Item 8.01. Other Events

As previously announced on November 26, 2001, XOMA Ltd. ("XOMA") has entered into a development and license agreement with Millennium

Edgar Filing: XOMA LTD /DE/ - Form 8-K/A

Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("Millennium").

Under the related investment agreement, Millennium committed to purchase, at XOMA's option, up to $50 million worth of XOMA common shares over the 30 months following the effective date of the investment agreement, through a combination of convertible debt and equity at then prevailing market prices. As previously announced, on May 16, 2003, XOMA and Millennium agreed to delay the maturity of the convertible debt until February 26, 2004 and to adjust the timing of Millennium's obligation to purchase the remaining $37.5 million worth of XOMA common shares. As previously announced, on October 10, 2003, XOMA announced that it discontinued development of MLNM2201 (formerly known as LDP-01), one of the two products being developed under its collaboration with Millennium, which had the effect of reducing Millennium's obligation to purchase XOMA common shares under the investment agreement by 40% from up to $33.5 million remaining to up to $20.1 million. As previously announced, on February 24, 2004, XOMA and Millennium agreed to delay the maturity of the convertible debt until April 15, 2004 (or the third business day after the date the related registration statement is declared effective, if later) and to further adjust the timing of Millennium's obligation to purchase the remaining $14.7 million worth of XOMA common shares.

On October 12, 2004, XOMA and Millennium announced the restructuring of their agreement related to the collaboration for the development of MLN2222, currently being investigated in a phase I clinical trial for Coronary Artery Bypass Graft (CABG) surgery. This agreement supersedes the companies' previous development and investment agreements, established in November, 2001. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 9 and is incorporated herein by reference.
