Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On September 8, 2014, EnPro Industries, Inc. (the Company) announced its intention to offer, subject to market and other conditions, $300 million in aggregate principal amount of its senior notes due 2022 (the Senior Notes) to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and to non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Company intends to use a portion of the net proceeds of the offering of the Senior Notes to fund the repayment of borrowings under its senior secured revolving credit facility that are incurred to fund the purchase of any and all of $74.78 million in aggregate principal amount of its 3.9375% Convertible Senior Debentures due 2015 (the Convertible Debentures) validly tendered, and accepted for purchase, pursuant to a cash tender offer (the Tender Offer) that the Company commenced on August 11, 2014. The Company intends to apply the remaining net proceeds to repay all remaining borrowings and accrued interest outstanding under its senior secured revolving credit facility, to pay fees and expenses related to the offering and the Tender Offer and for other general corporate purposes, which may in the future include retiring any Convertible Debentures not purchased in the Tender Offer.

In connection with the private offering of the Senior Notes, the Company is disclosing certain information to prospective investors in a preliminary offering memorandum dated September 8, 2014 (the Preliminary Offering Memorandum). Pursuant to Regulation FD, the Company is furnishing as Exhibit 99.1 certain information excerpted from the Preliminary Offering Memorandum consisting of (i) certain subsections of the section captioned Summary, (ii) the section captioned Capitalization, (iii) the section captioned Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, and (iv) the section captioned Business Overview.

Exhibit 99.1 includes disclosure that, although the Company does not routinely report financial information other than with respect to its annual and quarterly fiscal periods, its preliminary unaudited net sales, income before income taxes and segment profit for the two-month period ended August 31, 2014 were approximately $188.3 million, approximately $6.0 million and approximately $20.4 million, respectively, compared to unaudited net sales, income before income taxes and segment profit for the two-month period ended August 31, 2013 of approximately $166.0 million, approximately $0.9 million and approximately $15.4 million, respectively. Segment profit is the total of the segment revenue of each of the Company's reportable segments reduced by operating, restructuring and other expenses identifiable with the segment. Expenses not directly attributable to the segments, corporate expenses (which include general corporate administrative costs), net interest expense, gains/losses related to the sale of assets, and income taxes are not included in the computation of segment profit. The accounting policies of the Company's reportable segments are the same as those for the Company.

The following table sets forth a reconciliation of segment profit to income before income taxes for the two-month periods ended August 31, 2014 and 2013.

The preliminary unaudited financial information presented above for the two-month period ended August 31, 2014 reflects estimates based only upon preliminary information available to the Company as of the date hereof, is subject to change pending finalization and is not a comprehensive statement of the Company's financial results or position as of or for the two-months ended August 31, 2014. During the course of the Company's financial statement closing process, it may identify items that would require it to make adjustments to the preliminary operating results described above. As a result, the foregoing discussion constitutes forward-looking statements and, therefore, the Company cautions you that these statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, including possible adjustments to its preliminary operating results.
