MANAGEMENT'S PROPOSAL

Dear Shareholders,

The management of Ultrapar Participações S.A. ("Ultrapar" or "Company") sets forth below the matters to be deliberated upon at the extraordinary shareholders' meeting ("Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting") and special preferred shareholders' meeting ("Special Preferred Shareholders' Meeting") to be held on June 28, 2011 at 2:00 pm and 3:30 pm, respectively:

A) At Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting

1) Conversion of all preferred shares issued by the Company into common shares, at a ratio of 1 (one) preferred share for 1 (one) common share ("Conversion")

We recommend that you approve the Conversion since, as reported on the material notice published April 4, 2011 ("Material Notice"), management believes that the Conversion will bring Ultrapar's corporate governance into line with the Company's current stage and profile and will enable higher investment capacity, growth, attraction and retention of talented professionals, value creation and longevity.

Attached hereto is Annex 17 regarding CVM Instruction 481/09 ("Annex I"), which contains a description of the main characteristics of the Company's common shares to be attributed to preferred shareholders as a result of the Conversion, as well as certain impacts of the Conversion on the rights of the Company's common and preferred shareholders.

2) Amendment of the Company's bylaws

As described in the Material Notice, in order to list its shares on the Novo Mercado segment, the Company is required to amend its bylaws in accordance with the rules of the Novo Mercado, including the minimum requirements of the new listing rules of the Novo Mercado ("Rules of the Novo Mercado"), published by Circular Letter (Ofício Circular) of the BM&FBOVESPA 017/2011, of April 7, 2011.

In addition, the Company's management believes that it is beneficial to make additional amendments to its bylaws, which, although not required by the Rules of the Novo Mercado, will provide additional rights to its shareholders, such as mandatory tender offers for its shares provided for in article 46 of the draft proposed bylaws and the requirement that at least 30% of members of the board of directors be independent. The proposed bylaws are in line with best corporate governance practices, and does not restrict voting rights or grant special treatment to current shareholders. In addition, the actions taken by a majority of shareholders will prevail in all corporate decisions. Accordingly, we recommend that you approve such amendments.

Lastly, we report that the Company received comments from the BM&FBOVESPA with respect to the draft of our bylaws the Company furnished to it for review, which have been implemented in the text of the bylaws submitted to the shareholders and set forth, pursuant to article 11 of CVM Instruction 481/09, in the table attached hereto (“Annex II”). In addition, the draft proposed bylaws is attached hereto (“Annex III”). More information about the Rules of the Novo Mercado is available at BM&FBOVESPA's website (www.bmfbovespa.com.br).

3) Adherence of the Company to the Rules of the Novo Mercado of BM&FBOVESPA

We recommend that you approve the Company’s adherence to the Novo Mercado listing segment of the BM&FBOVESPA due to the success of such segment among investors, evidenced by its increasing role in the Bovespa Index; moreover, this listing segment includes companies with the best corporate governance practices in Brazil.

4) Confirmation that the new provisions related to the rights of all Company's shareholders in the event of a change in control, pursuant to the draft proposed bylaws and the Rules of the Novo Mercado, are equivalent to the provisions of the Company’s controlling shareholders’ agreement of March 22, 2000. In its history of commitment to corporate governance best practices, in 2000 – prior to the enactment of Law 10,303/01 providing for tag-along-rights resulting from transfer of control of publicly-held companies through new article 254-A in the Law 6,404/76 – the Company’s controlling shareholders entered into a shareholders’ agreement which contained a provision that granted all common and preferred shareholders of the Company the right to receive any premium that is paid for the acquisition of control of the Company. Such shareholders’ agreement is currently in effect and contains several provisions regarding the direct and indirect transfer of the Company’s control, which differs in form, but not in substance, from those included in the draft proposed bylaws, but which are in line with the Rules of the Novo Mercado.

We believe that the new provisions with respect to such matter, which are in line with best corporate governance practices, are not only equivalent to those set forth in the shareholders’ agreement but also provide for improved equal treatment of the Company’s minority shareholders. Accordingly, we recommend that you also approve such resolution.

B) At Special Preferred Shareholders’ Meeting

1) The Conversion

Under § 1 of article 136 of the Law 6,404/76, more than 50% of preferred shareholders must approve the Conversion for it to take effect. Accordingly, as mentioned in item A.1 herein, we recommend you approve the Conversion, since, as disclosed in the Material Notice, management believes that it will bring Ultrapar's corporate governance into line with the Company's current stage and profile and will enable higher investment capacity, growth, attraction and retention of talented professionals, value creation and longevity.

In addition to Annex 17 in accordance with CVM Instruction 481/09 mentioned above, since the preferred shareholders that dissent from the resolution with respect to this item B.1 will have withdrawal rights pursuant to Law 6.404/76, Annex 20, prepared in accordance with CVM Instruction 481/09, is also attached hereto ("Annex IV"). More information about withdrawal rights is included in the Material Notice disclosed on April 4, 2011.

2) Confirmation that the new provisions related to the rights of all Company's shareholders in the event of a change in control, pursuant to the draft proposed bylaws and the Rules of the Novo Mercado, are equivalent to the provisions of the Company's controlling shareholders' agreement of March 22, 2000.

We recommend that this matter be approved by the preferred shareholders for to reasons explained in item A.4 above.

São Paulo, May 19, 2011.

PAULO GUILHERME AGUIAR CUNHA

Chairman of the Board of Directors

ANNEX I – PREFERRED SHARES

(in accordance with Annex 17 of CVM Instruction 481/2009)

Pursuant to article 17 of CVM Instruction 481 of December 17, 2009, and the call notices of the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting and Special Preferred Shareholders' Meeting of Ultrapar published on this date, this document is intended to: (a) describe the characteristics of the common shares issued by the Company to be attributed to the preferred shareholders as a result of the proposed share conversion; and (b) set forth the impacts of the share conversion on the Company's preferred shareholders, as well as on rights of the common shareholders.

Item 1 of Annex 17 is not applicable.

2. Having changed preferential rights, advantages or conditions to withdrawal or amortization of the preferred shares

a. Describe in detail the proposed changes

The proposed amendment is the conversion of one preferred share issued by the Company into one common share. With the Conversion, the capital stock of the Company will be exclusively composed of common shares, and every share of the Company will provide the same voting and equity rights to its holders.

b. Explain in detail the reasons for the proposed changes

As reported in the Material Notice, the proposed Conversion seeks to bring Ultrapar's corporate governance into line with the Company's current stage and profile and enable higher investment capacity, growth, attraction and retention of talented professionals, value creation and longevity.

c. Provide a detailed analysis on the impact of the proposed changes

d. Provide a detailed analysis of the impact of the proposed changes on the rights of holders of other types and classes of shares of the company

As a result of the proposed Conversion, the Company's capital stock will be exclusively composed of common shares, and, accordingly, all shares issued by the Company will entitle their holders to the same voting and equity rights.

Tag-along Rights. If the matters to be deliberated upon at the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting and Special Preferred Shareholders' Meeting are approved: (a) the Company's shareholders will have the same rights of a controlling shareholder selling its controlling interest, which results in a change of control of the Company, pursuant to rules of the Novo Mercado of the BM&FBOVESPA and the Company's bylaws (estatuto social); and (b) the additional terms applicable to a change of control of the Company, as set forth in the shareholders' agreement between Ultra S.A. Participações, Avaré Participações S.A. and Igel Participações S.A., on March 22, 2000, will no longer be in effect.

Dividends. The proposed Conversion will not affect the rights of common or preferred shareholders with respect to the distribution of dividends; the rights under the current bylaws will continue to be in effect.

Voting Rights. Existing common shareholders will have their voting rights diluted as a result of the conversion of each preferred share, which has no voting rights, into a common share, which has voting rights. This dilution may affect certain rights provided by Law 6,404/76, which grant rights to holders of a certain percentage of voting shares. In addition, the preferred shareholders will no longer have the ability to elect members of the board of directors or statutory audit committee in a separate election, pursuant to article 141 and 161 of Law 6,404/76.

4) Priority of Capital Distributions. After the proposed share conversion is approved, preferred shareholders will no longer have priority in capital distributions in the event of a liquidation of the Company, as provided for under article 12 of the current bylaws.

§ 5 Positions that are not filled due to a tie vote shall require a new election, following the same procedure, adjusting the number of votes to which each shareholder will be entitled to the number of positions to be filled.

§ 6 In the event the election has been conducted by cumulative voting, the removal of any member of the Board of Directors by the Shareholders' Meeting shall entail the removal of the other members, giving rise to a new election.

§ 7 In the event the Company may be controlled by one shareholder or group of shareholders, as defined in Article 116 of law no. 6,404/76, shareholders representing ten percent (10%) of the capital stock may require, in conformity with Paragraph 4 of Article 141 of Law no. 6,404/76, that the election of one of the members of the Board of Directors is carried out separately, notwithstanding the rules set forth in Article 20 above.
