ALLERGAN, INC.

August 8, 2014

Dear Stockholder:

As you may be aware, PS Fund 1, LLC and certain affiliated entities and persons (collectively, Pershing Square) recently became a stockholder of Allergan, Inc. (the Company or Allergan) after its rapid and originally undisclosed accumulation of beneficial ownership of approximately 9.7% of Allergan's common stock. Subsequently, Pershing Square and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (Valeant) announced a series of unsolicited proposals to acquire Allergan. Most recently, Valeant commenced an unsolicited offer to exchange each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Allergan, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock), at the election of the holder of the Common Stock, for either 0.83 common shares of Valeant, no par value (the Valeant Common Shares) and $72.00 in cash, or an equal amount of cash or number of Valeant Common Shares, in each case subject to proration, as described in Valeant's offer to exchange (the Offer to Exchange). It is important to understand that this is not an all-cash offer.

After careful consideration and consultation with management and its independent financial and legal advisors, the Board of Directors of Allergan (the Board) unanimously determined that the Offer to Exchange is grossly inadequate, substantially undervalues Allergan, creates significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders of Allergan, and is not in the best interests of Allergan and its stockholders.

On June 23, 2014, Allergan filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission a Schedule 14D-9 that included the Board's unanimous recommendation that Allergan's stockholders reject the Offer to Exchange and not tender their shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Offer to Exchange.

Rather than put forward their proposals at the next annual meeting of stockholders, Pershing Square, Valeant and their affiliated participants are now soliciting your written request form and revocable proxy (the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation) to demand a special meeting of the Company's stockholders, to consider and vote upon a number of proposals, which include proposals (i) to remove six members of Allergan's Board of Directors that were duly elected by our stockholders at our last annual meeting of stockholders on May 6, 2014, (ii) to request that the Board elect or appoint six of Pershing Square's nominees to serve on the Board, (iii) to amend certain provisions of our Amended and Restated Bylaws and (iv) to request that the Board engage with Valeant, Pershing Square's co-bidder, regarding its proposal to acquire Allergan.

The Board strongly believes that convening a special meeting is not in the best interests of Allergan or its stockholders at this time. Furthermore, as a co-bidder in an unsolicited bid to acquire Allergan that the Board has concluded is grossly inadequate and substantially undervalues Allergan, the interests of Pershing Square are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders.

The Board does not believe that the issues raised in the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation, including requesting discussions between Allergan and Valeant, should be addressed at a special meeting demanded by a stockholder with specific short-term interests that are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. Rather, the Board strongly believes that the more prudent course of action is for Allergan to focus on extending its track record of substantial growth that the Board is confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Pershing Square's and Valeant's proposal.

Edgar Filing: ALLERGAN INC - Form DEFC14A

If you have already submitted a white written request card to Pershing Square supporting the calling of a special meeting, you can revoke such request by marking YES, REVOKE MY REQUEST and submitting the accompanying BLUE revocation card to the Company. Even if you have not submitted a white written request card to Pershing Square, you may nevertheless communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or express your opposition to calling a special meeting by signing, dating and returning the accompanying BLUE revocation card to the Company.

Regardless of the number of shares of Common Stock of the Company that you own, your views are important. Thank you for your consideration.

REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT
OF ALLERGAN, INC.
IN RESPONSE TO A SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN REQUESTS FOR SPECIAL MEETING
BY PS FUND 1, LLC

August 8, 2014

This Revocation Solicitation Statement (this Revocation Solicitation Statement ) and the accompanying BLUE revocation card (the BLUE Revocation Card ) are being furnished by Allergan, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( we, the Company or Allergan ), to the holders of outstanding shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share (our Common Stock ), in connection with the solicitation of white written request forms ( Written Requests ) by PS Fund 1, LLC and certain affiliated entities and persons (collectively, Pershing Square ). For purposes of this Revocation Solicitation Statement, all references herein to the Written Requests being solicited by Pershing Square shall be deemed to include any associated proxies being solicited by Pershing Square. This Revocation Solicitation Statement and the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card are first being mailed to stockholders on or about August 8, 2014.

As you may be aware, Pershing Square recently became a stockholder of Allergan after its rapid and originally undisclosed accumulation of beneficial ownership of approximately 9.7% of our Common Stock. Subsequently, Pershing Square and Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. ( Valeant ) announced a series of unsolicited proposals to acquire Allergan. Most recently, Valeant commenced an unsolicited offer to exchange each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Allergan, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock ), at the election of the holder of the Common Stock, for either 0.83 common shares of Valeant, no par value (the Valeant Common Shares ) and $72.00 in cash, or an equal amount of cash or number of Valeant Common Shares, in each case subject to proration, as described in Valeant's offer to exchange (the Offer to Exchange ). It is important to note that this is not an all-cash offer.

After careful consideration and consultation with management and its independent financial and legal advisors, the Board of Directors of Allergan (the Board ) unanimously determined that the Offer to Exchange is grossly inadequate, substantially undervalues Allergan, creates significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders of Allergan, and is not in the best interests of Allergan and its stockholders.

On June 23, 2014, Allergan filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) a Solicitation/ Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (as amended, the Schedule 14D-9 ) that included the Board's unanimous recommendation that Allergan's stockholders reject the Offer to Exchange and not tender their shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Offer to Exchange.

Pershing Square's specific and short-term interests are not aligned with other Allergan stockholders because Pershing Square is a co-bidder with Valeant in its efforts to acquire Allergan. Pershing Square and Valeant are rushing to attempt to acquire Allergan at the lowest possible price they can. The Board intends to deliver the most value to Allergan stockholders through a deliberate process of implementing the most effective options available to the Company. Rather than raise proposals at the next annual meeting of stockholders, Pershing Square, Valeant and their affiliated participants are now soliciting your written request form and revocable proxy (the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation ) to demand a special meeting of the Company's stockholders, to consider and vote upon a number of proposals, which include proposals (i) to remove six members of Allergan's Board of Directors that were duly elected by our stockholders at our last annual meeting of stockholders on May 6, 2014, (ii) to request that the Board elect or appoint six of Pershing Square's nominees to serve on the Board, (iii) to amend certain provisions of our Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) and (iv) to request that the Board engage with Valeant, Pershing Square's co-bidder, regarding its proposal to acquire Allergan.

Table of Contents

Under our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Charter ) and our Bylaws, the calling of a stockholder-requested special meeting will require the valid and unrevoked written requests of record holders of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, subject to and in compliance with our Charter and Bylaws. As of June 30, 2014, there were 296,910,449 outstanding shares of Common Stock. Based on the number of shares outstanding on June 30, 2014, in order to request the special meeting in accordance with the Bylaws, Pershing Square would need to validly deliver to the Company pursuant to our Bylaws, executed and unrevoked Written Requests from holders of approximately 74,227,613 shares of Common Stock, including the 28,878,538 shares purported to be owned by Pershing Square (as of June 30, 2014). The actual number of shares of our Common Stock for which executed and unrevoked Written Requests will need to be received in order to request a special meeting will depend on the number of shares that are outstanding at the time Written Requests representing valid and unrevoked Written Requests of holders of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Company pursuant to our Bylaws.

As of June 30, 2014, our directors and executive officers collectively beneficially own 6,528,038 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 2.2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. None of our directors or executive officers intend to deliver any Written Request with respect to any of their shares of Common Stock.

For additional information regarding the mechanics of the consent solicitation, see The Special Meeting Request Procedure Effectiveness of Written Requests.

THE BOARD HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE PERSHING SQUARE/VALEANT SOLICITATION IS CONTRARY TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMPANY AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS, AND VIGOROUSLY OPPOSES THE SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN REQUESTS BY PERSHING SQUARE. ACCORDINGLY, THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU DO NOT SIGN ANY WHITE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD SENT TO YOU BY PERSHING SQUARE. WHETHER OR NOT YOU HAVE PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED PERSHING SQUARE'S WHITE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD, YOU MAY ELECT AGAINST THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL MEETING, AND YOU MAY REVOKE ANY PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED WRITTEN REQUEST TO CALL A SPECIAL MEETING, IF YOU SIGN, DATE AND DELIVER THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION CARD USING THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO THE DATE OF ANY STOCKHOLDER-CALLED SPECIAL MEETING.

If you have questions or need assistance revoking your Written Request for your shares, please contact our proxy solicitor:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT

Why am I receiving this Revocation Solicitation Statement?

Pershing Square recently became a stockholder of Allergan, after a rapid and originally undisclosed accumulation of beneficial ownership of approximately 9.7% of our Common Stock. When Pershing Square acquired beneficial ownership of its shares of our Common Stock, it knew but did not disclose to other Allergan stockholders that Valeant was planning to announce an unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan. Thus, based on its reported arrangements with Valeant and the prices paid by Pershing Square for its shares of our Common Stock, following the announcement by Valeant, the unrealized gains on Pershing Square's shares of our Common Stock were approximately $1,500,000,000. While our stockholders that held our Common Stock throughout this period also benefited from the recent appreciation in the trading price of our Common Stock, our stockholders that were not privy to the same nonpublic information as Pershing Square and sold shares of our Common Stock during that period did not so benefit from this appreciation. Pershing Square and Valeant are now soliciting Written Requests from Allergan stockholders to demand a special meeting of the Company's stockholders. At the proposed special meeting, Pershing Square and Valeant expect to present to Allergan stockholders to consider and vote upon the proposals described under Description of the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation.

You are receiving this Revocation Solicitation Statement as a stockholder of Allergan as of the date of this Revocation Solicitation Statement. As further described below, you should sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card, by mail in the event you desire to:

1. Revoke any Written Request that you may have delivered or caused to be delivered to request that we call a special meeting; or
2. Communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or express your opposition to a special meeting, even if you have not already submitted a Written Request.

Who is making this solicitation?

Allergan is making this solicitation.

Should I oppose Pershing Square's and Valeant's efforts to call a special meeting?

The Board strongly believes that convening a special meeting is not in the best interests of Allergan or its stockholders at this time. As a co-bidder in an unsolicited proposal to acquire Allergan that the Board has concluded is grossly inadequate and substantially undervalues Allergan, the interests of Pershing Square are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. In addition, Pershing Square has announced an agreement with Valeant under which Pershing Square would receive a fixed number of Valeant Common Shares if a transaction occurs on the terms announced by Valeant on May 30, 2014. As such, Pershing Square would benefit if Valeant pays less for Allergan, though absent further agreement Pershing Square remains free to tender its shares of Common Stock on the same terms as other Allergan stockholders if the Offer to Exchange is not completed under the terms currently offered by Valeant.

Furthermore, the Board does not believe that the issues raised in the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation, including requesting discussions between Allergan and Valeant, should be addressed at a special meeting demanded by a stockholder with specific short-term interests that are not aligned with the interests of all of our stockholders. Rather, the Board strongly believes that the more prudent course of action is for Allergan to extend its track record of substantial growth that the Board is confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Pershing Square's and Valeant's proposal.

What are you asking me to do?

The Board has unanimously determined that the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation is contrary to the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and vigorously opposes the solicitation of Written Request cards by Pershing Square and Valeant. Accordingly, the Board recommends that you do not sign any white Written Request card sent to you by Pershing Square. Whether or not you have previously executed Pershing Square's white Written Request card, you may elect against the calling of a special meeting if you sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card by mail (using the enclosed pre-paid envelope) to our proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated ( Innisfree ), at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10022.

If I have already delivered a Written Request, is it too late for me to change my mind?

No. You have the right to revoke your Written Request at any time prior to the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting by signing, dating and delivering a BLUE Revocation Card to our proxy solicitor, Innisfree, at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10022.

When will the Written Requests become effective?

Under our Charter and Bylaws, the Written Requests will become effective if valid and unrevoked Written Requests of the holders of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Corporate Secretary of Allergan in the form and manner required by, and in compliance with, our Charter and Bylaws within 60 days after the date of the earliest dated Written Request.

What happens if I do nothing?

If you do not send in any white Written Request card that Pershing Square may send you and you do not return the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card, you will effectively be voting AGAINST Pershing Square's attempt to hold a special meeting.

Does the revocation have any effect on matters other than the Written Request?

No. We are seeking revocations only for the Written Request related to the calling of the special meeting. We are not currently seeking your proxy, vote, consent or authorization with respect to any other matter.

Whom should I call if I have questions about the solicitation?

Table of Contents*DESCRIPTION OF THE PERSHING SQUARE/VALEANT SOLICITATION

As set forth in the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation and related materials filed with the SEC, Pershing Square is soliciting your Written Request to call a special meeting of the Company's stockholders, at which it expects to present the following matters for a stockholder vote:

- Proposal 1: RESOLVED, that the following six members of the current Board, Deborah Dunsire, M.D., Michael R. Gallagher, Trevor M. Jones, Ph.D., Louis J. Lavigne, Jr., Russell T. Ray and Henri A. Termeer, as well as any other person or persons elected or appointed to the Board without shareholder approval after the Company's 2014 annual meeting of stockholders and up to and including the date of the special meeting (other than any PS Nominees (as defined below) set forth in the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation), be and hereby are removed from office as directors of the Company.
- Proposal 2: RESOLVED, that the shareholders of Allergan hereby request that the Board elect or appoint the following individuals to serve as directors of the Company, regardless of whether Proposal 1 is passed: Betsy S. Atkins, Cathleen P. Black, Fredric N. Eshelman, Ph.D., Steven J. Shulman, David A. Wilson and John J. Zillmer (individually, a PS Nominee and collectively, the PS Nominees); provided, however, that if at any time prior to the date of the special meeting one or more PS Nominees are no longer willing or, as a result of death or incapacity, able to serve as directors of the Company and a majority of the then-remaining PS Nominees select replacements, those replacements (rather than the individuals they replaced), along with the PS Nominees who have not been replaced, shall then be considered the PS Nominees for all purposes.
- Proposal 3: RESOLVED, that Article II, Section 3 of the Bylaws be, and hereby is, amended to read as set forth in Section 3(A) of Exhibit E to the definitive proxy statement filed on July 11, 2014 by Pershing Square with respect to the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation (the Definitive PS Proxy Statement), in order to provide simplified mechanics for calling and determining the place, date and hour of any special meeting called at the request of the Company's shareholders.
- Proposal 4: RESOLVED, that Article II, Section 3 of the Bylaws be, and hereby is, amended to add a new clause at the end (which shall be designated clause (B) if Proposal 3 above is passed and shall be designated clause (E) if Proposal 3 above is not passed) to read as set forth in Section 3(B) of Exhibit E to the Definitive PS Proxy Statement, in order to provide mechanics for calling a special meeting if no directors or less than a majority of directors are then in office.
- Proposal 5: RESOLVED, that Article II, Section 9 of the Bylaws be, and hereby is, amended to read as set forth in Section 9 of Exhibit E to the Definitive PS Proxy Statement, in order to provide simplified mechanics for nominating directors or proposing business at any annual meeting.
- Proposal 6: RESOLVED, that, if Proposal 1 is passed, Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws be, and hereby is, amended to read as set forth in Article III, Section 2 of Exhibit E to the Definitive PS Proxy Statement, in order to fix the authorized number of directors of the Company at nine directors.
- Proposal 7:

RESOLVED, that any amendment to the Bylaws adopted without stockholder approval after the Company's 2014 annual meeting and up to and including the date of the special meeting called in response to the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation that changes the Bylaws in any way from the version that was publicly filed with the SEC on March 26, 2014 and became effective as of May 9, 2014 (other than any amendment to the Bylaws set forth in the Definitive PS Proxy Statement) be, and hereby are, repealed.

Table of Contents

Proposal 8: RESOLVED, that the stockholders of Allergan hereby request that the Board promptly engage in good faith discussions with Valeant regarding Valeant's offer to merge with the Company, without in any way precluding discussions the Board may choose to engage in with other parties potentially offering higher value.

BACKGROUND OF THE PERSHING SQUARE/VALEANT SOLICITATION

Allergan is a corporation formed pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, and is a multi-specialty health care company established more than 60 years ago with a commitment to uncover the best of science and develop and deliver innovative and meaningful treatments to help people reach their life's potential. Today, we have approximately 11,600 highly dedicated and talented employees, global marketing and sales capabilities with a presence in more than 100 countries, a rich and ever-evolving portfolio of pharmaceuticals, biologics, medical devices and over-the-counter consumer products, and state-of-the-art resources in research and development, manufacturing and safety surveillance that help millions of patients see more clearly, move more freely and express themselves more fully. From our beginnings as an eye care company, we have grown to our focus today on several medical specialties, including eye care, neurosciences, medical aesthetics, medical dermatology, breast aesthetics and urologics. Allergan is proud to celebrate more than 60 years of medical advances and proud to support the patients and customers who rely on our products and the employees and communities in which we live and work.

On April 21, 2014, Pershing Square and Valeant each filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC (the Schedule 13Ds) disclosing Pershing Square's holding of a 9.7% interest in our Common Stock. According to the Schedule 13Ds, Pershing Square acquired 597,431 shares of Common Stock in February 2014, with the remainder of the shares underlying call options and forward purchase contracts. Of the 28,878,538 shares beneficially owned by Pershing Square, 13,953,000 were acquired between the date Pershing Square's obligation to file a Schedule 13D with the SEC was triggered and April 21, 2014. According to the Schedule 13Ds, Pershing Square acquired its shares of Common Stock in fulfillment of certain of its obligations pursuant to its contractual arrangement with Valeant, and acquired such shares with full knowledge of the material nonpublic information that Valeant intended to make a bid for Allergan.

Under separate cover, Allergan received a form of draft merger agreement from Valeant.

On April 22, 2014, David Pyott, Allergan's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, received an unsolicited proposal from Michael Pearson, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Valeant, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of Allergan in exchange for 0.83 shares of Valeant Common Shares and $48.30 in cash per share of our Common Stock (the Initial Proposal). Prior to the Initial Proposal, the Board had not received any communication from either Valeant or Pershing Square regarding the Initial Proposal or any other proposed business combination between Allergan and Valeant and/or Pershing Square.

On April 22, 2014, the Board held a special meeting to discuss, among other things, the Initial Proposal and Pershing Square's arrangements with Valeant as disclosed in the Schedule 13Ds. Representatives from Goldman, Sachs & Co. (Goldman Sachs) and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (BofA Merrill Lynch), Allergan's independent financial advisors, and Latham & Watkins LLP (Latham), Allergan's legal advisor, and Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., Allergan's Delaware counsel, were present at the meeting. At the meeting, the Board adopted a rights agreement, between Allergan and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the Rights Agreement). The Rights Agreement was not intended to prevent an acquisition of the Company on terms that the Board considers favorable to, and in the best interests of, all Allergan stockholders. Rather, the Rights Agreement aimed to provide the Board with adequate time to fully assess and respond to any proposal.

On April 29, 2014, the Board held a special meeting at which, among other topics, it continued to discuss the Initial Proposal with its legal advisors.

Table of Contents

On May 5, 2014, Michael Gallagher, the lead independent director of the Board, received a letter from Pershing Square in which it recommended that the Board begin discussions with Valeant in the very near future because, among other things, Valeant may reduce its offer under the Initial Proposal if Allergan did not engage.

On May 5 and 6, 2014, the Board held its regular meeting at which, among other topics, it continued to discuss the Initial Proposal. Representatives from Latham and Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, the Board's legal advisors, and Allergan's financial advisors were present at the meeting.

On May 6, 2014, Allergan held its 2014 annual meeting of stockholders. At the annual meeting, among other items, all of the members of the Board were re-elected and Allergan's stockholders approved an amendment to the Charter allowing stockholders to act by written consent, subject to certain restrictions and limitations.

On May 10, 2014, the Board held a special meeting to continue its consideration of the Initial Proposal with its financial and legal advisors. At the meeting, the Board unanimously rejected the Initial Proposal, concluding after a comprehensive review, conducted in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that the Initial Proposal substantially undervalued the Company, created significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders, and was not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

On May 12, 2014, the Company sent a letter to Valeant and issued a press release announcing the Board's determination and filed an investor presentation with the SEC in which it updated guidance and highlighted the Company's market-leading positions, diversified product portfolio, operational excellence, consistent outperformance of peers in R&D innovation and strong growth prospects.

On May 13, 2014, Pershing Square filed with the SEC a purported preliminary proxy statement, soliciting proxies from Allergan stockholders to vote at a gathering to be held by Pershing Square on a non-binding Pershing Square resolution requesting that the Board promptly engage in discussions with Valeant regarding Valeant's offer to merge with Allergan.

On May 13, 2014, Valeant issued a press release announcing that it would revise its proposal on May 28, 2014.

On May 19, 2014, Pershing Square sent a letter to Mr. Gallagher criticizing the Board's governance with regards to its consideration of the Initial Proposal. On May 19, 2014, Mr. Gallagher sent a response letter to Pershing Square in which he noted that the Board strongly disagreed with Pershing Square's statements and tactics, including its blatant attempts to isolate Mr. Pyott.

On May 21, 2014, Pershing Square sent another letter to Mr. Gallagher reiterating the criticisms raised in its May 19, 2014 letter. On May 21, 2014, Mr. Gallagher sent a response letter to Pershing Square, noting that the Board was well aware of its fiduciary duties and was being well advised by independent advisors.

On May 26, 2014, the Board held a special meeting at which, among other topics, it continued to discuss the Initial Proposal. Allergan's legal advisors were present at the meeting.

On May 27, 2014, the Company filed an investor presentation with the SEC detailing its initial concerns about the sustainability of Valeant's business model. The Company also noted that it had retained two nationally-recognized financial consultants and forensic accountants, Alvarez & Marsal and FTI Consulting, to evaluate certain concerns about the inherent value of Valeant's business model and stock. The presentation raised a number of important issues about Valeant's business model and stock value of which the Board and management believed Allergan's stockholders needed to be aware. These included questions regarding what Allergan believes to be Valeant's: 1) low organic growth,

2) acquisition-driven top-line growth, 3) unsustainable price increases, 4) rapid erosion of the durable business acquired from Medicis Pharmaceutical Corporation within a short time,

5) lack of experience promoting products of Allergan's scale, 6) the instability of its management team, 7) the inability of Valeant to achieve its stated synergies without destroying Allergan's near-term and long-term value, 8) significantly weaker market share position compared to Allergan in important emerging markets, 9) unusual tax structure, 10) magnitude and regularity of non-GAAP adjustments compared with others in the industry, and 11) unsustainable business model, centered on a serial acquisition and cost cutting strategy.

On May 28, 2014, Valeant hosted an investor meeting and webcast and Mr. Pearson sent a letter to Mr. Pyott and the Board, revising the terms of its Initial Proposal, leaving the share consideration at 0.83 of Valeant Common Shares and raising the cash consideration to $58.30 per share of Common Stock, with the possibility of a contingent value right ( CVR ) related to DARPin® sales (the Revised Proposal ).

On June 6, 2014, Pershing Square sent a letter to Allergan seeking, among other things, confirmation that Allergan would not take the position that the solicitation and receipt of revocable proxies by Pershing Square in connection with its request to cause Allergan to call a special meeting of stockholders pursuant to the Charter and Bylaws would trigger the rights under the Rights Agreement.

On June 9, 2014, the Board held a meeting at which it continued its consideration of the Re-Revised Proposal. At the meeting and after a comprehensive review, the Board unanimously determined, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, that the Re-Revised Proposal substantially undervalued the Company, created significant risks and uncertainties for the stockholders of Allergan, and was not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. On June 10, 2014, the Company sent a letter to Mr. Pearson setting forth the Board's conclusion regarding the Re-Revised Proposal and filed an updated investor presentation with the SEC with additional detail on the considerations behind the Board's rejection.

On June 21, 2014, the Board met to review the formal terms of the Offer to Exchange with the assistance of Allergan's financial and legal advisors. At the meeting, each of Goldman Sachs and BofA Merrill Lynch rendered an oral opinion to the Board, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of June 21, 2014 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its written opinion, the consideration proposed to be paid to the holders (other than Offeror, Pershing Square and any of their respective affiliates) of shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Offer to Exchange was inadequate from a financial point of view to such holders. The full texts of the written opinions of each of Goldman Sachs and BofA Merrill Lynch, each dated June 21, 2014, which set forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with such opinion, are attached as Annexes B and C, respectively, to Allergan's Schedule 14D-9. After careful consideration, including a thorough review of the terms and conditions of the Offer to Exchange with Allergan's financial and legal advisors, the Board, by unanimous vote of all of its directors, determined that the Offer to Exchange is grossly inadequate, substantially undervalues Allergan, creates significant risks and uncertainties for Allergan and is not in the best interests of Allergan and its stockholders.

RESPONSE OF ALLERGAN

We believe that the calling and holding of a special meeting is premature and unnecessary at this time. The members of the Board that Pershing Square and Valeant are seeking to remove were duly elected by our stockholders at our last annual meeting of stockholders on May 6, 2014. We believe that Pershing Square and Valeant are rushing to attempt to acquire Allergan at the lowest possible price they can, to avoid having to pay full value for Allergan and its strong future prospects. We believe that the calling and holding of a special meeting will have significant and important consequences for the Company as outlined below. Accordingly, we recommend that you carefully consider whether to support the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation in light of the potential risks and costs to the Company discussed below. If, after careful consideration, you do not wish to support the calling of a special meeting, do NOT sign any white Written Request card sent to you.

Whether or not you have previously executed a white Written Request card, you may sign, date and deliver the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card as soon as possible to communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or to express your opposition to a special meeting.

Stockholders should take into account the following considerations when deciding whether to support the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation:

There are certain significant risks and costs associated with calling and holding a special meeting of which stockholders should be aware before making the decision of whether to execute and return a white Written Request card in connection with the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation.

A special meeting and the related solicitations risk diverting significant time and resources when it is critical that Allergan's Board and management be fully focused on operations and executing the Company's strategies. Rather than hold a special meeting, our Board and management strongly believe that the more prudent course of action is for Allergan to focus on extending its track record of substantial growth that the Board and management are confident will create significantly more value for stockholders than Pershing Square's and Valeant's proposal.

Successive solicitations would also require Allergan to incur additional financial costs, including with respect to internal allocations, third-party advisory fees, printing, mailing and solicitation expenses and other costs.

Stockholders should carefully consider whether a special meeting is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. We strongly believe that a special meeting is no substitute for ongoing, direct, two-way communication between us and our stockholders. Your prompt delivery of the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card will allow the Board and management to return their focus to creating the most value for our stockholders.

IF YOU ARE NOT CONVINCED THAT A SPECIAL MEETING IS THE APPROPRIATE PATH OR YOU BELIEVE A SPECIAL MEETING IS UNNECESSARY AND WISH TO OPPOSE THE CALLING OF A SPECIAL MEETING, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND DELIVER THE ENCLOSED BLUE REVOCATION CARD USING THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED AS PROMPTLY AS POSSIBLE, WHETHER OR NOT YOU HAVE SIGNED THE WHITE WRITTEN REQUEST CARD FROM PERSHING SQUARE.

THE SPECIAL MEETING REQUEST PROCEDURE

Voting Securities

As of June 30, 2014, there were 296,910,449 shares of the Company's Common Stock outstanding. The Company has only one class of common stock.

Persons beneficially owning shares of the Company's Common Stock (but not holders of record), such as persons whose ownership of Common Stock is through a broker, bank, financial institution or other nominee holder, who wish to revoke a previously instructed Written Request must contact such broker, bank, financial institution or other nominee holder and instruct such person to execute a revocation using the BLUE Revocation Card on their behalf. Any failure to submit a Written Request will have the same effect as submitting a BLUE Revocation Card.

Additionally, even if you have not already submitted a Written Request, you may elect to execute and submit the BLUE Revocation Card to communicate that you do not believe a special meeting is necessary or to express your opposition to a special meeting.

Effectiveness of Written Requests

Under our Charter and Bylaws, the Corporate Secretary of the Company shall call a special meeting of stockholders upon the written request of the holders of record that have a combined net long beneficial ownership of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, subject to and in compliance with our Charter and Bylaws. If written revocations of the Written Requests have been delivered to the Corporate Secretary and the result is that Written Requests have been delivered from stockholders of record (or their agents duly authorized in writing) that have a combined net long beneficial ownership of less than 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, then the Corporate Secretary is not obligated to call a special meeting.

Under our Charter and Bylaws, if valid, unrevoked Written Requests signed by the holders of record that have a combined net long beneficial ownership of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are delivered to the Corporate Secretary of the Company in the form and manner required by, and in compliance with, our Charter and Bylaws within 60 days after the date of the earliest dated Written Request, the Written Requests will become effective. If prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record that have a combined net long beneficial ownership of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. As a result, we may (and likely will) continue to solicit revocations of Written Requests up to and until the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting.

We reserve our rights to require full compliance with the provisions set forth in our Charter, Bylaws and applicable law, including the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, with respect to any special meeting sought to be called by Pershing Square or any other stockholders, including the enforcement of the procedures and requirements for calling a special meeting set forth under Article II, Section 3 of our Bylaws. These requirements include, but are not limited to, the inclusion within any Written Request of: (i) the name and address of each Proposing Person (as defined in the Bylaws); (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock that are owned beneficially and owned by such Proposing Person; (iii) a representation that each Proposing Person intends to hold the shares of Common Stock through the date of the special meeting requested by Pershing Square; (iv) an acknowledgement by such Proposing Person that any reduction in such Proposing Person's Net

Long Beneficial Ownership (as defined in the Bylaws) with respect to which a Written Request relates following the delivery of such Written Request to the Secretary of Allergan shall constitute a revocation of such Written Request to the extent of such reduction; (v) all such information regarding any material interest of the Proposing Person in the matter(s) proposed to be acted on at the special meeting, and all agreements, arrangements or understandings between or among any Proposing Person and any other record holder or beneficial owner of shares of Common Stock in connection with the special meeting, the Written Request, or the matter(s) proposed to be brought before the special meeting; and (vi) any other material relationship between such Proposing Person, on the one hand, and Allergan, any affiliate of Allergan, any officer, director or employee of Allergan or any affiliate thereof, or any principal competitor of Allergan, on the other hand. Additionally, our Bylaws require that any Proposing Person who signs and delivers a Written Request shall further update and supplement the information previously provided to Allergan in connection with the Written Request, if necessary, so that the information provided or required to be provided in such request pursuant to Section 3 of our Bylaws shall be true and correct as of the record date for notice of the special meeting and as of the date that is ten (10) business days prior to the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, and such update and supplement shall be delivered to, or mailed and received by, the Secretary of Allergan not later than five (5) business days after the record date for notice of the special meeting (in the case of the update and supplement required to be made as of such record date), and not later than eight (8) business days prior to the date for the special meeting or, if practicable, any adjournment or postponement thereof. Further, the filing or distribution of this Revocation Solicitation Statement is not intended as and should not be taken as an admission by the Company of the validity of the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation.

The Special Meeting

The date and time of any special meeting will be set by our Board in accordance with our Bylaws and Delaware law.

If Pershing Square is successful in its efforts to solicit and deliver to us valid and unrevoked Written Requests from the holders of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock in accordance with our Charter and Bylaws, in lieu of calling the stockholder-requested special meeting, our Board may present similar items (as defined in our Bylaws) to those items included in the Written Requests at a special meeting of stockholders called by the Board and that is held within 120 days after we receive the valid Written Requests from the requisite holders.

Even if Pershing Square is successful in its efforts to solicit and cause to be delivered to us valid and unrevoked Written Requests from the holders of not less than 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, previously submitted Written Requests may be revoked at any time prior to the date of the stockholder-requested special meeting. If prior to the date of such special meeting, we receive revocations of Written Requests such that there are no longer valid unrevoked Written Requests from holders of record that have a combined net long beneficial ownership of at least 25% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as provided in our Bylaws, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. As a result, we may (and likely will) continue to solicit revocations of Written Requests up to and until the date of any stockholder-requested special meeting.

If a stockholder who submits a valid Written Request sells any of our shares after submitting such Written Request or otherwise reduces such holder's net long beneficial ownership, the shares that such stockholder has sold (or that are the subject of the reduction) will reduce the shares that count toward the 25% threshold. If, as a result of such sales, the number of shares owned by holders that have submitted valid Written Requests is reduced to below the 25% threshold at any time prior to the date a stockholder-requested special meeting is held, our Board has the discretion to cancel the stockholder-requested special meeting. Accordingly, any stockholder that has made a valid Written Request must continue to own all of such stockholder's shares through the date of the stockholder-requested special meeting if such stockholder wishes to ensure that all of such stockholder's shares will be counted toward the 25% threshold.

Effect of BLUE Revocation Card

Under our Charter and Bylaws, stockholders may revoke any previously signed Written Request by signing, dating and returning to us a BLUE Revocation Card at any time prior to the date of a stockholder-requested special meeting. A Written Request may also be revoked by delivery of a written revocation of your request to Pershing Square. Stockholders are urged, however, to return all request revocations in the envelope provided to Innisfree. We request that if a revocation is instead delivered to Pershing Square, a copy of the revocation also be returned in the postage-paid envelope provided so that we will be aware of all revocations and so that the inspector of requests can accurately account for all revocations.

Unless you specify otherwise, by signing and delivering the BLUE Revocation Card, you will be deemed to have revoked any Written Request for a special meeting.

Any BLUE Revocation Card may itself be revoked by marking, signing, dating and delivering a written revocation of your BLUE Revocation Card to the Company, or to Pershing Square, or by delivering to Pershing Square a subsequently dated white Written Request card that Pershing Square sent to you.

The revocation of any previously delivered white Written Request card or BLUE Revocation Card should be signed and have a date subsequent to the previously delivered Written Request or Revocation Card. The revocation is not required to state the number of shares held unless you wish to revoke your Written Request with respect to less than all shares as to which you previously requested the special meeting, in which case you must state the number of shares to which your revocation relates. In addition, if you have more than one account with respect to which you have delivered a Written Request, the revocation should identify the relevant account for which the Written Request is being revoked.

We have retained Innisfree to assist in communicating with stockholders in connection with the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation and to assist in obtaining BLUE Revocation Cards as appropriate. If you have any questions about how to complete or submit your BLUE Revocation Card or any other questions, Innisfree will be pleased to assist you. Please contact Innisfree toll-free at (877) 800-5187 (for stockholders) or collect at (212) 750-5833 (for banks and brokers).

If any shares of Common Stock that you own are held for you in an account with a stock brokerage firm, bank nominee or other similar street name holder, you should follow the instructions on the BLUE Revocation Card to revoke a request with respect to your shares. Alternatively, you can contact the person responsible for your account and direct him or her to revoke a request by executing the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card on your behalf. You are urged to confirm in writing your instructions to the person responsible for your account and provide a copy of those instructions to the Company at the address set forth above so that the Company will be aware of your instructions and can attempt to ensure each instruction is followed.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REVOKE ANY WRITTEN REQUEST YOU MAY HAVE PREVIOUSLY GIVEN TO PERSHING SQUARE AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO THE DATE OF ANY STOCKHOLDER-CALLED SPECIAL MEETING. TO DO SO, YOU NEED ONLY SIGN, DATE AND RETURN IN THE PRE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED THE BLUE REVOCATION CARD ACCOMPANYING THIS REVOCATION SOLICITATION STATEMENT.

You should carefully review this Revocation Solicitation Statement. YOUR TIMELY RESPONSE IS IMPORTANT. You may reject the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation by promptly signing, dating and returning the enclosed BLUE Revocation Card in the pre-paid envelope provided. Please be aware that if you sign a white Written Request card, you will be deemed to have requested a special meeting in accordance with the Pershing Square/Valeant Solicitation, unless your Written Request is subsequently revoked by a valid revocation or deemed revoked by a reduction in the number of shares that you hold.

Table of Contents*Results of Solicitation

In addition, Innisfree M&A Incorporated and certain related persons will be indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of or in connection with the engagement. We will reimburse brokerage houses, banks, custodians and other nominees and fiduciaries for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in forwarding the Revocation Solicitation Statement materials to, and obtaining instructions relating to such materials from, beneficial owners of our Common Stock. David E.I. Pyott, 60, has been our Chief Executive Officer since January 1998 and in 2001 became Chairman of the Board. Mr. Pyott also served as our President from January 1998 until February 2006, and again from March 2011 until June 2013. Mr. Pyott has driven the growth of Allergan by fueling internal development through significant investment in Research & Development while also identifying and leveraging unique, synergistic external opportunities. Allergan's investment in Research & Development has increased from less than $100 million in 1998 to over $1 billion in 2013. Allergan is currently the fastest growing and second largest global ophthalmic pharmaceutical company and holds leadership positions in other specialty areas including neurosciences, medical aesthetics and medical dermatology. In addition to internally driven innovation, Allergan acquired Inamed Corp. for over $3 billion in 2006 and Groupe Laboratoires Cornéal in France in 2007 primarily for their breast implant and dermal filler technologies. In adding these products to BOTOX® Cosmetic, Allergan created a new global category: medical aesthetics, and is the world's largest medical aesthetics company.

Before joining Allergan, Mr. Pyott served as the Head of the Novartis Nutrition Division and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Switzerland-based Novartis AG, working over 17 years in several positions in strategic planning, marketing and general management in five countries around the world.

Mr. Pyott is also the lead independent director of the board of Avery Dennison Corporation, a publicly-traded company focused on pressure-sensitive technology and self-adhesive solutions, where he serves as Chairman of its Compensation and Executive Personnel Committee and as a member of its Governance and Social Responsibility Committee, and a member of the board of directors of Edwards Lifesciences Corporation, a publicly-traded company focused on products and technologies to treat advanced cardiovascular diseases, where he serves on its Audit and Public Policy Committee. Mr. Pyott is a former member of the board of Pacific LifeCorp and Pacific Mutual Holding Company, the parent companies of Pacific Life Insurance Company. Mr. Pyott is a member of the Directors' Board of The Paul Merage School of Business at the University of California, Irvine. Mr. Pyott serves on the board and Executive Committee of the Biotechnology Industry Organization. Mr. Pyott also serves as a member of the board of the Pan-American Ophthalmological Foundation, President of the International Council of Ophthalmology Foundation and as a member of the Advisory Board for the Foundation of The American Academy of Ophthalmology. Mr. Pyott also serves as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Chapman University. Mr. Pyott was recognized in the Queen's Birthday Honors List in 2006 and holds the title of Commander of the British Empire.

Mr. Pyott's in-depth knowledge of our operations and the markets and industries in which we compete, combined with his entrepreneurial leadership experience in the healthcare industry, position him well to serve as our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and provide a critical link between management and our Board, enabling our Board to provide its oversight function with the benefit of management's perspective of the business. For these reasons, and given Mr. Pyott's substantial public company governance experience from serving on the boards of several large public companies, our Board has concluded that Mr. Pyott should serve as one of our directors.
