Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 29, 2009, Altus Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the "Company") provided notice to Lonza Ltd. ("Lonza"), of the Company's termination of the Manufacturing and Supply Agreement (the "Agreement") dated November 16, 2006, as amended, between the Company and Lonza, alleging Lonza's material breach of the Agreement and failure to cure such material breach within the time period provided for in the Agreement. The Agreement was a six-year agreement between the Company and Lonza providing for the manufacturing and supply of commercial quantities of the active pharmaceutical ingredients ("APIs") for Trizyte. Under the Agreement, Lonza agreed to manufacture the APIs in accordance with defined specifications and applicable current good manufacturing practice regulations and international regulatory requirements. The notice identifies the material breach as Lonza's failure to meet the requirements of the Agreement with respect to the production of validation batches of the APIs for Trizyte.

The terms of the Agreement do not require or contemplate any termination fee as a result of terminating the contract due to Lonza's material breach. Prior to the Company's delivery of a notice of its intent to terminate the Agreement on March 27, 2009, however, Lonza asserted that the Company had terminated the Agreement without notice pursuant to Section 11.3 of the Agreement. Section 11.3 of the Agreement permits the Company to terminate the Agreement with 12 months prior written notice if it determines to stop development of Trizyte and obligates the Company to make a termination payment of a specified amount to Lonza after the 12 month notice period less the cost of APIs the Company purchase from Lonza over a certain period of time. The specified payment is 8,293,000 Swiss francs, or approximately $7,660,000 based on current exchange rates. The Company responded to Lonza asserting that it has not terminated the Agreement pursuant to Section 11.3.

The Agreement is currently the subject of a lawsuit that Lonza filed against the Company in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on May 15, 2009.
