Nelson, III to the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sanchez Energy Corporation (the “Company”), as described below under Item 5.02, the Company entered into an Indemnification Agreement (the “Indemnification Agreement”) with Mr. Nelson. The Indemnification Agreement requires the Company to, among other things, indemnify Mr. Nelson against certain liabilities that may arise in connection with his status or service as one of the Company’s directors or in his capacity at other specified entities at which he serves at the Company’s request and to advance his expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding for which he may be entitled to indemnification. Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(d) Appointment of Director

On August 2, 2016, Mr. Nelson was appointed to the Board. The Board determined Mr. Nelson to be independent under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) and qualified to serve on the Audit Committee, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) of the Board under the rules of the NYSE and the Securities and Exchange Commission, to which committees Mr. Nelson was appointed concurrently with his appointment as director. Mr. Nelson, age 40, was most recently with C&J Energy Services, Ltd. (“C&J”) where he was Vice President of Corporate Operational Development. In this capacity he was responsible for joint ventures and strategic partnerships with operators while assisting in the merger of certain operating units of Nabors Industries Ltd. Mr. Nelson worked for UBS before beginning his career at Nabors. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Texas at Austin and a Master of Business Administration degree from Rice University’s Jones Graduate School of Business.
