EXHIBIT 3.3(c)--SERIES F PREFERRED STOCK.

The Series F Preferred Stock shall carry the following rights and preferences:

1. Voting rights. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or by law, the holders of shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters and shall be entitled to that number of votes equal to the largest number of whole shares of Common Stock into which such holder's shares of Series F Preferred Stock could be converted, pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 hereof, at the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on such matter or, if no such record date is established, at the date such vote is taken or any written consent of shareholders is solicited. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or as expressly required by law, the holders of shares of Series F Preferred Stock and Common Stock shall vote together as a single class on all matters.

2. Conversion. Each share of Series F Preferred Stock may be converted, at the option of the holder thereof, into shares of common stock of the corporation, on the terms and conditions set forth below:

2A. Subject to the provisions for adjustment hereinafter set forth, each share of the Series F Preferred Stock shall be convertible at the option of the holder thereof, in the manner hereinafter set forth, into 5,750 shares of common stock of the corporation.

2B. The number of shares of common stock into which each share of the Series F Preferred Stock is convertible shall be appropriately adjusted from time to time:

2B(1) In case the corporation shall at any time or from time to time declare or pay any dividend on its common stock payable in its common stock or effect a subdivision of the outstanding shares of its common stock into a greater number of shares of common stock;

2B(2) In case the corporation at any time or from time to time shall combine or consolidate the outstanding shares of its common stock into a lesser number of shares of common stock.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN BUSINESS CORP - Form 8-K

2C. The record holder of any shares of Series F Preferred Stock may exercise his option to convert such shares into shares of common stock one-third on _____, 2007, one-half on _____, 2008, and the balance of such shares on _____, 2009 by surrendering for such purpose to the corporation, at its principal office or at such other office or agency maintained by the corporation for that purpose, a certificate or certificates representing the shares of Series F Preferred Stock to be converted accompanied by a written notice stating that such holder elects to convert a specified whole number of such shares in accordance with the provisions of this section and specifying the name or names in which such holder wishes the certificate or certificates for shares of common stock to be issued. In case such notice shall specify a name or names other than that of such holder, such notice shall be accompanied by payment of all transfer taxes payable upon the issuance of shares of common stock in such name or names. As promptly as practicable, and in any event within five business days after the surrender of such certificates and the receipt of such notice relating thereto and, if applicable, payment of transfer taxes, the corporation shall deliver or cause to be delivered (a) certificates representing the number of validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable shares of common stock of the corporation to which the holder of Series F Preferred Stock so converted shall be entitled and (b) if less than the full number of shares of Series F Preferred Stock evidenced by the surrendered certificate or certificates are being converted, a new certificate or certificates, of like tenor, for the number of shares evidenced by such surrendered certificate or certificates less the number of shares converted. Such conversions shall be deemed to have been made at the close of business on the date of giving of such notice and of such surrender of the certificate or certificates representing the shares of Series F Preferred Stock to be converted so that the rights of the holder thereof shall cease except for the right to receive common stock of the corporation in accordance herewith, and the converting holder shall be treated for all purposes as having become the record holder of such common stock of the corporation at such time.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Series F Preferred Stock shall be fully convertible upon a "change in control" of the corporation for purposes of Item 5.01 of Form 8-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, other than a change in control resulting from a transaction reported on Form 8-K not more than 3 months after the creation of this Series F Preferred Stock.

2D. In connection with the conversion of any shares of Series F Preferred Stock, no fractions of shares of common stock shall be issued, but the corporation shall pay a cash judgment in respect of such fractional interest in an amount equal to the market value of such fractional interest.

2E. At all times that Series F Preferred Stock is convertible as provided above, the corporation shall reserve and keep available out of its authorized common stock the full number of shares of common stock of the corporation issuable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of the Series F Preferred Stock.

2F. If any capital reorganization or reclassification of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be effected in such a way that holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive stock, securities or assets with respect to or in exchange for Common Stock, then, as a condition of such reorganization or reclassification, lawful and adequate provisions shall be made whereby each holder of a share or shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall thereupon have the right to receive, upon the basis and upon the terms and conditions specified herein and in lieu of the shares of Common Stock immediately theretofore receivable upon the conversion of such share or shares of Series F Preferred Stock, such shares of stock, securities or assets as may be issued or payable with respect to or in exchange for a number of outstanding shares of Common Stock equal to the number of shares of such Common Stock immediately theretofore receivable upon such conversion had such reorganization or reclassification not taken place, and in any such case appropriate provisions shall be made with respect to the rights and interests of such holder to the end that the provisions hereof shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as may be, in relation to any shares of stock, securities or assets thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of such conversion rights.

2G. Definition of Common Stock. As used in this paragraph 2, the term "Common Stock" shall mean and include the Corporation's authorized Common Stock, $.001 par value per share, as constituted on the date of filing of these terms of the Series F Preferred Stock and the shares of Common Stock receivable upon conversion of shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall include only shares designated as Common Stock of the Corporation on the date of filing of this instrument, or in case of any reorganization or reclassification of the outstanding shares thereof, the stock, securities or assets provided for in subparagraph 2F.

3. Liquidation. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall be entitled to be paid an amount (the "Liquidation Payment") equal to such amount per share of Series F Preferred Stock as would have been payable had each such share been converted to common stock immediately prior to such event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up,

Whenever the distribution provided for in this Section shall be payable in property other than cash, the value of such distribution shall be the fair market value of such property as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

4. Dividends. The holders of the Series F Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, out of funds legally available therefor, when and if declared by the Board of Directors, dividends equal to the amount payable upon a share of Common Stock multiplied by 5,750.

5. Protective Provisions. As long as any shares of Series F Preferred Stock shall be outstanding, (i) the holders of the Series F Preferred Stock shall have the right and option to designate and vote (and remove and replace) as a class with respect to one member of the corporation's Board of Directors, and (ii) the terms of the Series F Preferred Stock shall not be amended without the consent of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding Series F Preferred Stock, and (iii) the Common Stock shall not be subject of a reverse split or any other reorganization or reclassification which shall have the effect of reducing the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock without the consent of the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding Series F Preferred Stock.
