ABOUT THE 2007 ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING AT THE MEETING

Why am I being furnished this Proxy Statement?

This Proxy Statement is furnished by the Company's Board of Directors in connection with its solicitation of proxies for use at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held February 16, 2007, and at any adjournments thereof. The Company's 2006 Annual Report to Stockholders, including financial statements, accompanies this Notice and Proxy Statement but is not incorporated as part of the Proxy Statement and is not to be regarded as part of the proxy solicitation material.

What are the items of business for the meeting?

The items of business for the meeting are as follows:

To elect three members to the Board of Directors for three-year terms.

To transact any other business properly coming before the meeting.

Who is soliciting my proxy?

The Board of Directors is soliciting your proxy in order to provide you with an opportunity to vote on all matters scheduled to come before the meeting whether or not you attend the meeting in person.

Who is entitled to vote?

You may vote if you owned shares of the Company's common stock as of the close of business on December 20, 2006, which is the Record Date. You are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock that you own. As of December 20, 2006, we had 192,234,084 shares of common stock outstanding.

How do I vote before the meeting?

Edgar Filing: AMERISOURCEBERGEN CORP - Form DEF 14A

If you hold your shares in your own name as the stockholder of record, you have three options for voting and submitting your proxy before the meeting:

Over the Internet We encourage you to vote and submit your proxy over the Internet. You may vote at the Internet address shown on your proxy card.

By telephone You may vote and submit your proxy by calling the number shown on your proxy card.

By mail You may vote by completing, signing and returning the enclosed proxy card.

If you hold your shares through an account with a bank or broker, your ability to vote over the Internet or by telephone depends on the voting procedures of the bank or broker. Please follow the directions provided to you by your bank or broker.

What shares can I vote?

You may vote all shares owned by you as of the close of business on December 20, 2006, the Record Date. These shares include:

Shares held directly in your name as the stockholder of record.

Shares of which you are the beneficial owner but not the stockholder of record. These are shares that are held for you through a broker, trustee or other nominee such as a bank, including shares purchased through any 401(k) plan as well as the AmerisourceBergen 2002 Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

Table of Contents

May I vote at the meeting?

You may vote your shares at the meeting if you attend in person. If you hold your shares through an account with a bank or broker, you must obtain a legal proxy from the bank or broker in order to vote at the meeting.

Even if you plan to attend the meeting, we encourage you to vote your shares by proxy. You may vote by proxy over the Internet, by telephone or by mail.

How do I revoke my proxy?

If you are the stockholder of record, you may revoke your proxy at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may revoke your proxy by:

Changing your vote in the manner described below.

Notifying John G. Chou, Secretary, AmerisourceBergen Corporation, 1300 Morris Drive, Chesterbrook, Pennsylvania 19087 in writing that you are revoking your proxy before it is voted at the meeting.

Can I change my mind after I vote?

You may change your vote at any time before the polls close at the meeting. You may change your vote by:

Signing another proxy card with a later date and returning it to us prior to the meeting.

Voting again over the Internet or by telephone prior to 2:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on February 16, 2007.

Voting at the meeting if you are the stockholder of record.

Voting at the meeting if you are the beneficial owner and have obtained a legal proxy from your bank or broker.

What if I return my proxy card but do not provide voting instructions?

Proxy cards that are signed and returned but do not contain instructions will be voted as follows:

For the election of the nominees for director named on page 4 of this Proxy Statement.

For the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2007.

In accordance with the best judgment of the individuals named as proxies on the proxy card on any other matters properly brought before the meeting.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card or instruction form?

It means that you have multiple accounts with our transfer agent and/or banks or brokers. Please vote all of your shares.

We recommend that you consolidate as many accounts as possible under the same name and address. For assistance you may contact our transfer agent, The Bank of New York, at 1-800-524-4458.

Will my shares be voted if I do not provide my proxy?

If you are a registered stockholder and do not provide a proxy, you must attend the meeting in order to vote your shares.

Table of Contents

If you hold shares through an account with a bank or broker, your shares may be voted even if you do not provide voting instructions on your instruction form. Banks and brokers have the authority under the New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, rules to vote shares for which their customers do not provide voting instructions on certain routine matters. The election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm are considered routine matters for which banks and brokers may vote without specific instructions from their customers.

May stockholders ask questions at the meeting?

Yes. Representatives of the Company will answer stockholders' questions of general interest at the end of the meeting.

How many votes must be present to hold the meeting?

In order for us to conduct our meeting, a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock as of December 20, 2006 must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting. This is referred to as a quorum. Your shares are counted as present at the meeting if you attend the meeting and vote in person or if you properly return a proxy over the Internet, by telephone or by mail. Shares voted by banks or brokers on behalf of beneficial owners also are counted as present at the meeting. In addition, abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of establishing a quorum with respect to any matter properly brought before the meeting. Broker non-votes occur on a matter when a bank or broker is not permitted under applicable rules and regulations to vote on a matter without instruction from the beneficial owner of the underlying shares and no instruction has been given.

How many votes are needed for each proposal and how are the votes counted?

The three nominees for director receiving the highest number of For votes will be elected as directors. This number is called a plurality. Because directors are elected by a plurality, abstentions are not taken into account in determining the outcome of the election of directors.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy at the meeting will be required for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the current fiscal year. On this proposal, abstentions will be counted as negative votes in the tabulation of the votes cast by stockholders. Broker non-votes will not be counted in the tabulation of the votes cast on the proposal but will be counted for purposes of establishing a quorum.

Any other proposal that might properly come before the meeting will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or by proxy at the meeting in order to be approved. On any such proposal, abstentions will be counted as negative votes in the tabulation of the votes cast by stockholders. Broker non-votes will not be counted in the tabulation of the votes cast on the proposal but will be counted for purposes of establishing a quorum.

How will proxies be voted on other items or matters that properly come before the meeting?

If any other items or matters properly come before the meeting, the proxies received will be voted on those items or matters in accordance with the discretion of the proxy holders.

Is the Company aware of any other item of business that will be presented at the meeting?

The Company is not aware of any other business to be presented at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. However, if any other matter should properly come before the Annual Meeting, the enclosed proxy confers discretionary authority with respect to such matter.

Table of Contents

Will there be any further solicitation of proxies for the meeting?

Our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone or in person. In addition, we have hired Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist us in soliciting proxies, if necessary. Morrow may solicit proxies by telephone or in person. We will pay Morrow a fee of $7,000, plus expenses, for providing such services. All costs and expenses of any solicitation, including the cost of preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement, will be borne by the Company.

Will the Company reimburse any expenses of banks, brokers, nominees and fiduciaries?

We will reimburse the expenses of banks, brokers, nominees and fiduciaries that send proxies and proxy materials to our stockholders.

Will the directors be in attendance at the meeting?

We currently expect all of our directors to be in attendance at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. It has been customary for our directors to attend our annual meetings of stockholders. All of the directors attended the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

How often are directors elected?

The Company's directors are divided into three classes—Class I, Class II and Class III—with each class being as nearly equal in number as possible. The directors of each class serve for terms of three years. The terms of office of the classes are staggered so that only one class of directors is elected at each annual meeting of stockholders.

The nominees are to be elected for a three-year term and are expected to hold office until the 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their successors are elected.

Table of Contents

Each nominee for director has consented to his nomination and, so far as the Board of Directors and management are aware, intends to serve a full term as a director if elected. How are directors compensated?

During fiscal year 2006, the Chairman of the Board and each director who was not an employee of the Company received an annual retainer of $50,000. In addition to the annual retainer, the Chairman of the Board receives $7,500 for attendance in person at each Board meeting and each other director receives $3,000 for attendance in person at each Board meeting. The Audit Committee chairman receives $5,000 for attendance in person at each Committee meeting and each other Committee chairman receives $3,000 for attendance in person at each Committee meeting. Other Committee members receive $1,500 for attendance in person at each Committee meeting. Each director receives 50% of the in-person meeting fee for telephonic Board and Committee meetings.

During fiscal year 2006, each non-employee director received an annual grant of non-qualified stock options exercisable for 9,515 shares of Company common stock, except Mr. Long who received an initial pro-rata grant of non-qualified stock options exercisable for 7,046 shares upon his election to the Board in May 2006. These options were granted to each non-employee director pursuant to the provisions of the AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan that provides for an annual grant to non-employee directors of options having a fair value of $100,000 or an initial grant for a pro-rata portion of the $100,000 fair value upon election to the Board. The fair value of the 2006 annual option grants to non-employee directors was determined on the basis of the binomial method of valuation.

A director may elect to have the annual retainer and meeting fees paid in cash, restricted Company common stock or options exercisable for Company common stock, or credited to a deferred compensation account. The AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Restricted Stock Plan and the AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan each contain provisions allowing directors to forego 50% or more of their annual retainer in exchange for an enhanced amount of restricted stock or options.

A director may elect to defer all or any part of the annual retainer and meeting fees received and have the deferred amount credited to an account under the AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan"). A director may elect to receive a deferred benefit (i) over annual periods ranging from three to fifteen years and payable in quarterly installments or (ii) in a single distribution. The Company pays all costs and expenses incurred in the administration of the Deferred Compensation Plan.

AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan. In most cases, the restrictions on the stock lapse three years from the grant date. AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan. The AmerisourceBergen Corporation 2001 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan (the "Directors' Stock Option Plan") provides for an annual grant of options to each non-employee director of non-qualified options having a fair value of $100,000. The annual option grant is made after each annual meeting of stockholders. The Board may also provide for one or more grants of non-qualified options to any non-employee director appointed to the Board at a time other than on the date of the annual meeting of stockholders to reflect the pro-rata portion of the $100,000 fair value. In addition, a director may elect to forego 50% or more of the annual retainer received and, in lieu thereof, receive a grant of non-qualified stock options under the Directors' Stock Option Plan having a fair value equal to 150% of the amount of foregone compensation, provided the director has not elected to have the foregone amount credited in the form of restricted stock under the Directors' Restricted Stock Plan. The exercise price of all options granted is the fair market value of a share of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. The options granted vest over three years beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date, with one-third of the options granted vesting each year. Vested options may be exercised at any time prior to the tenth anniversary of the grant date unless a director ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors, in which case the options generally will expire either one year after the director ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors (or three years thereafter if the director terminates voluntarily as a member of the Board of Directors). Unless a director ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors for cause (as defined in the Directors' Stock Option Plan), all unvested options become fully vested on the date of such cessation.

COMPENSATION MATTERS

Report of the Compensation and Succession Planning Committee on Executive Compensation

The Compensation and Succession Planning Committee consists of the four directors named below. All of the members of the Committee are independent (as independence is defined in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual).

The Committee reviews and approves all compensation for the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers of the Company. The Committee periodically compares the Company's executive compensation levels with those of companies with which the Company believes that it competes in recruitment and retention of senior executives. The Committee also reviews and makes recommendations with respect to succession planning and management development.

Objectives of the Company's Compensation Program for Executive Officers

The objectives of the Company's executive compensation program are:

to align individual objectives and performance with the Company's business objectives and performance, to enable the Company to attract, retain and reward executive officers who contribute to the long-term success of the Company, and to motivate those executives to advance the interests of stockholders.

Compensation Policies for the Company's Executive Officers

The Company's compensation program for executive officers consists of three primary components: base salary, annual incentives (e.g., annual bonus) and long-term incentives (e.g., stock options and restricted stock).

In furtherance of the objectives of the Company's compensation program, the Committee believes that the executive officers of the Company should have a greater portion of their compensation at risk than other employees. The Company's compensation program for executive officers is designed to deliver base salary below the median of the companies with which the Company competes for senior executives. Base salary plus annual incentive compensation is intended to provide compensation to the Company's executive officers in the range of the median for those fiscal years when the Company meets its financial objectives.

Edgar Filing: AMERISOURCEBERGEN CORP - Form DEF 14A

Base Salary. The Committee reviews the base salaries of the executive officers of the Company annually and makes adjustments based on: past performance; changes in job duties, scope and responsibilities; competitive pay data; and expected future contributions of each executive. The Committee reviewed and determined the base salaries paid to the Company's executive officers for fiscal year 2006 based on consideration of these factors.

Annual Incentives. All executive officers participate in the Company's Annual Incentive Plan, an annual cash bonus program. The program is designed to motivate and reward the executive officers of the Company by aligning pay primarily with the achievement of measurable Company or business group financial performance criteria. The annual incentives for the Company's executive officers are tied predominantly to Company or business group financial performance criteria along with the achievement of non-financial, individual criteria to a limited extent. Applicable criteria are established for each executive officer at the beginning of each fiscal year. The target incentive levels for the executive officers under the Annual Incentive Plan for fiscal year 2006 ranged from 100% to 120% of base salary rate, plus the potential for an additional bonus of up to 50% of the target incentive level (stretch bonus) should the Company exceed its earnings per share (EPS) target or, to the extent applicable for the particular executive officer, its earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) target.

At the end of fiscal year 2006, the performance of each executive officer was evaluated against the financial criteria and any non-financial, individual criteria established for that executive officer for fiscal year 2006. The financial performance criteria for the executive officers in fiscal year 2006 included combinations of the following: EPS and return on committed capital (ROCC) at the Company level and, to the extent applicable for the particular executive officer, EBIT and ROCC at the business group level. The percentage of target incentive level paid to the executive officers for fiscal year 2006 ranged from 90% to 121.6% of their respective target incentive levels (90% to 146% of their respective base salaries) for fiscal year 2006, including stretch bonuses for certain executives ranging from 11% to 21.6% of their respective target incentive levels (11% to 26% of base salaries). The annual incentive payments to all of the Named Executive Officers (as defined below), who comprised all of the Company's executive officers in fiscal year 2006, were based exclusively upon the degree to which they achieved their respective performance criteria for fiscal year 2006, with the exception of Mr. Haas, who was credited as well for the significant efforts and contributions that he made to the performance of the Company and AmerisourceBergen Drug Corporation, including superior working capital performance by the Company and AmerisourceBergen Drug Corporation.

Long-Term Incentives. The Committee is responsible for overseeing the administration of the 2002 Management Stock Incentive Plan, as amended (the 2002 Plan), and for making grants under the 2002 Plan. Stock options granted under the 2002 Plan are required to have an exercise price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the Company's stock on the date of grant. Generally, stock options vest 25% per year beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date and may be exercised over a term of ten years from the date of grant. Generally, restricted stock vests 100% on the third anniversary from the grant date. The number of options and restricted stock granted to each executive officer of the Company is reviewed and approved by the Committee and is based on such officer's position within the Company, job performance, future potential, awards made to executives at comparable companies and other pertinent factors.

Historically, the annual equity grants to executives and other key employees of the Company under the 2002 Plan consisted exclusively of options to purchase the Company's common stock. The Company shifted to a mix of stock options and restricted stock for the fiscal year 2006 annual equity grants, with 75% of the value of the equity grants to each executive or key employee being in the form of options to purchase the Company's common stock and 25% being in the form of restricted shares of the Company's common stock. This shift in annual grant practice was made as a result of analysis undertaken for the Committee by a third party executive compensation consulting firm. This shift was considered necessary and appropriate to align the Company's practices with those of the companies with whom the Company competes for executive talent.

Options to purchase a total of 401,250 shares of the Company's common stock and awards totaling 44,583 restricted shares of the Company's common stock were granted pursuant to the 2002 Plan to the Named Executive Officers in fiscal year 2006. The stock options and restricted stock granted to the Named Executive Officers represented approximately 17% and 16%, respectively, of the stock options and restricted stock granted to the Company's management and other employees as a whole in fiscal year 2006. No other types of awards were granted to the Named Executive Officers in fiscal year 2006.

Chief Executive Officer's Compensation for Fiscal Year 2006

Each year Mr. Yost and the Committee agree upon performance objectives. At the end of each year the Committee reviews Mr. Yost's performance against those objectives.

The Committee determined at the beginning of fiscal year 2006 that Mr. Yost would be eligible to receive annual incentive payments at a target level of 120% of his annual base salary rate if the Company met or exceeded specified targets of financial performance for fiscal year 2006 (EPS and ROCC) and if Mr. Yost met or exceeded a number of non-financial criteria. The financial criteria were weighted such that Mr. Yost's ability to attain the 120% of annual base salary target level was 50% dependent on EPS and 33.33% on ROCC. Mr. Yost's ability to attain the annual incentive target level was 16.67% dependent on the non-financial criteria. In addition, Mr. Yost had the potential for an additional stretch bonus of up to 50% of the target incentive level (60% of base salary) if the Company's EPS target was exceeded. At the end of fiscal year 2006, the Committee evaluated the financial performance of the Company and determined that the Company had met or exceeded all targets on which Mr. Yost's annual incentive payments were dependent and that Mr. Yost was entitled to a stretch bonus of 21.6% of his target incentive level for fiscal year 2006 based on superior EPS performance. The Committee also evaluated Mr. Yost's performance and determined that he had met or exceeded the non-financial criteria. Accordingly, the Committee determined that Mr. Yost was entitled to receive 121.6% of his target incentive level for fiscal year 2006. As a result, Mr. Yost received an annual incentive payment in the amount of 146% of his annual base salary rate for fiscal year 2006.

Executive Stock Ownership Guidelines

In an effort to further align the long-term interests of management with those of the Company's stockholders and provide a continuing incentive for management to foster the Company's success, on August 10, 2006, the Committee and the Board implemented the Executive Stock Ownership Guidelines. The guidelines specify a dollar value of shares of the Company's common stock that executive officers and certain key employees must accumulate and hold by three years from the later of (i) adoption of the program or (ii) date of hire. Under the guidelines, Mr. Yost is required to own a minimum of five times his base salary and the other Named Executive Officers are required to own a minimum of three times their respective base salaries. As of September 30, 2006, Mr. Yost and the other Named Executive Officers were already in full compliance with the guidelines.

Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), imposes a $1 million limit on the deductibility of compensation paid to certain executive officers of public companies, unless the compensation meets certain requirements for performance-based compensation. The Committee has not taken action to date to structure the elements of cash compensation payable to the Company's executive officers so as to comply specifically with Section 162(m) of the Code. The compensation paid to the Company's executive officers for fiscal year 2006 that is not considered performance-based for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Code exceeded the $1 million limit per officer for Messrs. Yost, Hilzinger and DiCandilo. Accordingly, the portion of such compensation paid to each of them that exceeded $1 million was not deductible for federal tax purposes.

The Committee will continue to consider and evaluate all the Company's compensation programs in light of Section 162(m) of the Code and related regulations. However, the Company may continue to pay compensation that is not deductible in certain circumstances if sound business judgment so requires.

An executive officer may elect to receive a deferred benefit (i) over annual periods ranging from three to fifteen years and payable in quarterly installments or (ii) in a single distribution. The Company pays all costs and expenses incurred in the administration of the Deferred Compensation Plan.

(2) Bonuses for each fiscal year were determined by applying the bonus percentage earned, as determined by the Compensation and Succession Planning Committee to the base salary rate of each Named Executive Officer for the fiscal year to which the bonus relates. The amounts shown consist of bonuses earned in the fiscal year identified but paid in full in the subsequent fiscal year.

New SEC Rules for Disclosure of Executive Officer Compensation

The SEC adopted amendments to the executive officer and director compensation disclosure rules in 2006. These rules will require, among other things, new tabular and narrative disclosure about executive officer and director compensation. These rules became effective for company filings containing disclosures for fiscal years ending on or after December 15, 2006. Accordingly, we are not required to comply with these new SEC rules in this Proxy Statement and are complying with the existing applicable rules. For comparison purposes, however, we are also voluntarily including an illustrative Summary Compensation Table under the new SEC rules. The illustrative table below sets forth the compensation paid to or earned by the Named Executive Officers during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006 in the tabular format with which the Company will be required to comply starting next year.

- (3) These amounts represent the annual bonuses for fiscal year 2006 under the Company s Annual Incentive Plan, which were determined based exclusively on the degree to which the Named Executive Officer achieved the performance criteria established for such executive by the Compensation and Succession Planning Committee at the beginning of the fiscal year, with the exception of Mr. Haas, who was also credited, in the committee s discretion under the plan, for significant efforts and contributions that he made to the performance of the Company and AmerisourceBergen Drug Corporation. The amounts shown consist of bonuses earned in the fiscal year identified but paid in full in the subsequent fiscal year.
- (4) The amounts for Messrs. Yost, Hilzinger, DiCandilo and Haas include the aggregate year-to-year change in the actuarial present value of the accumulated benefit under the AmerisourceBergen Drug Corporation Participating Companies Pension Plan and the AmerisourceBergen Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. Due to the increase in the discount rate from 5.25% for 2005 to 6.35% for 2006, the changes in pension values for Messrs. Hilzinger and Haas were negative. Mr. Hilzinger s decrease was $17,518 and Mr. Haas decrease was $13,171. For purposes of the table, negative amounts are reflected as being zero. The amounts for Messrs. DiCandilo and Collis include deferred compensation earnings for fiscal year 2006 in the amounts of $1,683 and $29,178, respectively, under the Company s Deferred Compensation Plan.

Pension Plans

AmerisourceBergen Drug Corporation Participating Companies Pension Plan. The Company maintains a qualified defined benefit pension plan providing pension benefit coverage for employees of the Company who meet the plan's eligibility requirements (the Pension Plan). The Pension Plan was frozen as to new participants shortly after the merger on August 29, 2001 of AmeriSource Health Corporation and Bergen Brunswig Corporation that resulted in the formation of the Company (the Merger). Thus, employees first hired after September 14, 2001 are not eligible to participate in the Pension Plan, unless pursuant to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement with the Company that provides for such participation. Effective August 1, 2004, no collective bargaining agreements allow new participants to enter the Pension Plan. In addition, the Pension Plan has been amended so that participants will cease to earn any additional benefits under the Pension Plan for any compensation paid or services performed after June 30, 2007. Accordingly, the maximum benefits payable to Pension Plan participants will be frozen as of June 30, 2007.

Under the Pension Plan, executive officers and other participants are entitled to annual pension benefits at age 65 equal to the number of years of credited service multiplied by 1% of average annual compensation earned during the three consecutive years within the last ten years of participation in the Pension Plan which yield the highest average.

Table of Contents

All Pension Plan costs are paid by the Company and the plan and benefits are funded on an actuarial basis. Compensation earned by executive officers for purposes of the plan includes salaries and bonuses set forth in the cash compensation table under the Summary Compensation Table above, except that compensation recognized under the plan may not exceed certain limits, as required by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA), and the Code. For 2006, the compensation limit was $220,000.

AmerisourceBergen Drug Corporation Supplemental Retirement Plan. The Company also maintains a Supplemental Retirement Plan (the Supplemental Plan). Coverage under the Supplemental Plan is limited to certain participants in the Pension Plan whose benefits under the Pension Plan are limited due to (i) restrictions imposed by the Code on the amount of benefits to be paid from a tax-qualified plan, (ii) restrictions imposed by the Code on the amount of an employee's compensation that may be taken into account in calculating benefits to be paid from a tax-qualified plan, or (iii) any reductions in the amount of compensation taken into account under the Pension Plan due to an employee's participation in certain deferred compensation plans sponsored by the Company or one of its subsidiaries.

The Supplemental Plan provides for a supplement to the annual pension benefit paid under the Pension Plan to certain individuals who are pension participants and who have been employed by the Company or one of its subsidiaries for five continuous years or who suffer a total and permanent disability while employed by the Company or one of its subsidiaries, and to the pre-retirement death benefits payable under the Pension Plan on behalf of such participants who die with a vested interest in the Pension Plan. The amount of the supplement will be the difference, if any, between the pension or pre-retirement death benefit paid under the Pension Plan and that which would otherwise have been payable but for the restrictions imposed by the Code and any reduction in the participant's compensation for purposes of the Pension Plan due to his participation in certain deferred compensation plans of the Company or one of its subsidiaries.

The following table shows estimated aggregate annual retirement benefits that would be payable to participants under the Pension Plan and, if applicable, the Supplemental Plan, upon normal retirement at age 65 under various assumptions as to final average annual compensation and years of credited service and on the assumption that benefits will be paid in the form of a single life annuity. The benefit amounts listed are not subject to any deduction for Social Security benefits. As of October 1, 2006, the years of credited service under the Pension Plan for the Named Executive Officers of the Company were as follows: R. David Yost, 31.8 years; Kurt J. Hilzinger, 15.3 years; Michael D. DiCandilo, 15.8 years; and Terrance P. Haas, 17.1 years. As required by ERISA and the Code, the Pension Plan limits the maximum annual benefits payable at Social Security retirement age as a single life annuity to the lesser of $180,000 or 100% of a plan participant's average total taxable earnings during his highest three consecutive calendar years of participation, subject to certain exceptions for benefits which accrued prior to September 30, 1988.

AmerisourceBergen Corporation Executive Retirement Plan. The Company also maintains the AmerisourceBergen Corporation Executive Retirement Plan (the Executive Plan). Designed to facilitate the recruitment and retention of senior management, the Executive Plan applies to selected key management of the Company, including all of the Named Executive Officers. The Executive Plan provides eligible participants with an annual amount equal to four percent (4%) of the participant's base salary and bonus incentive to the extent that his or her compensation exceeds the annual compensation limit established by Section 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. The compensation limit is $220,000 for 2006. Annual accruals under the Executive Plan commenced effective as of January 1, 2006.

In addition to annual accruals, the Executive Plan credited certain eligible participants with an initial amount based on his or her service to the Company during the period following the August 29, 2001 merger of AmeriSource Health Corporation and Bergen Brunswick Corporation to form the Company. After the merger, the Company froze or curtailed then existing executive retirement plans and did not establish either a new executive defined benefit pension plan or a new executive defined contribution plan. The initial benefit was based on compensation and service during the period from the merger through December 31, 2005, with the resulting amount, if any, offset by the present value of any benefit provided under the legacy plans. Any initial benefit was credited as an opening balance to an eligible participant's account during 2006.

Fidelity Investments administers the Executive Plan. Fidelity will credit participant accounts with Plan benefits following the close of each calendar year. Participants will be permitted to allocate the amounts in their accounts among investment options specified by the Executive Plan administrator from time to time. Such allocation will be only for the purposes of determining gains and losses based on the performance of the underlying investments. A participant's account will be credited and debited with investment gains and losses based on their allocation, but will not actually be invested in the investment options. Accordingly, the ultimate amount received by each participant under the Executive Plan will be based on the performance of the underlying mutual funds.

AGREEMENTS WITH EMPLOYEES

AmerisourceBergen Employment Agreements

Effective October 1, 2003, the Company entered into employment agreements (each, an Employment Agreement and collectively, Employment Agreements) with Messrs. Yost, Hilzinger, DiCandilo and Haas. Mr. Yost's Employment Agreement specifies that he shall serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall report to the Board of Directors. Mr. Hilzinger's Employment Agreement specifies that he shall serve as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company and shall report to the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. DiCandilo's Employment Agreement specifies, among other things, that he shall serve as the Chief Financial Officer of the Company and shall report to the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Haas' Employment Agreement specifies that he shall serve as the Senior Vice President Operations of the Company, or in any other capacity with the Company or any subsidiary as may be determined from time to time by the Company, so long as he is compensated at a salary grade level that is substantially the same as or greater than his salary grade level as of October 1, 2003.

With the exception of the foregoing, the Employment Agreements are substantially similar in form and substance. Each Employment Agreement provides for the following, among other things:

Two-year term of employment, with an automatic two-year extension on each two-year anniversary date.

Continuation of annual base salary at the rate in effect for the executive as of October 1, 2003, subject to increase in accordance with the Company's prevailing practices from time to time.

Incentive compensation, bonuses and benefits in accordance with the Company's prevailing practices from time to time.

Table of Contents

Customary rights on the part of the Company to terminate for cause (which includes, among other things, conviction of a crime of moral turpitude).

Rights on the part of the executive to terminate for good reason (which includes notice by the Company of non-renewal of the Employment Agreement upon the end of any two-year term or a reduction in the salary grade of the executive).

Each Employment Agreement obligates the Company to continue to pay the executive base salary and bonus (based on average of annual bonuses paid in the prior three years) and to reimburse the costs incurred by the executive to continue health coverage, in each case for two years after termination if the executive is terminated without cause or the executive terminates for good reason. Good reason is defined to include, among other things, reduction in base salary and notice of non-renewal by the Company at the end of the initial two-year term or any renewal term.

Each Employment Agreement indicates that payments to be made to the executive are intended not to constitute excess parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and provides for reduction of the amount of the payments, if necessary, to ensure that they do not constitute excess parachute payments.

Each Employment Agreement obligates the executive to refrain for a period of two years after any termination of the executive's employment from competing, directly or indirectly, with any business in which the Company or its subsidiaries engages and from soliciting any other employees of the Company or its subsidiaries.

Employment Agreement with Steven H. Collis

In September 2000, Bergen Brunswig Corporation (Bergen) entered into a written employment agreement (the Bergen Employment Agreement) with Mr. Collis. The form of this agreement was substantially the same as the forms of such agreements that were entered into with other Bergen executive officers. The Bergen Employment Agreement provided for an initial term of three years but provided for automatic extension on a monthly basis so that the outstanding term was always three years, subject to the option of either party to terminate the automatic extension provision at any time. The automatic extension provision of the Bergen Employment Agreement was terminated on August 29, 2001, the effective date of the Merger, resulting in an agreement with term ending on August 29, 2004. The Bergen Employment Agreement was terminable prior to August 29, 2004 in the following circumstances:

by Mr. Collis with or without good reason upon written notice of termination delivered to the Company, by mutual agreement between Mr. Collis and the Company and by the Company for cause.

In the event of termination of the Bergen Employment Agreement by the Company for any reason other than cause, or by Mr. Collis for good reason, Mr. Collis was entitled to termination damages equal to three years of salary and bonuses and the value of three years of benefits. The damages were subject to mitigation if Mr. Collis were to obtain other employment during the three years after termination. The Merger constituted good reason for Mr. Collis to terminate his Bergen Employment Agreement. Accordingly, Mr. Collis could have terminated the Bergen Employment Agreement in his discretion at any time on or before August 29, 2004 and Mr. Collis would have been entitled to receive termination damages.

By letter agreement dated July 27, 2001 (the Letter Agreement), the Company and Mr. Collis agreed to a method for calculating the termination damages payable under the Bergen Employment Agreement as follows:

Salary in effect at the time of employment termination would be deemed to continue at that rate until the immediately following September 30 and to increase thereafter on each October 1 by 4%.

Table of Contents

Bonus would be calculated as the average of the three highest bonuses paid over the preceding five years, which amount would then increase at 4% per annum during the three-year period used to calculate damages.

Value of all other benefits and perquisites would be deemed to be $25,000 per year.

The amount so determined was then to be reduced to present value using a discount rate equal to 120% of the then applicable federal rate determined under Section 1274 of the Code, compounded semiannually.

In February 2004, Mr. Collis entered into a new employment agreement with AmerisourceBergen Corporation (the New Employment Agreement) that replaced and superseded the Bergen Employment Agreement. The New Employment Agreement specifies that Mr. Collis will serve as Senior Vice President of the Company and President of AmerisourceBergen Specialty Group, or in any other capacity with the Company or any subsidiary as may be determined from time to time by the Company, so long as he is compensated at a salary grade level that is substantially the same as or greater than his salary level as of February 2004. In consideration for the benefits extended to him under the New Employment Agreement, Mr. Collis agreed to waive his rights under the Bergen Employment Agreement, including the right to terminate for good reason and receive termination damages. Under the terms of his New Employment Agreement, Mr. Collis received a one-time payment of $1,500,000 and a one-time grant of 10,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock, both in February 2004. The restricted shares of the Company's common stock were granted under the 2002 Management Stock Incentive Plan. Mr. Collis also agreed to refrain for a period of two years after any termination of his employment from being employed or engaged as a director, officer, employee, consultant or independent contractor for certain specified competitors of the Company and/or the AmerisourceBergen Specialty Group. The foregoing non-competition covenant differs from the more general non-competition covenant that appears in the standard form of the AmerisourceBergen Employment Agreement. With the exception of the foregoing, the terms of Mr. Collis's New Employment Agreement are substantially similar in form and substance to the AmerisourceBergen Employment Agreements described above and into which the other Named Executive Officers have entered.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

What is the Company's policy with regard to loans to directors or officers?

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's directors and executive officers as well as persons who beneficially own more than 10 percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file with the SEC reports of ownership and changes in beneficial ownership of the Company's common stock. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10 percent stockholders are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. We believe that during fiscal year 2006 all of our directors and executive officers complied with these requirements, except as described below.

The Company takes responsibility for filing Section 16(a) reports on behalf of the Company's Named Executive Officers, including Form 4 reports in connection with their annual equity grants. Since the inception of the Company in August 2001, annual equity grants have been approved by the Compensation and Succession Planning Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company at a meeting that occurs the day before the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Consistent with past practices, the fiscal year 2006 annual equity grants to the Company's Named Executive Officers were approved by the Compensation and Succession Planning Committee at a meeting that occurred on February 8, 2006, the day before the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Form 4 reports for these grants to the Named Executive Officers were not timely filed by the Company.

The Company also takes responsibility for filing Section 16(a) reports on behalf of the Company's non-employee directors, including Form 4 reports in connection with their annual grants of options. The Directors' Stock Option Plan provides for an annual grant of options to each non-employee director of non-qualified options having a fair value of $100,000. In accordance with the Directors' Stock Option Plan, the annual option grants are made to non-employee directors the day after the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Accordingly, the grants of non-qualified options having a fair value of $100,000 were made to each of the non-employee directors on February 10, 2006, the day after the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Form 4 reports for these grants to the non-employee directors were not timely filed by the Company.
