General Precision, Inc.
Notes to the Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. THE COMPANY AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The unaudited financial statements of General Precision, Inc. (the "Company") included herein have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. In the opinion of management, all material adjustments which are of a normal and recurring nature necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the periods presented have been reflected.

Edgar Filing: BROOKS AUTOMATION INC - Form 8-K

The accompanying financial information should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000 and notes thereto contained in Brooks Automation, Inc.'s Current Report on Form 8-K/A, filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on December 7, 2001.

General Precision, Inc. designs, develops and manufactures state-of-the-art products which provide contamination control, process isolation, wafer handling and precise temperature/humidity control solutions to support a wide variety of critical processes and manufacturing applications for the semiconductor, disc-drive, pharmaceutical and aerospace industries. The Company was incorporated in California in 1988. All issued and outstanding stock of the Company is held by a family trust (the "Trust") of which the benefactors are the president and the chief financial officer of the Company.

On October 5, 2001, Brooks Automation, Inc. acquired substantially all of the assets of the Company in exchange for 850,000 shares of Brooks Automation's common stock, subject to adjustment.

In June 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 ("SFAS 141"), "Business Combinations". SFAS 141 requires the purchase method of accounting for business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001 and eliminates the pooling-of-interests method. The Company does not believe that the adoption of SFAS 141 will have a significant impact on its financial statements.

In June 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 ("SFAS 142"), "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets", which is effective January 1, 2002. SFAS 142 requires, among other things, the discontinuance of goodwill amortization. In addition, the standard includes provisions for the reclassification of certain existing recognized intangibles as goodwill, reassessment of the useful lives of existing recognized intangibles, reclassification of certain intangibles out of previously reported goodwill and the identification of reporting units for purposes of assessing potential future impairments of goodwill. SFAS 142 also requires companies to complete a transitional goodwill impairment test six months from the date of adoption. The Company does not believe the adoption of SFAS 142 will have a significant impact on its financial statements.

The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of the Subchapter S for federal and state income tax purposes. In accordance with the federal provisions, corporate earnings flow through and are taxed solely at the shareholder level. Under the provisions of the California franchise tax laws, S Corporation earnings are assessed a 1.5% surtax at the corporate level and flow through to the shareholder to be taxed at the individual level. The provision for taxes in the accompanying Statement of Operations is for California S corporation franchise taxes. There are no material deferred tax assets or liabilities.

2. CONCENTRATIONS AND RISKS

At September 30, 2001, three customers collectively represented 88% of total trade accounts receivable. At December 31, 2000, four customers collectively represented 59% of total trade accounts receivable.

For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2001, 2 customers represented 33% and 32% percent of total revenues, respectively. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2000, 3 customers represented 44%, 24% and 17% percent of total revenues, respectively.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The president and the chief financial officer are the benefactors of the Trust, which owns 100% of the outstanding shares of the Company.

Leases

The Company leases one facility from the president and the chief financial officer of the Company, under an operating lease agreement, which was due to expire in January 2020. Monthly lease payments under this lease are $33,200. The president and chief financial officer financed a portion of the purchase of this facility through a loan agreement with a bank. The Company acts as guarantor on the loan between the president and the chief financial officer and the bank. As of September 30, 2001, the amount outstanding under the loan between the bank and the president and the chief financial officer was $2,683,042. As a result of the acquisition of the Company, the president and chief financial officer entered into a new five-year lease for the facility with Brooks Automation, Inc.

At various times the Company has also leased additional space in separate facilities from the president and the chief financial officer. Payments made under lease obligations to the related party for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 2000 were $530,400 and $404,100, respectively.

Related Party Receivable

As of September 30, 2001 and December 31, 2000, the Company has a related party receivable of $20,203 and $6,709, respectively, for payments made by the Company under a lease agreement entered into on the behalf of a related party company, where the shareholder of the Company is also the owner of the related party. Related party receivable is included in prepaids and other current assets in the accompanying balance sheet.

Distributions

In the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, the Company made distributions to the shareholder of $2,224,388 and $393,101, respectively. In addition, the Company paid in aggregate $1,786,000 and $544,000 to the president and the chief financial officer of the Company for salaries for the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.
