Item 5.05 Amendment to Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics.

On November 14, 2014, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee and Board of Directors of Bank of Hawaii Corporation (the "Company") adopted a formal Clawback Policy and approved amendment of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics to include the Clawback policy, which provides: "To the extent permitted by law, if the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the "Committee") determines that any bonus, incentive payment, equity award or other compensation has been awarded or received by an executive officer and that such compensation was based on any financial results or operating metrics that were satisfied as a result of such officer's knowing or intentional fraudulent or illegal conduct, then the Committee shall recover from the officer such compensation (in whole or in part) as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. In determining whether to recover such payment, the Committee shall take into account such considerations as it deems appropriate, including whether the assertion of a claim may violate applicable law or prejudice the interests of the Bank in any related proceeding or investigation. The Committee shall have sole discretion in determining whether an officer's conduct has or has not met any particular standard of conduct under law or Bank policy. Further, following a restatement of the Bank's financial statements, on the recommendation of the Audit and Risk Committee, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee shall cause the Bank to recover any compensation that is required to be recovered by Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002."
