Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Merger Agreement

On February 2, 2015, SS&C Technologies Holdings, Inc. (“SS&C”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) among SS&C, Arbor Acquisition Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of SS&C (“Merger Subsidiary”) and Advent Software, Inc. (“Advent”). Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, which has been approved by the boards of directors of SS&C and Merger Subsidiary, Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into Advent (the “Merger”), whereupon the separate existence of Merger Subsidiary will cease and Advent will be the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of SS&C.

Upon the consummation of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each outstanding share of the common stock of Advent (the “Advent Stock”), other than certain excluded shares, will be converted into the right to receive $44.25 in cash, without interest (the “Merger Consideration”). At the Effective Time, (i) the vested portion of each equity award (including any portion that becomes vested in accordance with its terms) relating to shares of Advent Stock that is outstanding as of the Effective Time will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration with respect to each share of Advent Stock subject to such award (in the case of stock options and stock appreciation rights, less the applicable exercise price per share of Advent Stock) and (ii) the unvested portion of each such equity award that is outstanding as of the Effective Time will be converted into a comparable award with respect to shares of common stock of SS&C based on the exchange ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement and will otherwise continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to such award, subject to certain exceptions for performance-based restricted stock units which will convert to time-based restricted stock units.

Each party’s obligation to complete the Merger is subject to various customary conditions, including (i) approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Advent Stock, (ii) there being no applicable law, order, judgment or other legal restraint prohibiting or otherwise making illegal the consummation of the Merger, (iii) the expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, (iv) performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the Merger Agreement and (v) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, subject to specified materiality standards. SS&C and Merger Subsidiary’s obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to additional customary conditions, including Advent not having experienced, since entry into the Merger Agreement, a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement). Closing is not subject to any vote of SS&C’s stockholders or conditioned on the availability, obtaining or receipt of financing for the transaction.

Advent and SS&C have each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Advent has agreed, among other things, (a) subject to certain exceptions, to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices between the date of the Merger Agreement and the effective time of the Merger and not to take certain specified actions during such period and (b) not to solicit competing acquisition proposals or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, any alternative acquisition proposal. However, prior to Advent’s stockholders adopting the Merger Agreement, Advent may, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, furnish information to, and engage in discussions and negotiations with, a third party that makes an unsolicited acquisition proposal. Under certain circumstances and upon compliance with certain notice and other specified conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including providing SS&C with a three-business day notice period (or shorter period for subsequent notices) to match or improve upon any superior proposal, Advent may terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal.

Edgar Filing: SS&C Technologies Holdings Inc - Form 8-K

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Advent and SS&C and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including if Advent terminates the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal, Advent may be required to pay SS&C a termination fee equal to $80 million as a condition to its ability to exercise its right to terminate the Merger Agreement and accept the superior proposal. If either party terminates the Merger Agreement in certain limited circumstances

Advent will reimburse SS&C for its out of pocket fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transaction, up to $12.5 million (which amount of reimbursed expenses will be netted from any subsequent payment of the $80 million termination fee, if applicable).

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

A copy of the Merger Agreement has been included as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about SS&C, Advent or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures; may not have been intended to be statements of fact, but rather, as a method of allocating contractual risk and governing the contractual rights and relationships between the parties to the Merger Agreement; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of SS&C, Advent or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in SS&C's or Advent's public disclosures.

Voting Agreement

On February 2, 2015, concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, SS&C entered into a voting agreement (the "Voting Agreement") with Stephanie DiMarco and certain of her trusts (collectively, the "Stockholders") which, together, hold approximately 2,867,887 shares of Advent common stock. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, each Stockholder agreed, among other things, to vote all of its shares in favor of the Merger, and against any actions that would impede the consummation of the merger. However, the Stockholders are not required to vote for any amendment of the Merger Agreement that decreases the amount or changes the form of the Merger Consideration, imposes any material restrictions or conditions on the consummation of the Merger or extends the "end date" as defined under the Merger Agreement. The Stockholders further agreed, subject to certain exceptions, not to transfer their shares of Advent Stock during the term of the Voting Agreement. The Voting Agreement will terminate upon the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

The foregoing description of the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Voting Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Financing

SS&C intends to finance (i) the payment of the Merger Consideration and associated fees and expenses and (ii) the refinancing of the loans outstanding under SS&C's and Advent existing credit agreements and (iii) the payment of fees and expenses with respect to the Merger and the financing with cash on hand and:

- the issuance of shares of SS&C’s equity yielding gross proceeds of up to $400 million in a public offering or private placement (“Equity Securities” ) and/or, to the extent that the issuance of such Equity Securities yields less than $400 million in aggregate gross proceeds, a senior secured bridge loan facility up to an aggregate principal amount of $400 million (less the cash proceeds received from the equity issuance and available for use (if any)) (the “Equity Bridge Facility” and, together with the Senior Secured Credit Facilities and the Debt Bridge Facility, the “Debt Facilities”)).
