Regulatory Event Redemption	If there is a change in the regulatory classification of the Notes that occurs on or after the original issue date of the Notes and that does, or would be likely to, result in the whole or any part of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the notes

at any time being excluded from or ceasing to count towards, the Group's Tier 2 Capital (a Regulatory Event), the Issuer may, at its option, at any time, redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at a redemption price equal to 100% of their principal amount, together with any accrued but unpaid interest to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. Any redemption upon the occurrence of a Regulatory Event will be subject to the provisions described in the Original Prospectus Supplement.

¹ Note: A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time.

Tax Redemption	If there is a Tax Event (as defined in the Original Prospectus Supplement), the Issuer may, at its option, at any time, redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at a redemption price equal to 100% of their principal amount, together with any accrued but unpaid interest to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption, as further described and subject to the conditions specified in the Original Prospectus Supplement.

Risk Factors:	An investment in the Notes involves risks. See Risk Factors section beginning on page S-16 of the Original Prospectus Supplement.
U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations:	The following supplements a discussion under Tax Considerations U.S. Taxation of Debt Securities in the prospectus dated May 2, 2014 (the Prospectus) and is subject to the limitations and exceptions set forth therein. Interest on the Notes should generally be taxed as ordinary income at the time interest is received or when it accrues, depending on the method of accounting for tax purposes. However, the portion of the first interest payment on the Notes that represents a return of the accrued interest paid upon the purchase of the Notes will not be treated as an interest payment for U.S. federal income tax purposes, but will instead be excluded from income and will reduce the basis in the Notes by such amount.
