Portfolio and Investment Activity

During the quarter ended June 30, 2005, Apollo Investment Corporation (AIC or the Company) invested $250.3 million across seven new portfolio companies while adding to four existing positions. AIC generally invested higher in the capital structures of these companies on average, investing $193.4 million in mostly second lien, senior secured loans while subordinated and equity opportunities totaled $56.9 million. The weighted average yields on the senior secured and subordinated loans made during the quarter were 11.3% and 12.8%, respectively.

Edgar Filing: APOLLO INVESTMENT CORP - Form 8-K

Throughout the quarter AIC remained selective, but prudently positioned the portfolio to hold a core group of attractively priced second lien loans with companies that possess strong credit characteristics. In advance of drawing on its substantial credit facility and as the Company had planned at the time of its IPO, it began rationalizing the composition of its portfolio by selectively exiting certain of its first lien and lower yielding senior secured loans. These loans were generally sold at par or better reducing these holdings by $94.5 million during the quarter.

As the first fiscal quarter of 2006 closed, the Company realized significant earnings from its investment in N.E.W. Customer Services Companies (N.E.W.), a portfolio company in which AIC invested in August 2004. The successful and strong financial results of N.E.W. s business led management of the company to refinance its subordinated debt and simultaneously, structure a dividend recapitalization plan.

At June 30, 2005, AIC s net portfolio of $1.0 billion was invested 48% in subordinated debt/corporate notes, 2% in common stock, 46% in senior secured loans and 4% in cash equivalents. It s remaining first lien senior loan holdings were 11% of the portfolio at June 30, 2005. A year earlier at June 30, 2004, the net portfolio was invested 6% in subordinated debt/corporate notes, 21% in 1st and 2nd lien senior secured loans and 73% in cash equivalents.

At June 30, 2005, the weighted average yield on AIC's debt portfolio was 11.8% versus 11.2% at March 31, 2005 and 7.4% at June 30, 2004. The weighted average yield on the entire portfolio, including cash equivalents, was 11.2% at June 30, 2005 versus 10.2% at March 31, 2005 and 2.7% at June 30, 2004. The weighted average yield on our subordinated debt/corporate notes was 13.6% at June 30, 2005 versus 13.7% at March 31, 2005 and 10.6% at June 30, 2004. The total bank debt/senior secured loan portfolio yielded 10.0% at June 30, 2005 versus 8.2% at March 31, 2005 and 6.3% at June 30, 2004. Of the bank debt, the weighted average yield attributable to first lien notes was 8.1% at June 30, 2005 versus 6.3% at March 31, 2005 and 5.0% at June 30, 2004. AIC's second lien bank debt yielded 10.6% at June 30, 2005 versus 9.4% at March 31, 2005 and 8.4% at June 30, 2004. Yields are computed using interest rates as of the balance sheet date and include amortization of loan origination fees, original issue discount and market premium or discount, weighted by their respective costs when averaged.

After fully investing our IPO proceeds by the close of our first fiscal year, we entered our second fiscal year well positioned with significant capital resources and an expanding pipeline of opportunities, said Chairman and CEO, Michael S. Gross. We accomplished three important objectives this quarter as we exited many of our lower yielding senior secured loans, realized gains on our investments and continued to build a high quality, higher yielding portfolio. We are pleased that our investment performance-to-date combined with the continued growth in the size and yield of our portfolio will allow us to continue to deliver sequential quarterly dividend growth.

Results of Operations

Results comparisons to the quarter ended June 2004 may not necessarily be meaningful as our portfolio was largely in cash equivalents from our initial IPO in April 2004. Accordingly, references and comparisons are made against our previous quarter ended March 31, 2005 in addition to the quarter ended June 2004.

Investment Income

Gross investment income totaled $37.8 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 compared to $21.3 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and $3.8 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. The increase included both dividend income and consent fee income from N.E.W. which totaled $3.5 million and $7.5 million, respectively.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses totaled $12.5 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 of which $6.3 million was performance-based incentive fees and $0.5 million were origination and commitment expenses related to our credit facility. Operating expenses net of incentive fees and interest expense was $5.7 million versus the $5.8 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and $5.3 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.

Edgar Filing: APOLLO INVESTMENT CORP - Form 8-K

Operating expenses consist of investment advisory and management fees, insurance expenses, administrative services fees, professional fees, directors' fees, audit and tax services expenses, and other general and administrative expenses.

Net Investment Income

The Company's net investment income totaled $25.2 million or $0.40 per share for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 versus $15.6 million or $0.25 per share for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and a net investment loss of $1.5 million or $0.024 per share for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. The increase in net investment income was primarily driven by both portfolio growth and income earned from our investment in N.E.W. described above.

Net Realized Gains/Losses

The Company had exits and repayments totaling $124.5 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 versus $47.3 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and $125,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. The net realized gains on investments for the quarter totaled $3.4 million versus $0 for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2004. The Company also realized a gain on its forward foreign currency contract of $3.4 million during the quarter versus a gain of $0.64 million during the quarter ended March 31, 2005. Total net realized gains for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 were $6.8 million versus $0.6 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and $0 for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.

Net Unrealized Appreciation on Investments and Forward Foreign Currency Contracts

For the quarter ended June 30, 2005, the Company's investments and other assets had a decrease in net unrealized appreciation of $18.5 million of which $9.6 million was due to the realization of profits from the N.E.W. Customer Service Companies' transaction. This compared to a decrease in unrealized appreciation of $3.9 million on the portfolio for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and an increase of $2.3 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. At June 30, 2005, net unrealized depreciation totaled $0.2 million of which $2.2 million was attributable to net unrealized appreciation on our bank debt/senior secured debt, $3.0 million was attributable to net unrealized depreciation on our subordinated debt/corporate notes/equity and $0.6 million in unrealized appreciation on our forward foreign currency contract.

Net Increase in Net Assets From Operations

For the quarter ended June 30, 2005, the Company had a net increase in net assets resulting from operations of $13.6 million versus $12.3 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and $0.9 million for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. The net change in net assets from operations per share was $0.22 for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 versus $0.20 for the quarter ended March 31, 2005 and $0.014 for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's liquidity and capital resources was generated primarily from the remaining net proceeds of its initial offering as well as from cash flows from operations, including exits and prepayments of senior and subordinated loans and income earned from investments and cash equivalents (which normally comprise of U.S. government securities and other high-quality debt investments that mature in one year or less). The Company may also fund its investments and operations through draw-downs of its senior secured, multi-currency, $800 million, five-year credit facility. In the future, the Company may raise additional equity capital through the filing of its shelf registration or may securitize a portion of its investments in mezzanine or senior secured loans or other assets. The primary use of funds will be investments in portfolio companies and cash distributions to holders of common stock.

Dividends

Dividends paid to stockholders for the quarter totaled $19.4 million or $0.31 per share versus $16.2 million or $0.26 per share for the quarter ended March 31, 2005. For the period April 8, 2004 (commencement of operations) through March 31, 2005, dividends paid to stockholders totaled $30.2 million or $0.485 per share. With respect to the dividends paid to shareholders, income from origination, structuring, closing, commitment and other upfront fees associated with investments in portfolio companies is treated as taxable income and accordingly, distributed to shareholders. Tax characteristics of all dividends will be reported to shareholders on Form 1099 after the end of the calendar year.
