ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On November 10, 2006, we entered into a Memorandum of Understanding with the Tactical Vehicle Systems Division of Armor Holdings, Inc. s Aerospace and Defense Group, formerly known as Stewart & Stevenson Tactical Vehicle Systems LP, whereby we agreed to negotiate a subcontract agreement for automotive integration and final assembly of two hundred variants of the Cougar vehicle.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Memorandum of Understanding is qualified in its entirety by, and made subject to, the more complete information set forth in the Memorandum of Understanding filed as exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K.

This report may contain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. We generally use words such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. You should not place unduly reliance on these forward-looking statements. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements for many reasons, including the risks described in our Form 10-K and other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Although we believe the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, they relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made, and our future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements may not meet these expectations. We do not intend to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in our expectations, except as required by law.
