rights of publicity for casino resorts and related businesses, together with the ability to sublicense the persona and publicity rights to its affiliates, until October 24, 2017.

Villa Lease. On December 29, 2004, Wynn Las Vegas entered into an agreement with Mr. Wynn for the lease of a villa suite in the Wynn Las Vegas resort to Mr. and Mrs. Wynn as their personal residence. Lease payments under this agreement commenced on July 1, 2005, the date Mr. and Mrs. Wynn moved into the villa. The term of the agreement continues from year to year unless terminated on at least 90 days' written notice prior to the end of any lease year, or upon the death of Mr. Wynn. Rent will be determined each year by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, and will be based on the fair market value of the use of the suite accommodations. The Audit Committee determined, based upon a third party appraisal, that the rent for the twelve month period commencing July 1, 2005 was $580,000. All services for, and maintenance of, the suite are included in the rental, with certain exceptions.

Aircraft Arrangements. Messrs. Wynn, Kramer and Schorr have time-sharing agreements with Las Vegas Jet, LLC, a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of the Company, covering their personal use of Company-owned aircraft that require each executive to pay the Company his and his family's share of the direct costs that the Company incurs in operating the aircraft, up to an amount determined by using the Internal Revenue Service Standard Industry Fare Level (SIFL) tables. During 2005, the following amounts were paid to the Company pursuant to these timesharing arrangements: Stephen A. Wynn ($287,011); Mr. Kramer ($17,668); and Mr. Schorr ($40,414). In the event that direct costs in operating the aircraft exceed the amounts determined by using the SIFL method, such additional costs are paid for by the Company. Pursuant to the provisions of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, such additional costs incurred after October 22, 2004 are not eligible to be claimed as a deduction for United States federal income tax purposes.

Reimbursable Costs. The Company periodically incurs costs on Mr. Wynn's and certain other officers' behalf, including costs with respect to personal use of the corporate aircraft, household employees, personal legal fees, construction work and other personal purchases. Mr. Wynn and other officers have deposits with the Company to prepay any such items. These deposits are replenished on an ongoing basis as needed. At December 31, 2005, Mr. Wynn and the other officers had a credit balance with the Company of $412,000, in the aggregate.

Tax Indemnification Agreement. In 2002, Stephen A. Wynn, Aruze USA, Baron Asset Fund, and the Kenneth R. Wynn Family Trust (referred to collectively as the Valvino members), Valvino and the Company entered into a tax indemnification agreement relating to their respective income tax liabilities from the contribution of their Valvino membership interests to the Company. The tax indemnification agreement generally provides that the Valvino members will be indemnified by the Company and its subsidiaries for additional tax costs (including interest and penalties) caused by reallocations of income or deductions that increase the taxable income or decrease the tax loss of the Valvino members for the period prior to the contribution of the Valvino membership interests. Any payment made pursuant to the agreement by the Company or any of its subsidiaries to the Valvino members may be non-deductible for income tax purposes.
