Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 18, 2019, The Hershey Company (the “Company”) announced that Steven E. Voskuil has been appointed to serve as the Company’s Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, effective May 13, 2019. In this role, Mr. Voskuil will oversee the Company’s global finance organization and will serve as the Company’s principal financial officer.

Mr. Voskuil, age 50, joins the Company from Avanos Medical, Inc. (“Avanos”), a global medical device company, where he has served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since 2014. Prior to joining Avanos, Mr. Voskuil spent 23 years in various leadership positions with Kimberly-Clark International.

As a result of Mr. Voskuil’s hiring, Patricia A. Little, the Company’s current Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, will retire effective May 31, 2019, consistent with her previously announced intention to retire in the spring of 2019.

In connection with his appointment, Mr. Voskuil agreed to an offer letter with the Company (the “Offer Letter”), which provides for the following compensation arrangements: (1) annual base salary of $625,000; (2) participation in the annual incentive program (“One Hershey Incentive Program”) of the Company’s Equity and Incentive Compensation Plan (“EICP”), including a pro-rated award for 2019 based on a target award opportunity equal to 85% of his base salary; (3) participation in the long-term incentive program (“LTIP”) of the EICP at a level equivalent to 210% of his base salary; (4) a one-time sign on grant of restricted stock units under the EICP valued at $1,200,000 as consideration for equity forfeited from his prior employer, which will vest in 50% increments over a two-year period; (5) a one-time annual incentive award under the EICP equal to $135,000 as consideration for short-term incentive pay forfeited from his prior employer, to be paid concurrently with any applicable payout of his pro-rated award under the 2019 One Hershey Incentive Program in March 2020; and (6) participation in the Company’s Relocation Assistance Program, which covers reasonable and customary expenses associated with relocation.

Sixty-five percent of the 2019 LTIP award opportunity for Mr. Voskuil will be delivered in the form of contingent target performance stock units (“PSUs”) for the 2019-2021 PSU performance cycle. The remaining thirty-five percent of the 2019 LTIP award opportunity will be delivered in the form of restricted stock units, which will vest in 1/3 increments over a three-year period. The LTIP awards granted to Mr. Voskuil will be subject to the Company’s clawback policies and provisions in place from time to time, and Mr. Voskuil will have five years to comply with the Company’s stock ownership guidelines at a level equal to three times his base salary.

The Offer Letter also provides for participation in the Company’s Executive Benefits Protection Plan 3A, which generally provides two years of severance benefits in the event of termination without cause or with good reason following a change in control or eighteen months of severance benefits in the event of termination without cause or with good reason that does not follow a change in control, as well participation in the Company’s Defined Contribution Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (“DC SERP”), with an annual Company contribution equal to 12.5% of base salary and One Hershey Incentive Program award. Mr. Voskuil will also be eligible to participate in other compensation programs applicable to the Company’s other executive officers, including the Company’s retirement program, at levels consistent with those provided to all executive officers.

Additional information regarding the Company’s executive compensation programs, including information about the One Hershey Incentive Program, the EICP and the DC SERP, can be found in the Company’s 2019 proxy statement.
