(the Company), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Schedule 14A its Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and definitive Proxy Statement (the Proxy Materials) in connection with the Company's 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders at which the Company's stockholders will vote on a proposal to approve amendments to the Company's 1990 Stock Option Plan, 1995 Stock Option Plan, 1999 Incentive Stock Plan and 2002 Incentive Stock Plan, to permit the board of directors to adopt a stock option exchange program without having to obtain additional stockholder approval.

The Proxy Materials do not constitute an offer to option holders to exchange their options to purchase the Company's common stock for other securities of the Company. The Company has not yet determined whether to commence a stock option exchange program, and may elect not to implement a stock option exchange program.

At such time as the Company does commence a stock option exchange program, the Company will provide option holders who are eligible to participate in the exchange with written materials explaining the precise terms and timing of the option exchange program. Eligible option holders should read these written materials carefully because they will contain important information about the program. These materials and other documents that will be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission can be obtained free of charge from the SEC's web site at www.sec.gov.
