Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 29, 2015, The Western Union Company (“Western Union”) entered into a credit agreement (the “New Credit Agreement”) providing for unsecured financing facilities in an aggregate amount of $1.65 billion with a syndicate of lenders including Citibank, N.A. and Bank of America, N.A., in their respective capacities as Issuing Lenders, Bank of America, N.A. and The Bank of New York Mellon, as Syndication Agents, Barclays Bank PLC, U.S. Bank National Association and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Documentation Agents, and Citibank, N.A., as Administrative Agent for the Banks thereunder. The New Credit Agreement replaced the existing unsecured financing facility evidenced by the Credit Agreement, dated as of September 23, 2011 (as amended through the date hereof, the “Prior Credit Agreement”), among Western Union, the lenders party thereto and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Administrative Agent. The Prior Credit Agreement was terminated effective September 29, 2015.

The New Credit Agreement provides for a $1.65 billion revolving credit facility that includes a $250 million letter of credit subfacility. The New Credit Agreement contains customary representations, covenants and events of default, including certain covenants that limit or restrict Western Union’s ability to sell or transfer assets or enter into a merger or consolidate with another company, grant certain types of security interests, incur certain types of liens, impose restrictions on subsidiary dividends, enter into sale and leaseback transactions, or incur certain subsidiary level indebtedness, subject to certain exceptions. Western Union is also required to maintain compliance with a consolidated interest coverage ratio covenant. Interest due under the New Credit Facility is fixed for the term of each borrowing and is payable according to the terms of that borrowing. Generally, interest is calculated using a selected LIBOR rate plus an interest rate margin of 110 basis points. A facility fee on the total amount of the facility is also payable quarterly, regardless of usage. The applicable interest rate margin for borrowings and the facility fee percentage under the New Credit Agreement may vary from time to time based on changes in certain of Western Union’s credit ratings. The final maturity date of the New Credit Agreement is September 29, 2020, subject to extension in certain circumstances.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the New Credit Agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith and incorporated by reference.
