Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Under Mittal Steel's Articles of Association, each Class B Common Share is convertible at any time and from time to time at the option of the holder thereof into one Class A Common Share. All share ownership percentages stated in this Statement for Class A Common Shares are calculated assuming conversion of all outstanding Class B Common Shares into Class A Common Shares.

(a) International is the owner of 26,100,000 Class A Common Shares and 72,150,000 Class B Common Shares. As a result, International is the beneficial owner of 98,250,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 7.2% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

LuxCo is the owner of 139,659,790 Class A Common Shares and 385,340,210 Class B Common Shares. As a result, LuxCo is the beneficial owner of 525,000,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 38.3% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

Mr. Mittal is the direct owner of 30,000 Class A Common Shares and holds options to acquire an additional 273,333 Class A Common Shares, together representing less than 0.1% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding. Mr. Mittal and Mrs. Mittal share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of International and share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of LuxCo and accordingly, Mr. Mittal is the beneficial owner of 623,553,333 Class A Common Shares, representing 45.5% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

Mrs. Mittal is the direct owner of 5,000 Class A Common Shares and holds options to acquire an additional 40,000 Class A Common Shares, together representing less than 0.1% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding. Mrs. Mittal and Mr. Mittal share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of International and share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of LuxCo and accordingly, Mrs. Mittal is the beneficial owner of 623,295,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 45.5% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

Edgar Filing: MITTAL STEEL CO N.V. - Form SC 13D/A

The calculation of the foregoing percentages is based on 1,370,998,526 Class A Common Shares outstanding on August 1, 2006 (which consists of (i) 913,508,316 Class A Common Shares outstanding plus (ii) 457,490,210 Class A Common Shares issuable upon conversion of the 457,490,210 Class B Common Shares owned by International or LuxCo).

(b) International has the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of 26,100,000 Class A Common Shares and 72,150,000 Class B Common Shares, which it shares with Mr. Mittal and Mrs. Mittal, who share equally beneficial ownership of International. As a result, International shares with Mr. Mittal and Mrs. Mittal the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of 98,250,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 7.2% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

LuxCo has the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of 139,659,790 Class A Common Shares and 385,340,210 Class B Common Shares, which it shares with Mr. Mittal and Mrs. Mittal, who share equally beneficial ownership of LuxCo. Accordingly, LuxCo shares with Mr. Mittal and Mrs. Mittal the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of 525,000,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 38.3% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

Mr. Mittal has the sole power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of the 30,000 Class A Common Shares that he owns directly and would have the sole power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of the 273,333 Class A Common Shares that are the subject of the options he holds, assuming exercise of such options, together representing less than 0.1% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding. Mr. Mittal and Mrs. Mittal share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of International and share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of LuxCo (each sharing the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of Class A Common Shares with each of them as described in the preceding two paragraphs) and accordingly, Mr. Mittal shares the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of 623,250,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 45.5% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

Mrs. Mittal has the sole power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of the 5,000 Class A Common Shares that she owns directly and would have the sole power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of the 40,000 Class A Common Shares that are the subject of the options she holds, assuming exercise of such options, together representing less than 0.1% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding. Mrs. Mittal and Mr. Mittal share equally beneficial ownership of 100% of International and share equally beneficial ownership of LuxCo (each sharing the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of Class A Common Shares with each of them as described in the first two paragraphs of this Item 5(b)) and accordingly, Mrs. Mittal shares the power to vote or to direct the vote or dispose or direct the disposition of 623,250,000 Class A Common Shares, representing 45.5% of the Class A Common Shares outstanding.

The calculation of the foregoing percentages is based on 1,370,998,526 Class A Common Shares outstanding on August 1, 2006 (which consists of (i) 913,508,316 Class A Common Shares outstanding plus (ii) 457,490,210 Class A Common Shares issuable upon conversion of the 457,490,210 Class B Common Shares owned by International or LuxCo).

(c) Except as disclosed in this Statement, none of the Reporting Persons has effected any transaction in the Class A Common Shares during the past 60 days.

(d) To the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, no other person has the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, the Class A Common Shares beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understanding or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The response set forth in Item 6 of the Statement is hereby amended by adding to the end of Item 6 the following:

The following summary of terms of the Memorandum of Understanding (as defined below) is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Memorandum of Understanding, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 5 to this First Amendment and is incorporated herein by reference.

On June 25, 2006, the Reporting Persons entered in a Memorandum of Understanding (the Memorandum of Understanding) with Mittal Steel and Arcelor S.A., a société anonyme incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg (Arcelor) in connection with Mittal Steel's outstanding tender offer for all of the outstanding Arcelor shares, ADSs and OCEANES due 2017 (the Offer), pursuant to which the Reporting Persons agreed to certain undertakings regarding the governance of the combined Mittal Steel / Arcelor group and certain related matters. On August 1, 2006, Mittal Steel completed the tender offer contemplated by the Memorandum of Understanding, and, as a result, Mittal Steel may no longer terminate the Memorandum of Understanding as a result of the withdrawal of the Offer for failure of any of the Offer conditions to be satisfied or waived.

Pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding, the Reporting Persons have agreed to use their best efforts to procure, as soon as practicable following completion of the Offer and any related subsequent offer or compulsory buy-out, the merger of Mittal Steel into Arcelor, with Arcelor continuing to be incorporated, domiciled and headquartered in Luxembourg. The merger of Mittal Steel into Arcelor, resulting in a combined entity Arcelor

Mittal , is expected to take place during the first half of 2007. This merged entity would retain listings on the NYSE and in Paris, Amsterdam, Brussels, Luxembourg and Madrid, where Mittal Steel shares will be listed upon completion of the Offer. (References herein to the Company refer to each of Mittal Steel and Arcelor pre-merger, and to the top-level company in the Mittal Steel/Arcelor group following the merger of Arcelor and Mittal Steel.)

In addition, pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding, the Reporting Persons have agreed that, as soon as possible after completion of the Offer, the Company will be governed by a Board of Directors, comprised solely of non-executive directors, and a Management Board, on the following terms:

Management Board. The day-to-day management of the Company will be entrusted to the Management Board. Pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding, the initial Management Board will include the four then-current members of the Arcelor Management Board, the then-current Arcelor CEO becoming the Chief Executive Officer, and three members to be nominated by the then-current Mittal Steel Board of Directors, i.e., in total seven members. If the then-current Arcelor CEO withdraws or resigns, the new Company CEO would be appointed further to a proposal made by Mr. Joseph Kinsch and approved by Mr. Mittal.

On August 4, 2006, Mittal Steel announced the following appointments to its Management Board:

Roland Junck, Chief Executive Officer;

Aditya Mittal, Chief Financial Officer, with additional responsibility for the Flat American business;

Michel Wurth, Senior Executive Vice President Flat Products Europe;

Malay Mukherjee, Senior Executive Vice President Stainless, Mining, Asia & Africa;

Gonzalo Urquijo, Senior Executive Vice President Long Products and Distribution;

Davinder Chugh, Senior Executive Vice President Shared Services.

The Management Board is thus composed of three members who were Mittal Steel executives and three members who were Arcelor executives prior to their respective appointments to the Management Board. The appointments were approved on August 4, 2006 by the Board of Directors of both Mittal Steel and Arcelor.

Board of Directors. The Memorandum of Understanding provides that during the transitional period of three years following the settlement date of the Offer (the Initial Term), the Board of Directors of the Company will have the following characteristics:

Each initial Board of Directors will be composed of 18 non-executive members, each elected for a term of three years, the majority of whom will be independent.

Six members will be nominated by Mittal Steel, three of whom will be independent.

Six members will be from the then-existing Arcelor Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: MITTAL STEEL CO N.V. - Form SC 13D/A

Three members will be from the then-existing Arcelor Board of Directors representing then-existing Arcelor major shareholders.
A further three members will be employee representatives.

All directors will be non-executive and a majority of the Company Board of Directors will be constituted by directors who are (i) independent within the meaning of the definition thereof in the NYSE listing standards as applied to non-U.S. companies (i.e., foreign private issuers), and (ii) unaffiliated with any shareholders owning or controlling more than 2% of the shares of the Company (post-completion of the Offer).

During the Initial Term, the Board of Directors will appoint one director as Chairman and one director as President of the Board of Directors. Mr. Joseph Kinsch shall be the first Chairman of the Board of Directors of Arcelor and Mr. Mittal (in his capacity as representative of the Reporting Persons) shall be the first President of the Board of Directors. Upon the retirement of Mr. Joseph Kinsch, Mr. Mittal (in his capacity as representative of the Reporting Persons) shall become Chairman and Mr. Joseph Kinsch shall propose the successor President, who shall be an independent director or a former employee of Arcelor. Mr. Mittal (in his capacity as representative of the Reporting Persons) shall continue to be the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Mittal Steel until the post-Offer merger and Mr. Joseph Kinsch shall be the President. The proposed successor President will serve as President for so long as he or she is a director and the Reporting Persons have agreed to vote for his or her renewal as director, except in case of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the exercise of his or her functions as director or in the event that the Appointments and Remuneration Committee vetoes his or her nomination. Moreover, upon retirement, death or incapacity of Mr. Mittal, he shall be replaced by any other representative designated by the Reporting Persons from time to time.

During the Initial Term, and subject to the Reporting Persons owning or controlling at least 15% of the outstanding share capital of the Company (post-completion of the Offer), the Reporting Persons will be entitled to elect to the Company's Board of Directors up to (and not more than) six directors, including three directors who are affiliated (directly or indirectly) with the Reporting Persons and three independent directors.

On August 4, 2006, Mittal Steel announced that, subject to shareholder approval, the 18 non-executive members of the Board of Directors of Mittal Steel will be as follows:

The six Mittal Steel nominees are:

Lakshmi N. Mittal, Chairman of the Board;
Vanisha Mittal Bhatia;
Wilbur Ross;
Lewis Kaden;
François Pinault; and Narayanan Vaghul.

The six Arcelor nominees are:

Joseph Kinsch, President of the Board;
José Ramon Alvares Rendueles;
Edmond Pachura;
HRH the Prince Guillaume of Luxembourg;
Sergio Silva de Freitas; and Jean-Pierre Hansen.

The three shareholder representative nominees are:

Georges Schmit (Luxembourg State);
Antoine Spillmann (JMAC); and Romain Zaleski (Tassara).

The three employee representative nominees are:

Edgar Filing: MITTAL STEEL CO N.V. - Form SC 13D/A

John Castegnaro;
Michel Marti; and Manuel Fernández López.

Furthermore, pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding, the Reporting Persons have agreed to the following matters:

Shareholder Voting Rights. From and after consummation of the Offer, all Company shares will have identical voting and economic rights.

Independence of the Company. During the Initial Term, the Reporting Persons will not increase their representation on the Company Board of Directors to attempt to remove a company director (other than a director appointed by it) or attempt to make any change to the composition or size of the Company Board of Directors. After the end of the Initial Term, and subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association, the Reporting Persons will be entitled to representation on the Company Board of Directors proportional to its shareholding.

Reporting Persons' Right of Opposition. During the Initial Term, with respect to Board of Directors' decisions that require shareholders' approval, the Reporting Persons shall vote in accordance with the position expressed by the Board of Directors, unless Mr. Mittal opposes any such position, in which case the Reporting Persons can vote as they wish. During the Initial Term, if Mr. Mittal opposes any decision of the Board of Directors on a matter that does not require shareholders' approval and that was not proposed by him, Mr. Mittal shall have the right to request such action to be first approved by a shareholders' meeting and the Reporting Persons shall have the right to vote at such meeting as they see fit. The Board of Directors shall not approve any action that has been rejected by such shareholders' meeting.

Standstill. The Reporting Persons have agreed not to acquire, directly or indirectly, ownership or control of an amount of shares in the capital stock of the Company exceeding the percentage of shares in the Company that it will own or control following completion of the Offer and any subsequent offer or compulsory buy-out, except with the prior written consent of a majority of the independent directors on the Company's Board of Directors. Any shares acquired in violation of this restriction will be deprived of voting rights and shall be promptly sold by the Reporting Persons.

Notwithstanding the above, if (and whenever) the Reporting Persons hold, directly and indirectly, less than 45% of the then-issued Company shares, the Reporting Persons may purchase (in the open market or otherwise) Company shares up to such 45% limit. In addition, the Reporting Persons are also permitted to own and vote shares in excess of the threshold mentioned in the immediately preceding paragraph or the 45% limit mentioned above, if such ownership results from (a) subscription for shares or rights in proportion to its existing shareholding in the Company where other shareholders have not exercised the entirety of their rights or (b) a reduction of the number of Company shares (e.g., through self-tender offers or share buy-backs) if the decisions to implement such measures were taken at a shareholders' meeting in which the Reporting Persons did not vote or by the Company Board with a majority of independent directors voting in favor. Finally, the Reporting Persons are also permitted to own and vote shares in excess of the threshold mentioned in the immediately preceding paragraph or the 45% limit mentioned above if it acquires the excess shares in the context of a takeover bid by a third party and (i) a majority of the independent directors of the Company Board of Directors consents in writing to such acquisition by the Reporting Persons or (ii) the Reporting Persons acquire such shares in an offer for all of the shares of the Company.

Lock-Up. During the five-year period following the settlement date of the Offer, the Reporting Persons have agreed not to transfer (and to cause their affiliates not to transfer) directly or indirectly any of the shares in the Company that they hold without the approval of a majority of the independent directors of the Company, other than in connection with (i) an acquisition proposal by a third party recommended by the majority of the independent directors of the Company or (ii) the tender of shares by the Reporting Persons in a self-tender offer by the Company. As an exception to the foregoing, during the period from the second anniversary of the settlement date of the Offer until the end of the above-referenced five-year lock-up period, the Reporting Persons may sell an amount of shares not exceeding 5% of the Company's then-outstanding share capital without the consent of a majority of the Company's independent directors.

Reduction of Authorized Capital. The authorized capital will be reduced to the number of shares outstanding after completion of the Offer (including any shares to be issued pursuant to outstanding stock options and OCEANES due 2017) so that any further capital increase will have to be approved by a shareholders' meeting in accordance with applicable law.

Dividend Policy. The Reporting Persons agreed that the Company will seek to achieve high profitability targets and aspire to a 30% dividend payout target.

The rights and obligations of the Reporting Persons specifically summarized under Management Board, Board of Directors, Shareholder Voting Rights, Reporting Persons' Right of Opposition, Standstill, Lock-up and Reduction of Authorized Capital in this Item 6 will cease to have effect upon the Reporting Persons no longer owning or controlling at least 15% of the Company's outstanding share capital.
