Letter from the Board of Directors

October 16, 2018

Dear Shareholder,

Thank you for your continued investment in Microsoft. We are excited about the Company's strong business and stock price performance in fiscal year 2018. We believe these results stem from Microsoft's commitment to business strategies that provide long-term, sustainable growth.

Your Board of Directors works to ensure Microsoft's continuing success and represent shareholder interests. Twelve of 14 Board members are independent, which includes our Board Chair and all Committee Chairs. Together, we rely on our diversity of experiences, perspectives, and skills to provide guidance and oversight for how Microsoft effectively manages risk and realizes strategic opportunities in a dynamically transforming world. This year's Board nominees represent a wide range of backgrounds; in addition, half the nominees are gender, nationally, or ethnically diverse.

After adding four new Board members in the past two years, this year's nominees all currently serve on the Microsoft Board. Microsoft implements a unique board tenure policy that targets an average tenure of 10 years or less for the Board's independent directors as a group. This approach strikes a balance between retaining directors with deep knowledge of the Company while adding directors who bring a fresh perspective. As a group, the current directors have an average tenure of 7.1 years of service. Newer and more tenured Board members are effectively working together as a team to deeply understand and oversee the complexities of Microsoft's global business.

That understanding is enhanced by proactive engagement with our shareholders. During fiscal year 2018, our Board Chair and members of senior management engaged with a cross-section of shareholders owning over 46% of our shares. With more than 5.5 million Microsoft shareholders, we supplement this engagement with one-to-many communications to reach all our shareholders. For instance, Microsoft was among the first companies to launch a director video series to help shareholders understand the unique skills and perspectives each director brings to the Board. The series can be viewed on our website at <https://aka.ms/DirectorVideoSeries>.

Feedback from shareholders has helped us evolve the executive compensation program over the past several years and helped us prioritize our efforts on important topics ranging from renewable energy to privacy and cybersecurity. Microsoft's mission to empower every person and every organization on the planet to achieve more is inherently expansive and long-term. We are constantly thinking about how to ensure the value we create is sustainable in a complex and rapidly changing world, and we welcome your contributions to that important effort.

Thank you for the trust you place in us and your continued investment in Microsoft's future. We appreciate the opportunity to serve you and Microsoft in our role as directors.

Sincerely,

Your Board of Directors

Sound program design

We design our executive officer compensation programs to attract, motivate, and retain the key executives who drive our success and industry leadership while considering individual and Company performance and alignment with the long-term interests of our shareholders. We achieve our objectives through compensation that:

Provides a competitive total pay opportunity,

Consists primarily of stock-based compensation,

Delivers a majority of pay based on performance,

Enhances retention through multi-year vesting of stock awards, and

Does not encourage unnecessary and excessive risk taking.

Best practices in executive compensation

Our leading practices include:

A strong clawback policy,

An executive stock ownership policy,

A policy prohibiting pledging and hedging ownership of Microsoft stock,

No excessive perquisites (no executive-only club memberships, medical benefits, or tax gross-ups),

No employment contracts or change in control benefits, and

No executive-only retirement programs.

Corporate social responsibility

Our approach to corporate social responsibility

At Microsoft, we work to conduct our business in ways that are principled, transparent, and accountable to key stakeholders. We believe doing so generates long-term value. We focus our efforts where we can have the most positive impact on our business and society, including issues related to environmental sustainability, trust, and culture and human capital. As a reflection of the importance of these matters, we assign oversight responsibility for corporate social responsibility to the Regulatory and Public Policy Committee of the Board, who works with management to review our policies, programs, and performance.

Beyond the corporate social responsibility highlights below, we invite you to explore the wide range of Microsoft Environmental, Social, and Governance ( ESG ) reporting and data available at www.microsoft.com/transparency.

Environmental sustainability

Energy use and its relationship to climate change are important areas of focus for us. We strive to improve our own carbon footprint while also providing solutions that enable our customers to reduce their energy use and enhance organizational resiliency in the face of climate change.

75% Microsoft pledged to reduce carbon emissions from our operations 75% by 2030

93% Microsoft cloud services can cut energy use up to 93% compared to traditional enterprise datacenters

1.4 gigawatts of green power Since 2015, Microsoft has directly purchased a total of nearly 1.4 gigawatts of electricity from new wind and solar projects

Table of Contents

Trust

Earning the trust of our customers and other stakeholders is fundamental to our business success. We know that people won't use technology they don't trust.

To ensure our customers can trust the Microsoft products and services they use, we've published clear privacy principles and are committed to implementing a strong privacy, security, compliance, and transparency framework across all of our services.

Microsoft was the first global cloud services provider to publicly offer contractual commitments that allow our customers to meet the privacy protections in the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We also extended key GDPR rights to all of our consumer customers worldwide. Known as Data Subject Rights, they include the right to know what data we collect about you, to correct that data, to delete it, and even to take it somewhere else.

We're disrupting cybercrime through the innovative application of technology, forensics, law, and partnerships by Microsoft's Digital Crimes Unit, an international team of investigators, data scientists, and engineers. In 2018, we also launched Microsoft's Defending Democracy Program to work globally to protect campaigns and elections from hacking and defend against online disinformation campaigns. We helped drive the Cybersecurity Tech Accord, a commitment by Microsoft and over three dozen tech companies to not help any government mount cyberattacks against civilians and enterprises, and we have championed a Digital Geneva Convention prohibiting governments from cyberattacks on the private sector and civilian infrastructure.

Culture and human capital

At Microsoft, we strive to create a respectful, rewarding, diverse, and inclusive work environment that enables our employees to create products and services that help others to achieve more. Our leadership is focused on bringing out the best in people, supporting their goals, and allowing them to find deep meaning in their work. This includes building a culture where integrity, honesty, and compliance guide our decision making and employees feel free to ask questions and raise concerns when something doesn't seem right. Our commitment to diversity and inclusion is also a core aspect of our evolving culture that helps us fulfill our mission. Thomson Reuters included Microsoft in its 2018 Diversity & Inclusion Index of the 100 most diverse and inclusive organizations from among 7,000 publicly traded companies around the world. The Board, the Compensation Committee, and the Regulatory and Public Policy Committee engage with the Senior Leadership Team and human resource executives on a regular basis across a broad range of human capital management issues.

The vast majority of our global employees participate in an annual anonymous poll. Here is a selection of results:

Political contributions transparency

Recognizing the interest of shareholders in establishing greater transparency about corporate political contributions, we disclose our political contributions to support candidates and ballot measures and how certain of our trade association membership dues are used for political activities. As part of our commitment to transparency, we developed the Principles and Policies Guiding Microsoft Participation in Public Policy Process in the United States, which focuses on ensuring compliance with applicable federal and state laws and go beyond compliance to implement what we consider leading practices in corporate accountability, transparency, integrity, and responsibility. The policy is available at www.microsoft.com/en-us/public-policy-engagement.

The Company engages with shareholders

The Company maintains an active dialogue with shareholders to ensure that a diversity of perspectives is thoughtfully considered on issues including strategy, business performance, risk, culture and human capital, compensation practices, and corporate social responsibility. Our Offices of Investor Relations and the Corporate Secretary coordinate this engagement, often including a director, and report relevant results to the Board and its committees.

Last year, the Office of the Corporate Secretary engaged shareholders representing over 46% of our shares, and our Investor Relations group engaged shareholders representing over 50% of our shares.

Table of ContentsThe Board of Directors*Board structure

We have an independent Chairman of the Board who is appointed annually by the independent members of the Board. The roles of Chairman and CEO have been separate since 2000. ### Board committees

Structure

To support effective corporate governance, the Board delegates certain responsibilities to its committees, who report on their activities to the Board.

Four standing committees Our Board has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Governance and Nominating Committee, and a Regulatory and Public Policy Committee. Each committee has a charter describing its specific responsibilities which can be found on our website at <https://aka.ms/boardcommittees>. The table below provides current membership for each Board committee.

Joint committee meetings Our Regulatory and Public Policy Committee holds regular joint meetings with both the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee on areas of complementary responsibility.

Committees are independent Only independent directors are members of the Board's committees.

Regular committee executive sessions of independent directors Members of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Regulatory and Public Policy Committee regularly meet in executive session.

Committees have authority to engage legal counsel or other advisors or consultants Each committee can retain advisors or consultants as it deems appropriate to carry out its responsibilities.

Independent compensation consultant The Compensation Committee retains Semler Brossy Consulting Group, LLC ( Semler Brossy ) to advise the Committee on marketplace trends in executive compensation, management proposals for compensation programs, and executive officer compensation decisions. Semler Brossy also evaluates compensation for non-employee directors, the next levels of senior management, and equity compensation programs generally. Semler Brossy consults with the Committee about its recommendations to the Board on chief executive officer compensation. Semler Brossy is directly accountable to the Committee. To maintain the independence of the firm's advice, Semler Brossy does not provide any services for Microsoft other than those described above. The Committee has adopted Compensation Consultant Independence Standards, which can be viewed on our website at <https://aka.ms/policiesandguidelines>. These standards require that the Committee annually assess the independence of its compensation consultant. A consultant satisfying the following requirements will be considered independent. The consultant (including each individual employee of the consultant providing services):

Is retained and terminated by, has its compensation fixed by, and reports solely to, the Compensation Committee

Is independent of the Company

Will not perform any work for Company management except at the request of the Compensation Committee chair and in the capacity of the Committee's agent

Does not provide any unrelated services or products to the Company, its affiliates, or management, except for surveys purchased from the consultant firm

In assessing the consultant's independence, the Compensation Committee considers the nature and amount of work performed for the Committee during the year, the nature of any unrelated services performed for the Company, and the fees paid for those services in relation to the firm's total revenues. The consultant annually prepares for the Committee an independence letter providing assurances and confirmation of the consultant's independent status under the standards. The Committee believes that Semler Brossy has been independent during its service for the Committee.

Audit Committee members have financial sophistication and expertise The Board has determined that each Audit Committee member has sufficient knowledge in financial and auditing matters to serve on the Audit Committee. All members of the Audit Committee meet the NASDAQ Stock Market (NASDAQ) listing standard of financial sophistication and are audit committee financial experts under Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules.

Board oversight

Shareholders elect the Board to oversee management and to serve shareholders' long-term interests. Management is responsible for achieving our mission, delivering on our strategy, creating our culture, inspiring and creating innovative products, establishing accountability, and controlling risk. The Board and its committees work closely with management to balance and align strategy, risk, corporate social responsibility, and other areas while considering feedback from shareholders. Essential to the Board's oversight role is a transparent and active dialogue between the Board and its committees, and management. To support that dialogue, the Board and its committees have access to, receive presentations from, and conduct regular meetings with the Senior Leadership Team, other business and function leaders, subject matter experts, the Company's enterprise risk management and internal audit functions, and external experts and advisors.

The Company's mission to empower every person and every organization on the planet to achieve more is inherently expansive and long term. It requires Microsoft to offer innovative and transformative technology and to anticipate where technology is heading. It requires Microsoft to invest capital to pursue market opportunities. It requires Microsoft to focus not just on our existing customers, but to extend opportunity more broadly. Through oversight, review, and counsel, our Board works with management to establish and promote business goals, organizational objectives, and a strategy that is mindful of how our business affects and is affected by the broader environment.

Board oversight of strategy

One of the Board's primary responsibilities is overseeing management's establishment and execution of the Company's strategy. As Microsoft continues to transform its business, the Board works with management to respond to a dynamically changing environment. At least quarterly, the CEO, the Senior Leadership Team, and leaders from across Microsoft provide detailed business and strategy updates to the Board. At least annually, the Board conducts an even more in-depth review of the Company's overall strategy. At all of these reviews, the Board engages with the Senior Leadership Team and other business leaders regarding business objectives, technology updates, the competitive landscape, economic trends, and public policy and regulatory developments. At meetings occurring throughout the year, the Board also assesses mergers and acquisitions, the Company's budget and capital plan, and performance for alignment to our strategy. The Board looks to the focused expertise of its committees to inform strategic oversight in their areas of focus.

Board oversight of risk

Effective risk management is critical to Microsoft's ability to achieve its mission. The Board oversees management in exercising its responsibility managing risk, considering our robust framework of policies, procedures, and processes to anticipate, identify, assess, prioritize, and mitigate risks across the Company. On a regular basis, the Board and its committees engage with management on risk as part of broad strategic and operational discussions which encompass interrelated risks, as well as on a risk-by-risk basis. The Board and the Audit Committee also assess whether management has put in place an appropriate framework to manage risks and whether that framework is operating effectively. The Board executes its oversight responsibility directly and through its committees, who regularly report back to the Board. Some examples of risks overseen by committees are:

The Audit Committee reviews and assesses the Company's processes to manage financial reporting risk and to manage investment, tax, and other financial risks. It also reviews the Company's policies for risk assessment and steps management has taken to control certain risks not otherwise delegated by the Board to other committees.

The Compensation Committee oversees compensation programs and policies and their effect on risk-taking by management.

The Governance and Nominating Committee manages risk by overseeing the governance framework and structure as well as other corporate governance matters.

The Regulatory and Public Policy Committee oversees legal, regulatory, and compliance risks concerning competition and antitrust, privacy, workforce, and immigration laws and regulations.

In joint session, the Audit Committee and the Regulatory and Public Policy Committee address issues of complementary risk responsibility, including risks associated with cybersecurity and management of the supply chain.

In joint session, the Compensation Committee and the Regulatory and Public Committee address issues of complementary risk responsibility, including risks associated with diversity and inclusion and human capital management.

This approach to risk oversight does not affect the Board's leadership structure.

Table of Contents*Spotlight: oversight of human capital management

The Board, the Compensation Committee, and the Regulatory and Public Policy Committee engage with the Senior Leadership Team and human resources executives on a regular basis across a broad range of human capital management issues. Microsoft is focused on creating a respectful, rewarding, diverse, and inclusive work environment that allows our people to build meaningful careers. Key to this environment is cultivating a growth mindset, where our workforce is focused on learning, listening, and growing. The success of these human capital management objectives is essential to the fulfillment of Microsoft's mission, and the Board works with management to provide oversight on matters including culture, succession planning and development, compensation, benefits, employee recruiting and retention, and diversity and inclusion. Employee feedback is considered in designing talent programs, rewards, benefits, and building the overall employee experience. Additionally, each year, the Compensation and Audit Committees evaluate management's annual assessment of risk related to our compensation policies and practices. The Compensation Committee also oversees our sales incentive programs through engagement with management's Sales Incentive Compensation Governance Committee. The Board and the Compensation Committee work with the CEO and our head of Human Resources to review CEO and senior executive succession plans, considering the qualifications and experience of potential leadership candidates.

Spotlight: oversight of cybersecurity risk

The Board, the Audit Committee, and the Regulatory and Public Policy Committee are each involved in oversight of the Company's management of cybersecurity risk. Cybersecurity protection is vital to maintaining the trust of our customers. Microsoft is committed to building security into its products and cloud services from the ground up. We must also secure our own data and systems from potential breach. Management provides regular updates, including information about cybersecurity governance processes, the status of projects to strengthen internal cybersecurity, security features of the products and services we provide our customers, and the results of security breach simulations. The Board and its committees also discuss recent incidents throughout the industry and the emerging threat landscape, in part identified through Microsoft's own intelligent security graph. (For more information, see www.microsoft.com/en-us/security/intelligence-security-api). Microsoft's commitment to mitigating cybersecurity risk also extends to our global effort to foster the development of laws, international norms, and public/private partnerships addressing cybersecurity risk. The Board and the Regulatory and Public Policy Committee work closely with management to provide oversight for these public policy initiatives and activities.

Spotlight: oversight of strategic acquisitions

The Board provides oversight of Microsoft's strategic acquisition and integration process, which supports alignment with our strategic objectives, provides accountability across acquisitions, and enables insight for future acquisitions. Our Board includes 11 members with extensive negotiation, acquisition, integration, and other business combination experience. That depth of experience allows the Board to constructively engage with management and effectively evaluate acquisitions for alignment with our strategy, culture, and mission. Microsoft views strategic acquisitions as an important element in delivering long-term shareholder value. While management is charged with identifying potential acquisition targets, executing transactions, and managing integration, our Board's oversight extends to each phase. Management and the Board regularly discuss potential acquisitions and their role in the Company's overall business strategy. These discussions include acquisitions in process and potential future acquisitions, focusing on valuation, strategic risk, and potential synergies with Microsoft's businesses and strategy. When management considers potentially significant acquisitions, the Board receives updates and discusses with management a broad range of matters, including negotiations, due diligence findings, valuation, tax impacts, integration planning, talent retention, communications plans, risk, and regulatory impacts. Throughout the acquisition process, the Board has access to the Senior Leadership Team, appropriate business leaders, subject matter experts, and external advisors. As part of the entire strategic acquisition lifecycle, the Board also receives regular updates and provides feedback on ongoing integration, operational success, and financial performance of our acquisitions, which allows the Board to provide oversight across transactions and over time.

2. Board of Directors

Director selection and qualifications

Shareholders elect all Board members
annually

The Governance and Nominating Committee recommends to the Board director candidates for nomination and election at the annual shareholders meeting or for appointment to fill vacancies. The Committee annually reviews with the Board the skills and characteristics required of Board nominees, considering current Board composition and Company circumstances. In making its recommendations to our Board, the Committee considers the qualifications of individual director candidates applying the Board membership criteria described below. The Committee retains any search firm involved in identifying potential candidates and approves their fees.

We consider director candidates characteristics, skills, and experience

The Governance and Nominating Committee works with our Board to determine the characteristics, skills, and experience for the Board as a whole and its individual members with the objective of having a board with diverse backgrounds, skills, and experience.

For all directors, we require independence, integrity, personal and professional ethics, business judgment, and ability and willingness to commit sufficient time to the Board. In evaluating the suitability of individual director candidates, our Board considers many factors, including general understanding of global business, sales and marketing, finance, and other disciplines relevant to the success of a large, publicly traded company; understanding of our business and technology; educational and professional background; personal accomplishment; and national, gender, age, and ethnic diversity.

The Board is committed to actively seeking highly qualified women and individuals from minority groups to include in the pool from which new candidates are selected. The Board's objective is to recommend a group that can best ensure the continuing success of our business and represent shareholder interests through the exercise of sound judgment using its diversity of experience and perspectives.

The Board does not believe that directors should expect to be re-nominated annually. In determining whether to recommend a director for re-election, the Governance and Nominating Committee considers the director's participation in and contributions to the activities of the Board, the results of the most recent Board evaluation, and past attendance at meetings.

The Governance and Nominating Committee assesses its efforts to maintain an effective and diverse board as part of its regular responsibilities, which include annually:

Reporting to our Board on the performance and effectiveness of the Board,

Presenting to our Board individuals recommended for election to the Board at the annual meeting, and Assessing the Committee's own performance.

The Governance and Nominating Committee works with the full Board to regularly evaluate board composition to assess the skills and capabilities that are relevant to the Board's work and the Company's strategy, whether directors should be added in view of director departures, and the number of directors needed to fulfill the Board's responsibilities under the Corporate Governance Guidelines and committee charters.

Shareholders previously elected all current Board members. When we recruit new director candidates, that process typically involves either a search firm or a member of the Committee contacting a prospect to assess interest and availability. A candidate will then meet with members of the Board and Mr. Nadella, and then meet with members of management as appropriate. At the same time, the Committee and the search firm will contact references for the prospect. A background check is completed before a final recommendation is made to the Board to appoint a candidate to the Board.

Shareholder recommendations and nominations of director candidates

Recommendations

The Governance and Nominating Committee considers shareholder recommendations for candidates for the Board of Directors using the same criteria described above. The name of any recommended candidate for director, together with a brief biographical sketch, a document indicating the candidate's willingness to serve if elected, and evidence of the nominating shareholder's ownership of Company stock must be sent to the attention of MSC 123/9999, Office of the Corporate Secretary, Microsoft Corporation, One Microsoft Way, Redmond, WA, 98052-6399.

Nominations

Our Bylaws provide for proxy access shareholder nominations of director candidates by eligible shareholders. A shareholder who wishes to formally nominate a candidate must follow the procedures described in Article 1 of our Bylaws. Proxy access candidates will be included in the Company's proxy statement and ballot.

Director skill matrix

The table below summarizes the key qualifications, skills, and attributes most relevant to the decision to nominate candidates to serve on the Board. A mark indicates a specific area of focus or expertise on which the Board particularly relies. Not having a mark does not mean the director does not possess that qualification or skill. Our director nominees' biographies describe each director's background and relevant experience in more detail.

Director independence

Having an independent board is a core element of our governance philosophy. Our Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that a substantial majority of our directors will be independent. Our Board has adopted director independence guidelines to assist in determining each director's independence. These guidelines are available on our website at <https://aka.ms/directorindependence>. The guidelines either meet or exceed the independence requirements of NASDAQ. The guidelines identify categories of relationships the Board has determined would not affect a director's independence and therefore are not considered by the Board in determining director independence.

Following the director independence guidelines, each year and before a new director is appointed, the Board must affirmatively determine a director has no relationship that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his or her responsibilities as a director. Annually, each director completes a detailed questionnaire that provides information about relationships that might affect the determination of independence. Management provides the Governance and Nominating Committee and Board with relevant known facts and circumstances of any relationship bearing on the independence of a director or nominee that is outside the categories permitted under the director independence guidelines. The Committee then completes an assessment of each director considering all known relevant facts and circumstances concerning any relationship bearing on the independence of a director or nominee. This process includes evaluating whether any identified relationship otherwise adversely affects a director's independence and affirmatively determining that the director has no material relationship with Microsoft, another director, or as a partner, shareholder, or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company.

The Governance and Nominating Committee also considers the tenure of a director, and for longer serving directors, whether the duration of service impacts the director's independence from management, as demonstrated by the director's relationship with management and the director's participation in Board and Committee deliberations. The Board seeks to maintain an average tenure of 10 years or less for its independent directors as a group.

Based on the review and recommendation by the Governance and Nominating Committee, the Board analyzed the independence of each director and determined that Mses. List-Stoll, Peterson, Pritzker, and Warrior, Messrs. Hoffman, Johnston, Noski, Scharf, Sorenson, Stanton, and Thompson, and Dr. Panke meet the standards of independence under our Corporate Governance Guidelines, the director independence guidelines, and applicable NASDAQ listing standards, including that each member is free of any relationship that would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment.

Director attendance

Our Board of Directors holds regularly scheduled quarterly meetings. Committee meetings occur the day before the Board meeting. Once each year, committee and Board meetings occur on a single day so the evening and following day can be devoted to the Board's annual strategy retreat, which includes presentations and discussions with senior management about Microsoft's long-term strategy. Besides the quarterly meetings, typically there are two other regularly scheduled meetings and several special meetings each year. At each quarterly Board meeting, time is set aside for the independent directors to meet without management present. Our Board met seven times during fiscal year 2018.

Each director nominee who is a current director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of all fiscal year 2018 meetings of the Board and each committee on which he or she served.

Directors are expected to attend the annual shareholder meeting, if practicable. All directors attended the 2017 Annual Meeting.

Director compensation

The Compensation Committee periodically reviews the regular annual retainer paid to non-employee directors and makes recommendations for adjustments, as appropriate, to the Board. Our objective is to pay non-employee directors over time at or near the median of the proxy peer group, to award the majority of compensation in equity, and to make meaningful adjustments every few years, rather than smaller adjustments that are more frequent. As a result, we typically make adjustments when we fall below the median, and after such adjustments we exceed the median. There was no change in fiscal year 2017 or 2018. As our CEO, Mr. Nadella does not receive additional pay for serving as a director. Mr. Gates has waived his cash and stock awards.

The Company reimburses reasonable expenses incurred for Board-related activities. Directors may participate in our corporate matching gift program for charitable donations.

Director retainers are paid quarterly in arrears. Quarterly periods are measured beginning with the annual meeting. At the end of each quarterly period, we pay 25% of the total annual retainer to each director. The number of shares awarded each quarterly period is determined by dividing the dollar value of the stock award by the market price of our common stock as of the last business day of the period. Retainers are pro-rated for directors who join or leave the Board or have a change in Board role during a quarterly period.

Directors may elect to defer and convert to deferred stock awards all or part of their annual cash retainer, and to defer receipt of all or part of their annual stock awards retainer under the Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors. Amounts deferred are maintained in bookkeeping accounts that are deemed invested in Microsoft common stock, and dividends paid on deemed investment are also deemed to be invested in our common stock. We calculate the number of shares credited by dividing the amount deferred by the closing market price of our common stock on the originally scheduled payment date. Accounts in the plan are distributed in shares of Microsoft common stock, with payments either in installments beginning on separation from Board service or in a lump sum paid no later than the fifth anniversary after separation from Board service.

Non-executive Chairman compensation

The independent members of the Board appointed John Thompson as independent non-executive Chairman of the Board. Mr. Thompson's pay reflects the additional time commitment for this role compared to other non-employee directors, which includes: (i) managing meetings of the Board of Directors, leading the work to set the agenda for Board meetings, leading the Board's annual chief executive officer performance review, and representing the Board at the annual shareholders meeting; (ii) meeting with the Company's shareholders; (iii) setting and maintaining Board culture; and (iv) when requested, interacting with external audiences. To compensate Mr. Thompson for the greater responsibilities of the non-executive Chairman role, he receives the annual chairman retainer in lieu of the regular Board retainers.

Director stock ownership policy aligns interests with shareholders

To align the interests of our directors and shareholders, our Board of Directors believes that directors should have a significant financial stake in Microsoft. Under the Corporate Governance Guidelines, each director should own Microsoft shares equal in value to at least three times the base annual retainer (cash and stock) payable to a director. Each director must retain 50% of all

Table of Contents

net shares (post tax) from the retainer until reaching the minimum share ownership requirement. Stock deferred under the Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors counts toward the minimum ownership requirement. Each of our directors complied with our stock ownership policy in fiscal year 2018.

Certain relationships and related transactions

We are a global company with extensive operations in the United States and many foreign countries. Every year we spend billions of dollars for goods and services purchased from third parties. The authority of our employees to purchase goods and services is widely dispersed. Because of these wide-ranging activities, there may be transactions and business arrangements with businesses and other organizations in which one of our directors, executive officers, or nominees for director, or their immediate families, or an owner of greater than 5% of our stock, may also be a director, executive officer, or investor, or have some other direct or indirect material interest ( related entities ). We will refer to these transactions with related entities as related-party transactions where the amount involved exceeds $120,000 and a director, executive officer, or immediate family member has a direct or indirect material interest.

Related-party transactions have the potential to create actual or perceived conflicts of interest between Microsoft and its directors, executive officers, or their immediate family members. The Audit Committee has established a written policy and procedures for review and approval of related-party transactions. If a related-party transaction subject to review involves directly or indirectly a member of the Audit Committee (or an immediate family member or domestic partner), the remaining Committee members will conduct the review. In evaluating a related-party transaction, the Audit Committee considers, among other factors:

The goods or services provided by or to the related party

The nature of the transaction and the costs to be incurred by Microsoft or payments to Microsoft

The benefits associated with the transaction and whether comparable or alternative goods or services are available to Microsoft from unrelated parties

The business advantage Microsoft would gain by engaging in the transaction

The significance of the transaction to Microsoft and to the related party

Management's determination that the transaction is in the best interests of Microsoft

To receive Audit Committee approval, a related-party transaction must have a Microsoft business purpose and be on terms that are fair and reasonable to Microsoft and be as favorable to Microsoft as would be available from non-related entities in comparable transactions. The Audit Committee also requires that the transaction meet the same Microsoft standards that apply to comparable transactions with unaffiliated entities.

During fiscal year 2018, there were transactions between Microsoft and certain related entities, for instance the purchase of software licenses by companies of which a director is an executive officer. None of these transactions constituted a related-party transaction that required approval by the Audit Committee.

3. Named executive officer compensation

Compensation discussion and analysis

This Compensation discussion and analysis provides information about our fiscal year 2018 compensation program for our fiscal year 2018 named executive officers (the Named Executives ). The content of this Compensation discussion and analysis is organized into four sections:

	See Page
Section 1 Compensation governance and philosophy	33
Section 2 Compensation program design	36
Section 3 Fiscal year 2018 compensation decisions	39
Section 4 Other compensation policies and information	44

Beginning with fiscal year 2015, our Compensation Committee and Board charted a course to transform our executive pay program to include significant performance attributes. They recognized it would be premature to move to business metric-based pay before Mr. Nadella established and the Board concurred with his vision for the Company and the strategy that would embody that vision. Performance-based pay elements were added in fiscal year 2016 once our new strategy was set. In fiscal year 2017, we implemented significant changes that increased the portion of pay that is performance-based and the portion of incentive pay that is quantitatively determined using pre-established metrics. For fiscal year 2018, we continued the program with few changes.

Our multi-year effort to transform our executive pay program was grounded in a compensation philosophy aimed at achieving strong alignment between the Company's long-term strategic goals and our shareholders' interests. We actively engaged with our shareholders by seeking their input about features they valued as we evolved the program design.

Our long-term strategic goals derive from our mission and worldview. We strive to empower every person and every organization on the planet to achieve more, and we envision a world where an intelligent cloud and its intelligent edge play a key role in this empowerment. Our culture remains a key ingredient in achieving our mission. We emphasize a growth mindset, which pushes us to be more customer obsessed, be more diverse and inclusive, and to operate as One Microsoft.

Following a successful year of executing on these goals, for fiscal year 2018, our Named Executives were awarded:

Named Executive	Salary	Cash incentive	Stock award	Total
-----------------	--------	----------------	-------------	-------

	($)	($)	($)	Performance stock award (target) ($)	($)
Satya Nadella	1,500,000	7,425,000	7,500,000	7,500,000	23,925,000
Amy Hood	875,000	3,718,750	4,650,000	4,650,000	13,893,750
Jean-Philippe Courtois	833,000	3,092,513	3,750,000	3,750,000	11,425,513
Margaret Johnson	715,000	2,252,236	2,500,000	2,500,000	7,967,236
Bradford Smith	800,000	3,566,700	4,100,000	4,100,000	12,566,700

This table is intended to supplement, not replace, the summary compensation table on page 48, which lists our fiscal year 2018 Named Executives and reports their compensation in the format required by the SEC rules. This table is intended to provide our shareholders with our view of Named Executive compensation for fiscal year 2018. It includes salaries and cash incentives from the summary compensation table and the awarded value (in dollars) of the stock awards and target awards shown in the table on page 43.

Table of Contents

Section 1 Compensation governance and philosophy

Executive compensation governance

Our Compensation Committee establishes the design of our executive compensation program. Considering Mr. Nadella's recommendations, the Compensation Committee also approves the target compensation (base salaries, target cash incentives, and equity incentive compensation) for our Named Executives, except Mr. Nadella. Considering the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the independent members of our Board approve Mr. Nadella's base salary, target cash incentive, stock awards, and target performance stock award.

Our Board and our Compensation Committee deeply value the continued interest of and feedback from our shareholders and are committed to maintaining our active dialogue with them to ensure their perspectives are thoughtfully considered. We carefully consider both the level of voting support from our shareholders on our say-on-pay vote, as well as comments from shareholders, when evaluating our executive compensation program. At the 2017 Annual Meeting, 95.5% of the votes cast supported our advisory resolution on the compensation of our Named Executives (the "say-on-pay" vote). In fiscal year 2018, our Board Chair and members of senior management engaged shareholders owning over 46% of our shares, providing regular reports of those discussions to our directors.

The Compensation Committee also retains, and seeks the advice of, Semler Brossy, an executive compensation consulting firm that is independent of management. See Part 1 Committees of the Board of Directors Committee structure for more information on Semler Brossy's role and independence as an advisor to the Committee.

Executive compensation philosophy

We design our executive officer compensation programs to attract, motivate, and retain the key executives who drive our success and industry leadership while considering individual and Company performance and alignment with the long-term interests of our shareholders. We achieve our objectives through a compensation program that:

Provides a competitive total pay opportunity

Emphasizes pay for performance, by delivering a majority of our executives' pay through performance-based incentives

Provides strong alignment with our shareholders, with at least 70% of the annual target compensation opportunity for our executives, on average, delivered as equity

Focuses on the long term through equity compensation with multi-year vesting or performance requirements

Discourages unnecessary and excessive risk-taking, assisted by our stock ownership requirements and compensation recovery (clawback) policy

Competitive pay

We compete with global information technology and large market capitalization U.S. companies and smaller, high-growth technology businesses for senior executive talent. The technology labor market is hyper-competitive with demand growing faster than the supply of technical talent, resulting in significant increases in compensation at the companies with whom we compete for this talent. The same conditions exist in the market for executive-level talent that can provide innovative leadership while managing at a global scale across several complex businesses. We expect these trends to continue and we expect to continue to adjust our approach to executive compensation to respond to market conditions.

To ensure that our Board of Directors and Compensation Committee have current information to set appropriate compensation levels, we conduct an executive compensation market analysis each year that draws from third-party compensation surveys and publicly available data for a group of peer companies. We supplement this analysis with additional market information specific to each executive officer's role and responsibilities, including information gleaned from our experience recruiting for executive positions at Microsoft. Because other companies actively recruit our executive officers to fill CEO and other senior leadership positions, we supplement market information with data on external opportunities potentially available to our executive officers. We also consider the relationship of annual target compensation among internal peers. In addition, the Committee is provided with an overview of compensation for our non-executive Microsoft employees and how this compensation relates to Mr. Nadella's.

While this market analysis and supplemental data inform the decisions of the independent Board members and the Compensation Committee on the range of compensation opportunities, we do not tie executive officer compensation to specific market percentiles. Base salaries and incentive opportunities may be set below or above median amounts because of factors like expertise, performance, and potential for future contributions.

In setting our fiscal year 2018 executive compensation design and compensation numbers, we considered pay practices at the largest technology and general industry companies in terms of market capitalization, revenue, and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization ( EBITDA ) that were comparable to Microsoft. The Compensation Committee selected this peer group because it believed these companies are led by executives with similarly complex roles and responsibilities. The Compensation Committee also screened these companies to ensure they had a significant presence outside the United States and excluded companies in the financial services sector because of the different regulatory environment in which they operate. For fiscal year 2018, this compensation peer group comprised these companies:

Peer group used for fiscal year 2018 pay analysis
Technology		General industry
Alphabet	Hewlett-Packard	AT&T	General Electric	Procter & Gamble
Amazon	IBM	Chevron	Johnson & Johnson	Verizon
Apple	Intel	Coca-Cola	Merck	Wal-Mart
Cisco Systems	Oracle	Comcast	PepsiCo	Walt Disney
Facebook	Qualcomm	ExxonMobil	Pfizer

In March 2017, when we determined the compensation peer group for fiscal year 2018, Microsoft was significantly larger than the median of these companies based on the three primary screening criteria: (i) market capitalization (94th percentile), (ii) revenue (63rd percentile), and (iii) EBITDA (81st percentile).

Performance-based pay

Our incentive compensation arrangements are tied to specific performance measures that drive long-term performance and value creation. We have been steadily evolving our program to implement a design that incorporates performance elements directly linked to our mission and purpose. For fiscal year 2018:

56% of the annual target compensation opportunity for our Named Executives was performance-based, on average

50% of the annual cash incentive was tied to achieving pre-established financial targets

50% of the annual target equity opportunity for our Named Executives was delivered in the form of a performance-based stock award with payouts based on achievement against pre-established strategic performance objectives

Metrics under our performance stock awards were refined to continually align with our three reporting segments and customer base and reflect key business developments that drive long-term growth

Our performance stock awards included a relative total shareholder return ( TSR ) multiplier to reward significant positive outperformance, thereby strengthening the alignment of the interests of our executive officers with the long-term interests of our shareholders

At least 70% of the annual target compensation opportunity for our Named Executives is equity-based to incentivize a long-term focus and align their interests with those of our shareholders. The Compensation Committee structures the pay mix for our annual target total compensation opportunities to place a higher proportion in equity awards than the companies in our compensation peer group.

The foregoing chart compares the fiscal year 2018 target compensation levels for our Named Executives to the average of these amounts for the named executive officers of the companies in our compensation peer group using data available in mid-2017 when the Committee conducted our fiscal year 2018 compensation planning.

Long-term focus through multi-year vesting and performance requirements

All of the equity-based elements of our compensation program for our Named Executives either vest over a period of years or include long-term performance measures, like 3-year relative TSR.

Discouragement of unnecessary and excessive risk-taking

We strive to meet our objectives while maintaining executive compensation leading practices that discourage unnecessary and excessive risk taking.

Best practices

No employment agreements

A policy prohibiting pledging, hedging, and trading in derivatives of Microsoft securities

No change in control benefits

No executive-only retirement programs

No stock option awards

No guaranteed bonuses

No dividends paid on unvested stock awards

Section 2 Compensation program design

Following our philosophy, the compensation program for our Named Executives in fiscal year 2018 consisted of an annual base salary plus annual cash and equity incentives awarded under our Executive Incentive Plan ( Incentive Plan ). Annual cash incentives were performance-based, with 50% determined formulaically based on achievement against pre-established financial targets and 50% determined qualitatively based on performance in three weighted performance categories. Equity incentives under the Incentive Plan were 50% performance stock awards ( PSAs ) and 50% stock awards with four-year vesting ( SAs ).

Table of Contents

The chart below summarizes key attributes of each pay element and its share of target annual compensation. Base salary, SAs, and targets for each of the other elements were approved for fiscal year 2018 compensation in September 2017.

Element by target %	Fiscal year 2018 attributes
Base salary <10%	2018 base salaries are consistent with 2017 base salaries
Cash incentive <20%	The 2018 cash incentives are based on the following performance measures: Financial / formulaic <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Incentive Plan Revenue (25%)</li> <li>Incentive Plan Operating Income (25%)</li> </ul> Qualitative / judgment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Product &amp; strategy (16.67%)</li> <li>Customers &amp; stakeholders (16.67%)</li> <li>Culture &amp; organizational leadership (16.66%)</li> </ul>

Target cash incentive awards for our Named Executives ranged from 200% to 300% of base salary. The maximum result for each category was 200% of the target amount.

PSAs >35%

The 2018 PSAs are based on the following quantitative performance results:

Commercial cloud revenue (34%)

Commercial cloud subscribers (33%)

Windows 10 monthly active devices (11%)

Consumer post-sales monetization gross margin (11%)

LinkedIn sessions (6%)

Surface gross margin (5%)

Potential relative TSR multiplier of up to 1.5, triggered if Microsoft's TSR is positive and above the 60th percentile of the S&P 500 over the three-year period, with a requirement of 80th percentile for maximum.

The number of earned shares under the fiscal year 2018 PSAs will be determined after the three-year performance period ending June 30, 2020 based on performance metrics for the performance period. The metrics are reassessed, and targets set annually, because of the dynamic technology markets in which Microsoft operates. The final number of earned shares will be calculated based on the aggregate results over the three separate years in the PSA performance period, with the maximum PSA opportunity at 200% without the relative TSR multiplier, and 300% with that potential multiplier.

SAs >35%

Vests over four years to support retention and align with our shareholders' interests

* Incentive Plan Revenue and Incentive Plan Operating Income are non-GAAP financial measures defined at page 39.
Base salary

Our Named Executives' base salaries align with the scope and complexity of their roles and with prevailing market conditions. Salary levels are generally at or below market median.

Cash incentives

Fifty percent of our Named Executives' fiscal year 2018 annual cash incentives were determined based on meeting pre-established targets for quantitative financial measures: Incentive Plan Revenue and Incentive Plan Operating Income. The fiscal year 2018 Incentive Plan Revenue and Incentive Plan Operating Income performance targets were based on meeting the Company's internal 2018 operating budget and were higher than our fiscal year 2017 actual performance for both metrics, further reflecting appropriately ambitious performance goals. This year, our Incentive Plan Revenue definition changed to focus on revenue measured based on customer billings. This revenue measurement also serves as the basis of the Company's sales incentive programs and better aligns performance incentives for our senior leadership with those used across the Company. See more information on Incentive Plan Revenue and Incentive Plan Operating Income at page 39.

2018 PROXY STATEMENT 37

Table of Contents

The other 50% of our Named Executives' fiscal year 2018 annual cash incentives were determined based on scoring of their individual performance against financial, operational, and strategic indicators in three performance categories. The performance indicators varied based on the Named Executive's responsibilities and the function or group he or she leads and may have included (in alphabetical order in each category):

Product & strategy	Customers & stakeholders	Culture & organizational leadership
Contribution margin	Corporate citizenship	Culture
Efficiency and productivity	Customer and partner engagement and outreach	Diversity and inclusion
Innovation	Customer satisfaction	Organizational health
Product development and implementation of strategic roadmap	Developer community outreach
Quality

These performance indicators were drawn from the scorecard we used to manage performance against Microsoft's annual business plan. Mr. Nadella's performance was assessed on all these performance indicators.

For Mr. Nadella, the independent members of the Board also considered:

input from the Microsoft's senior executives about Mr. Nadella's leadership,

Mr. Nadella's evaluation of Microsoft's and his individual performance over the past fiscal year, and Microsoft's performance relative to other technology companies.

Performance stock awards

Fiscal year 2018 PSA performance metrics are strategic measures that align with our mission and purpose and are aimed at driving new growth areas for our commercial and consumer businesses.

These metrics were selected because they address areas that support long-term growth of our business by focusing on our emerging growth opportunities and align with our three reporting segments and customer base.

Fiscal year 2018 PSA metrics

Performance metrics	Description
Commercial cloud revenue	Net revenue for commercial cloud-based solutions, including Office 365 commercial, Microsoft Azure, Dynamics 365, and other cloud properties
Commercial cloud subscribers	Paid seats for current or new per-user SaaS cloud services primarily in commercial customer segment
Windows 10 monthly active devices	Comprises all Windows 10 monthly active devices, including PCs, tablets, mobile devices, gaming consoles, and Internet of Things devices
Consumer post-sales monetization gross margin	Includes Search, Store, Display/Homepage, Gaming, and Office Consumer/Services

Number of times logged-in members visit LinkedIn, separated by 30 minutes of inactivity; includes mobile and desktop

Gross margin from Surface and first-party accessories, excluding Surface Hub

Stock awards. 50% of our Named Executives Incentive Plan equity awards were target PSAs and 50% were SAs. The Committee and the independent Board members believed the 50/50 balance between PSAs and SAs appropriately supported our long-term business goals and long-term retention incentives for our Named Executives.

SAs were granted under the Incentive Plan in September 2017 for shares of Microsoft common stock. SAs vest over four years (25% on initial vesting date and 12.5% each six months thereafter) to support retention and align with shareholders' interests.

No other fiscal year 2018 compensation. During fiscal year 2018, no other compensation was awarded to our Named Executives.

Section 3 Fiscal year 2018 compensation decisions

Our Named Executives were awarded the following compensation in fiscal year 2018:

Fiscal year 2018 base salaries

We did not increase our Named Executives' base salaries in fiscal year 2018. We believe our Named Executives' salary levels continue to be appropriate and reasonable given their capability and experience.

Fiscal year 2018 cash incentive awards

We did not change our target percentages for cash incentives, which are measured as a percentage of salary for fiscal year 2018.

The Compensation Committee and, for Mr. Nadella, the independent members of the Board, determined the fiscal year 2018 cash incentive awards. These were based on two elements: quantitative financial performance measures and qualitative performance categories.

Final results under each portion of the cash incentive, and the resulting awards, were as follows:

	Nadella	Hood	Courtois	Johnson	Smith
Financial results (50%)	200.00%	200.00%	200.00%	200.00%	200.00%

Financial results

We achieved greater than maximum performance on the financial measures shown below, resulting in a weighted payout of 200%.

Formulaic financial results (50% weight)

($ in billions)	Threshold	Target	Maximum	Actual
Fiscal year 2018 Incentive Plan Revenue	$109.91	$113.80	$115.84	$117.35
Fiscal year 2018 Incentive Plan Operating Income	$29.23	$31.38	$34.43	$34.57

Incentive Plan Revenue and Incentive Plan Operating Income are non-GAAP financial measures. We calculate Incentive Plan Revenue by adjusting GAAP Revenue for (1) the net impact of revenue deferrals, (2) credits and incentives, and (3) the effect of foreign currency rate fluctuations. We calculate Incentive Plan Operating Income by adjusting GAAP Operating Income for the effect of foreign currency rate fluctuations. We exclude the effect of foreign currency rate fluctuations on a constant dollar basis by converting current period non-GAAP (i.e., adjusted for the items in the preceding two sentences) results for entities reporting in currencies other than United States dollars into United States dollars using constant exchange rates, which are determined at the outset of the current period, rather than the actual exchange rates in effect during the respective periods. These Incentive Plan financial metrics differ from the non-GAAP financial results we report in our quarterly earnings release materials. They should not be considered as a substitute for, or superior to, the measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Qualitative performance results

Satya Nadella

The key results influencing the Compensation Committee and independent Board members' decisions on the qualitative performance portion of Mr. Nadella's cash incentive are set forth below. Results are out of a possible 200% in each category.

The Company has seen strong execution of our vision for the intelligent cloud and the intelligent edge in a highly competitive market, with the commercial cloud business exceeding more than $23 billion in revenue and expansion of gross margin to 57 percent in fiscal year 2018. The introduction of Microsoft 365, now a multi-billion-dollar business, is broadening the Company's market opportunity. Investment in Azure, including expanding the Company's global datacenter footprint and introducing Azure Stack and Azure Sphere, demonstrate innovation in our Cloud services business. The Company continued to strengthen its cybersecurity protections and offerings across the board. The leadership team is focused on additional opportunities to more greatly improve quality and develop products and services to address the Internet of Things and conceptualize new technology platforms. Further acceleration of strategic innovation can drive even greater growth.

The Company’s Gaming strategy is also paying off, surpassing $10 billion in revenue in fiscal year 2018 for the first time. Xbox Live, Game Pass subscriptions, and Mixer are driving increased growth and engagement. Work remains in areas like Microsoft Edge and Bing, where accelerated growth can drive creation of even greater long-term Company value.

Mr. Nadella’s strategy for LinkedIn integration has been successful, taking advantage of synergies while maintaining LinkedIn’s operating independence. The Company’s strategic acquisition of GitHub, pending regulatory approval, represents an important new way to serve developers and contribute to long-term sustainable growth.

(2) Customers &amp; stakeholders	Weight    Assessment

The Company’s relationship of trust with customers and other key stakeholders continues to be an area of strength. Mr. Nadella has effectively led through significant industry-wide challenges regarding privacy, cybersecurity, and the ethical use of artificial intelligence. In particular, the Company’s decision to offer to customers worldwide the EU’s General Data Protection Regulation’s Data Subject Rights was well received. The Company’s tools to enable customer privacy and security compliance are also a strength. The Company’s support for broader cybersecurity collaboration across the tech sector and continuing policy reforms around the world, including new international agreements and the Clarifying Lawful Overseas Use of Data Act ( CLOUD Act ), are helping to create more modern frameworks for protecting privacy while enabling law enforcement agencies to access data appropriately across borders.

Microsoft’s internal cultural transformation continues, with Mr. Nadella’s book, Hit Refresh, framing the conversation. Internal company sentiment on culture and leadership is strong. Mr. Nadella has driven focus on Microsoft’s core values to his senior leadership team, with opportunity to drive that high degree of focus deeper into the Company.

In FY18, 86% of employees participated in our annual engagement survey. We continued to be at or near all-time highs on most items, with 93% of employees saying they are proud to work for Microsoft and 89% of employees saying they would recommend it as a great place to work. Organizational changes in the sales organization have been successful, with double digit revenue growth in fiscal year 2018, the first year following the re-organization. This year’s engineering reorganization also shows initial signs of success.

The Company continues its progress on diversity and inclusion, though with awareness of the need for even greater improvement. Among various external recognitions, Thompson Reuters included Microsoft in its 2018 Diversity & Inclusion (D&I) Index of the 100 most diverse and inclusive organizations from among 7,000 publicly traded companies. In addition, Microsoft obtained a 100% Corporate Equality Index Score for the 12th consecutive year from the Human Rights Campaign. Mr. Nadella and the senior leadership team are actively engaged in leading and evangelizing a culture of greater diversity and inclusion aligned with Microsoft’s mission to empower every person and every organization on the planet to achieve more.

The fiscal year 2018 Incentive Plan PSAs and SAs granted to our Named Executives are listed below.

(1) PSAs vest in full following the end of the three-year performance period, with the number of shares determined based on performance against goals set for the period.

(2) The SAs vest 25% on August 31 following the date of grant and thereafter 12.5% each six months until fully vested.

(3) Awarded value (in dollars) was converted to shares using the closing share price on August 31, 2017, rounded up to a whole number.

The amounts listed in the table above for fiscal year 2018 Incentive Plan PSAs will not match the amounts in the Stock Award column in the Summary compensation table or the Grants of plan-based awards table. Because the grant date of a PSA occurs when the performance targets are set, and targets under our PSA awards are established annually, SAs listed in the Summary compensation table and Grants of plan-based awards table include portions of the 2018, 2017, and 2016 PSA awards, as described in more detail in Note (2) to the Summary compensation table on page 48.

Fiscal year 2016 PSAs (completed performance period)

Beginning with fiscal year 2015, we began the transformation of our executive pay program to include new and significant performance attributes. As part of that evolution, we granted PSAs in fiscal year 2016 ( fiscal year 2016 PSAs ), which were PSAs with a value based on specific pre-established, three-year performance goals and strategic performance objectives tied to creating long-term shareholder value. Performance under the fiscal year 2016 PSAs was measured over the three-fiscal year performance period ending June 30, 2018. During that three-fiscal year period, Microsoft's market capitalization increased by more than 100%, more than it increased in the 15 preceding years.

The fiscal year 2016 PSA design was somewhat different than the fiscal year 2018 PSA described above, with half of the PSA target reflecting three different fiscal year 2018 performance metrics (commercial cloud annualized revenue run rate, commercial cloud subscribers, and Windows 10 monthly active devices), and the other half reflecting two annual financial performance measures (Incentive Plan Revenue and Operating Income). The maximum payout under the fiscal year 2016 PSA program based on core metrics was 300% (rather than 200% under the fiscal year 2018 program), with the relative TSR multiplier potentially increasing that maximum by a third (rather than 50% under the fiscal year 2018 PSA program), to 400%.

The actual performance under the fiscal year 2016 PSAs reflected the strong business and share price performance during this period. Performance on the core metrics under these PSAs, which were established by the Compensation Committee and Board in September 2016, is shown in the following table:

Core Metric	Weight (%)	Performance as percentage of target award (%)	Weighted average payment as percentage of target award (%)
FY18 Commercial cloud annualized revenue run rate	16.67	300.00 <sup>1</sup>	50.01
FY18 Commercial cloud subscribers	16.67	300.00 <sup>2</sup>	50.01
FY18 Windows 10 monthly active devices	16.66	0 <sup>3</sup>	0.00

FY16	FY18 aggregate Incentive Plan Revenue	25.00	220.09 <sup>5</sup>	55.02

FY16	FY18 aggregate Incentive Plan Operating Income	25.00	229.97 <sup>6</sup>	57.49
------	--	-------	---------------------	-------

Core Metric Performance*212.53

(1) Reflects performance of $29.02 billion against target of $20 billion.

(2) Reflects performance against an ambitious target that required triple digit growth in subscribers.

(3) Reflects performance of 694.06 million against target of 1 billion, missing the threshold.

2018 PROXY STATEMENT 43

Table of Contents

- (4) Incentive Plan Revenue and Incentive Plan Operating Income are non-GAAP financial measures defined at page 39.
- (5) Reflects fiscal year 2018 performance of $117.35 billion against: threshold - $109.91 billion, target - $113.80 billion, and maximum - $116.78 billion. Payouts as a percentage of target for each fiscal year in 3-year period were: 83.09% for fiscal year 2016, 277.33% for fiscal year 2017, and 300% for fiscal year 2018.
- (6) Reflects fiscal year 2018 performance of $34.57 billion against: threshold - $29.23 billion, target - $31.28 billion, and maximum - $35.37 billion. Performance as a percentage of target for each fiscal year in the 3-year period was: 220.62% for fiscal year 2016, 209.39% for fiscal year 2017, and 259.90% for fiscal year 2018.

The core metric results for fiscal year 2016 PSAs were then subject to adjustment based on the relative TSR performance multiplier, which compares our TSR for the three-fiscal year performance period to the TSR of the S&P 500. Our TSR for the performance period was positive and ranked at the 98th percentile of the S&P 500. Based on this positioning, the total payment percentage for the fiscal 2016 PSAs was increased by 33%, resulting in the payout to our Named Executives of 283% of the target shares under their fiscal 2016 PSAs. This payout reflects Microsoft's strong performance over the performance period.

Payouts under the 2016 PSAs were approved in August 2018, following fiscal year 2018 and, therefore, are not reportable in the Stock vested table until our fiscal year 2019 Proxy Statement.

2017 and 2018 PSAs (open performance periods)

Performance under the fiscal year 2017 and 2018 PSAs will be assessed following the end of the three-year performance periods ending June 30, 2019 and 2020, respectively. The number of shares of common stock to be earned will be based on an assessment of (i) performance against the metric goals during the applicable performance period, and, if Microsoft's absolute TSR is positive during the period, (ii) Microsoft's relative TSR during the period. The metrics and relative weightings under the fiscal year 2017 and 2018 PSAs are as follows:

Section 4 Other compensation policies and information

No significant executive benefits and perquisites

Our Named Executives are eligible for the same benefits available to our other full-time employees. In the U.S., our benefits include our Section 401(k) Plan, Employee Stock Purchase Plan, health care plan, life insurance plans, and other welfare benefit programs. Besides the standard benefits offered to all U.S. employees, we maintain a non-qualified deferred compensation plan for our U.S. executive officers and senior managers. This deferred compensation plan is unfunded, and participation is voluntary. The deferred compensation plan allows our Named Executives to defer their base salary, the cash portion of their Incentive Plan awards, and certain on-hire bonuses. We do not contribute to the deferred compensation plan. Named Executives are eligible for matching gifts for charitable donations above the maximum for our other U.S.-based full-time employees. Mr. Courtois participates in the standard benefits for employees in France, including profit sharing and the car allowance program available to senior managers.

During fiscal year 2018, we provided no executive-only perquisites or other personal benefits to our Named Executives other than matching gifts made to charitable organizations.

Table of Contents*Limited post-employment compensation

Our Named Executives do not have employment contracts. No Named Executive is entitled to any payments or benefits following a change in control of Microsoft.

Our Named Executives may be eligible for additional vesting of their outstanding SAs following termination of employment on the same terms as our other employees. All U.S. employees who retire from Microsoft after (a) age 65 or (b) age 55 with 15 years of service are eligible for the continuation of vesting of outstanding SAs granted at hire or at the time of annual performance review, if the award was granted over one year before the date of retirement. A pro-rata portion of PSA shares will also continue vesting if the retirement occurs more than one year after the beginning of the performance period. As of June 30, 2018, only Mr. Smith was retirement eligible, and the value of his SAs and PSAs eligible for continued vesting if he retired on that date was $22,479,826 (assuming PSAs are earned at 100% of target). All employees whose employment with Microsoft terminates due to death or total and permanent disability generally fully vest in their outstanding SAs. Our PSAs, and Mr. Nadella's long-term performance stock award ( LTPSA ) that was granted to him in connection with his appointment as CEO, vest for the target number of shares upon death or total and permanent disability. The value of our Named Executives' SAs, PSAs and LTPSAs vesting at a June 30, 2018, termination of employment due to death or total and permanent disability was: Mr. Nadella, $258,676,020; Ms. Hood, $41,264,143; Mr. Courtois, $32,406,697; Ms. Johnson, $24,068,433; and Mr. Smith, $43,394,612.

In addition, our Named Executives are eligible to participate in the Microsoft Senior Executive Severance Benefit Plan (the Severance Plan ). The Severance Plan was adopted to help ensure continuity of key leaders by providing designated executives severance payments and benefits if their employment is terminated without cause. For purposes of the Severance Plan, cause means (i) a conviction or plea of guilty or no contest to a felony or certain misdemeanors; (ii) engaging in gross misconduct; (iii) repeated failure to substantially perform the duties of the executive's role; (iv) violation of any securities laws; or (v) violation of Microsoft's policies designed to prevent violations of law.

The Severance Plan payments and benefits have four components—cash, stock vesting, continued health care, and outplacement assistance—all provided by the Company. Cash payments consist of (i) a severance payment equal to 12 months base salary plus target annual cash incentive award, payable in a lump sum within 60 days after termination of employment; and (ii) a pro-rata payment of the executive officer's target annual cash incentive award for the partial year of work, payable in a lump sum at the same time other Incentive Plan cash awards for the year are paid. Stock vesting applies to SAs and PSAs. SAs that otherwise would vest in the 12-month period after employment terminates continue to vest. After the first year of the PSA performance period is completed, a pro-rata portion of any PSA shares will also vest, and the number of shares subject to pro-ration is the lesser of the target award shares or the shares that are otherwise earned and payable after the end of the performance period. Continued contributions to premiums for COBRA health care continuation coverage and outplacement assistance will be provided on the same terms as are available to other employees whose employment is terminated without cause. There is no change-in-control provision in the Severance Plan. To receive the Severance Plan payments and benefits, the Named Executive must execute a separation agreement that includes a release of claims in favor of Microsoft, confidentiality and non-disparagement provisions, and 12-month non-compete/non-solicitation restrictions.

Mr. Nadella participates in the Severance Plan on the same terms as our other executive officers, except that under his LTPSA award if Microsoft terminates his employment without cause (as defined in the Severance Plan) during a performance period, he will vest in a pro-rata fraction of the threshold 150,000 shares of Microsoft common stock subject to the award for his actual period of employment during the performance period.

This table shows the amounts that would have been payable to our Named Executives upon a termination of employment without cause on June 30, 2018.

Named Executive	Amount payable ($)
Satya Nadella	97,913,671 <sup>1</sup>
Amy E. Hood	31,542,629
Jean-Philippe Courtois	21,904,382
Margaret L. Johnson	19,687,330
Bradford L. Smith	38,914,769 <sup>2</sup>

(1) Includes amounts payable under the Severance Plan, plus stock vesting under Mr. Nadella's LTPSA award of $30,322,575.

(2) Includes $16,434,943 in Severance Plan benefits in addition to Mr. Smith's retirement-based SA vesting of $22,479,826.

Table of Contents*Strong clawback policy

Accountability is a fundamental value of Microsoft. To reinforce this value through our executive compensation program, our executive officers and certain other senior executives are subject to a comprehensive, no fault executive compensation recovery clawback policy. Under this policy, the Compensation Committee may seek to recover payments of incentive compensation if the performance results leading to a payment are later subject to a downward adjustment or restatement of financial or nonfinancial performance. The Committee may use its judgment in determining the amount to be recovered where the incentive compensation was awarded subjectively. The Committee may also seek recovery of up to the entire amount of any incentive compensation awarded during a period where a covered executive committed a significant legal or compliance violation. Our executive compensation recovery policy is available on our website at <https://aka.ms/policiesandguidelines>.

Robust stock ownership policy

Our executive officers and certain other senior executives are required to maintain a minimum equity stake in Microsoft. This policy embodies the Compensation Committee's belief that our most senior executives should maintain a significant personal financial stake in Microsoft to promote a long-term perspective in managing our business. In addition, the policy helps align executive and shareholder interests, which reduces incentive for excessive short-term risk taking. Each covered executive is required to acquire and maintain ownership of shares of Microsoft common stock equal to a specified multiple of his or her base salary, which ranges from 5 to 15 times base salary, as shown in the table below. Each covered executive must retain 50% of all net shares (post-tax) that vest until achieving his or her minimum share ownership requirement.

Named Executive	Share ownership requirement as of June 30, 2018
Satya Nadella	15x base salary
Amy E. Hood	8x base salary

Jean-Philippe Courtois	8x base salary
------------------------	----------------

Margaret L. Johnson	5x base salary
---------------------	----------------

Bradford L. Smith	8x base salary
-------------------	----------------

In fiscal year 2018, each of our Named Executives complied with our stock ownership policy. Our stock ownership policy is available on our website at <https://aka.ms/policiesandguidelines>.

Derivatives trading, hedging, and pledging prohibited

Our executive officers are prohibited from trading in options, puts, calls, or other derivative instruments related to Microsoft equity or debt securities. They also are prohibited from purchasing Microsoft common stock on margin, borrowing against Microsoft common stock held in a margin account, or pledging Microsoft common stock as collateral for a loan.

Deductibility of executive compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code ( Section 162(m) ) imposes an annual deduction limit of $1 million on the amount of compensation paid to each of the chief executive officer and certain other named executive officers. Prior to the effectiveness of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the TCJA ), the deduction limit did not apply to performance-based compensation satisfying the requirements of Section 162(m). Cash and equity awards to our Named Executives under the Incentive Plan were subject to one or more performance goals intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m), including, for all fiscal year 2018 awards, a requirement of positive operating income for fiscal year 2018. The performance goal of positive operating income during the fiscal year also applied to Incentive Plan (and predecessor plan) awards granted to our Named Executives in fiscal years 2017, 2016, and 2015, and to the LTPSA granted to Mr. Nadella in February 2014. The performance goals were approved by the Compensation Committee, following shareholder approval of the material terms of these performance goals under the Incentive Plan. Payment under the awards is conditioned on Committee certification that the goals and any other material terms have been met. Effective fiscal year 2019, the TCJA eliminated the Section 162(m) provisions exempting performance-based compensation from the $1 million deduction limit, subject to an exception for remuneration pursuant to a written binding contract which was in effect on November 2, 2017. Based on current law, we believe the remuneration under our Incentive Plan that qualifies for this written binding contract exception is:

the portion of fiscal year 2018 cash incentives payable based on formulaic financial results, payments under fiscal year 2018 and prior fiscal year SAs, and payments under our fiscal year 2016 PSAs and payments under our fiscal year 2017 and 2018 PSAs to the extent attributable to fiscal year 2017 or 2018 performance against metrics established for those years.

In structuring compensation for our executive officers, the Committee considered whether compensation will be deductible for federal income tax purposes. Preserving deductibility is not the only goal for our executive compensation program, however, and the Committee retains the discretion to award compensation that is nondeductible. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the SAs and PSAs that vest upon a Named Executive's termination of employment due to death or total and permanent disability would not be subject to performance goals, and those shares would not be deductible as performance-based compensation.

Annual compensation risk assessment

We performed an annual assessment for the Compensation and Audit Committees of our Board of Directors to determine whether the risks arising from our fiscal year 2018 compensation policies and practices were reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Microsoft. Our assessment reviewed the material elements of executive and non-executive employee compensation. We concluded these policies and practices do not create risk that is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Microsoft.

The structure of our compensation program for executive officers does not incentivize unnecessary or excessive risk-taking. The base salary component of compensation does not encourage risk-taking because it is a fixed amount. The Incentive Plan awards have these risk-limiting characteristics:

Cash incentive awards under the Incentive Plan are limited to 200% of a target cash incentive award.

Cash incentive awards are structured 50% based on predetermined goals (balance of growth and profitability goals) and 50% based on individual performance as assessed across three performance categories, diversifying the risk associated with any single aspect of performance.

The majority of Incentive Plan award value is delivered in shares of Microsoft common stock with a multi-year vesting schedule, which aligns the interests of our executive officers to long-term shareholder interests.

PSA metrics aligned with our three reporting segments and different elements of our customer base further diversify the elements of the program to minimize the incentive to produce any particular outcome.

In addition, awards are subject to our Executive Compensation Recovery Policy, described in this Section 3 Other compensation policies and information Strong clawback policy.

Executive officers are subject to our executive stock ownership requirements, described in this Section 3 Other compensation policies and information Robust stock ownership policy.

PSAs use Company-wide measures that are not specific to any one executive officer's sphere of responsibility and that apply equally to all participants to encourage a unified and responsible approach to achieving financial and strategic goals.

Overlapping performance periods limit the impact of short-term business performance or share price fluctuations on final outcomes.

Equity awards are not made in the form of stock options, which may provide an asymmetrical incentive to take unnecessary or excessive risks to increase the market price of Microsoft common stock.

Members of the Compensation Committee (or for Mr. Nadella, the independent members of our Board of Directors) approve all Incentive Plan awards to executive officers, including performance achievement levels that determine final payout outcomes.

(1) Includes fiscal year 2016 Incentive Plan discretionary cash incentives and, for Ms. Johnson, the final $500,000 installment of a signing bonus.

(2) Includes the grant date fair values for SAs and PSAs calculated in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 based on the market price of the shares subject to the award on the date of grant. The value of SAs is reduced by the present value of estimated future dividends because dividends are not paid on SA shares until vesting. The value of PSAs is calculated using a Monte-Carlo simulation valuation performed as of the date of grant by an independent third party. Because the grant date for a PSA occurs when performance targets are approved, and we approved performance targets in each of fiscal years 2018, 2017, and 2016, PSA values in this column include: (i) for fiscal year 2018, 33.33% of the fiscal year 2018 PSAs, 33.33% of the fiscal year 2017 PSAs, and 16.66% of the fiscal year 2016 PSAs; (ii) for fiscal year 2017, 33.33% of the fiscal year 2017 PSAs and 16.66% of the fiscal year 2016 PSAs; and (iii) for fiscal year 2016, 66.68% of the fiscal year 2016 PSAs. Assuming that the highest level of performance conditions will be achieved, the grant date values of PSAs with a grant date in fiscal year 2018, 2017, or 2016 are: (i) for fiscal year 2018, Mr. Nadella, $21,723,387; Ms. Hood, $12,921,957; Mr. Courtois, $7,114,107; Ms. Johnson, $7,551,291; and Mr. Smith, $11,429,189; (ii) for fiscal year 2017, Mr. Nadella, $10,639,556; Ms. Hood $6,274,167; Mr. Courtois, $3,287,828; Ms. Johnson, $3,782,271; and Mr. Smith, $5,556,198; and (iii) for fiscal year 2016, Mr. Nadella, $13,825,602; Ms. Hood, $7,645,994; Ms. Johnson, $5,236,964; and Mr. Smith, $6,808,098.

(3) Includes Incentive Plan cash incentives for fiscal year 2018 and 2017.

(4) None of our Named Executives received reimbursements for relocation expenses or tax-gross-up payments in the last three fiscal years. Details about the amounts in the All other compensation column are set forth in the table below.

Mr. Courtois's SAs for fiscal year 2017 include his fiscal year 2016 annual SAs, his fiscal year 2017 SAs and PSAs, and a one-time promotion SA with reported value of $8,603,644 made when he was appointed President, Microsoft Global Sales, Marketing, and Operations and an executive officer, recognizing the expanded scope of his responsibilities.

- (1) This column represents fiscal year 2018 cash incentives as reported in the Summary compensation table.
- (2) These columns represent the threshold, target, and maximum shares for the PSAs with a grant date in fiscal year 2018. Because the grant date for a PSA occurs when PSA performance targets are approved, the reported number of shares is calculated as the target shares for the portion of the PSAs for which performance targets were set in fiscal year 2018 (33.33% of the 2018 and 2017 PSAs, and 16.66% of the 2016 PSAs). The threshold is calculated as if the threshold of only the least weighted metric (50% of 5.00% for the 2018 PSAs, 50% of 11.00% of the 2017 PSAs and 50% of 8.33% of the 2016 PSAs) is met. The maximum is calculated assuming all maximum targets were met and the relative TSR multiplier was fully earned.
- (3) Includes the grant date fair values for SAs and PSAs calculated in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718 based on the market price of the shares subject to the award on the date of grant. The value of SAs is reduced by the present value of estimated future dividends because dividends are not paid on SA shares until vesting. Values for PSAs in this column are calculated using a Monte Carlo simulation valuation performed as of the date of grant by an independent third party.
