Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 6, 2005, Capital One Financial Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Capital One ), and Hibernia Corporation, a Louisiana corporation ( Hibernia ), announced they had signed an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 6, 2005 (the Merger Agreement ), pursuant to which Hibernia would merge (the Merger ) with and into Capital One, with Capital One continuing as the surviving corporation.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies (by the unanimous vote of all directors present), each holder of Hibernia common stock will have the right, subject to proration, to elect to receive, for each such share of Hibernia common stock, cash or Capital One common stock, in either case having a value equal to $15.35 plus 0.2261 of a share of Capital One common stock valued based on a five trading-day pricing period immediately preceding the completion of the Merger. Based on Capital One s closing NYSE stock price of $78.08 on Friday, March 4, 2005, the transaction is valued at $33.00 per Hibernia share, for a total transaction value of approximately $5.3 billion. Hibernia stock options, restricted share units and phantom shares will be converted upon the completion of the Merger into options, restricted share units and phantom shares on shares of Capital One common stock, if not exercised before that time. Each outstanding Hibernia restricted share will be converted upon the completion of the Merger into the right to receive the per share merger consideration (with the same terms as the Hibernia restricted shares, including transfer restrictions) elected by the holder of the Hibernia restricted share, subject to proration.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Capital One and Hibernia, including, among others, covenants (i) to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger and (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period. In addition, Hibernia has agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to cause a stockholder meeting to be held by Hibernia to consider approval of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and that the Hibernia Board of Directors will recommend approval and adoption by its stockholders of the Merger Agreement. Hibernia also has agreed not to (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions or an agreement concerning or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

The representations and warranties of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of the other party to the Merger Agreement and such representations and warranties should not be relied on by any other person. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) have been qualified by disclosures made to the other party in connection with the Merger Agreement, (ii) will not survive consummation of the Merger and cannot be the basis for any claims under the Merger Agreement by the other party after termination of the Merger Agreement except if willfully false as of the date of the Merger Agreement, (iii) are subject to the materiality standard contained in Section 9.2 of the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and (iv) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of the holders of Hibernia common stock, (ii) receipt of regulatory approvals, and (iii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing. In addition, each party s obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) material compliance of the other party with its covenants and (iii) the delivery of customary opinions from counsel to Capital One and counsel to Hibernia that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

Under the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger, Hibernia's Chairman, E.R. Campbell, will join Capital One's Board of Directors.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Capital One and Hibernia and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Hibernia may be required to pay Capital One a termination fee of $220,000,000.
