PART I

Item 1. Business

General Development of Business

Anthony and Sylvan Pools Corporation (The Company) was formed in 1997 to acquire the assets and business of a predecessor corporation. That predecessor corporation was the successor to the pool installation businesses of Pennsylvania-based Sylvan Pools and California-based Anthony Pools. Sylvan Pools was founded by Herman Silverman in 1946 and grew to become the leading pool installer in the Northeast, with operations stretching out to the Southeast, Texas and Nevada. Anthony Pools was founded by Phil Anthony in 1947 and eventually established itself as one of the largest pool companies in the United States. In 1996, the parent Company of Sylvan Pools purchased Anthony Pools and combined the two businesses under the name Anthony & Sylvan. Anthony & Sylvan has built over 350,000 pools in its history.

The Company operates in the leisure industry, offering in-ground residential swimming pools, spas and related products in the United States with a network of 40 sales offices serving 22 geographic markets in 16 states. The majority of the Company's swimming pools range in price from $15,000 to $50,000. Historically, its sales have been seasonally strongest in the second and third quarters, the peak period for swimming pool installation and use, and weakest in the first and fourth quarters. The Company's continuing operations installed approximately 3,700 pools (using an equivalent unit basis) in 2002. In addition to designing and offering residential swimming pools, spas and related products, the Company:

Provides pool modernization services in selected markets; and

Operates 18 retail stores that sell spa and swimming pool related products, such as chemicals, replacement parts, accessories, equipment and inflatables; and

Operates, in limited markets, service centers that offer post-installation services such as swimming pool openings and weekly maintenance, as well as replacement parts, equipment and accessories.

Operating data for the three most recent fiscal years is included in Item 8, Financial Statements and Supplementary Data, of this report. For information on operating results and a discussion of those results, refer to Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of this report.

Swimming Pool Sales and Installation Industry

The swimming pool industry in the United States is comprised of residential in-ground swimming pools, residential above-ground swimming pools, commercial swimming pools and retailing of pool products and equipment. The Company primarily focuses on the installation of concrete, in-ground residential swimming pools, which are estimated to account for 40-45% of the total swimming pool market. While other sectors of the residential in-ground swimming pool business, such as manufacturing, distribution and retailing of pool products and equipment, have undergone significant consolidation in the last several years, the sales and installation industry has remained highly fragmented.

Sales and Marketing

The Company sells its products to a large number of customers, primarily residential homeowners and homebuilders. A dedicated sales force of over 100 employees who have responsibility for developing and maintaining customer relationships conducts its principal sales activities. Sales visits are conducted in the customer's home or at an Anthony & Sylvan sales office near the customer's home. The introduction of the laptop computer as a selling tool in recent years has significantly enhanced the quality and professionalism of the Company's sales presentations and reinforced its image as an expert in the swimming pool industry. As a service to its customers, the Company maintains relationships with lenders that provide financing to its customers.

Table of Contents

The Company does most of its advertising in local newspapers and Yellow Pages. It also advertises, to a lesser extent, through radio, television, magazines, billboards and direct mail and has attracted buyers as a result of referrals from previous customers and realtors, among others. It also publishes brochures and catalogs. The Company also operates an Internet site www.anthonysylvan.com which is attracting an increasing number of customers each year.

Competition

The Company faces competition primarily from regional and local installers. The Company believes that there are a small number of swimming pool companies that compete with Anthony & Sylvan on a national basis. Barriers to entry in the swimming pool sales and installation industry are relatively low.

The Company believes that the principal competitive factors in the pool design and installation business are the quality and level of customer service, product pricing, breadth and quality of products offered, ability to procure labor and materials on a market by market basis from local and regional sources, financial integrity and stability, and consistency of business relationships with customers. The Company believes it compares favorably with respect to each of these factors.

Principal Suppliers and Subcontractors

The Company regularly evaluates supplier relationships and considers alternate sourcing as appropriate to assure competitive costs and quality standards. The Company currently does not have long-term contracts with its suppliers. It also believes there are currently a number of other suppliers that offer comparable terms.

The Company utilizes both company employees as well as subcontractors to install pools; however, the majority of its installation labor base consists of independent subcontractors. The Company's personnel act as field supervisors to oversee all aspects of the installation process and as schedulers to coordinate the activities of the subcontractors and communicate with the customer.

Backlog from Continuing Operations

As of December 31, 2002, the Company had approximately $35,500,000 of contracts for swimming pool installations that had not been started and $22,600,000 of remaining revenue to be recognized on contracts currently under installation. As of December 31, 2001, the Company had approximately $26,600,000 of contracts for swimming pool installations that had not been started and $18,200,000 of remaining revenue to be recognized on contracts currently under installation for continuing operations. The Company believes, based on past experience, that the majority of any backlog at the end of a year will be completed in the following year.

Employees

At February 28, 2003, the Company employed approximately 460 persons, on a full-time basis. At February 28, 2002, the Company's continuing operations employed approximately 455 employees. During the peak swimming pool sales and installation season, the Company will employ additional operations personnel who will primarily be involved in the installation of swimming pools. No employees are covered by collective bargaining agreements and the Company believes it has satisfactory relations with its employees.

regulations, and releases. The Company intends that such forward-looking statements be subject to the safe harbors created thereby. The Company assumes no obligation to update or revise any such statements, whether as a result of new information or otherwise. All forward-looking statements are based on current expectations regarding important risk factors, including but not limited to: dependence on existing management; consumer spending; market conditions and weather. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, and the making of such statements should not be regarded as a representation by the Company or any other person that results expressed therein will be achieved.

For a discussion of other risks to which the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows may be subject, see the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations appearing on pages 6 through 8 of this report.

Item 2. Properties

The Company currently operates 40 sales offices, 18 retail stores and a small number of service centers. In addition, it has a number of division administrative and construction offices and warehouses at which it stores inventory used in pool installations. Its executive offices are located in Mayfield Village, Ohio. The Company believes that no single property is material to its operations and that alternate sites are presently available at market rates.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

Certain claims, suits and complaints arising in the ordinary course of business have been filed or are pending against the Company. Although the outcome of litigation and claims is uncertain, the Company does not believe that there are any pending proceedings which could be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

No matters were submitted to a vote of security holders, through the solicitation of proxies or otherwise, during the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2002.

Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of OperationsCritical Accounting Policies

The Company's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations are based upon the Company's consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The Company believes the following critical accounting policies affect its more significant estimates and assumptions used in the preparation of its consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from pool installation contracts is recognized on the percentage-of-completion accounting method based on the proportion of total costs incurred during the various phases of installation as a percentage of total estimated contract costs. Revisions in cost and revenue estimates are reflected in the period in which the facts requiring such revisions become known. Provision is made currently for estimated losses on uncompleted installations. The majority of the Company's contracts call for progress payments to be made while completing individual phases of the installation until the final phases of installation, at which time the remaining portion is recognized as a contract receivable. Progress payments in excess of revenue recognized are classified as billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings on uncompleted contracts, and are included in accrued expenses. Contract costs include direct material, labor, subcontract costs and overheads. Selling and administrative expenses are charged to income as incurred.

Warranty

The Company accrues an estimate of warranty claims using regression analysis formulas and estimates of the aggregate liability for claims based on the Company's historical experience. The portion of claims the Company estimates will not be paid within one year is included in other long-term liabilities.

Results of Operations

2002 Compared with 2001

Net sales from continuing operations in 2002 of $158.4 million decreased 5.5% from 2001 net sales of $167.7 million. The decrease was primarily attributable to a 10.8% decrease in new pool units produced partially offset by a 2.5% increase in average selling prices for new pool units, increases in modernization of customers' existing pools and retail stores activity.

Gross profit from continuing operations decreased to $46.0 million in 2002 from $48.5 million in 2001 as a result of the decrease in net sales. As a percentage of sales, gross profit increased very slightly from 28.9% in 2001 to 29.0% in 2002.

Operating expenses include selling and administrative expenses, which remained constant, in the aggregate, at approximately $44.0 million in each year. Selling expenses were $1.6 million higher in 2002 compared with 2001 primarily due to the strengthening of sales management positions, improvement in incentives and other sales-related compensation programs and higher advertising and promotional expenditures. Administrative expenses were $1.6 million lower in 2002 compared with 2001, as 2001 administrative expenses included improvements in the Company's infrastructure and operating methods, and also included amortization of goodwill. The Company ceased amortizing goodwill in 2002 as a result of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, effective January 1, 2002. Upon adoption the Company ceased to amortize $26,276,000 of goodwill. It had recorded amortization expense of $737,000 and $733,000 in the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and would have recorded a similar amount in 2002. Excluding any goodwill amortization in the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 would have increased net income to $1,936,000 or $0.33 per diluted share in 2001 and $4,108,000 or $0.73 per diluted share in 2000. Operating expenses, as reported, as a percentage of sales, increased from 26.3% in 2001 to 27.8% in 2002 as a result of lower revenues.

The Company's effective tax rate for continuing operations increased from 34.8% in 2001 to 40.2% in 2002, primarily as a result of a $0.5 million non-cash deferred compensation credit included in the 2001 results. This item was not included for purposes of calculating the tax provision.

In September 2002, the Company made a decision to close its swimming pool installation businesses in the Orlando and Southeastern Florida markets. The consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 have been classified to reflect these operations as discontinued. The operating loss from these operations increased from ($2.1 million) in 2001, or ($1.4 million) on a tax effected basis, to ($5.1 million), or ($3.3 million) on a tax effected basis, in 2002, inclusive of a $1.2 million restructuring charge.

Primarily as a result of the above items, net income decreased $3.6 million to a net loss of ($2.2 million) in 2002. Net loss per diluted share was ($0.41) in 2002 compared with earnings per diluted share of $0.24 per share in 2001. Net income from continuing operations decreased $1.7 million to $1.1 million and net income per diluted share from continuing operations decreased $0.29 to $0.19 per share in 2002.

2001 Compared with 2000

Edgar Filing: ANTHONY & SYLVAN POOLS CORP - Form 10-K

Net sales from continuing operations in 2001 of $167.7 million decreased 4.6% from 2000 net sales of $175.7 million. The decrease was primarily attributable to a 12.2% decrease in new pool units produced, partially offset by an 9.0% increase in average selling prices.

Gross profit from continuing operations decreased to $48.5 million in 2001 from $51.9 million in 2000 as a result of the decrease in net sales. As a percentage of sales, gross profit decreased slightly from 29.6% in 2000 to 28.9% in 2001 as a result of spreading higher fixed construction expenses over a lower revenue base.

Table of Contents

Operating expenses include selling and administrative expenses, which increased by $0.5 million to $44.1 million in 2001 from $43.6 million in 2000. Higher administrative costs associated with improvements that have been made in the Company's infrastructure and operating methods were partially offset by reductions in both short-term and long-term incentive compensation expense. The combination of lower revenues and higher administrative costs resulted in operating expenses as a percentage of sales increasing from 24.8% in 2000 to 26.3% in 2001. Operating expenses in 2000 include $1.5 million of non-cash deferred compensation expense related to the Company's long-term incentive plan compared with a credit of $0.5 million in 2001.

The Company's effective tax rate for continuing operations changed from 41.4% in 2000 to 34.8% in 2001, primarily as a result of the non-cash deferred compensation related to the Company's long-term incentive plan included in the 2001 and 2000 results.

In September 2002, the Company made a decision to close its swimming pool installation businesses in the Orlando and Southeastern Florida markets. The consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 have been retroactively reclassified to reflect these operations as discontinued. The operating loss from these operations increased from ($2.0 million), or ($1.3 million) on a tax effected basis, in 2000 to ($2.1 million), or ($1.4 million) on a tax effected basis, in 2001.

Primarily as a result of the above items, net income decreased $2.1 million to $1.4 million in 2001. Net income per diluted share decreased $0.39 to $0.24 per share in 2001. Net income from continuing operations decreased $2.1 million to $2.7 million and net income per diluted share from continuing operations decreased $0.37 to $0.48 per share in 2001.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

For the year ended December 31, 2002, net cash provided by operating activities was $8.5 million compared with net cash used in operating activities of $1.1 million in 2001. The increase in comparative annual cash flow amounts was attributable to reductions in working capital (including cash) of $3.8 million in 2002 compared with increases in working capital of $5.5 million in 2001, partially offset by a decrease in net income from continuing operations of $1.7 million in 2002. The decrease in working capital in 2002 is primarily attributable to a decrease in receivables of $7.6 million in 2002 compared with an increase of $5.2 million in 2001. The increase in 2001 was a result of increased revenue generated under deferred payment sales programs run in the Company's Northeast markets during the fourth quarter of 2001. The Company offered similar deferred payment programs in 2002; however, the revenue generated under these programs was less than the revenue generated in 2001 as a result of unfavorable weather conditions in the later part of 2002, which affected production capabilities.

Capital expenditures in 2002 were $1.8 million compared with $3.0 million in 2001. The decrease in 2002 is a reflection of higher than normal capital expenditures undertaken in 2001 for computers and related software and a new employee training center. The remaining cash provided by operating activities was used to repay bank borrowings, which reduced long-term debt by $1.3 million, and to finance $2.5 million of treasury stock repurchases.

The Company does not have any off-balance sheet financing activities.

Edgar Filing: ANTHONY & SYLVAN POOLS CORP - Form 10-K

The Company has a $35 million revolving credit facility (Credit Facility) with a group of banks secured by the assets of the Company which matures August 10, 2004. The Company's borrowing capacity and interest rates under the Credit Facility are based on its profitability and leverage. Interest is charged at increments over either Prime or Libor rates. In addition, a 37.5 basis points commitment fee is payable on the total amount of the unused commitment. As of December 31, 2002 the effective interest rates on the outstanding borrowings ranged from 2.79% to 4.25%. Borrowings at December 31, 2002 were $6.3 million. Total available additional borrowing capacity under the Credit Facility as of January 1, 2003 is $7.5 million. The Company is in compliance with all of its debt covenants under the Credit Facility.

Table of Contents

The Company believes that existing cash and cash equivalents, internally generated funds, and funds available under its line of credit will be sufficient to meet its needs.

Cyclical and Seasonality

The Company believes that the in-ground swimming pool industry is strongly influenced by general economic conditions and tends to experience periods of decline during economic downturns. Since it is believed that the majority of the Company's swimming pool installation purchases are financed, pool sales are particularly sensitive to interest rate fluctuations and the availability of credit. A sustained period of high interest rates could result in declining sales, which could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and results of operations. Conversely, a sustained period of low interest rates could help offset the impact of any economic downturns.

Historically, approximately two-thirds of the Company's revenues have been generated in the second and third quarters of the year, the peak season for swimming pool installation and use. Conversely, the Company typically incurs net cumulative losses during the first and fourth quarters of the year. Unseasonably cold weather or extraordinary amounts of rainfall during the peak sales season can significantly reduce pool purchases. In addition, unseasonably early or late warming trends can increase or decrease the length of the swimming pool season, significantly affecting sales and operating profit.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In July 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit and Disposal Activities. It addresses issues regarding the recognition, measurement, and reporting of costs that are associated with exit and disposal activities, including restructuring activities that are currently accounted for pursuant to the guidance that the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) set forth in EITF 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). Examples of costs covered by the standard include lease termination costs and certain employee severance costs that are associated with a restructuring, discontinued operation, plant closing, or other exit or disposal activity. SFAS 146 replaced Issue 94-3 on January 1, 2003 for exit and disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 146 to have a material impact on its results of operations or financial position.

In November 2002, FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 45, Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others was issued. The interpretation provides guidance on the guarantor's accounting and disclosure requirements for guarantees, including indirect guarantees of indebtedness of others. The Company has adopted the disclosure requirements of the interpretation as of December 31, 2002. The accounting guidelines are applicable to guarantees issued after December 31, 2002 and require that the Company record a liability for the fair value of such guarantees in the balance sheet. The Company does not expect the adoption of FIN 45 to have a material impact on its results of operations or financial position.

In December 2002, the FASB issued Statement No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, which amended SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. The provisions of SFAS 148 have been adopted for the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002. This statement requires companies electing not to expense stock options under the fair value method to provide pro forma net income and earnings per share information, not only annually but on a quarterly basis. While continuing to review the matter, the Company has no current plans to begin expensing stock options.

The Company does not enter into financial instruments to manage and reduce the impact of some of these risks. Further, the Company does not enter into derivatives or other financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

ANTHONY & SYLVAN POOLS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Summary of Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation Anthony & Sylvan Pools Corporation and Subsidiaries (the Company) is among the largest residential in-ground concrete pool sales and installation businesses in the United States and operates in one business segment.

Consolidation The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents The Company considers all highly liquid short-term investments with initial maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Financial Instruments The Company has financial instruments that consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, receivables, payables and debt instruments. The Company has determined that the estimated fair value of its financial instruments approximates carrying value.

The Company's credit and concentration risk is limited due to the large number of customers comprising the Company's customer base and their geographical dispersion.

Accounts Receivable Accounts receivable is calculated using the percentage-of-completion accounting method on the proportion of total estimated costs of the various phases of installation as a percentage of the total value of the contract. The allowance for doubtful accounts is based on the Company's best estimate of the amount of probable credit losses in the Company's existing accounts receivable. The Company determines the allowance based on historical write-off experience and based on the potential collectibility of specific accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts is reviewed on a monthly basis. Account balances are charged off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted, in the opinion of management, and the potential for recovery, net of related collection activity expenses, is considered remote. The Company does not have any off-balance-sheet credit exposure related to its customers.

Inventories Inventories consist of materials and equipment purchased for installation or use in pools and are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out method. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company has a reserve on these inventories of $172,000 and $204,000, respectively.

Edgar Filing: ANTHONY & SYLVAN POOLS CORP - Form 10-K

Property, Plant and Equipment Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes. Accelerated methods are used for tax reporting purposes. Assets, valued at cost, are generally being depreciated over their useful lives as follows: buildings 30 years; leasehold improvement, 3 to 7 years; and machinery and equipment, 3 to 15 years.

Goodwill The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, effective January 1, 2002. Upon adoption the Company ceased to amortize $26,276,000 of goodwill. It had recorded $737,000 and $733,000 of amortization expense in the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and would have recorded a similar amount in 2002. In lieu of amortization, the Company is required to perform an impairment review of goodwill on an annualized basis. The Company performed an initial impairment review as of January 1, 2002 and a subsequent review as of November 30, 2002. Based on the results of those reviews management does not believe any impairment of goodwill exists. The exclusion of any goodwill amortization, net of taxes, in the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 would have increased net income to $1,936,000 or $0.33 per diluted share in 2001 and $4,108,000 or $0.73 per diluted share in 2000.

Prior to the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, the Company evaluated the potential impairment of goodwill on an ongoing basis by comparing the book value of such assets to the sum of the undiscounted expected future cash flows of the acquired businesses over the remaining amortization period of the asset.

Revenue Recognition Revenue from swimming pool installation contracts is recognized on the percentage-of-completion accounting method based on the proportion of total costs incurred during the various phases of installation as a percentage of total estimated contract costs. Revisions in cost and revenue estimates are reflected in the period in which the facts requiring such revisions become known. Provision is made currently for estimated losses on uncompleted installations. The majority of the Company's contracts call for progress payments to be made while completing individual phases of the installation until the final phases of installation, at which time the remaining portion is recognized as a contract receivable. Progress payments in excess of revenue recognized are classified as billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings on uncompleted contracts, and are included in accrued expenses. Contract costs include direct material, labor, subcontract costs and overheads. Selling and administrative expenses are charged to income as incurred.

Warranty The Company accrues an estimate of warranty claims using regression analysis formulas and estimates of the aggregate liability for claims based on the Company's historical experience. The portion of claims the Company estimates will not be paid within one year is included in other long-term liabilities.

Advertising The Company expenses advertising and promotional expenditures, as incurred, for advertising in local newspapers and other print media. It also advertises, to a lesser extent, through radio, television, billboards and direct mail. It also publishes brochures and catalogs and operates an Internet site. Advertising and promotional expenditures included in selling, general and administrative expenses were $4,846,000, $4,307,000 and $3,662,000 in 2002, 2001 and 2000 respectively.

Income Taxes The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carry-forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Use of Estimates The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires management of the Company to make a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reported amount of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment; valuation allowances for receivables, inventories and deferred income tax assets; goodwill; warranty reserves and obligations related to employee benefits. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Stock Option Plans The Company applies the intrinsic-value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations, including FASB Interpretation No. 44, Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation, an Interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25, to account for its fixed-plan stock options. Under this method, compensation expense is recorded on the date of grant only if the current market value of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price. SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, established accounting and disclosure requirements using a fair-value-based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation plans. As allowed by SFAS No. 123, the Company has elected to continue to apply the intrinsic-value-based method of accounting described above, and has adopted only the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123 and SFAS No. 148. The following table illustrates the effect on net income if the fair-value-based method had been applied to all outstanding and unvested awards in each period.

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share is based on the combined weighted average number of shares outstanding including the assumed exercise or conversion of options. The treasury stock method is used in computing diluted earnings per share. The calculations are as follows:

Options to purchase 1,173,388 shares of common stock at prices ranging from $3.85 to $9.03 per share were outstanding at December 31, 2002 but were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because the options' exercise prices were greater than the market price of the common shares.

3. Discontinued Operations and Restructuring Charge

In September 2002, the Company made a decision to close its swimming pool installation divisions in the Orlando and Southeastern Florida markets. The consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to reflect those operations as discontinued. Accordingly, the revenue, costs, expenses, assets and liabilities and cash flows from these operations have been excluded from the respective captions in the consolidated Balance Sheets, Consolidated Statements of Operations and Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows and have been reported as Net liabilities of discontinued operations, Loss from discontinued operations and Net cash provided by/(used in) discontinued operations. These operations had combined revenues of $15,179,000, $24,053,000 and $26,035,000 in the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and operating losses of ($5,081,000) (including a $1,170,000 restructuring charge see below), ($2,133,000) and ($1,958,000) in the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

As a result of the decision to close these operations, the Company recorded a $1,170,000 pre-tax restructuring reserve in the third quarter of 2002, which is included in the Loss from discontinued operations for the year ended December 31, 2002. The reserve consists of severance costs, future lease obligations and other exit costs. At December 31, 2002 Net liabilities of discontinued operations includes a $866,000 reserve for estimated future costs related to the closures. The Company expects to pay the majority of the future cash outlays to satisfy this liability in the first half of 2003, with the exception of certain lease liabilities which will be paid over the remaining lease terms.

The following is a summary of activity charged against the reserve in 2002 (dollars in thousands):

	Initial

Revolving credit facility	$ 6,300	$ 7,550

Total	$ 6,300	$ 7,550

The Company has a $35 million revolving credit facility (Credit Facility) with a group of banks secured by the assets of the Company which matures August 10, 2004. The Company's borrowing capacity and interest rates under the Credit Facility are based on its profitability and leverage. Interest is charged at increments over either Prime or LIBOR rates. In addition a 37.5 basis points commitment fee is payable on the total amount of the unused commitment. As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the effective interest rates on the outstanding borrowings ranged from 2.79% to 4.25% and from 3.65% to 5.13%, respectively. Borrowings under the Credit Facility at December 31, 2002 were $6.3 million and are due in 2004. Total available additional borrowing capacity under the Credit Facility as of January 1, 2003 is $7.5 million. The Company is in compliance with all of its debt covenants under the Credit Facility.

Other long-term liabilities consist of the following at December 31 (dollars in thousands):

	2002	2001
Warranty	$ 2,129	$ 1,200
Deferred compensation	1,397	1,135
Total	$ 3,526	$ 2,335

Long-term warranty expense represents the portion of warranty claims the Company estimates will not occur within one year. The deferred compensation liability relates to amounts deferred by officers, directors and key employees of the Company as part of a deferred compensation plan maintained for those participants. The plan provides participants the opportunity to defer a portion or all of their compensation until such time as the participants are no longer employed by the Company, or in the case of the directors, when they no longer serve on the Company's Board. The Company has funded virtually all of its obligations under the plan through a deferred compensation plan trust.

7. Product Warranties

The Company provides certain warranties with its swimming pools and accrues for the liability associated with these warranties using regression analysis formulas based on historical claims experience. The changes in the carrying amount of the warranty accrual were as follows for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 (dollars in thousands):

Balance as of January 1, 2001:	$ 3,260

All earnings per share data in the consolidated financial statements has been retroactively restated to reflect the number of shares outstanding following both 10% dividends.

On May 8, 2002, based on the authorization of its Board of Directors, the Company purchased a block of 337,169 shares of its common stock, in a private transaction for approximately $2,400,000. Additionally, based on the Board of Directors April 3, 2001 authorization to purchase up to one million shares of the common stock outstanding, the Company purchased a block of 7,178 shares of its common stock, in a private transaction involving a former officer of the Company at $7.32 per share and purchased 7,700 shares of its common stock on the open market at an average price of $6.15 per share during the year ended December 31, 2002.

On January 4, 2001, based on the authorization of its Board of Directors, the Company purchased a block of 250,000 shares of its common stock, in a private transaction, at $8.00 per share. Additionally, on April 3, 2001, the Board of Directors authorized the purchase of up to one million shares of the common stock outstanding. Based on this authorization, the Company purchased a block of 41,292 shares of its common stock, in a private transaction involving a former officer of the Company at $7.61 per share and purchased 300 shares of its common stock on the open market at an average price of $6.72 per share during the year ended December 31, 2001.

At the time of the Company's split-off from its former Parent, stock options held by persons who became officers or directors of the Company were also split-off so that the potential ownership these employees had in the former Parent would remain consistent with that in the Company. This resulted in the allocation to the Company of 874,723 fully vested split-off options. 717,456 of these options were exercised in 2000 with 711,406 of the shares being transferred to a deferred compensation plan trust and are reported as treasury share equivalents. Of the remaining options, 9,897 expire in January, 2004 and 147,370 expire in September, 2006. The exercise prices for these options of $0.92 and $0.97, respectively, were determined based on a formula that included the Company's first day's trading price following the split-off and the original exercise price.

At its Annual Meeting of Shareholders on April 4, 2001 the Company's shareholders approved the adoption of the 2001 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the Long-Term Incentive Plan) which provides for the issuance of up to 585,640 awards of the Company's common stock to employees and directors. An award is defined as any form of stock option, stock appreciation right, restricted share, share or share based award or performance share granted to a Participant under the Plan. In 2002, the Company awarded 96,800 restricted shares and 343,266 10-year stock options to certain officers and directors of the Company under the plan. The restricted shares vest based on the earlier of the date of achieving certain performance thresholds or seven years from the date of the grant. The stock options were granted at an average price of $5.66 per share, which represented the fair market value at the time of the grant, and vest after five years. Accelerated vesting would occur on the first trading day following twenty consecutive trading days during which the Company shares closed at an average price of $12.40 or better. The Company amended the Long-Term Incentive Plan effective April 1, 2001 to eliminate features that required variable accounting treatment. As a result of the amendment, the Company no longer accounts for any portion of the Long-Term Incentive Plan as a variable plan.

As part of the Company's compensation plans, certain officers and directors of the Company have been given the opportunity to purchase shares of the Company's common stock under a Leveraged Stock Purchase Plan for an amount generally up to two times their base compensation at fair market value. Under this plan the current officers and directors have purchased 771,809 shares of the Company's common stock, issued from treasury, at an average price of $4.05 per share. For every share of common stock purchased under the Plan, participants received .40 of a stock option representing, in total, 314,328 stock options with exercise prices ranging from $3.85 to $5.83 per share. These options vest over periods ranging from two to five years from the date of the grant. At the election of each officer or director, the stock purchases could be financed through full recourse external borrowings guaranteed by the Company and secured by the stock. The Company has guaranteed total borrowings of $3,127,000 under the Plan at December 31, 2002 and has agreed to advance to the participants the interest on the obligations, which amounted to $623,000 at December 31, 2002.

The following table summarizes the activity in the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plans excluding the split-off options and restricted performance shares for the last 3 years:
