Employment Agreements; Termination and Change-in-Control Arrangements

As of December 26, 2015, Messrs. Coskey and Hess were each a party to a written employment agreement (the “Employment Agreements”) with ENGlobal. The Employment Agreements provide for an annual base salary, subject to discretionary increases by the Board, and other compensation in the form of cash bonuses, incentive compensation, stock options, stock appreciation rights, and restricted stock awards. Additionally, the executives receive health, life, and other insurance benefits in accordance with the terms of the Company’s benefit plans, and the Company provides management level support services and reimbursement for specified business expenses.

The Employment Agreements provide for severance payments and benefits in the case of termination of employment. If employment ends because of death, the Company will pay any accrued but unpaid salary, additional compensation, and other benefits earned up to that date. In the case of a physical or mental disability that prevents the executive from performing his services under the Employment Agreement for a period of six months in the case of Mr. Coskey, and three months, in the case of Mr. Hess, the Company may terminate the executive's employment. If the Company terminates an executive's employment in such cases of disability, the Employment Agreements provide that the Company will continue to pay the executive his full salary and benefits for the six months following the date of termination (the "Initial Severance Period"). At the Company's option, severance payments consisting of 50% of the monthly amount of the base salary for Mr. Coskey, and in the case of Mr. Hess, 100% of the monthly amount of his base salary, and full benefits may be extended for an additional six-month period following the Initial Severance Period.

If the Company terminates an executive's employment for "cause," as defined in the Employment Agreements, the Company will pay any accrued but unpaid salary, additional compensation, and other benefits earned up to the effective date of termination. If the Company terminates an executive's employment without "cause," the Employment Agreement provides that the Company will continue to pay the executive his full salary and benefits for the Initial Severance Period. At the Company's option, severance payments consisting of 50% of the monthly amount of the base salary for Mr. Coskey, and in the case of Mr. Hess, 100% of the monthly amount of his base salary, and full benefits may be extended for an additional six-month period following the Initial Severance Period.

The Employment Agreements include a covenant not to compete following termination of employment for a period of up to one year as well as confidentiality provisions as are customary in nature and scope, for such agreements.

The terms of the Employment Agreements were set through the course of arms-length negotiations with the executives. As part of these negotiations, the Compensation Committee analyzed the terms of the same or similar arrangements for comparable executives employed by some of the companies in our peer group. The Compensation Committee used this approach in setting the amounts payable and the triggering events under the Employment Agreements. The Employment Agreements' termination of employment provisions were entered into in order to address competitive concerns by providing the executives with a fixed amount of compensation that would offset the potential risk of foregoing other opportunities. At the time of entering into the Employment Agreements, the Compensation Committee considered ENGlobal's aggregate potential obligations in the context of retaining the executive and his expected compensation.

Executive Perquisites

Our use of perquisites as a component of compensation is limited and largely based on historical practices and policies of our Company. These perquisites and other benefits are provided to assure competitiveness and provide an additional retention incentive for these named executives. Our Compensation Committee endeavors to adhere to a high level of propriety in managing executive benefits and perquisites. We do not own a plane and do not provide any personal aircraft use for executives.

Other Compensation

From time to time, we make available to employees and executives certain other fringe benefits. We may provide club memberships, tickets to sporting or cultural events, tickets to community events, etc. To the extent that such items are taxable to the individual, they are considered to be part of the individual's compensation package.

Compensation of Directors

The following table discloses cash and equity awards and other compensation earned, paid or awarded, as the case may be, to each of the Company's non-employee directors during the fiscal year ended December 26, 2015.

Name	Fees Earned or Paid in Cash		All Other Compensation		Total
	($)⁽¹⁾	Stock Awards ($)⁽²⁾	Option Awards ($)⁽³⁾	($)
Mr. Hale	$34,000	$50,000	--	--	$84,000
Mr. Gent	$30,000	$50,000	--	--	$80,000
Mr. Roussel	$30,000	$50,000	--	--	$80,000

(1) Amount paid in cash to non-employee directors for director compensation earned for their 2015-2016 Board service.

(2) This column shows the grant date fair value of equity awards computed in accordance with stock-based compensation accounting rules (FASB ASC Topic 718). Values for awards subject to performance conditions are computed based upon the probable outcome of the performance condition as of the grant date. For a description of certain assumptions made in the valuation of stock awards, see Note 9 to the Company's audited consolidated financial statements, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 26, 2015, as filed with the SEC on March 3, 2016. Represents 35,971 shares of restricted stock at a fair market value per share price of $1.81 granted to each director on June 19, 2015, as described below under "Restricted Stock Grants." As of December 26, 2015, Messrs. Hale, Gent and Roussel each had a total of 26,982 shares of restricted stock that were unvested.

(3) As of December 26, 2015, Messrs. Hale, Gent and Roussel each had a total of 100,000 stock options outstanding.

The principal objectives of our director compensation programs are to: (i) compensate for time spent on the Company's behalf, (ii) ensure similar compensation standards at companies of comparable size, industry and complexity, and (iii) align the compensation programs with long-term value to the Company's shareholders. We attempt to accomplish these objectives in an economical manner through a combination of reasonable director retainer fees and equity incentive grants to the directors.

Retainer Fees

Beginning in the 2015-2016 service year, our non-employee directors, Messrs. Gent, Hale and Roussel, received an annual cash retainer of $30,000 as compensation for their service to the Company and are also eligible for reimbursement of travel and other miscellaneous expenses associated with attendance at Board and Committee meetings. Mr. Hale received an additional $4,000 for his service as Audit Committee Chairman.

The Board considers the director compensation programs to be in conformity with industry standards and to be reasonable by comparison to directors' compensation at the comparable companies that we used for our evaluation of executive compensation.

Restricted Stock Grants

Under the ENGlobal Corporation 2009 Equity Incentive Plan, non-employee directors are eligible to receive equity grants. On June 18, 2015, in recognition of the services provided by its Board for the 2015-2016 service term, our non-employee directors, Messrs. Gent, Hale and Roussel, each received 35,971 restricted shares of the Company's common stock, valued at $50,000 based on the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant, or $1.81 per share. One quarter of the shares vested on September 30, 2015, one quarter vested on December 31, 2015, one quarter vested on March 31, 2016, and the remaining 25% of the shares will vest on the earlier of the Company's 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or June 30, 2016.

The Company anticipates that in June 2016, our non-employee directors, with the exception of our director nominee, Kevin M. Palma, will each receive restricted shares of the Company's common stock valued at approximately $50,000 on the date of grant as compensation for their service to the Company during 2016-2017. We anticipate that the shares will be granted on June 16, 2016, and will vest over one year with 25% vesting on each of September 30, 2016, December 31, 2016, March 31, 2017, and the remaining 25% of the shares vesting on the earlier of the Company's 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders or June 30, 2017. Any unvested shares will be forfeited as of the date the non-employee director ceases to qualify as an independent director. Mr. Palma will not receive any compensation from the Company for his service as a director, but will be eligible for reimbursement of travel and other miscellaneous expenses associated with attendance at Board and Committee meetings.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Director Independence

Our Board of Directors considers the independence of each of the directors under the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market. Among other things, the Board considers current or previous employment relationships as well as material transactions or relationships between ENGlobal or its subsidiaries and the directors, members of their immediate families, or entities in which the directors have a significant interest, including the transactions described in the section entitled “Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions” in this Amended Form 10-K. The purpose of this review is to determine whether any relationships or transactions exist or have occurred that are inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent.

The NASDAQ independence standards include a series of objective tests, such as that the director is not an employee of ENGlobal and has not engaged in various types of business dealings with ENGlobal, to determine whether there are any relationships that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of the director. To be considered independent, the Board must affirmatively determine that the director has no material relationship with ENGlobal.

Under the above standards, the Board has determined that no non-employee director has a relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director, and that all directors, except Mr. Coskey, meet the criteria for independence under NASDAQ rules. The Board has also determined that the members of each of its committees, including the Audit Committee, meet the criteria for membership applicable to each committee under the NASDAQ listing standards and applicable SEC rules and regulations.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The Board has adopted a policy requiring that all transactions between the Company and its officers, directors, principal shareholders and their affiliates be on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unrelated third parties and that any such transactions be approved by a majority of the disinterested members of the Board. Pursuant to such policy, the Company’s Audit Committee is responsible for the review and assessment of all related party transactions.

The Board has determined that no related party transactions existed during fiscal 2015.

ITEM 14. Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm Services

Hein & Associates LLP was appointed as the Company's independent auditors on December 20, 2013 and has audited the Company's 2015 and 2014 consolidated financial statements. During 2014 and 2015, Hein & Associates LLP did not audit the Company's internal control over financial reporting because the Company is a "smaller reporting company" as defined under the rules of the Exchange Act. The Audit Committee has determined that the audit-related services provided by Hein & Associates LLP are compatible with maintaining its independence in the conduct of its auditing functions pursuant to the auditor independence rules of the SEC. No non-audit services were provided by Hein & Associates LLP in 2015 or 2014.

The following table shows the fees paid or accrued by ENGlobal for the audit and other services provided by Hein & Associates LLP for fiscal years 2015 and 2014.

	2015	2014
Audit Fees	176,020	170,500
Audit-Related Fees	40,000	--
Tax Fees	--	--
All Other Fees	--	--
Total	216,270	170,500

As defined by the SEC, (i) “audit fees” are fees for professional services rendered by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the audit of the Company’s annual financial statements and review of financial statements included in the Company’s Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, or for services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for those fiscal years; (ii) “audit-related fees” are fees for assurance and related services by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the company’s financial statements and are not reported under “audit fees;” (iii) “tax fees” are fees for professional services rendered by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning; and (iv) “all other fees” are fees for products and services provided by the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm, other than the services reported under “audit fees,” “audit-related fees,” and “tax fees.”

Pre-Approval Policy

Under applicable SEC rules, except for the ability to designate a portion of this responsibility as described below, the full Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm in order to ensure that they do not impair the auditors’ independence from ENGlobal. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to a member of the Audit Committee and if it does, the decisions of that member must be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The SEC’s rules specify the types of non-audit services that an independent auditor may not provide to its audit client and establish the Audit Committee’s responsibility for administration of the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm.

Consistent with the SEC’s rules, the Audit Committee Charter requires that the Audit Committee review and pre-approve all audit services and permitted non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm to ENGlobal or any of its subsidiaries, except that the Audit Committee Chairman has the right to approve up to $25,000 of services in any year. During 2015, all fees were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
