ITEM 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 30, 2008, DiamondRock Hospitality Company (DiamondRock) amended (the Amendment) all of its outstanding Dividend Equivalent Right Awards between DiamondRock and its five most senior executive officers. These Amendments shortened the life of the existing Dividend Equivalent Rights from 10 years from the grant date to 8 years from the grant date and it eliminated the provision that required the awards to terminate, in whole or in part, upon the exercise of the Stock Appreciation Rights that were issued simultaneously with the Dividend Equivalent Rights.

Recently an official with the Internal Revenue Service stated that a Dividend Equivalent Right which terminates upon the exercise of an option or a stock appreciation right should be characterized as deferred compensation and subject to the provisions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee of DiamondRock's Board of Directors was advised of this risk and it concluded that it was appropriate to amend the existing Dividend Equivalent Rights to delink the termination of the Dividend Equivalent Right from the exercise of the Stock Appreciation Right and, in order to prevent any accidental windfall to the executives, to shorten the life of the awards.

DiamondRock does not expect to record any significant expense or gain related to the Amendment.

The foregoing description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by the full terms and conditions of the Amendment which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
