Lucent Technologies Inc. issued the following news release on April 2, 2006:

LUCENT & ALCATEL MERGE
Create Global Leader in Communications Solutions

Earlier today, April 2, 2006, Lucent and Alcatel announced that they have entered into a definitive merger agreement to create the first truly global communications solutions provider.

- o THIS MERGER IS A STRATEGIC FIT BETWEEN TWO EXPERIENCED AND WELL-RESPECTED GLOBAL COMMUNICATIONS LEADERS.
- o THE TRANSACTION IS A MERGER OF EQUALS. PAT RUSSO, CURRENT CEO OF LUCENT, WILL BE THE CEO OF THE COMBINED COMPANY, AND SERGE TCHURUK, CURRENT CEO OF ALCATEL, WILL SERVE AS NON-EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN. BOTH COMPANIES WILL BE EQUALLY REPRESENTED ON THE BOARD.
>> North American operations will be based in New Jersey where Bell Labs will remain headquartered.

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFA14A

- THE COMMUNICATIONS LANDSCAPE IS CHANGING RAPIDLY AND THIS COMBINATION IS THE BEST COURSE FOR BOTH COMPANIES.
  - >> Consolidation among global players and increased competition from new companies, including a range of non-U.S. competitors, continues to alter the competitive landscape of the communications industry.
  - >> Customers world-wide are pressing for enhanced products and more efficient service, which this merger will facilitate.
  - >> The merger is the best way to provide long-term security for the maximum number of Lucent and Alcatel employees.
- THE NEW COMPANY WILL BE STRONG, COMPETITIVE, AND STABLE.
  - >> In the absence of industry consolidation, significant additional U.S. job loss could occur as well as erosion of the U.S. technology base.
  - >> While the merger will impact about 10 percent of the global work force, this combination should create a growing global and more stable workplace going forward.
  - >> The merger will also preserve Bell Labs as a leader in research and innovation.
- THE NEW COMPANY WILL CONTINUE TO ASSURE PROTECTION OF ITS WORK FOR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.
  - >> Lucent and Alcatel both do work for the U.S. Government, including some sensitive work, principally through Bell Labs.
  - >> The combined company intends to form a separate, independent U.S. subsidiary holding certain contracts with U.S. government agencies. The subsidiary would be separately managed by a board, to be composed of three independent U.S. citizens acceptable to the U.S. government.
  - >> This type of structure is routinely used to protect certain sensitive government programs in the course of mergers involving non-U.S. parties.

SAFE HARBOR FOR FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS AND OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

This communication contains statements regarding the proposed transaction between Lucent and Alcatel, the expected timetable for completing the transaction, future financial and operating results, benefits and synergies of the proposed transaction and other statements about Lucent and Alcatel's managements' future expectations, beliefs, goals, plans or prospects that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about Lucent and Alcatel and the combined company, as well as Lucent's and Alcatel's and the combined company's future performance and the industries in which Lucent and Alcatel operate and the combined company will operate, in addition to managements' assumptions. These statements constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "targets," "goals," "projects," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements which are not statements of historical facts. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to assess. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties are based upon a number of important factors including, among others: the ability to consummate the proposed transaction; difficulties and delays in obtaining regulatory approvals for the proposed transaction; difficulties and delays in achieving synergies and cost savings; potential difficulties in meeting conditions set forth in the definitive merger agreement entered into by Lucent and Alcatel; fluctuations in the telecommunications market; the pricing, cost and other risks inherent in long-term sales agreements; exposure to the credit risk of customers; reliance on a limited number of contract manufacturers to supply products we sell; the social, political and economic risks of our respective global operations; the costs and risks associated with pension and postretirement benefit obligations; the complexity of products sold; changes to existing regulations or technical standards; existing and future litigation; difficulties and costs in protecting intellectual property rights and exposure to infringement claims by others; and compliance with environmental, health and safety laws. For a more complete list and description of such risks and uncertainties, refer to Lucent's Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2005 and Alcatel's Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 as well as other filings by Lucent and Alcatel with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Except as required under the US federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the US Securities and Exchange Commission, Lucent and Alcatel disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statements after the distribution of this communication, whether as a result of new information, future events, developments, changes in assumptions or otherwise.

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WILL BE FILED WITH THE SEC

In connection with the proposed transaction, Alcatel and Lucent intend to file relevant materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including the filing by Alcatel with the SEC of a Registration Statement on Form F-6 and a Registration Statement on Form F-4 (collectively, the "Registration Statements"), which will include a preliminary prospectus and related materials to register the Alcatel American Depositary Shares ("ADS"), as well as the Alcatel ordinary shares underlying such Alcatel ADSs, to be issued in exchange for Lucent common shares, and Lucent and Alcatel plan to file with the SEC and mail to their respective stockholders a Proxy Statement/Prospectus relating to the proposed transaction. The Registration Statements and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus will contain important information about Lucent, Alcatel, the transaction and related matters. Investors and security holders are urged to read the Registration Statements and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus carefully when they are available. Investors and security holders will be able to obtain free copies of the Registration Statements and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and other documents filed with the SEC by Lucent and Alcatel through the web site maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov.
