Emerging
growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 15, 2019, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Realty Income Corporation (the “Company”) adopted and approved the Realty Income Corporation Executive Severance Plan (the “Plan”), and designated each of the following named executive officers of the Company (the “Executives”) as participants in the Plan:

Sumit Roy, President and Chief Executive Officer

Paul M. Meurer, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer

Michael R. Pfeiffer, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

Neil M. Abraham, Executive Vice President, Chief Strategy Officer

In connection with the adoption of the Plan, the Company entered into a participation agreement with each of the Executives with respect to his participation in the Plan (each, a “Participation Agreement”). Each Participation Agreement provides that the employment agreement previously entered into between the Company and the Executive is terminated.

Under the Plan, if a participant’s employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without “cause” or by the participant due to a “constructive termination” (each as defined in the Plan), then, subject to the participant’s execution and non-revocation of a severance agreement and general release of claims, the participant will be entitled to receive: a lump-sum cash payment in an amount equal to the product of (x) the participant’s applicable cash severance multiple, multiplied by (y) the sum of (i) the participant’s then-current annual base salary, plus (ii) the average annual cash bonus earned by the participant for the previous three years (or, if the participant was not previously eligible to earn an annual cash bonus, the participant’s target annual cash bonus);

continued group health insurance coverage at the Company’s expense for the participant’s applicable healthcare continuation period following the participant’s termination date or until the participant becomes covered under another group health insurance plan, whichever occurs first; and each outstanding and unvested time-vesting restricted stock and restricted stock unit award held by the participant will vest in full as of the participant’s termination date, and each outstanding and unvested performance-vesting equity award held by the participant will be treated in accordance with the terms of the applicable plan and award agreement governing such award.

Each participant’s applicable cash severance multiple and healthcare continuation period is specified in his or her participation agreement and may vary depending on whether the participant’s termination of employment occurs in connection with a change in control of the Company (i.e., on the date of, or during the twelve month period immediately following, such change in control) (a “CIC Termination”). Pursuant to the terms of the Participation Agreements, (i) Mr. Roy's cash severance multiple is two (or three in the event of a CIC Termination) and each other Executive's cash severance multiple is one (or two in the event of a CIC Termination), and (ii) Mr. Roy's healthcare continuation period is 18 months (whether or not such termination is a CIC Termination) and each other Executive's healthcare continuation period is 12 months (or 18 months in the event of a CIC Termination).

If a participant's employment with the Company is terminated by reason of the participant's death or disability, then, each outstanding and unvested time-vesting restricted stock and restricted stock unit award held by the participant will fully vest as of the participant's termination date.

A participant's right to receive and retain the severance benefits payable under the Plan is conditioned on the participant's continued compliance with any restrictive covenants with respect to which the participant is bound and the participant's timely return of all Company property in his or her possession following his or her termination date. Each participation agreement entered into with the Executives contains certain restrictive covenants that apply to the Executive, including a confidentiality covenant that extends indefinitely.

The Company may amend or terminate the Plan at any time and for any reason, provided that no termination or amendment of the Plan (i) may, with respect to any individual who becomes a participant in the Plan concurrently with the adoption of the Plan, adversely affect the rights of such participant without his or her advance written consent, (ii) upon or following a change in control of the Company may adversely affect the rights of any other participant without the participant's advance written consent, and (iii) prior to a change in control of the Company may adversely affect the rights of any other participant without the participant's advance written consent, unless the Company provides the affected participant with at least 12 months' advance written notice.

The foregoing descriptions of the Plan and the Participation Agreements are not complete and are subject to and qualified in their entirety by the terms of the Plan and form of participation agreement, as applicable, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and Exhibit 10.2 to this Form 8-K, and which are incorporated herein by reference.
