Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously announced, Wesbanco, Inc. (WesBanco) and Farmers Capital Bank Corporation (Farmers Capital) entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated as of April 19, 2018, providing for, among other things, the merger of Farmers Capital with and into WesBanco with WesBanco surviving (the Proposed Merger). The Merger Agreement also provides that, immediately following the completion of the Proposed Merger, United Bank & Capital Trust Company, a Kentucky state-chartered commercial bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Farmers Capital (United Bank), will merge with and into Wesbanco Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of WesBanco (WesBanco Bank), with WesBanco Bank continuing as the surviving bank. Each of Farmers Capital (SEC File No. 0-14412) and WesBanco (SEC File No. 333-224939) filed a definitive proxy statement/prospectus, dated as of June 15, 2018 (the Proxy Statement/Prospectus), with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the Proposed Merger.

As previously reported by each of Farmers Capital and WesBanco on Current Reports on Form 8-K, each filed on July 12, 2018, on July 10, 2018 an alleged class action complaint was filed by a purported stockholder of Farmers Capital in the Franklin Circuit Court of the Commonwealth of Kentucky captioned Parshall v. Farmers Capital Bank Corporation (Case No. 18-CI-00699) against Farmers Capital, United Bank, the individual members of the board of directors of Farmers Capital (Defendant Directors), WesBanco and WesBanco Bank (the Complaint). The Complaint alleged generally, among other things, that each member of Farmers Capital s board of directors (the Director Defendants) breached their fiduciary duties in approving the Merger Agreement, that Farmers Capital and WesBanco aided and abetted such breaches of fiduciary duty and that the disclosure regarding the Proposed Merger contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus was materially deficient.

On July 18, 2018, solely to avoid the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation, Farmers Capital, United Bank, WesBanco, WesBanco Bank and the Director Defendants (Farmers Capital, United Bank, WesBanco, WesBanco Bank and the Director Defendants (collectively the Defendants), agreed with the plaintiff, among other things, that the Defendants would make certain additional disclosures concerning the Proposed Merger, and the plaintiff would dismiss his complaint with prejudice. Plaintiff s counsel reserves the right to seek attorneys fees and expenses. The settlement will have no impact on the timing of the special meeting of Farmers Capital shareholders scheduled for July 23, 2018 to vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. Nor will the settlement affect the merger consideration to be paid to Farmers Capital s shareholders in connection with the Proposed Merger. The additional agreed upon disclosures are set forth below.

The Defendants have vigorously denied, and continue to vigorously deny, that they have committed or aided and abetted in the commission of any violation of law or engaged in any of the wrongful acts that were alleged in the Complaint, and expressly maintain that, to the extent applicable, they diligently and scrupulously complied with their fiduciary and other legal burdens and entered into the agreement with the plaintiff solely to eliminate the uncertainties, burden and expense of litigation. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K, shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein.
