RCB changed its filing status in August, 2003 to 13-D after the company revealed that it's Board of Director's was engaged in a lawsuit with one of its largest shareholders over the strategic future of the company. Since that time, the lawsuit has been settled and the company has embarked on a recapitalization and restructuring plan that appears to be a reasonable compromise with which to pursue value for the common shareholders. Therefore, we are withdrawing our "D" status to revert to a more passive investment stance.
