Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Neenah Paper, Inc. (the Company) entered into definitive asset sale agreements with Terrace Bay Pulp Inc. (Terrace Bay Pulp) and Eagle Logging Inc. (Eagle Logging), members of the Buchanan group, on August 4, 2006, to transfer the Company's Terrace Bay pulp mill and woodlands assets (collectively, the pulp mill and woodlands asset sale agreements are hereinafter referred to as the Asset Sale Agreements). Pursuant to the Asset Sale Agreements, Terrace Bay Pulp will assume responsibility for the Terrace Bay operations, including existing employee and other contracts, and certain assets and liabilities related to the pulp mill operations and Eagle Logging will acquire certain assets and assume certain liabilities related to the Company's woodland operations. With respect to both the pulp mill and woodlands operations, the Company will retain certain working capital amounts, primarily accounts receivable, finished inventories and accounts payable, as well as employee liabilities for pension, long-term disability and post-employment medical and life insurance for retirees. Both transactions are subject to normal closing conditions and are expected to close in August.

To facilitate the transfers, the Company will make a cash payment of approximately $18 million to Terrace Bay Pulp. In accordance with the Asset Sale Agreements, the Company will initiate plans to curtail and settle its Ontario, Canada defined benefit pension plan. Estimated cash costs related to this settlement are $18 million, with an initial payment of $11 million anticipated in the third quarter.
