Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 9, 2018, ATN International, Inc. (the Company), through its subsidiary Ahana Renewables, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ( Ahana ), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with CleanCapital Holdco 4 LLC ( CleanCapital ) pursuant to which CleanCapital will purchase from Ahana the subsidiary companies (the Subsidiaries) that own and manage distributed generation solar power projects operated under the Ahana name in Massachusetts, California and New Jersey (the Business). Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, CleanCapital will acquire the membership interests in the Subsidiaries for a total value of approximately $122 million, which includes a cash purchase price of $64.5 million and the assumption of approximately $57.2 million in debt, and is subject to certain other post-closing adjustments (the Transaction). The Company currently expects the Transaction to close in the fourth quarter of 2018.

The parties have made customary representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement relating to themselves, the Transaction and the Business, which will generally survive the closing of the Transaction for a period of twelve months, except for (i) certain customary fundamental representations and warranties, which will survive indefinitely, (ii) environmental representations and warranties, which will survive until three years after the closing of the Transaction and (iii) tax-related representations and warranties, which will survive until sixty days following the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

The Purchase Agreement also contains customary interim covenants and agreements, including covenants which require (i) Ahana to operate the Business in the ordinary course in substantially the same manner as previously conducted; (ii) each of the parties to obtain all necessary governmental and regulatory approvals and otherwise cause the Transaction to be consummated; and (iii) entry into an agreement pursuant to which Ahana will provide CleanCapital with transition services during the six months following the closing of the Transaction.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the parties will indemnify each other for breaches of their respective representations and warranties, subject to certain customary caps and thresholds, and for breaches of covenants and certain other matters. Approximately $6.5 million of the purchase price will be held in escrow for twelve months following the closing of the Transaction (subject to pending indemnification claims) to provide security to CleanCapital for Ahana's indemnification obligations.

Consummation of the Transaction is subject to satisfaction of certain conditions, including, among others, (i) receipt of all required governmental and third party consents; (ii) the absence of any law, injunction or final judgement prohibiting the consummation of the Transaction; (iii) the accuracy of the parties' representations and warranties, subject to customary materiality limits; (iv) the performance by each of the parties of its covenants under the Purchase Agreement in all material respects; and (v) the absence of a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Purchase Agreement).

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which has been filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1, and is hereby incorporated by reference.
